General Notes:

Property in Teller County:

"The Crystal Peak Ranch is part of 160 acre homesteaded purchased in 1883 by John Sisler. Records indicate this was a "Cash Entry" homestead, meaning that he paid cash for the land (probably $1.25 per acre).

Searches of state and federal records, as well as published family data records, lead us to believe John was married to Catherine Rhodes. Both were born in Pennsylvania. John was born c 1819. Part of the south wall of the barn appears to be a remnant of the original cabin which was probably built at this time.

The early 1900's. This more formal house may have been built in 1907 by Silas Allen (below)." [See photos]
