

BIOGRAPHY.

Rev. John Hindman was born in Pennsylvania, graduated at Jefferson College, Cannonsburg, Pa., and studied theology at Zenia, Ohio. At the time of the union which constituted the United Presbyterian Church, Mr. Hindman joined those who protested against the union, and remained in the Associate Church until his death in 1860.

Rev. J. C. Telford was born in New York State, graduated in Sefferson College, and studied theology at Newburg, N. Y.

Rev. D. W. McLane was born in this county, graduated at Monmouth, Illinois, and studied theology in the Northwestern Seminary, Illinois.

Rev. D. H. Blair, the present pastor, was born in Bellefontaine, Ohio, April 21, 1841, served about three years in the army, studied preparatory in West Geneva, Ohio, in 1865-66, graduated in Monmouth, Illinois, in 1871, completed theological studies in the same place in 1874, began pastoral labor in the south part of this county in March, 1876, and in his present charge August 1, 1877.