

Photo 179. Former Red House Presbyterian Church. 1809. Rectangular gable front frame structure, now used as a barn, which is said to have been the Red House Church which was, according to the present church cornerstone, built in 1809. Moved to present site. Handhewn framework and front double door with molded surround correspond physically to this date.