

CHERRY TREE.

Dr. William A. Piatt, a native of Lycoming county, was educated at the Williamsport Academy; studied medicine with Dr. Thomas Lyon; graduated at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and located at the Cherry Tree in 1849. He was the first physician that settled at the Cherry Tree. He practiced his profession about four years, then moved to Vinton, Benton county, Iowa, and lived there for a year. He then returned to the Cherry Tree and continued to practice his profession till his death, in 1860.

Dr. Joseph H. Ake practiced medicine at the Cherry Tree from 1853 to 1855. (See Gettysburg.)

Dr. George McGamble, a native of Susquehanna county, educated at Harvard College. Studied medicine with Dr. George F. Horton, of Tarrytown, Bradford county; graduated at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, in 1848; practiced medicine a few years in his native county; moved to the Cherry Tree about 1855 and practiced till January, 1859. He then moved to Armagh, practiced there about a year and moved to New Milford, Susquehanna county.

Dr. A. R. Lovelace was raised and educated near Harrisburg, and was a practitioner of medicine before he came to the county. He located at the Cherry Tree about 1856, and practiced his profession until 1869, when he moved to the State of Indiana. He returned to Cookport in 1870, and practiced a short time, then returned to the Cherry Tree and remained till 1878, when he moved to the Pine Flat, where he is practicing his profession.

Dr. James Kelly moved to the Cherry Tree in 1859, and practiced there about two years. (See Taylorsville.)

Dr. James T. Adair settled at the Cherry Tree in 1861, and practiced about a year in that place. (See Indiana.)

Dr. Adam C. Wassam, a native of Indiana county, was educated and studied medicine in Darke county, Ohio. He graduated at the Cincinnati College of Medicine and Surgery; located at the Cherry Tree about 1867; practiced his profession at this place for five or six years, and then moved to Eureka, Kansas, where he now resides.

Dr. Emanuel Brallier, a native of Cambria county, was educated at the best schools in his native county. He studied medicine with Dr. Bann, of Ebensburg; graduated at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia; located at the Cherry Tree in 1868, and has continued the practice of his profession there till the present time.

Dr. William Hosack moved to the Cherry Tree in 1879, and practices medicine there at the present time. (See West Lebanon.)