Page 2:3 - A whole City was thrown into consternation and dismay yesterday Wednesday at the announcement of a distressing accident which in a few moments resulted in the death of the Hon. Luther LAWRENCE Mayor of the City. In company with a friend he went into the building recently occupied as the Planeing Mill which is now being fitted up for an extensive grist mill. The wheel pit so called was open and in explaining to his friend how the machinery was to operate he caught his foot in a rope extended across the edge of the opening and was precipitated head foremost a distance of sixteen feet in a perpendicular descent his head coming in contact with the iron curve of the wheel at the bottom of the pit. He was immediately taken out shockingly mangled and perfectly senseless. The best medical aid was procured but the fatal blow had been given and he lived only about half an hour. We need not say that in this melancholy
