

FEBRUARY 17, 1864

Page 2:6 - DIED - In this Village on the 12th inst., Peter O'CONNOR, age 70 years.

FEBRUARY 24, 1864

Page 2:5 - DIED - In this Village on the 14th inst., Ann Eliza in the 16th year of her age - also on the 16th inst. Daniel, age 11 years - also on the 23d inst., Offy F., age 5 years 11 months 23 days - also on the same inst. Harriet H. age 9 years, 7 months, 22 days. -- Children of John & Emma PARKER. The funeral of Offy F. & Harriet H. takes place tomorrow (Thursday) at 2 P.M. from the residence of their parents in this Village. Friends are invited to attend.

- In this Village on the 15th inst. Jennie, infant daughter of Robert G. SMITH, age 1 year & 7 months.

- In this Village on the 17th inst., Clara daughter of John W. DECKER, aged 9 years & 5 days.

Page 2:5 - FATAL ACCIDENT - A man named James WHITE while engaged in carrying iron in Burden's Mill Troy, on Thursday, stumbled and fell between two cog wheels, and was drawn between them in such a manner that both his legs and one arm were severed close to his body. He lived but a few hours.

MARCH 3, 1864

Page 2:1 - DEAD - Volney RICHMOND, formerly Sheriff and Senator of Rensselaer County died at his residence on Sunday evening.

Page 2:3 - SHOCKING TRAGEDY IN TROY - On Thursday evening last, four boys playing in the 6th Ward, Troy., George MILLINGTON and two others went down a bank and commenced throwing stones at a son of Chester IVES, coal-dealer of the same ward. Young IVES fired a pistol at them. They dodged and then threw again. Young IVES re-loaded and then fired again for the second time. The ball struck young MILLINGTON over the eye, entering the brain. He died in half an hour. Young IVES has been arrested and is now in jail.

Page 2:6 - MARRIED - At the residence of the bride's father, Newark, N.J., on the 25th Feb. by Rev. Dr. POOR, Mr. Dillon BEEBE and Miss Sarah R. MARTIN.

- At the Baptist Church in this Village on the 24th inst. by Rev. Dr. SHELDON, Mr. Charles BURGESS of Troy to Miss Jennie TINNEY of this Village.

DIED - In this Village February 27th, Sarah M. wife of Henry D. FINCH, and daughter of the late John SILLIMAN, age 36 years.