Death of a Venerable Mother – Newspaper Clipping

Mrs. Rhoda G. Batchellor died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. George Phelps, with whom she has made her home since the death of her husband six years ago, at 3 o'clock this morning at the age of 92 years, 1 month, and 27 days. Mrs. Batchellor was a member of the Congregational Church at South Royalston, Mass., her old home, and active in the affairs of society. She was noble and true in all things that make an admirable and loveable woman of influence in a community. Her memory will be very precious to her surviving kindred. The deceased left four children: Mrs. Phelps, at whose home she died, Mr. Silas H., and Miss Emma E. Batchellor of Worcester, and Mr. Isaac B. Batchellor of Baldwinsville, Mass. The funeral will take place at the residence of Mrs.

Philps on Main Street on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the religious services will be conducted by Rev. F.D. Austin, a former neighbor and pastor of the deceased at South Royalston. Friends invited. The interment will take place at South Royalston on Monday.
