The Lambert Family
Old Wythe County Virginia
1778 - 1930

Photograph

The photograph was taken from the Walker's Mountain Observation Tower north of Wytheville, Virginia. The tower base elevation is approximately 3,400 feet above sea level, with the tower adding about 100 additional feet. The view is looking north towards the ridgelines of Brushy and Burke's Garden Mountains in the background. Brushy Mountain is approximately 2,800 feet, with Burke's Garden Mountain, directly behind, continuing the rise to more than 4,000 feet.

After Henry (Johann Heinrich) Lambert Sr.'s emigration from Germany to Pennsylvania in 1765, he moved to what is today Wythe County, Virginia about 1778. His farm was over the photographer's left shoulder, about 12 miles to the south, around Rural Retreat, Wythe County Virginia. Two of his sons, Henry II (Heinrich II) and John (Johannes) married sisters, and about 1800 moved to the northwest portion of Wythe County in an area known as the head waters of Walker's Creek. The two farms, with a common northeast to southwest property line, were about 275 acres each and lay along the base and side of Brushy Mountain. The northern parts of these farms reached the top of Brushy Mountain with Burke's Garden Mountain rising in the background. The southern property lines followed the east-west base of Brushy Mountain and appear as the grassy knolls and tree-line in the background of the photograph. This part of Wythe County became Bland County in 1861.

The center-rear grassy knoll, and tree-line, is the southeastern portion of Henry II's farm with John's farm lying along the same east-west axis off the right edge of the photograph. (See map on page 602) The lands of John Jr., Stephen, Henry, Samuel Lambert and Henry Hounshell Sr. would be left-center, extending into the grassy knolls along the base and sides of Brushy Mountain. Much of the land described above is today lived on and farmed by Henry Lambert Sr.'s fourth great-grandson George Edgar Lambert and his sons Don, Wayne and Tony.

FORWARD

The material contained in this volume is not intended to be a family history. The family arrangements and individuals shown here, in many cases, differ from previously published reports and electronic display. This report is intended to help elicit further development, arrangement and inclusion of individuals and families not now known to be part of the ancestral heritage of Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. of pre-1790 Wythe County, Virginia. It is hoped that this data will be used as a source and catalyst for other Lambert family researchers and individuals wishing to determine their Lambert family ancestral heritage.

This book is the result of efforts by many family researchers and information accumulated from public, private, historical and anecdotal sources. The reader must not assume that any of the data in this volume is proven in manner or form, beyond the source references shown for each family, individual or fact. Where significant changes from previous journals exist, efforts have been made to review and explain the arrangements printed here. The information contained in this volume may not be reproduced, copied or used for any commercial purpose. The letters on pages 586 to 601 are private document transcriptions and may not be reprinted or excerpted for any purpose beyond reference notation, without the written consent of the owner. These transcriptions are included here as part of the justification process for the inclusion of over 25 percent of the current known descendants of Johann Gerhard Nicholas Lambert. The reader is encouraged to read the discussion concerning the definition and justification of the various Henry (Heinrich) Lamberts and the inclusion of the Samuel Lambert family beginning on page 28. This will explain several of the major changes, inclusions and rearrangements of the descendant families and individuals. This is also true for the Peter Lambert family discussion on page 6, which will define the reasons for his cautious inclusion in this work. For the new reader, a discussion pertaining to the Lambert/Lampert surname spelling, and its relationship to Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr.'s family in the southwest Virginia counties, is contained on the next two pages.

Of primary intent for production of this work has been the effort to "source" all of the data shown. Over 97 percent of the data included here has superscript references to the more than 4300 source citations listed on pages 458 to 530. Because of the volume of source citations, information taken from inter-library loan microfilm, original journals and third party sources may not include citation detail. To include these source details would have required a minimum of an additional 40 pages to this work, making the cost prohibitive. Certain dates that include the day and month, and taken from multiple sources that did not include reference information, are considered questionable. Where public documents such as census, cemetery marker transcriptions, marriage and court indexes are used, the data may appear in an abbreviated format as a birth, death or marriage date containing only the year. The date prefix "about" or "abt" is not normally included to avoid printed graffiti. It is assumed that the reader will note any date or data shown in this abbreviated form to be without proper justification and proof.

This volume contains many mistakes, including erroneous transcription. Individuals and entire families not descended from Johann Gerhard Nicholas Lambert may appear as a result of incorrect, misinterpreted and/or improper research. This volume is not considered an end product, but rather a first attempt to accumulate as much "sourced" and "justified" data, and as many family descendants as possible into a central location. Where these mistakes appear, it is the compilers' wish that they be accepted as the inevitable result of a first attempt to place this much accumulated data into a singular work.

