Page 2:2 - Mrs. Eunice HAYES died at Hilton, N.H. March 27th, at age of 102. She left 181<sup>1</sup> descendants. She was born on Friday, consecrated to God in baptism on Friday, married on Friday, moved into Hilton on Friday, her husband died on Friday, and she died on Friday, as she often claimed she would.

Major James H. O'CONNOR of the 3rd Illinois Calvary, has captured a Confederate widow, named Mrs. Laura BRISCOE. They were married last month, at the encampment of the Regiment, near Helena, ARK. The bride is a near relative of the Rebel General HINDMAN, and owns considerable property in Helena besides a good share of the southern peculiar institution.'

Page 2:3 - DEAD - Sgt. Henry L. DUNHAM, of the 2d Regiment N.Y.V., and formerly of this Village, was wounded in the leg in the recent conflict on the Rappahannock, and his limb was amputated. He lived however but a short time. His relatives we believe now reside in Albia and have sent to Washington for his body.

Page 2:6 - MARRIED - In Troy on the 7th inst. by Rev. G.C. BALDWIN, Mr. Albert TAYER of this Village & Miss Amy M. HORTH of the former place.

MAY 20, 1863

Page 2:2 - The body of Sgt. Henry L. DUNHAM of Co.B. 2d Regiment N.Y.V. arrived in Troy, on Thursday, and the funeral took place from the M.E. Church in Albia on Saturday afternoon being attended by his former comrades in arms. Rev. E.T. CHAFFMAN, Chaplain of the Regiment, officiated reading the Episcopal burial service - after which Rev. Dr. GREGORY of this Village who but a short time previous to the outbreak of the War, was the young man's pastor - made a few remarks, in which he referred feelingly to the young DUNHAM's former life as also his heroic death. Sgt. D. was in his twentieth year and received the wound which caused his death at the Battle of Chancellorville.

DEAD - Louis DeWILDE who has resided in this Village for the past 30 years, died on Saturday last in the 85th year of his age. Mr. D. in his younger days had served as a soldier under Napoleon, and was at one time a member of the famous Old Guard. PEACE TO HIS ASHES
