- DIED - In this Village on the 30th of July of paralysis, Mr. Isaac CHAPMAN, age 65 years. Mr. CHAPMAN was one of the earliest settlers of our Village and was identified with all of its growth and instrumental in much of its prosperity. from the foundation of the U.S. Arsenal in Watervliet in 1813 ult. In 1813 and until 1851 Mr. CHAPMAN occupied a responsible position of muster workman or foreman in that extensive establishment. His genius guided the beautiful arrangement of all the material collected in its vast storehouses in Arsenals, and so systematic were his operations they could on the instant, point out any article, of the mass of arnament and material that was wanted. His taste in landscape gardening directed the adornment of these beautiful grounds. His hand painted the magnificent ranges of now stately elms and maples that give to the River front of this establishment so grand an appearance and affords so greatful a shade to our citizens in summer. As a citizen Mr. CHAPMAN was respected and honored; called by his fellow citizens at different times, to fill the responsible stations of Trustee & President, his public trusts were discharged with fidelity and advantage to the best interests of our growing village. As a Christian the writer cannot speak of him in other or better terms than those contained in the following preamble and resolution of the great Consistory of the Church of which Mr. CHAPMAN was long a leading and valued member. (A long religious tract about Brother CHAPMAN follows)
