HAPPY NEW YEAR

Once again we begin a new year and look forward to solving our most difficult genealogical problems. As a Chapter of The Ohio Genealogical Society, we place a portion of our Richland County material in their Library for the use of the general public. One of their valuable resources is the vertical file that is used for all family material that is too small to be placed on the shelves and is unbound. Why not get a family or two together and place them there. Should we accumulate enough, they could later be put into book form.

Submit a written account of your family, not to exceed 50 pages, sign your name and address to it and some visitor who is researching your family will find it and write to you. Plans should be made for the large amount of work you have done. What is to happen to it in the future?

The Richland County Chapter welcomes your family genealogies and find they are well cared for at the O.G.S. Library.

Send your permission to publish and we will abstract or review it in The Pastfinder. Send it in care of The Pastfinder, Editor

After it is ready for this newsletter, it will be placed in the O.G.S. Library and an acknowledgement will be sent to you.

We need your charts, queries, announcements and any other info you would like to see printed in YOUR newsletter, The Pastfinder.

A SURPRISING FIND

Could this be your family?

John DeWalt, a long time member of the Richland County Chapter of The Ohio Genealogical Society, has brought us copies of several letters that were found in the house of John W. and Cathrine Darby Leppo.

John Leppo married Catherine Darby in 1876. She died in 1896 (age 40 yrs.). Catharine was a daughter of John O. (d 1886) and Sarah Darby. They gave Catherine 28 acres of land in 1880.

These letters were addressed to brother and sister and probably were to Catherine's parents.

Samuel DeWalt purchased a 96 acre farm in 1910 that had been owned by John O. Darby, and later the 28 acres owned by Leppo. He has pictures of the Lorenzo B. Darby family and Franklin E. Darby family who he believes went to Williams Co., Ohio.

Please contact John if this is your family.

John DeWalt, 2771 Rock Road, Rt. #2, Shelby OH 44875

The Ohio Genealogical Society plans to move into a new home located at 34 Sturges Ave., Mansfield OH. It will be housed in the annex at the rear of the Martin Bushnell House, a well known Mansfield landmark that is listed on The National Register of Historic Places. It is of Richardsonian Romanesque style and was built in 1892, by Martin Bushnell. It was used as their home until 1923, and was in use as a funeral home until 1954. Since that time the AAA has used it as their headquarters. The O.G.S. plans to enlarge the library space and is continuing their building fund drive. Your help is needed! Send your gift to:

The IGI File from LDS

The Associated Press reports that Ohio Historical Society, Columbus, has bought the complete International Genealogical Index (IGI) from Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (LDS) in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Gary Arnold, head of research at the Ohio Historical Society Library in Columbus, said the IGI* is a standard reference for genealogists and contains 6,700 state-of-the-art microfiche. The index to births, deaths and marriages from about 1500 to 1870 covers records that have been extracted and submitted to the LDS Genealogical Department.

Arnold said the purchase of IGI means that large numbers of researchers can check many names in a short time there.

* The OHIO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY has the IGI File for North America.

He lived on a farm south of Shelby until he was 17 years of age when he moved to Mansfield and learned the carpenter trade. He married Barbara ENGLEHART on 23 May 1856. She died on 28 Jun 1914. He leaves six ch; Wm. E., Salt Lake City UT; Frank, Lunnigan CA; Charles, Harrison MI; George H., Emma and Mrs. Wm. Massa, Mansfield and one child deceased. Two bro; Henry of near Shelby and Philip of Kunkle OH. Member of St. John's Church, Mansfield.

HENRY BAER - ae 84 yrs. d 2 Jul 1917 in Mansfield. He was b 17 Jan 1833 in Malchov, Brandenburg, Germany and came with his family to this county in 1872. He was a blacksmith for Aultman & Taylor Co. He leaves Gustave A. Baer, former Sheriff; Conrad J. Baer, Moline IL; Mrs. Wm. Fensch, and Mary and Tillie Baer of Mansfield; and Mrs. Lee Roth of Shelby. He was a member of Grace Lutheran Church (formerly a part of St Paul Lutheran Church and now First Alliance Church.) His wife died 3 years earlier.

URATH BURNS - Mrs. Burns d 12 Mar 1887 at 118 South Main. She was the widow of Col. Barnabas Burns and the youngest daughter of John and Mary Gore. Mrs. Burns was born 4 Mar 1817 in Baltimore MD. She came with her parents to Mansfield in 1835, traveling overland over the National Road. In 1841 she married Col. Burns and lived in the house where she breathed her last for forty years and six months. Five children remain; Mrs. Dr. Mitchell, Miss Kate, Jerry H., John C. and Barnabas.

CATHERINE A. ARNOLD - died 7 Jul 1926 ten miles north of Mansfield in Franklin Township. She was b in Lebanon PA on 13 Jul 1838 and was the eldest dau of the late Levi Bricker. She leaves one son, David Arnold and was buried in the Ganges Cemetery.

