DVD ~ USING VITAL RECORDS

The January meeting of the Tri-County Genealogical Society will be held on TUESDAY, JANUARY 19, at the Nevada Library Meeting Room. (Please mark the changed date for this meeting on your calendar). The program will be a video on Using Vital Records in your genealogy research. If you are just getting started with your research, this program will help you understand records that might be available about your ancestors and where to find those records. The meeting and program are open to the public, and everyone with an interest in researching their family's history is encouraged to attend.

Preservation Workshop Offered by Missouri State Archives

In conjunction with the Missouri Historical Records Grant Program, the Missouri State Archives is offering a free preservation workshop Jan. 13, 2010, from 9 a.m.–4 p.m. at the Bushwhacker Museum. The workshop will be conducted by Archives' Senior Conservator, Lisa Fox. The workshop is an introduction to preservation for those with administrative, custodial, or curatorial responsibilities and will emphasize practical ways to build preservation programs in archives and historical societies. Preservation of papers, books, and photographs will be addressed. Please contact the Missouri State Archives' Administrative Aide III, Jill Hartke at 573/751-4236 or jill.hartke@sos.mo.gov to reserve a place at a workshop. Registration is limited to 25.
