

DECEMBER 25, 1861

Page 2:1 - A child named John FLANAGAN, three years of age, was run over on the northern road at No. Ferry St., Albany Saturday afternoon - his body being cut completely in two. The engineer reversed his engine when he saw the child, but it was too late to prevent the catastrophe.

Page 2:6 - MARRIED - In this Village on the 18th inst. by Rev. Dr. GREGORY, Mr. James G. CONDE & Miss Maria L. BEEBE, daughter of the late Dillon BEEBE, all of this Village.

JANUARY 1, 1862

Page 2:4 - Dr. Van WYCK, father of the Hon. C.H. VAN WYCK died Thursday morning at his residence in Hoomingburg, N.Y.

Page 2:5 - MARRIED - In the Washington Street M.E. Church in this Village by Rev. A. MCGILTON, Mr. James T. MYERS & Miss Marietta WEMETT both of West Troy.

DIED - In this Village on the 14th inst. Benjamin H., youngest son of James P. & Elizabeth WARFORD, age 1 year & 3 days.

- In Watervliet December 25 1861, Dorothy wife of Levinus A. LANSING, age 73 years & 3 months.

JANUARY 8, 1862

Page 2: 1 - Garret Y. LANSING, an old citizen of Albany, died at his residence in that city on Friday last, at the advanced age of 79 years. Mr. L. had held many offices of trust and was universally respected.

Page 2:3 - DROWNED - John RYAN, a man of about 25 years of age, and a resident of the First Ward, was drowned in the River, a short distance below the Arsenal, on Wednesday night last. He had been to Troy in company with a few friends and with them was crossing the ice on his return to this Village, when he walked into an air hole and was drowned. His friends made efforts to save him, but they were unavailing. His body was not recovered.

- Addison J. FELLOWS of Albany, (a member of the (People's Ellsworth) 44th Regiment died of typhoid fever, at the camp in Virginia, on the 30th ult. His funeral took place from Dr. Magoun's Church, in Albany, on Sunday, and was attended by the Fire Department, about 1000 soldiers, and two of the Baseball Clubs of the City.

Page 2:4 - FIRE - On Sunday morning, a fire broke out in Monroe JONES' Pottery, in the upper part of the Village, the floor igniting from the kiln but little damage was done however, Protection Engine Co. No. 2 being quickly on the ground, and bringing a stream to bear upon the flames.