

INDIANA CIRCUIT – EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION.

This charge was organized by the Rev. Joseph Porcch in the year 1877, and then consisted of two appointments with a membership of nineteen persons. During the fall of 1877 a revival took place which greatly enhanced the interests of the denomination. The circuit now consists of six appointments, one being situated in Indiana town, one in White township, two in Cherry Hill township, One in Rayne township, and one in Armstrong township. During the pastorate of Rev. J. Porcch two churches have been built with a debt of about $150.00, which is all covered by good subscriptions. Three Sabbath schools are in connection with the work, numbering 175 scholars. The entire membership now consists of one hundred and forty.
