Things to Know

Important information about Convention Hotel: ARRA has reserved a block of rooms at the Millennium Maxwell House Hotel for a special price (see page 3), and we must pay for them, even if they are not rented. When they are gone, we may be able to obtain more, but only if they are available, so get your reservation in early. The special rates are also available for two nights before and two nights after the Convention for those who would like a longer stay. Anyone registering after May 25 is advised to FIRST call Mabel Myrick at (205) 647-9233 to check on room status.

Overnight parking at the hotel is free to overnight guests.

The hotel provides free shuttle service to and from the Nashville International Airport. Call the hotel at (615) 259-4343 when you arrive at the airport, or use the phone bank in the baggage area at the airport. Wait for pick-up in the shuttle area just outside the baggage claim area on the ground level.

The hotel allows you to cancel a reservation up to 72 hours before your scheduled arrival without penalty. However, if you do this, ARRA will have to pay for your room. Also, if you check out early, ARRA will have to pay for the night you reserved but didn't stay. We had to agree to this in order to get the special room rates, so please try NOT to cancel or leave early.

Chapter Chatter

Looking back on 2009!

In March, the Atlanta-Area (GA) Chapter joined with the National Museum of Patriotism in celebration of Women in History. ARRA was featured throughout the museum, from the Rosie books prominently displayed in the windows of the gift shop to the display case and continuously running slide show in the museum itself. The exhibit featured pictures of Rosies both past and present. Each Saturday during the month, members of the chapter were present to answer questions and provide applications for joining. Hats off to Rosebud Kathy Lyles, chapter Secretary, for coordinating this endeavor. In November, chapter members attended a Veterans-Heroes Salute at Snapfinger Elementary School in the DeKalb County School System. Names of veterans and Rosies were listed on a “Wall of Honor” and children from the school, the Snapfinger Singers, presented a musical tribute. Pictured at right are (standing) Jean Ousley, WW II Veteran and POW Kenneth Powell, chapter President Billie Ruth Bird, and (seated) Jean Ousley’s sister, and Rosie Kathleen Powell. Report submitted by chapter Vice President Donna Brockmann.

Day, the Sunland Memorial Park has a service and always invites the Rosies. The band plays the Rosie song and Rosies stand and sing it. Our waitress at the Royal Café, where Rosies meet for lunch, had a granddaughter who was writing a report on Rosies and she got some information and a T-shirt from the Rosies. She received an A on her report. In September, Rosies enjoyed a bus trip to Harrah’s Casino, and in October, they celebrated the chapter’s 10th anniversary. In November, their current officers renewed their oath of office. On December 7, Happy Sargol, Arlene Crary, Betty Johnson, and Bonnie Smith attended the Pearl Harbor Day celebration at the Arizona Capitol. Santa Claus was present at the December meeting to give a gift to each member. Reports submitted by chapter President Arlene G. Crary, and chapter Secretary Wilma Rees.

The Columbus (GA)/Phenix City (AL) “Baker’s Dozen” Chapter of ARRA took part in many activities in 2009 aimed at increasing public awareness of Rosie the Riveter’s crucial role. In January, four Rosies – Carrie Pettit, Jean Liparoto, Juanice Still, and June Tinker (pictured at right) – participated in a panel discussion at the Phenix City Library. In February, the chapter participated in the Columbus USO’s 68th birthday celebrations and presented the USO with a commemorative piece of art. Pictured below is Robbie Watson, former USO Director, standing in front of members Carrie Pettit, Jean Liparoto, Vincent Melillo, June Tinker, chapter President Jonnie Melillo Clasen, and Barbara Gilbert Jordan. A reporter from a Columbus newspaper interviewed four Rosies for a Sunday front-page story on how overcoming hardships during WW II could provide insight for people in today’s economy. In March, several members went to LaGrange to support Rosebud Carol Cain’s Women’s History Month presentation at the A. Mitchell Powell Jr. Public Library, and attended the historic Sacred Soil Ceremony. Columbus State University’s history department sponsored a magnificent “Meet Rosie the Riveter” evening, which drew almost 200 peo-

On March 13, 2010, the Sun City (AZ) Chapter will represent Rosie the Riveter in a parade celebrating Sun City’s 50th year as a city. The group will carry in the parade the beautiful flag pictured at left. The flag was made by Mrs. Fran Ellis, ARRA’s Traveling Exhibit Coordinator, who is standing proudly beside the flag.

