MANNING'S

COUNTRY ROAD DIRECTORY

1934

Copyright 1934, by H. A. Manning Co.

This country road directory is a counterpart of the city street directory, giving the name of the occupant of each farm or farmhouse on each road outside the city lines and within the town lines, including the Batavia side of the townline roads. These occupants are given in their order of location, and the letter after each name shows whether the occupant is an owner or tenant. The alphabetical list of residents of the town follows this department of the directory.
