Known Burial Places of Civil War Veterans Within Tarrant County

This project includes veterans of both armies who lived, owned land, died, or were buried in northeast Tarrant County at any time after April 12, 1861. Most are Confederates, although a sizable number are Union. A small number fought in both armies…, first Confederate, then Union. A handful have been confirmed as soldiers but we are not sure of their allegiance.

Some enlisted here and stayed after the War, some moved here after the War and stayed, and some were here only a few years before moving on.

As of Sunday, May 4, 2008, we have confirmed a total of 470 soldiers. Of those, biographies of 343 are now online at: http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~txtarran/military/civil_war_vets.htm

The men in the lists which follow are only those whose burial places inside Tarrant County we have confirmed. Dozens more are probably buried here in unmarked graves, many more moved to other parts of Texas, and a few even left the State.

About one dozen died in the fighting or died in Yankee prison camps. In both cases, they lie in unmarked graves where they died, more in Louisiana than in any other single state.

Union veterans are in italics. All others are Confederates.
