HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL OUR MEMBERS

As we do not have a January general meeting, we will be posting this newsletter out to those without email addresses, and putting copies in the family history section of Springwood Library.

EXTRAORDINARY TIMES

Unfortunately, we are seeing horrific floods and devastation in Queensland, floods in Northern WA and fires in Southern WA. It will take a long time for people affected to get back on their feet and get over the loss of life and property.

CHRISTMAS LUNCH

Thank you to Ian Kendall and Terry Flowers for providing the entertainment at the Christmas lunch held at the Imperial Hotel at Mt Victoria. The Famous Faces and Christmas Trivia Quiz was a hit and got the brains working. As usual, a lot of people knew faces and could not put names to them, including myself ☺

SURVEY

We are requesting members to fill in a survey, which will be sent out as an attachment, with the newsletter, to seek your preferences for general meetings. The committee decided to alternate workshops and speakers for the meetings during the coming year. You may have other ideas, so please feel free to give your input. Email the completed survey to me jank@eftel.com.au, post to PO Box 97, Springwood, 2777 or hand in at the February general meeting.

FEBRUARY MEETING

Get ready for the Brains Trust. Have your questions ready. Don't forget, if the panel cannot answer any question, and someone in the audience can, they are very welcome to stand up and give the answer.

LIBRARY VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers will be back in the family history section of Springwood Library in February on guaranteed days and Terry Flowers will organise the roster before the end of January. Anyone wishing to volunteer one Tuesday or Thursday a month, from 10.00 a.m. till 1.00 p.m. is welcome to contact Terry by phone 4758 9559 or email thflowers@optusnet.com.au. Don't worry if you have not volunteered in the past, Terry can put you on with an experienced volunteer, to help you gain experience.

NEW SUBSCRIPTION AND INDEXING

The society is now subscribing to Early Edition 19th Century News & Genealogy, Australia 1800 to 1899, published by Tasmanian Genealogy Services. We received the first edition and Joan Edwards has kindly indexed the publication, with an index pasted in the back. This will go on the library shelf next week.

Joan has also indexed the Blue Mountains Association of Cultural Heritage Organisations (BMACHO) Heritage newsletters 2009 - 2010 and the laminated index will go in the magazine holding box for BMACHO. If you would like to read the current January/February Heritage newsletter, you can do so on the BMACHO website in a few days <http://www.bluemountainsheritage.com.au/index.html> or I can email you a copy in .pdf. Also let me know if you would like a copy of the December 2010 Hawkesbury Crier emailed to you, also in .pdf.

IRISH WATTLE AND INSIDE HISTORY

Irish Wattle is a publishing hub for information on Irish convicts transported to New South Wales, Australia. You are invited to come and find your ancestor!

Cass Mercer and her mother Barbara Hall are passionate about their Irish research. They advise that they are in the process of developing phase two of their website and soon hope to have more information online that genealogists can access. They are delighted to have the support of Dublin City Library and Tourism Ireland as they embark on their exciting new projects.

I have only recently become aware of Irish Wattle, "Exploring Australia's Irish Ancestry", after subscribing to the new Inside History magazine. Visit their website <http://irishwattle.com/> and/or their blog and see the update on the Parramatta Female Factory <http://irishwattle.blogspot.com/>

VALE EDGAR PENZIG

Edgar Penzig, former Blue Mountains resident, former avid letter writer to the Blue Mountains Gazette, bushranging historian and author passed away peacefully in Tasmania in late November. Someone commented to me that "that was probably the only peaceful thing that Edgar ever did". He was well known for stirring people into writing letters in answer to those penned by himself.

VALE HEATHER MOLLENHAUER

Well known Blue Mountains historian, author and community worker, Heather Mollenhauer, passed away on 12 December. Heather worked as a volunteer for both Blue Mountains and Mid-Mountains Historical Societies and Blue Mountains Conservation Society and was a great bush walker. Heather took many groups on informative historical walking tours of Lawson. She will be missed by many.
