Page 2:1 - MARRIED - In Cohoes on the 2d inst., by Rev. Mr. MYERS, Mr. Henry WATKINS to Miss Judith COON, both of that place. (The above notice appeared in our last paper. We received the same through the Post-Office in this Village; and having no reason to doubt its genuineness, we inserted it for the gratification of the many who would go and do likewise but a gentleman from Cohoes has informed us that it is a base fabrication - no lady of that name residing in that place, and the gentleman himself being a married man, his family at present residing in Conn. We therefore feel bound to unmarry or retract the above, lest by the scandalous notice coming under the eyes of any of Mr. WATKINS friends, his lawful wife should suffer in consequence thereof. But what shall we say of the base forger? - What punishment does he merit? Surely, if he be not already united in wedlock, which for the honor of that holy state, we trust he is not, it would be no undue punishment were he compelled to be the constant (is he not fit?) companion of a coon', if not of a stronger animal, the rest of his days.

Page 2:4 - CHARGE OF MURDER AT SEA - The New York Standard of Tuesday said - Complaint was yesterday made to the U.S. Marshall's Office, by the crew of the Brig, Caroline Pratt, charging Capt. RICE, of that vessel with willful murder, in preventing assistance being furnished to one of the crew named Joseph HARVEY who had fallen overboard, by which he was drown - the complaint alleges the circumstances occurred at sea during a clear voyage of the vessel from Apalachicola - that the man swam, but the Captain would not allow the boat to be lowered on the vessel to behove. The Captain was arrested and will probably be examined this forenoon.
