

SEPTEMBER 18, 1850

Page 2:3 - Asher YOUNG one of the Superintending Agents on the Rensselaer & Saratoga Railroad was accidentally run over by the Up Train and instantly killed. On the evening of the 10th instant, while riding in a little hand car, a short distance below Ballston Spa, he was proceeding from Noxon's Corners towards Ballston Spa between 8 & 9 o'clock thinking that the train would not overtake him until he reached the latter place. The night was dark, and he was not seen by the approaching train until his little car was run over. No blame is attached to the persons having charge of the train. He was a very industrious useful man and leaves a family and a circle of friends to mourn his death. (from the Republican)

Page 2:5 - MARRIED - On the 12th inst by Rev. Thomas W. PIERCE, Mr. Samuel B. BAILY of the firm of Baily, Blake & Co., Plattsburgh & Miss Ellen M., eldest daughter of T. DEFORRIS, MD of this Village.

- Mr. William C. SMITH to Miss Celestine L., daughter of Peleg NOYES, both of Watervliet.

- On Thursday evening 12th inst. by the Rev. S. FRAZER, Mr. Samuel LADUE to Miss Sarah A., daughter of J.H. HAKES, all of Watervliet.

DIED - In Schoharie on the 6th inst, Mr. John Jost WARNER, a Revolutionary Patriot, aged 95 years, 2 months & 3 days. He was the father of 14, the grandfather of 101 and the great-grandfather of 98 children.

- At Galeville, Washington Co. on the 11th inst. Mary Elizabeth, only child of William M. & Mary A. PALMER, age 5 months (A POEM)

SEPTEMBER 25, 1850

Page 2:5 - DIED - In Albany on Wednesday morning last at 8-1/2 o'clock in the 16th year of his age, Andrew BRAND, a native of Kentucky. The deceased came to the City about four weeks since for the purpose of attending the State Fair accompanied by his brother and two friends, and not being in good health was immediately after his arrival prostrated by an attack of intermittent fever, from which he never recovered. In size he was probably the most extraordinary person in the world. His advertised weight previous to his demise, being 537 pounds. Of a kind and generous disposition, he was beloved by all with whom he became acquainted. To his distant relatives and friends it will be a source of great consolation to know that every care and attention was taken of him during his protracted and painful illness.