

BUTTE . . . GO A MILE HIGH TO DIG DEEP INTO A GENEALOGICAL GOLD MINE!

MINING CULTURAL HERITAGES

FEATURING:

MICHAEL JOHN NEILL

A regular columnist for the Ancestry Daily News who conducts numerous genealogy workshops & seminars throughout the US each year.

ELLEN CRAIN

Archivist of the Butte-Silver Bow Public Archives

CHRISTY LESKOVAR

Author of "One Night in a Bad Inn" – the lively true story of two families who endure and overcome scandal, war, murder, and mayhem on an eastern Montana homestead, in Butte, & on the battlefields of WW1.

CONFERENCE HEADQUARTERS: THE BUTTE WAR BONNET HOTEL

Registration for just the Conference is only $50.00
Conference Registration PLUS 3 Optional Meals is only $83.75

Sleeping Rooms, which include a full breakfast, are available at the special rate of $72.00/night plus tax at the Butte War Bonnet Hotel, 2100 Cornell Avenue.

Phone: 406-494-7800.

Be sure to state you are with the Genealogical Society when making reservations.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS TODAY TO BE IN BUTTE SEPTEMBER 19TH & 20TH, 2008

For further information, please email: smv2222@bresnan.net with subject line Butte Conference.