Page 2:5 - DIED - In West Troy October 23d, Miss Hannah WELLS, the adopted daughter of Mr. Geo. RUSSELL, of Salem, Washington Co., age 27 years.

This young lady came to West Troy, on a visit to her friends, and soon after her arrival was taken suddenly ill. She suffered intensely for ten successive days and then expired. Thus we have another proof that death is near us when we little expect him.

NOVEMBER 13, 1850

Page 2:5 - DROWNED - In Salem, Washington Co. (Press) says that a man named Hugh ALLEN, while on his return from Troy in a one horse wagon, on Friday evening last about 9 o'clock, was thrown from his wagon into the River at the foot of Lansing Street, Lansingburgh and drowned. He was a drover, about 40 years of age, resided, we learn, in Centre Cambridge, in that county, and had been to the City with a drove of cattle - It is said that he was in the habit of sleeping in his wagon when traveling; it is supposed that while in this state, his horse turned off from the main street and ran toward the River. Several persons saw him just before he arrived at the dock. He was then awake and attempting to stop his horse; and while turning around, one wheel ran off the dock and precipitated Mr. A. into the water as before stated. His body was recovered the same evening, and on Saturday conveyed to his relatives in Cambridge.
