

JUNE 1, 1859 CONTINUED FROM PAGE 264

abolishing slavery was passed in New Jersey, Mrs. JACKSON was too old to take advantage of manumission and has since been cared for by the family. For several years she has been very feeble and unable to walk. She was probably the last remaining slave in the state.

JUNE 8, 1859

Page 3:1 - MARRIED - In this Village on Thursday June 2d by Rev. Dr. GREGORY, Charles D. ROUSSEAU & Eugenia P., daughter of the late Andrew MENEELY of this place.

- On Saturday 4th inst by the same, Mr. George H. SWARTWOUT & Miss Sarah E. MENEELY, both of this Village.

DIED - On the 4th inst. at Newtonville, Watervliet, Darwin D., son of Jacob HENRY, age 24 years.

JUNE 15, 1859

Page 2:1 - John G. NERSER, an old & respected citizen of Bethlehem, Albany County, committed suicide Friday by hanging himself. He had been rendered insane by a protracted illness.

Page 2:3 - SUICIDE - Charles L. CHAPMAN, a married man about 24 years of age, and recently an employee of the Harmony Mills committed suicide at Cohoes on Saturday last by poisoning. Coroner WITBECK of this Village was summoned and held an inquest, the jury returning a verdict of death from an overdose of laudanum administered by himself.

Page 2:6 - MARRIED - In the Ref Dutch Church on the 11th inst by Rev. Mr. GREGORY, John F. MILLER of Watervliet Centre and Caroline A. DUNHAM of this Village.

- DIED - In this Village on the 14th inst after a lingering illness Mrs. Eleanor SNYDER mother of Mrs. R.D. WARNER in the 59th year of her age.

- In this Village on Sunday night 12th inst., Laura wife of Erastus B. STICKNEY in the 54th year of her age. The friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend the funeral at 10 o'clock this morning from the Ohio Street M.E. Church.

- Near VAN VRANKENS Corners, Watervliet on Sunday 12th inst. Coonradt HAYNER.

JUNE 22, 1859

Page 2:3 - KILLED - A carpenter named Terrance MURPHY was killed on Friday last by falling from one of the spires of St. Joseph's Church Albany.

DEAD - Alexander DAVISON of the firm of DAVIDSON & VIEHLE, a prominent & respected citizen of Albany died at his residence in that City on Friday last.