

Funeral of Mrs. Barrows

The funeral of the late Mrs. Jas. I. Barrows occurred at the former Central Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon, Rev. W. L. Tarbutt officiating, assisted by Rev. S. M. Morton of this city. Beautiful music was furnished by a choir consisting of Mrs. Hayner, Miss Ida Scott Taylor, Mr. D. D. Smith and Judge E. P. Kirby, with Miss Helen Ayers as organist.

The sermon by Mr. Tarbutt was from Job 7-10, "I would not live alway." The speaker paid an eloquent and deserved tribute to the character of the deceased and improved the opportunity to address the living on the solemn subject of death.

At the close of the exercises the remains were reverently borne to Jacksonville cemetery by F. W. Baker, Geo. Hayden, Dr. J. C. Widenham, John W. Hall, L. W. Chambers and D. W. Rawlings.
