HOPEWELL MEMORIAL PARK

(East of Interstate 75 on the south side of Bee Ridge Road, Sarasota, between Santo Dr. & Tora Rd.)

A sandy path leads to five acres part of which was once Hopewell Primitive Baptist Church property. It is one of the oldest cemeteries in this section and additional property there was owned by the Wallace family. All the Wallace graves are inside a fenced-in section and the family, in 1950 gave the rest to the county for the purpose of establishing a public burial ground. Three acres for access were given by Mr. Turner of the Hi-Hat Ranch. Some of Sarasota's earliest families share the ground with paupers and indigents. Sometimes referred to as the 'Wallace Cemetery' or the 'Pauper's Cemetery', it is only recently that records of indigents have been kept. The first burial was on 2 Sep 1890.
