

NEWSPAPER RECORD OF SOME HELENA, MONTANA PEOPLE IN THE MILITARY IN WORLD WAR II

Mostly Those Who Attended Aircraft Flight and Mechanics Schools at Helena, Montana Airport and Carroll College

Newspaper Articles from Helena Independent Record and Montana Record Herald 1942-1955

Helena Aeronautics School was picked by the Spokane Army air depot as a Site for a training unit. The two courses offered were aircraft sheet metal and aircraft engine mechanics.

The following is a list of individuals named in these newspaper articles. Newspaper dates are all from the Helena Independent Record, except where a different newspaper is listed before the issue date.

The newspaper articles contain such information as schools attended, military awards, promotions, soldiers who are home on leave, births, wedding announcements, injuries, obituaries, etc.

The page number in the listing refers to the page in the scrapbook containing copies of the news items.
