

JOSEPH C. BARONE

Joseph C. Barone, publisher of this directory of the Village of Le Roy, was born of Italian parentage in Le Roy in 1897. He attended Le Roy public schools, and reached his third year in high school in 1917, when he left school and went to Geneva to become a foreman in the plant of the Geneva Preserving Company, where he remained for four years. Returning to Le Roy in 1921, he engaged in the manufacture of cheese until 1924, when he established the advertising distributing and posting business, in which he is now engaged. He presents this directory in the hope that it will serve as a public convenience and a record of the people living in Le Roy in 1925.