The Lamberts in Southwest Virginia 1778 – 1849

Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr., or Henry Lambert Sr., left Germany and arrived in America in 1765. He lived in Dauphin and Northumberland Counties Pennsylvania until he moved to Montgomery County Virginia about 1778. He resided in that part of Montgomery County which became Wythe County in 1790.

Between 1790 and 1800 two of Henry Lambert Sr's known sons, Johann Heinrich II (Henry Lambert II) and Johannes (John Lambert Sr.), married sisters (Wolf) and purchased land in the northwest portion of Wythe County, at the southern base of Brushy Mountain along the head waters of Big Walker's Creek. They lived on this land until their deaths in 1856. This portion of Wythe County became Bland County in 1861, along with portions of Tazewell and Giles Counties. Much of this land today is owned and farmed by Johannes' descendants.

Between 1805 and 1809 Henry Lambert Sr's known son Jacob, and proposed son Peter Lambert Sr., married sisters (King) and moved to Russell County Virginia. In 1815 they are living along Sinking Creek in Glade Hollow seven miles northeast of Dickensonville. By 1840, both families are found living along the south fork of the Powell River on the north side of Powell Mountain in Lee County Virginia. Henry Lambert Sr's grandson, Henry Lambert Jr., is also living in the same area of Lee County after 1828. By 1837, another grandson, Stephen, is living in the Rich Valley area of Smyth County Virginia.

Lamperts and Lamberts from Southwest Virginia

No concrete evidence exists to explain why these two spellings of the same surname appear throughout the southwest counties of Virginia from 1790 to 1910. Historically and anecdotally, there were two unrelated Lambert/Lampert families found living in the Wythe County Virginia area in the late 18th and early 19th centuries. The patriarchs were Henry Lambert Sr., of the Wytheville and Rural Retreat area of Wythe County (south of Walker's Mountain), and Philip Lambert, living on the north side of Walker's Mountain adjoining Wolf Creek in the Bland County area of Wythe County, and later in Tazewell County. During the War of American Independence, Phillip Lambert's son Jeremiah confessed to being a Torie, and on 21 August, 1780 a court order was issued that would grant Philip protection if he returned his allegiance to the State of Virginia. No evidence has been found that any member of either family actively participated in this war, but the previous incidents may indicate Philip's heritage as being British.

One early item that places an apparent significance for this difference in the Lambert/Lampert surname spelling is the 1815 Virginia Land Owners tax record. The Lambert/Lampert families living in counties next to Wythe, or having known members of Henry Lambert Sr.s' descendant line, are as follows:

1. In Wythe County, Henry Lambert Sr's known sons Johannes (John Sr.), Heinrich II (Henry II) and Michael are shown with the surname spelling Lampert. With them is a George Lampert estate, whose heritage is unknown. Also in Wythe County are two sons of Philip, John and William, with the surname Lambert.

2. In Tazewell County, there are four members of Philip's family with the surname spelling Lambert, including Philip Sr. and his sons Philip Jr., Jeremiah and Stephen.

3. In Russell County, Henry Sr.'s son Jacob, and proposed son Peter -both with the surname spelling Lamphert- are found living in the same "described" location. Because of the sparse population during this period in America, most enumerators and recorders would have spelled names using direct knowledge or sound. If this is true for the above record, the Lampert and Lambert pronunciation or spelling must have been significant, either by sound or the direct knowledge of the enumerators.

After 1858, as known members of each family moved about southwest Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Illinois and Kentucky, this spelling difference becomes in some cases more pronounced. Birth, marriage and death records for Bland and Wythe Counties highlight this difference poignantly. From 1860 through 1910, over 85 percent of these events reveal that those descendants of Henry Lambert Sr., who lived in Bland County (formerly part of Wythe County and north of Walker's Mountain), appear in the public record with the surname spelling Lampert. This fact is amplified when descendants of Philip, living in the same areas of Bland County, are found in the same records with the same disproportionate surname spelling Lambert. Those descendants of Henry Lambert Sr. who remained south of Walker's Mountain around Wytheville are seldom found in any record after 1850 without the Lambert spelling.

Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr.'s grandson Samuel moved from Wythe (Bland) County in 1859. He resided primarily in Mason County West Virginia, with sons and daughters living along the Ohio River from Marietta, Ohio in the east to Gallatin and Harden County, Illinois in the west. The family was fractionalized by the outbreak of the War Between the States. His oldest son Stephen remained in Bland County, Virginia and fought for the Confederacy, while three other sons, Andrew, Ephraim and Wayman, fought in the Union Army. After Samuel became ill in 1856 and died in Mason County, West Virginia in 1865, his wife Nancy became destitute because all of her children had moved from West Virginia into Kentucky, Ohio and Illinois. Her middle son Wayman, who was taking care of her and Samuel shortly before he entered military service in 1862, died during the war. Nancy's application for a pension from Wayman's military service helps illuminate the Lambert/Lampert spelling difference. Because Wayman's surname spelling appears in both forms on different military records, Nancy was forced to explain to the pension board this difference to prove she was Wayman's mother. Two Wolf brothers, who grew up in Bland County close to Samuel's family, and who married two of Samuel's daughters, gave an affidavit on Nancy's behalf explaining that, for Samuel's family, the spelling difference was of no significant importance, but that they were more often called "Lamperts." (See pages 35, 36 & 37) More revealing is that two of Samuel's sons, Ephraim and James Preston, and their brother Andrew's son John Henry, resided in Gallatin and Hardin Counties, Illinois from about 1875 until there deaths after 1900. From that time to the present day, descendants of these three individuals continue to use the surname spelling Lampert, and were at a loss before 2003 to find their Lampert roots in Virginia because of this surname spelling. Other than the Illinois Lamperts, no known living descendant of either Henry's or Philip's family found living in the United States use the Lampert spelling today. (2003)

The highly detailed family facts and notes about Samuel's family, and in particular his son Andrew, appear because they account for most of the family's proliferation outside the southwest Virginia region (including eastern Tennessee and southern Kentucky) before 1900. These facts and notes are used to help develop the families for both of the surname spellings in Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr.'s descendant family. Andrew Jackson Lambert, Samuel's second son, spent most of his adult life living aboard a "shanty boat" traveling the length of the Ohio River. He was married four times, helping to establish much of the original Johann Heinrich Lambert/Lampert descendant base in Illinois, Ohio and West Virginia. With Samuel's oldest son Stephen remaining behind in Bland County, Virginia, the Stephen Lambert letters contained in the appendix make a significant contribution in connecting these family lines.

A NOTE FOR THE READER

The computer software used to create this volume will generate much of the sentence structure and phrasing. Because it is intended to be flexible, the resulting product may be awkward and difficult to read. Most, but not all, spelling errors are a result of exact transcription of census, court and other public documents. Where major spelling or structure errors in the original document might cause a misreading of the name, fact or intent of the information being transcribed, they have been highlighted with the transcription flag [sic].

The reader should note typical genealogical documentation abbreviations that are used in census and other source transcriptions to reduce excess wording. Some of these are as follows:

a.	age	e.o.p.	end of document page	h/o	husband of
abt.	about	e.o.d.	end of document	m.b.	mother born
a.n.r.	age not recorded	f.b.	father born	p.b.	parents born
b.	date and/or place of birth	f.m.b.	father & mother born	s/o	son of
d.	date and/or place of death	grd/o	granddaughter of	w/o	wife of d/o	daughter of	g-grd/o	great-granddaughter of	etc.

When these abbreviations are used in the volume text, they will sometimes be placed directly in front of the information or data, without the normal character spacing, e.g., f.b.Ohio, m.b.Va. = father born Ohio, mother born Va. – without the space after f.b. or m.b.

Individuals shown in this volume with capitalized surnames (SMITH), have not been found with the surname shown, to date, in any public documentation beyond anecdotal evidence or non-sourced publications.

USING THE BOOK

As descendants appear in the book, they are assigned an identification number in ascending order of appearance. The first person in the book is designated as individual # 1, his/her oldest child # 2, etc. The assigned number is unique to that particular descendant. Spouses of descendants are not assigned a number. A plus + sign in front of the identification number assigned to each descendant (+62), indicates that there is additional family and/or spousal data on that individual in the next generation.

