

11

OCTOBER 23, 1839 CONTINUED FROM SHEET 16

of all sects and of all parties (Southwick's Family Newspaper)

Page 3:1 - DIED - On Sunday October 20 Lucy, infant daughter of F. HARDING

NOVEMBER 6, 1839

Page 3:2 - MARRIED - On the evening of the 3d Instant by John HASTINGS Esq., Mr. Abel POTTER to Miss Rebecca VIBARD, all of West Troy

NOVEMBER 20, 1839

Page 3:2 - MARRIED - In this Village 17th Inst by Rev. George PHIPPEN, Mr. Hiram BENNETT & Miss Catharine PECK.

NOVEMBER 27, 1839

Page 3:1 - DEATH OF SOLOMON SOUTHWICK - We are called to announce the death of ~~another of our~~ oldest and most distinguished citizens. Solomon SOUTHWICK who has filled a large space in the public eye for nearly forty years is nomore! He died suddenly last night of an affection of the heart. He was a man of talents and genius. From 1800 to 1813 Mr. SOUTHWICK, (as Editor of the Albany Register) exerted an influence over the political destinys of the State which few men ever possessed. Then, too, fortune dealt bountifully with him. He was rich as well as influential. But neither wealth or power abided.

With the memorable land speculations of 1814, Mr. SOUTHWICK's fortunes began to ebb. His large losses on real estate were followed by a political revolution which deprived him of the patronage of the State. Misfortunes succeeded misfortune until his abundant wealth vanished away and for the last twenty years he had been struggling with strong hands, a stout heart and ever-bright hopes, against a fate which proved inexorable.

Mr. SOUTHWICK was among the most ardent, generous, warm-hearted men that ever lived. While rich, his purse was open and emptied for all who came to him in distress - though profuse in his expenditures and abounding in his charities, he was ever distinguished for his personal frugality and temperance, always living on the plainest diet&drinking only nature's beverage. He was in his manner, feeling and sentiment, a Republican.

Oppression and tyranny always found in him an enthusiastic and fearless opponent. He was ever inclined to espouse the cause of the weak against the strong. But we can not even enter upon his history now. His life has been full of instruction, and we shall look to one who was familiar with it all, for an obituary sketch of the history and character of a man who was so long and so prominently identified with the history of our City and State(from the Evening Journal of the 19th)