

Genealogical Codicil To My Last Will And Testament

To my spouse, children, guardian, administrator and/or executor:

Upon my demise, it is requested that, for a period of two years, you DO NOT dispose of any or all of my genealogical records, both those prepared personally by me and those records prepared by others which may be in my possession, including but not limited to books, files, notebooks, or computer programs. During this time period, please attempt to identify one or more persons who would be willing to take custody of the said materials and the responsibility of maintaining and continuing the family histories.

I suggest that the persons to contact regarding the assumption of the custody of these items include but not be limited to the following:

Name:	Address	Phone
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

In the event you do not find anyone to accept these materials, please contact the various genealogical organizations that I have been a member of or have been in contact with, and determine if they will accept some parts or all of my genealogical materials. These should include, but not be limited to the following:

Please remember that my genealogical endeavors consumed a great deal of time, travel, and money. Therefore, it is my desire that the products of these endeavors be allowed to continue in a manner that will make them available to others in the future.
