Page 2:2 - SUPPOSED SUICIDE - Coroner MADDEN was called Sunday afternoon to hold an inquest at the tavern of John R. BURTIS in Raymertown, Town of Pittstown (in this County) upon the body of a German Jew whose name it is supposed from papers found in his possession was Bernhard MORJE. It appears the man, who was a foot pedler, left Troy on Saturday, arriving in Raymertown about 8 o'clock in the evening. He said he was unwell, and had purchased some medicine he intended to take. He took some white powders, and during the night complained of great thirst and commenced retching. He died early Sunday morning. There is little doubt from the circumstances that
