

OCTOBER 15, 1862 CONTINUED FROM PAGE 334

Page 2:3 - Edward A. HINGHAM of Albany died at a military hospital in Alexandria last week. He served three months in the 25th Regiment, and then enlisted in the 20th. He was wounded in the leg at Bull Run and suffered amputation. HINGHAM was one of the most popular young men in Albany.

The remains of another West Troy soldier John MURPHY are expected to arrive here tomorrow or the next. On the occasion of his funeral Rip Van Winkle Engine Co. No. 1, - of which he was a member, together with other fire companies will probably parade.

We see it stated that the body of Lt. Frank DARGAN of the 30th Regiment has been recovered and is expected to arrive in Lansingburgh sometime this week.

Page 2:5 - DIED - In this Village on Thursday 9th inst. Robert WHITMARSH in the 39th year of his age.

- In this Village on Thursday 9th inst. Mrs. Annie HUMPHREY, age 99 years.

- On Thursday October 9th at her residence in Watervliet, Emma relict of the late Lucus G. WHITBECK, aged 82 years.

OCTOBER 22, 1862

Page 2:3 - Oliver H. PORTER of this Village, member of the 2d Regiment, ^{it}will be recollected was killed at the Battle of Manassas - Mr. John H. PORTER, his father, has gone for his body, having received word a few days since that it could now be procured and it is expected that he will arrive with his sons remains on Saturday or Sunday or Monday next.

- The remains of John MURPHY a member of Co. A., 34th Reg't. who was killed at the Battle of Antietam reached home yesterday. His funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be attended by the Rip Van Winkle Engine Co. No. 1 of which he was a member, and probably by the remainder of the Department, with delegations from companies in neighboring places. The funeral services will take place at St. Patrick's Church.

Page 2:4 - DEATH OF HON. JOHN KNICKERBACKER - Hon. John KNICKERBACKER of Waterford, died at an early hour on Friday morning last at the advanced age of 80 years. Mr. K. was among the oldest residents in that Village, and for many years and upto the time of his death held the position of President of the Saratoga County Bank, in that place. He was also a director of the Bank of West Troy and of the Rensselaer & Saratoga Railroad Company. His funeral took place in Grace Church Waterford, on Sunday afternoon, and was attended by a large concourse of citizens together with the officers of the various institutions with which he had been connected.