NETHERY CEMETERY

Compiled in 1997
by Grover and Fredda Brimberry.

Graves are marked in feet, being that many feet from the fence that runs along the north side of the cemetery.

Row # 1 is on the east side of the cemetery, row 2 is west of row 1 and so on.

For the map on the preceding page, the colors below have the following meanings:

green- a place where there is a stone but no grave.

pink- there is a foundation but no marker.

gray-an unmarked grave.

yellow- a marked grave with a stone.

"green" - refers only to the top two rectangles drawn in Row 5.

"pink" - refers to the second from the bottom rectangle in row 7, plus rectangles 2 and 4 from the top of Row 6.

"yellow" - refers to the rectangles with the tiny-squares crosshatching.

"gray" - refers to all other rectangles.

THE FOLLOWING IS ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON THIS CEMETERY

I have also found this cemetery called the Martin Cemetery and the French Graveyard.

It was probably called the Martin Cemetery after John Martin, who once owned ground here around the cemetery or much more likely the ground the cemetery is on. Many of John Martin's relatives are buried in this cemetery as well as John and his wife, Margaret.

The name the French Graveyard was used on Margaret Netherys death certificate. The name probably came from Governor Augustus French, who owned property next to the cemetery.

In 1865, John Nethery and his wife Margaret, bought the ground on which the cemetery sits and the ground to the south, east and west of the cemetery. The ground on which the cemetery sits stayed in the Nethery family for over 100 years, until about 1970. So it became known as the Nethery Cemetery.

The cemetery is now taken care of by the township.

THE FOLLOWING IS ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON THE PEOPLE BURIED IN THIS CEMETERY

His wife, Mary was the daughter of James and Cenith Swan Higgins. Mary was born Sept. 10, 1865 and died May 26, 1931. I wonder if he is really buried in this cemetery or if his death certificate is wrong about the place he was buried.
