Genealogical Research on the Internet

There are so many good sites online for genealogy research it would be impossible to list them all. The first link below is the best site to search for them. Following that is a few of our favorite sites.

If you have never done any genealogy on the internet go to http://www.cyndislist.com/ first. Society quarterlies and genealogy magazines also list a lot of good internet sites for research.

Cyndi’s List of Genealogy Sites on the Internet. She has listed more than 270,000+ links to sites of genealogical interest - http://www.cyndislist.com/
State sites listed by catagory, similar to Cyndi’s List - http://www.genealogytoday.com/genealogy/states/
USGenWeb Project. There are links to every county in every state from here - https://www.usgenweb.org
LDS site to search for your family lines - http://www.familysearch.org/
LDS Genealogy - http://ldsgenealogy.com/index.htm

Ancestry. Search for your name and it will give you a list of databases that include the name. Ancestry Library Edition can be used at one of the Weld Library District’s libraries for free - http://www.ancestry.com/
RootsWeb Mailings lists, over 30,000 - http://lists.rootsweb.com/