As an example, descendant number 62: She first appears on page 9 (indented from the left margin) with her parents, a child of the 2nd generation, as:

+62 ii Mary Margaret (Peggy) Lambert (born 1802) The

+ next to 62 shows that she has an extended family in the next (3rd) generation. The Roman numeral ii shows that she was the 2nd child in that family. She next appears (against the left margin) on page 39, in the 3rd generation, with her husband as:

62. Mary Margaret (Peggy) Lambert (Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1)

Her ancestral lineage, back to Johann Gerhard Nicholas Lambert, follows her name in parenthesis, with each generation listed in descending order, i.e. Johannes - generation 3, Johann Heinrich – generation 2, and Johann Gerhard Nicholas – generation 1. The data and children accumulated for her and her husband follow this entry, with each of their children assigned a unique identification number as described above.

If you are unaware of your particular family line back to generation 1, begin by using the all-name index beginning on page 531 and find your parent, grandparent or other blood relative (one with a unique given name helps) who is a Lambert descendant in the 6th or 7th generation (born between 1880 and 1925). An example of a 7th generation descendant would be individual # 3506 on page 454. He is shown as:

In this manner any descendant contained in this volume can be traced back through his or her ancestral lineage to Johann Gerald Nicholas Lambert. As an example; Ralph's grandfather, Thomas Sanders Lambert and his family, can be found in generation 5 or the all-name index, on page 143.

When a descendant family member (child) did not marry, died without spouse or children, or has not been detected in the research for this volume, he or she will be assigned an identification number but will not have a plus sign + in front of his or her number. All available data on individuals without a + in front of their number is printed directly following their name on the page(s) where they first appear with their parents.

FIRST GENERATION

1. Johann Gerhard Nicholas Lambert[1,2,3] was born on June 18, 1705 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[4] The Palatine of Germany is an area now divided between Saarland, Rheinland-Pfalz and Hessen, formerly Bavaria's Rhenish Pfalz. The German name for Palatine is Pfalz.

He died on November 29, 1763 in Otterberg, Germany.[5]
He was buried on November 30, 1763 in Otterberg, Germany.[5]

He was married to Maria (Mary) Margaretha Schuler (daughter of Casimir Schuler and Maria Susanne Minton) on March 30, 1728 in Otterberg, Germany.[5] Because the German pastor had a fever, Nicholas & Maria were married, in the German language, by the French Reformed pastor. The marriage record gives Nicholas' father's given name as Johann, who is listed as deceased at the time of Nicholas' marriage. Nicholas is shown as a citizen of Otterberg and a "carter." His father is shown as being from Birren in the Archbishopric of Metz.

Maria (Mary) Margaretha Schuler[1,6] died on November 22, 1763 in Otterberg, Germany.[5]
She was buried on November 23, 1763 in Otterberg, Germany.[5]
Johann Gerhard Nicholas Lambert and Maria (Mary) Margaretha Schuler had the following children:

+2	i.	Maria Charlotte Lambert (born on August 28, 1729).
+3	ii.	Maria Catherine Lambert (born on July 23, 1732).
4	iii.	Jacob Lambert was born on December 30, 1734 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[7]
+5	iv.	Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.) Lambert Sr. (born on February 1, 1736).
6	v.	Maria Margretha Lambert was born on September 29, 1740 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[7,8] She was baptized on October 3, 1740 in the Lutheran Church in Otterberg, Germany.[9]
7	vi.	Susanne Magdalene Lambert was born on October 19, 1742 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[10] She was baptized on October 25, 1742 in the Lutheran Church in Otterberg, Germany.[11]
8	vii.	Sarah Lambert was born on April 14, 1748 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[7] Sarah's given name is spelled Sare in some records.
9	viii.	Carl Lambert was born on April 19, 1748 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[12] He was baptized on April 22, 1748 in the Lutheran Church in Otterberg, Germany.[13] He died on July 6, 1752 in Otterberg, Germany.[14] He was buried on July 7, 1752 in Otterberg, Germany.[15]

SECOND GENERATION

2. Maria Charlotte Lambert (Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on August 28, 1729 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[5]

She was married to Johann Conrad on August 1, 1764 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[16]

3. Maria Catherine Lambert (Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on July 23, 1732 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[5]

She was married to Johann Heinrich Feindel (son of Andreas FEINDEL and ?? (Feindel\mar)) on November 7, 1777.[17]

5. Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.) Lambert Sr.[18,19] (Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on February 1, 1736 in Otterberg, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.[20,18] John Henry was baptized Johann Heinrich Lambert. Otterberg is near Kaiserslautern, in the Palatinate of Germany.

He was baptized on February 5, 1736 in the Lutheran Church in Otterberg, Germany.[21] Henry's sponsors were John Henry Brock, a shop keeper from Otterberg; Maria Susanna Shuler; Peter Hubing and Johann Heinrich Müller, a butcher from Otterberg.

