MEMBERSHIP FORM

The Nelson County Genealogical Roundtable membership is open to anyone interested in genealogy, the history of Nelson County and surrounding areas. It was organized as a nonprofit, educational society for the purpose of preserving, evaluating and sharing local records. Annual membership fee is $20.00 and includes 2 queries. Membership begins July 1 and ends the following June 30.

You will receive four issues no matter when you join. The quarterly published and distributed to members, as a part of their membership is, "The Nelson County Genealogist". It is published in the Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter. When you join the Roundtable, we would appreciate your sharing the surnames and locations you are researching. We welcome your pedigree charts, family group sheets and any information you want to share. Materials submitted will be placed in our library files and possibly shared with others in our quarterly magazine.
