

PASTORATE OF REV. J. DAY BROWNLEE.

The congregation was very sorry to part with Rev. Owens, but they were singularly fortunate in securing Rev. Brownlee to preach for them that summer. A call was made out, presented and accepted, and Rev. Brownlee entered upon his pastoral duties about three months after the former pastor was released. He was installed, and under his care the congregation is in a flourishing condition.