2009 was a busy year for this chapter. In March, the Rosies enjoyed seeing the play, Social Security. In May, they enjoyed High Tea at Faith Presbyterian Church, and also enjoyed a picnic at Fran and Les Ellis’s. Les knows how to cook a good hamburger! In June, several of the Rosies motored to Las Vegas for the National Convention. On Memorial Day and Veterans

Day, the Sunland Memorial Park has a service and always invites the Rosies. The band plays the Rosie song and Rosies stand and sing it. Chapter Chatter (cont'd)

ple. The chapter set up an extensive exhibit on Rosie and Merrill's Marauders/WW II at the WW II Heritage Days living history event in Peachtree City. The exhibit was also a part of the Veteran's Remembrance Day program at the Atlanta History Center in May and several special weekend events at FDR's Little White House in Warm Springs. In June, the chapter presented the program for Columbus Kiwanis. Four members attended the ARRA National Convention in Las Vegas. A real highlight came in August, when the chapter was asked by Ft. Benning's EEO office to present the program for their Women's Equality Day luncheon. The group was given a standing ovation by the 250 in attendance. Rosie Elizabeth Minton rode on the first Rosie the Riveter float (pictured at left) for the town of Manchester's Veteran's Day Parade, and Rivets Vincent Mellillo and Ray Minton were also in the parade. Report submitted by chapter President Jonnie Melillo Clasen.

The Birmingham (AL) Chapter has quarterly meetings throughout the year at a local restaurant. In May, they participated in the annual Blue Star Salute on Memorial Day at American Village in Montevallo (pictured at right). Six Rosies—Lucy Lewis, Maxine Parvin, Mabel Myrick, Idamae

Mason, Velora Anderson, and Fran Carter, along with moderator Rivet John Carter—gave a panel presentation to a packed room. Rosie Maxine Parvin and her daughter, chapter Vice President Gloria Parvin, represented ARRA at the event's wreath-laying ceremony, and national Treasurer Mabel Myrick set up a products booth in a high-traffic area. In June, Lucy Lewis, Beth and Charles Moore, and other members volunteered at athletic events at the 2009 National Veterans Golden Age Games, which were held in Birmingham. Rivet John Carter was a participant in the events and won a Silver Medal in the Air Rifle competition. At their June meeting, Rosies and veterans were given letters of gratitude written by fifth-graders at Gardendale Elementary School. Several members attended the ARRA National Convention in Las Vegas. In November, the chapter participated in a living timeline, which was part of an event to honor veterans, sponsored by the Alabama Veterans Memorial Foundation. Many children as well as adults stopped by to chat about WW II. Also in November, Rosies Velora Anderson, Maxine Parvin, and Fran Carter, along with Rosebuds Charlotte Mayo, Gloria Parvin, and Nell Branum, and Rivets John Powell and John Carter, drove three decorated vehicles in Birmingham's Veterans Day parade. The chapter has a local service project of collecting personal items for the VA Medical Hospital, and sponsors a permanent Rosie display at the Southern Museum of Flight. Members were featured in newspaper articles and television spots, including a feature article that appeared in the national Sunday supplement called American Profile. Reports submitted by chapter Treasurer John Powell and chapter President Nell Branum.

The Caldwell County (TX) Chapter is participating in the Hays Caldwell Women's Center's Hollywood Canteen event called "Victory Over Abuse Day" at the Embassy Suites Convention Center in San Marcos, Texas on May 22, 2010. They are providing volunteers, as well as a $100 gift basket for the silent auction that includes one each of the ARRA books. The event will include a patriotic program, dinner, dance, and more. Anyone interested in attending should contact Carol Peters at capeters12@austin.rr.com for tickets. The chapter will have their election of chapter officers on March 11 at Golden Age Assisted Living in Lockhart. The chapter's founder, Carol Peters, is enjoying her current role as national ARRA Secretary. Report submitted by chapter President Maebeth Mollberg and national ARRA Secretary Carol Peters.

