

A Living History Performance

This performance tells a living history of six characters whose stories are taken from those buried in the Saar Pioneer Cemetery. Each character will tell their personal tale of life in Kent, from Margaret Saar to Civil War Veteran, Elias Clark.

Saar Pioneer Cemetery
91st and 212th Way, Kent, Washington
July 17 & 18, 2010 ~ 1:30 p.m. or 3:30 p.m.

Reservations Required ~ Admission: $10.00 per person. Contact Karen Bouton:
email: forscher@comcast.net or call 253-850-2777 for ticket information.
(Not wheelchair accessible.)

A collaboration between The Saar Cemetery Living History Committee, Book-It Theatre, and Living Voices

WITH THE HELP OF THESE SPONSORS:

South King County Genealogical Society, Greater Kent Historical Society, Saar Pioneer Cemetery Project Committee, Goodwill Industries, and Hilda Meryhew.

Made possible with support from 4Culture Heritage and Arts Site Specific Program.

