

Chattanooga Savings Bank

COMMERCIAL TRUST SAVINGS

MEMBER
FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

October 20, 1920.

OBITUARY

PHILLIP S. O'NEAL DIES AT CHICKAMAUGA HOME

Philip Sherrill O'Neal, 84, prominent farmer of near Jersey, died yesterday morning at 6:30 at his home after a long illness. Funeral services will be held from Chickamauga Baptist church this afternoon at 1, the Rev. Claude E. Sprague officiating. Interment will be in the Tyner cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers will be: J. M. Poe, William Lightfoot, Sherrill Benton, John Poe, George Walker and S. M. Howard. Active pallbearers will be: Lee, John and Hannibal Lightfoot, Fred Sterchi, Wallace Moore and John Sweney, all nephews of the deceased.

Mr. O'Neal, who was a Confederate veteran, was born at Madison, Ga., on July 7, 1836. He served in the Confederate army under Gen. White, having enlisted at Cleveland in 1861. He took part in many of the important battles fought during the Civil war.

He was twice married. Children surviving him by his first wife are J. F. and B. K. O'Neal, of Arkansas. Survivors of the second marriage are his wife, who was Miss Annie McBride, and the following children: Mrs. H. Moss, Mrs. A. E. Dawson, Mrs. Thomas Ryall, Mrs. Rudolph Haensler, of New York; Mrs. W. E. Shelton, of Sacramento, Cal.; Mrs. Benton Potter, Fred D. and P. S. O'Neal, Jr., of Chattanooga.

Deceased had lived in Hamilton county since 1875. He was a devout Baptist and in earlier days was known to drive as far as fifty miles in order that his congregation might not fail of representation in the associations. He retired from business several years ago and had been an invalid for twelve months.

JOHN L. HUDIBURG DIES AT HIS KNOXVILLE HOME

John L. Hudiburg, Knoxville's well-known resident, died in that city yesterday morning at the advanced age of 80 years. For many years he was one of Knoxville's best known merchants and was postmaster at Knoxville under the Harrison administration. Charles A. Hudiburg, of this city, is a son of the deceased. He left yesterday for Knoxville. Will N. Hudiburg is a nephew.

Richard Lamb.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The death in a Brooklyn hospital yesterday of Richard Lamb, widely known constructing engineer, was announced today.

Mr. Lamb, who was 61 years old, surveyed the Albermarle and Chesapeake canal, planned drainage of the Dismal swamp, built the largest coal pier in the world and the Norfolk system of sewers, and for a time was chief engineer of the Wilmington, Newbern & Norfolk railroad. He also designed an electric canal boat towing plant and erected a test plant for it on the Erie canal.

Mrs. C. P. Connor.

Mrs. Isabelie Bible Connor, aged 20 years, died suddenly at her home near Red Bank at 3 yesterday morning. Besides her husband, C. P. Connor, the deceased is survived by three sons, Charles P., James A. and George Coleman; one sister, Mrs. Gilbert King, of this city, and two brothers, Lafayette Bible, of Dallas, Texas, and Coleman Bible, of republican of the republ cal republ several oth country, b space or 1 umns to b Cox, and opposition.

"They he said. candidate which the and direct have faile question e form.

"Witho first were lican ticke the camp likes a fig

"She r as she de willing to sufficient ceived to Harding, of suffice from the mask of d partisans honesty, 1 principle i

It is a the league "football that Gov. ratification changes, i have stat fication in therein si lessen our of the rig war and :

"And y day you v Senator E the countr Gov. Cox league and ervation way they elined to or the do who does

Mr. Ro O., where speech at club and in Memor that Sena dent or d can peop is ready.