

John H. Flaherty.

John H. Flaherty.

JOHN H. FLAHERTY was born in Troy July 23, 1863, and here he has always lived. His parents were William H. and Margaret Flaherty. In the Sisters' School, the Thirteenth Ward Public School and the Troy Business College Mr. Flaherty secured his education. For several years he worked in markets and grocery stores, striving to master the business. That he was successful is evidenced by the fact that to-day he is the proprietor of a large grocery store which enjoys a very profitable trade. For five consecutive years he was the treasurer of the E. B. A., No. 3. He has also served as president of the Y. M. C. L. A. and the Hugh Ranken Steamer Company. He is a member of the executive board of the G. B., E. B. A., of the State of New York, a member of the Grocers' and Butchers' Association, E. B. A., No. 3, Hugh Ranken Steamer Company and the Esek Bussey Hose Company. Mr. Flaherty stands high in this community, and his future is all that his friends could wish for him.
