

AUGUST 13, 1856

Page 2:5 - A German music teacher named Earnest FRITZ, was found drowned in the Canal at Lockport, Tuesday morning. He was last seen on Sunday when he was intoxicated. He formerly resided in Albany.

AUGUST 20, 1856

Page 2:3 - Mr. Horace FARWELL of Clarendon, who was injured by the cars in Albion on Monday, died a short time after the accident.

- Mrs. Phillis STRAUGHAN, relic of the late Robert STRAUGHAN, died at her residence in Seneca, Ontario Co., on 28th ult in the 100th year of her age.

Page 2:5 - Albany - Mary AGER, wife of John AGER, has been arrested, and charged with poisoning her husband, who died and was buried very suddenly on Thursday last. John AGER jr, step-son of the prisoner, was the complainant.

SEPTEMBER 3, 1856

Page 2:2 - Enoch DAVIS, Associate Editor of the Troy Times, died at the residence of his father in Shaftsbury, VT on Sunday last. The Times of Monday afternoon appeared in mourning in consequence.

BOY KILLED BY A HORSE - On last Thursday afternoon, a boy about 15 years of age, named John DeGRAFF, who resided in Amsterdam, but was employed as a driver, while driving a team attached to a boat on the Erie Canal about two miles above this Village, struck one of the horses with a strap, when the horse gave him a violent kick in the region of the heart, killing him almost instantly.

Page 3:1 - MARRIED - At Grace Church, Waterford, Tuesday Sept 2d by the Rev. Mr. ADAMS, Mr. Nicholas F. WITBECK of this Village, and Miss FRANK GROUT of the former place.

- On Sunday, the 30th ult by Rev. Mr. CANNOL, Mr. Oliver HORTON & Miss Julia SLAUSON, both of this Village.

- In San Francisco, Calif. August 4th, by the Rev. Mr. WILLEY, Mr. William H. DOWE, of New York, & Miss M. Jennie CRAWFORD, of West Troy.

DIED - In Stillwater, Saratoga Co. on Monday, 25th ult, Mrs. Nancy E. FORD, mother of S.E. FORD Esq. of this Village, in the 91st year of her age.