James T. Quinn.

JAMES T. QUINN was born in this city in 1855. His parents were Michael and Esther Quinn. He has always lived in Troy. After a course at the Christian Brothers' Academy, Mr. Quinn learned the carpenter's trade, at which he worked for twelve years. He is now in the liquor business. When Postmaster Dolan retired from the Common Council Mr. Quinn was elected to succeed him, representing the Eleventh Ward. He is a member of the Pilsner Democratic Club, the Edward Dolan Association and the Liquor Dealers' Association. Mr. Quinn has been signally successful both in business and political life.
