

JULY 8, 1857 CONTINUED FROM PAGE 236

at the time, we learn - in moving these stones from the cars.

Page - The funeral of the late Hon. W. L. MARCY takes place in Albany this afternoon.

JULY 15, 1857

Page 2:3 - DROWNED - Coroner WITBECK of this Village held an inquest Sunday at Cohoes upon the body of Joseph LISPERANCE aged about 50 years who was drowned while bathing in the Mohawk River at that place. He was in company with several others at the time but they were unable to save his life. Verdict - accidental drowning.

- John COATES, a lad about 7 years of age was drowned in Erie Canal near the Schenectady St. Bridge about 7 o'clock P.M. last Thursday.....(article goes on about details of accident).

JULY 22, 1857

Page 2:2 - John TYMESON a man about 27 years of age while at work on a farm in the town of Niskayuna on Wed. afternoon last complained of the effects of the heat, & started for the house, a short distance off. He had not, however, proceeded but a few steps, when he fell down. He was taken up and properly cared for, but notwithstanding he died in a few minutes.

- Coroner WITBECK held an inquest on Wed. evening last upon the body of Dennis O'NEAL, aged about 7 years who was drowned in the Canal near the Upper Side-Cut. It appears that he was playing with several other boys about his own age when he fell in. A verdict of accidental drowning was rendered.

JULY 29, 1857

Page 2:2 - A MARRIAGE IN COURT - On Friday last, Thomas WHALON of Rochester, a Canal Boatman, was arrested upon the complaint of one Ellen SMITH of Albany, and brought before Justice STEWART. Ellen charged him with being the father of her expected child. Upon being questioned by the Justice, WHALON admitted the fact, and offered to marry the girl. This arrangement being assented too, the Squire united them in the bonds of holy wedlock and they went on their way rejoicing.

AUGUST 5, 1857

Page 2:3 - Coroner WITBECK held an inquest on Wed. last upon the body of Alexander FORTIER, a young man about 19 years of age who was drowned while bathing off Fish Island that morning. A verdict of accidental drowning was rendered.