

JUNE 15, 1853 CONTINUED FROM PAGE 177

She has been intemperate of late, and her husband had used every means in his power to have her do differently, - even locked her in the house, barring the doors, and nailing down the windows, and tied her with ropes, but all too no purpose, she would evade him and get intoxicated.

Coroner WITBECK held an inquest on the 10th inst. on the body, and the verdict was that she came to her death by blows inflicted with a stick of wood by the hands of her husband Patrick MANYON. MANYON was accordingly arrested, and committed to the county Jail, for further examination. MANYON owns a house and lot, and has a family of three children - two boys and a girl - the oldest 12 years and the youngest 7 years of age.

Page - Poughkeepsie, June 8th - George LAKE, a clock & watch repairer in the Town of LaGrange, Dutchess Co. killed his two children ages 2 & 4 years and fatally wounded his wife with an axe Tuesday afternoon.....(article goes on giving details of the crime)

Page 2:5 - MARRIED - On the 10th inst by the Rev. R.H. ROBINSON, Mr. John HEFFINGER to Miss Rosalie GOOHE, both of West Troy.

DIED - At Watervliet on Sunday June 12th Edward LEARNED, aged 60 years & 2 months. He was a well-known and highly esteemed citizen and has resided in Watervliet for about 40 years.

JUNE 29, 1853

Page 2:2 - BUNKER HILL - James McDONALD the last of the noble band who fought at Bunker Hill and who has reached the great age of 105 years is now on a visit to Boston. He has accepted an invitation from the manager of the great national work of the Battle of Bunker Hill now on exhibition in that City; to be present for a few evenings and explain to the audience the minute particulars of the bloody scenes of June 17, 1775. The old gentleman is still quite smart and active.

Page 2:4 - FATAL ACCIDENT - The Saratoga Republican says, that on Tuesday afternoon last Mr. HALL of that Village, was killed by driving a carriage containing a party of ladies and gentlemen on the east side of Saratoga Lake. Some part of the carriage gave way, and Mr. HALL in order to prevent the horses from running, and reigned them out of the road, when the carriage upset killing him almost instantly. The inmates of the carriage were not seriously injured. Mr. HALL was an old and experienced driver and a very reputable citizen.