MIAKKA (MYAKKA) CEMETERY

(About 10 miles east of Interstate 75 on Route 780, turn south at: Verna Road on Myakka Road for one mile.)

Indians were still living in this area when the first settlers arrived. The deep pine forests were rich with game, the nearby Myakka River supplied them with fish. Pioneers felled the tall trees used in building their cabins and barns. Following the Civil War, the Homestead Act and the railroad industry opened up vast sections of the country, including this area of Florida. The first burial was on 24 January 1894.