A meeting of the Oklahoma City (OK) Chapter was held last March at the Oklahoma History Center in Oklahoma City, in honor of Women's History Month. Rosies from many surrounding areas were in attendance and are pictured below. The program included remarks from Dr. Bob Blackburn, Executive Director of the Oklahoma Historical Society, and ARRA State Director, Kate Grant. A video presentation was given, showing Rosies at work, and Rosies in attendance shared their stories. Several Rosie items were on display at the History Center. A luncheon was served, and it included a specially decorated cake provided by the children of State Director Kate Grant, in honor of their mother and their father, the late Rev. Melvin Grant, who was a decorated WW II Marine. Report submitted by State Director Kate Grant.

Women who performed the work are known as Rosies. Their female descendants are known as Rosebuds. Male auxiliary members are known as Rivets. A woman is eligible for membership as a Rosie if her work or volunteer services occurred during 1941-1945 and consisted of any one of the following:

The History of Aprons

I don't think our kids know what an apron is.

The principal use of Grandma's apron was to protect the dress underneath. Because she only had a few, it was easier to wash aprons than dresses and they used less material, but along with that, it served as a pot-holder for removing hot pans from the oven.

It was wonderful for drying children's tears, and on occasion was even used for cleaning out dirty ears.

From the chicken coop, the apron was used for carrying eggs, fussy chicks, and sometimes half-hatched eggs to be finished in the warming oven.

When company came, those aprons were ideal hiding places for shy kids.

And when the weather was cold, Grandma wrapped it around her arms.

Those big old aprons wiped many a perspiring brow, bent over the hot wood stove.

Chips and kindling wood were brought into the kitchen in that apron.

From the garden, it carried all sorts of vegetables. After the peas had been shelled, it carried out the hulls.

In the fall, the apron was used to bring in apples that had fallen from the trees.

When unexpected company drove up the road, it was surprising how much furniture that old apron could dust in a matter of seconds.

When dinner was ready, Grandma walked out onto the porch, waved her apron, and the menfolks knew it was time to come in from the fields to dinner.

It will be a long time before someone invents something that will replace that "old-time apron" that served so many purposes.

Here's something to remember:

Grandma used to set her hot baked apple pies on the window sill to cool. Her granddaughters set theirs on the window sill to thaw.

They would go crazy now trying to figure out how many germs were on that apron.

I don't think I ever caught anything from an apron.

Thanks to Rivet George Appleton (husband of Rosie Dorothy Appleton) of Las Vegas, Nevada, for this look back!

Accolades

Rosebud Donna Brockmann, Vice President of the Atlanta Area (GA) Chapter was awarded the 2009 Gifted Program Teacher of the Year by the Georgia Association for Gifted Children. Congratulations, Donna!

Paintings by Rosebud Jane Richlovsky of Seattle, Washington were exhibited in the booth of the JoAnne Artman Gallery of Laguna Beach, California during the Los Angeles Art Show at the L. A. Convention Center in January 2010. Way to go, Jane!

Rivet John Powell, Treasurer of the Birmingham (AL) Chapter entered and won a contest with AT&T. The prize was $50,000!! Congratulations, John!

Rosebud Nancy Treu Klotz, Co-President of the Atlanta-Area (GA) Chapter, has published her first novel, Murder at Indigo Springs. The novel, based on a true story, gives an account of the 1877 murders of an elderly brother and sister in South Carolina, and the subsequent fight by a Scottish lawyer for the life of the black man unjustly accused of the murders.

Norman Rockwell's Rosie Has a New Home

Norman Rockwell's painting Rosie the Riveter is now part of the permanent collection at the new Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art that is under construction and could be opening later this year in Bentonville, Arkansas. You may remember this famous painting that was created for the May 29, 1943 cover of The Saturday Evening Post.

Acquisition of the painting, as well as the museum itself, has been made possible by Wal-mart heiress Alice Walton, daughter of Sam and Helen Walton. The 52- by 40-inch painting was purchased from a private collector in June, 2009. So if you're passing through Arkansas in a few months, you might want to stop in and say hello to Mr. Rockwell's Rosie! Thanks to Barbara Worthey of the Sun City (AZ) Chapter for alerting us to this news.
