

JUNE 26, 1861

Page 2:3 - The funeral of Sgt. William C. CADY of Company F of the 3d Regiment, who was killed at the Battle of Great Bethel, took place Thursday at 3 o'clock from the Swan Street (Arbor Hill) Methodist Episcopal Church, Albany.

- William T. WOOLEY of the 25th Regiment Militia, who died at Washington, was buried from his residence in Albany on Sunday with military honors. The funeral was a very imposing one.

- The remains of Samuel F. BLOWERS, the unfortunate young man who was shot at the Albany Barracks on Friday evening were escorted to the cars in that City on Saturday by Companies A & B, Zouaves. They were taken to Canajoharie.

Page 2:6 - MARRIED - At ^{New} Bedford, Mass. on Thursday June 20th by Rev. MOULTON, Mr. George L. SILLIMAN of this Village & Miss L. Annie WHITTON of the former place.

- DIED - In this Village on the 19th inst., Emma wife of J.C. TINNEY, aged 20 years & 8 months.

JULY 3, 1861

Page 2:6 - MARRIED - In Albany on June 30, 1861 - by the Rev. Dr. SEELYE, Mr. Luther A. HILL of this Village & Miss Anna A. WESTEEN of the former place.

- DIED - In this Village on Sunday June 30th Charles C., son of Lafayette & Mary Ann CONGER, in the 17th year of his age.

Page 2:3 - DEAD - ~~Jenks~~ BROWN, recently president of Cohoes Village, died quite suddenly from disease of the heart at his residence in Indian Orchard, Mass. on Wednesday last.

- BODY FOUND - The body of Capt. WETHERBY of the Canal boat HARRIET DEAN, who was drowned on Wed. last, on the occasion of the Canal boat being carried over the dam in Cohoes, was found in the River just below the Arsenal Saturday night. Coroner WITBECK summoned a jury and held an inquest.

JULY 10, 1861

Page 2:4 - A MAN KILLED - At an early hour Saturday evening, a party of five or six persons met at the saloon of John BEGLAN on Genesee St., on the corner of Williams St. and while there, three of the party - Terrence BOYLE, Walter BARRET and one SULLIVAN - got into a dispute which culminated in BOYLE's knocking down SULLIVAN and BARRET. Shortly after getting to his feet, BARRET grasped a knife and plunged it into BOYLE's bowels. BOYLE was conveyed to a house a short distance off and medical attendance summoned. He died, however, at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. Coroner WITBECK shortly after summoned a jury and held an inquest, at which the facts above stated were elicited.