MARTHA ANN COSNER COPELAND - ae 94 years, died near Shelby on 26 Jul 1926. She was the dau of Mathias and Rebecca Cosner, and was born in Lancaster Co. PA on 21 Aug 1831. She leaves 3 ch; Mrs. Harry Letts, of near Shelby; Mrs. Mellie Davis; and Anderson Copeland of Mansfield. Fifteen grandchildren, 33 great grandchildren and six great great grandchildren are left to mourn. She was buried in Franklin Cemetery.

MRS. BARBARA HUTZELMAN - d 21 Apr 1917, ae 84, widow of Michael H. HUTZELMAN, who d 18 Mar 1906. Barbara was b 1 Dec 1833, in Ramholz, Hessen, Germany. 7 children were b to them and 5 survive; George, Henry, Charles, Katie and Mary. She is buried in Mansfield Cemetery.

NOTE: Foreign birthplaces are often found in the obituaries of those who came here in the middle and late 1800's. When doing newspaper research for obituaries the earlier the date of the paper (weekly and semi-weekly papers) more weeks following the death must be researched. After daily papers came into being in the latter part of the last century, it became possible to find obits the same day as the death, or a very short time later. If you cannot find a death for someone in the outlying areas of the county, search the papers in the adjoining counties. The best collection of newspapers in Ohio is at The Ohio Historical Society Library in Columbus. They have card indices for both area and time period. You will find a day at the Historical Society well spent. Ed.

In the Ohio Historical Society Manuscript Collection there are a number of records of great interest to Richland County. One of the most interesting is the record of the Eben P. Sturges Family. (MSS 539) These consist of a number of boxes and folders of original papers which included the DAYBOOK that was used in that old store from October 1815 to July 1817.

Mr. Sturges owned one of the earliest stores in Mansfield. The store stood on the square at Main Street, where Reed’s is located today. Several years ago, Maxine Kinton and Mary Jane Henney had the book microfilmed and placed it in the Mansfield Richland Public Library. The film was indexed by Maxine Kinton and it is in the Sherman Room. This record will help place your ancestors in this area before 1820. NOTE additional names at the end of the list.

SOME MARING FAMILY HISTORY

by Ellen M. Benedict, 8106 SE Carlton, Portland OR 97206

Philip Maring served in the War of 1812 for Morris Co., N.J. and received a pension. His brother, Leonard S. Maring (1794-1868) served from Sussex Co. N.J. in 1812. Leonard's death certificate (Dover, Mass.) states his father was Nicholas Maring, b. Germany and his mother, Susannah, b. Holland. Susannah Maring wife of Nicholas, signed a deed of 1800 with Nicholas in Roxbury Twp., Morris Co., N.J. Whether she was Philip's mother we do not know.

Nicholas Maring died intestate in 1808 in Newton Twp., Sussex Co., N.J. A William Mearing served as bondsman on the letter of Administration. Nicholas Mearing was listed on the 1799-1780 "New Jersey Rateables" (tax list) for "old" Roxbury Twp., Morris Co. N.J. He was listed on the 1781 membership list for Zion Lutheran Congregation of German Valley (old Roxbury Twp.) now Washington Twp. (Long Valley) Morris Co. Nicholas Mohring signed the Constitution of the combined St. Paul's and Zion Lutheran Churches in 1767, this is the earliest known record for Nicholas.

Philip, Sarah and several of their married children moved to Whitley Co. IN in 1843/44. The Jacob Lash Maring Bible is stored in the house on a "Century Farm" where 5 generations of Philip's descendants were born. Maralyn Ann Tschantz, b. 7 Nov 1934, daughter of Harold F. an Marjorie A. Tschantz, was the last one born there. Marjorie Tschantz, a widow, lived there in 1982.

Philip served in the War of 1812 from 17 Sep 1812 - 30 Nov 1812 and then moved to Ohio in time to be married in Oct. 1813. He moved to Richland Co. in time for his son, Leonard, to be born there. According to Graham's history p.427, he lived on the SW quarter, Sec. 4 and voted in the first election of Jefferson Twp., held April 1818. Phineas Merring, a wheelwright lived on the same quarter section and voted in that election. Philip appears on the 1825 Tax List for Belmont Co., Ohio.

SCHRACK FAMILY

The Schrack family held their annual reunion at Casino park on 6 Sep 1917. Over 100 members of this pioneer family were present.

The ancestors of the Schrack family in Richland County were Charles and David Schrack, who came to Ohio from Pennsylvania at an early day. The two brothers settled on adjoining farms in Monroe Twp. The oldest descendant, Amon Parry, of Lucas, ae 86 years, was present.

William Wigtion, Monroe Twp., was elected president and Miss Florence Herr- ing, secretary.

- The Mansfield Journal - September 7, 1917

NOTE - Mrs. Snow called to tell us that the cemetery on the Bromfield Farm, now a State Park, was originally the Schrack Cemetery.

