

Resolution Marked D.
May 2nd. 1892

Resolution on the death of Rev. J. W. Cook.
Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to remove from our midst
Rev. John W. Cook on March 6th. 1892, a faithful
Local preacher. Therefore be it:

Resolved that while we feel very greatly his loss to us, yet we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, knowing that our loss is the gain of him who was for many years a faithful Local preacher, a Valiant Soldier of the Cross: that we extend to his family our heartfelt sympathy.

MR. TEDDERS DIES FROM INJURIES

FUNERAL WAS HELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON AT PROSPECT CHURCH AND BURIAL WAS IN CEMETERY NEARBY.

Mr. George Tedders, who was injured in a runaway accident in Monticello last Thursday afternoon, died a short while after receiving the fall from the buggy without regaining consciousness.

At the time of going to press last Thursday no hope was entertained for his recovery.

Mr. Tedders was seated in a buggy in front of the Persons-Phillips-Oxford Company's store when the horse became frightened and dashed around the corner into the side street fronting the home of Mr. L. O. Benton and into Washington street and on up to the public square around which he raced before Mr. Tedders was thrown from the vehicle to the hard ground, landing on his head.

The accident was witnessed by a large number of people who were powerless to aid the aged gentleman.

Mr. Tedders' funeral was held at Prospect church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock and was conducted by Rev. J. J. Winburn, after which the burial took place in the church cemetery nearby.

He is survived by two sons and two daughters and was residing with one of his daughters, Mrs. R. W. Lewis, near Maxwell, at the time of his death.

CALLS HIS WIFE UGLY NAMES ON HIS FINGERS

Wiggling his fingers to call his wife names and accuse her of many things, Alfred Simons, a mute of Los Angeles, Cal., is being sued for a divorce, according to press dispatches.

During the day Mrs. Simons could not help seeing her husband call her names, she said, but nights she could
