Page 2:2 - A REMARKABLE WOMAN - The St. Andrews N.B. Standard contains the following extraordinary obituary notice: DIED - At St. Stephens on the 21st of July, Mrs. Elizabeth DODD, aged 111 years. In the death of this aged person there is a volume of history lost. Living in great retirement, the relict of a forgotten age, few knew the stories she could tell of the brave old days. Born on board a British ship of the line in the Bay of Biscay, cradled on the broad Atlantic, her father killed fighting the battles of George I, she was cast an orphan on the shores of New York, thence carried to Saint Augustine. Her youth was passed in the south. Here she married and settled on the banks of the Alabama. On the outbreak of the war between France, Spain and England, she and other settlers were made prisoners and taken to New Orleans. After two years she was transferred to the Spainards and taken to the Castle of Vera Cruz where she remained until its capture by the British in 1761. She was then relieved and taken to New York. During the first American War she followed her husband to the principal campaigns and was at many of the hardest fought battles - at Monmouth, White Plains, Yorktown &c. At the close of the American War, she came with the Loyalists to this Province in 1784.