DEPOSITIONS

In some court cases in each court in our system there are depositions to be found. A deposition is written testimony taken on oath and can be taken in any part of the country where the witness may live. If you have never checked the Common Pleas, Chancery, Law Records or Probate Journals in Ohio to see if your ancestor was involved in any kind of a law suit, it may pay you to do so. Cash money in those days was scarce and if a debt came due a person might not have the cash to pay – such a suit was an amicable suit, they were the most common law suits. Others might be surveyor errors, slander, bastardy, criminal, etc. Here is one Richland Co. suit that gave much genealogical information in the depositions that were taken.

James Holgate
Sylvina Holgate
Elizabeth Slocum
Marcia Trucks

vs
William Trucks

Lydia Trucks, widow
Sylvina Holgate was Sylvina Trucks.
Marcia Trucks was from Luzerne Co., PA, as were the Holgates.
Heirs of Wm. Trucks Sr. were: Wm. Trucks; Elizabeth Trucks m. Slocum; Lura Trucks m. Levy Vanfossen; Sophia Trucks m. Alvie N. Lewis; Lydia, Junior; Julia Trucks, Huron Co., OH; Lucy Ann, George, Clarissa, John, Emily, Porter A. and Charles Trucks, all minors and living in Luzerne Co., PA.

Among other depositions, the following had this genealogical information:
Lydia Brown said she was the w/o Henry Brown.
John Bowman, of Luzerne Co. PA said Wm. Trucks Sr. left for Ohio in July or August 1815.
Lucretia Bowman said Lucy Ann was 2 and 1/2 yrs. when the family left PA.
James Cummings mentions his parents, Wm. and Leah Cummings and said he will be ae 21 on next March 11, 1836.

Richland County Chapter of The Ohio Genealogical Society Oct. - Dec. 1987
John McHenry said that James N. Ayres and Daniel Ayres are brothers. He also said that the 5 nearest neighbors of Wm. Sr. were: Daniel Ayres, James N. Ayres, Abner Ayres, George Ayres, Elizabeth Hell and Adam Keith.

Wm. Shurr knew Wm. Sr. since 1813 and said Wm. Sr.'s first wife was the d/o Daniel Ayres.

Joshua Miller said that Lydia Brown bore a child of David Snyder.

James N. Ayres stated that George Trucks left home and has been, as reported by the Truck's family, dead for 20 yrs. His father, Wm. Sr. felt he died on the Mississippi River for he had a letter that gave a fair description of him. James said he had known the Trucks in PA.

Wm. Hoy said he had known Wm. Sr. ca 15 yrs., mentioned he knew a Mrs. Miller, d/o Mrs. Slocum.

Russel Crandal said Wm. Jr. was probably 40 to 50 yrs of age.

Jacob Snider was probably 26 or 27 yrs of age.

David Snider was probably 24 or 25 yrs of age.

Michael Snider was probably 16 or 18 yrs of age.

The first papers were dated 19 Oct 1831, the last deposition dated 24 Aug 1838.

Chancery Court in Common Pleas sitting first papers filed 24 Feb 1835

vs

The case was based on the fact that Calvin Clark, dec'd.

the father of the Plaintiffs, had leased land for 99 yrs.

from deft's. and later used the land as collateral when he borrowed money from Cairns. When he tried to repay it, Cairns was not home. Clark claims that the deft's. conspired to take his land from him and foreclose on it. Genealogical information found:

Calvin Clark came with a large family in 1814 and died intestate 16 May 1835.

Widow, Mary, and other heirs: Bethuel; Elijah; Thomas; Ann m. Wm. Crabb; Mary, dec'd. m John Antibus and had a minor dau., Priscilla Antibus; Calvin Jr. and Hannah m George Wilson.

Samuel Mann stated on 11 Jul 1835, that his father gave Calvin Clark the money to pay Cairns - his father died on 8 Jan 1825.

Wm. D. Mann stated that Joseph Reid was a bro of Jarman Reid.

Alexander Mann said he lived on land adjoining that in question since 1814. Wm. Crabb said Wm. W. Cotgreave and Elliott were sons-in-law of John Reid.

Caleb Palmer knew Wm. D. Mann in Trumbull Co., Ohio.

NOTE: This case contained info on other families besides the Truck family.

Try researching for any law suits in which your ancestor might have been involved. There may be genealogical information that you did not know existed.

ABOUT YOUR SOCIETY

This Society holds meetings monthly, except July and August, with programs of interest to genealogists, historians and those who are interested in Richland County, its past and its present. August's get-together is a picnic.

The following dates have been reserved for our meetings at Kingwood Center's Assembly Room, 900 Park Avenue West, Mansfield, Ohio, at 7:30 p.m. Members will receive meeting notices prior to each meeting. The following dates are the fourth Thursday of the month: January 28, February 25, March 24, April 28, May 26, June 23, September 22, October 27 and December 1. Normally we do not meet in December; however the December 1 meeting is actually our November/December meeting. At that time, new members of First Families of Richland County will be inducted.