He emigrated from Froschen, Germany & Rotterdam on May 7, 1765 to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.[22,23,24] Henry arrived on/before 9 Sep 1765 aboard the ship named "Chance" in Philadelphia. The date shown on this record is the date when all the male passengers of legal age, were taken from the ship to the Philadelphia courthouse and administered an Oath of Abjuration. Henry is one of about 75 male individuals who would have been aboard the ship in the port of arrival. The following people from the Parish of Thaleischweiler were also on the Ship Chance with Johann Heinrich Lambert in 1765: Bockrickert, Israel; Gampfer, Johann Gottfried; Krieger, Jacob ("left with his wife and children for Pennsylvania on 7 May 1765"); Ludi, Nicolas ("it is recorded in the KB that they left for Pennsylvania in 1765"); Lüttig (Ludi), Eberhard; Metzger, Valentin. KB stands for Kirchenbuch (church book).

He resided in August 1766 in Derry Twp., Dauphin Co., Pennsylvania.[19] Henry's daughter Maria was born & baptized in this location in 1766.

He emigrated from Mahanoy Twp., Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania about 1778 to Montgomery/Wythe Co., Virginia.[1,25,26]

He purchased a land grant of 239 acres of land located on "a branch of the South fork of Reed Creek between 1778 and 1797 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[27,28,29] This land was surveyed in 1774 by Thomas Walker for John Messersmith. The land was assigned to Henry and he lived and farmed this land from about 1788 until the deed was made in 1797. This land transfer was recorded in Fincastle County Va. and was granted to Henry by John Messersmith. Land Grants in early America Virginia are described as follows by the Library of Virginia:

" VIRGINIA LAND OFFICE GRANTS 1779 - 1993"

"The Virginia Land Office was established in 1779 by the General Assembly and was headed by a Registrar "appointed from time to time, by joint ballot of both houses of assembly. ..." It was the responsibility of the Registrar to carry out the very carefully structured legislation that provided the procedure for obtaining waste and unappropriated lands. Under the act, any person could purchase as much land as desired upon payment to the Treasurer of a fee of forty pounds for one hundred acres. In return the purchaser was given a receipt, that was then given to the Auditor of Public Accounts, who issued a certificate noting the amount of land to which the person was entitled. The certificate was taken to the Land Office where the Registrar entered a warrant authorizing a surveyor to lay off the land. The warrantee entered a claim to the land by depositing the warrant with the surveyor of the county in which the land was located. Once the survey had been completed, it and the warrant on which it was based were returned to the warrantee whose responsibility it was to deliver the papers to the Land Office. The documents were examined by the Registrar, and, if correctly executed, were filed for a period of not less than six months. If, within that time, no caveat was entered on the survey, the plat and certificate of survey were recorded and the grant was issued by the Registrar. Once written, the grant was signed by the governor, sealed, recorded, and delivered to the grantee."

He appeared in William Doak's Company list on August 30, 1780 in Montgomery/Wythe Co., Virginia.[30,31] This was a local militia company.

He appeared in a tithable & property tax list in 1782 in Montgomery Co., Virginia.[32] Henry is listed with 2 individuals of tithable age (males over 16), 6 horses & 10 cattle. None of his known male children are old enough to be the 2nd male shown in this record.

He resided on land that adjoined the Lutheran Church on the waters of Reed Creek on September 13, 1782 in Montgomery/Wythe Co., Virginia.[33] This information was recorded in the survey for "the use of the congregation" on 21 March 1783. The church was later dedicated as St. Paul.

He appeared in Personal Tax List in 1793 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[34] Henry is shown with 2 tithable males and 7 horses.

He purchased a land grant of 31 acres on a south fork of Reed Creek, "adjoining the land he now lives on," on June 26, 1793 in Montgomery/Wythe Co., Virginia.[35] This land was surveyed in 1787.

He paid a property & tithe tax on April 2, 1800 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[36,37] Henry appears on Henry Stephen's list with 2 tithable males (males over 16)(himself & Michael) & 6 horses.

He sold 140 acres of land on the south fork of Reed Creek to his son Michael for $300, on November 23, 1808 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[38]

He sold 135 acres of land on the south fork of Reed Creek to his son Jacob for $300, on November 23, 1808 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[39]

He sold 61 acres of land on the south side of Brushy Mountain on Walker's Creek on December 13, 1808 in Wythe (Bland) Co., Virginia.[40] He sold this land to his son Heinrich Lambert II for $100.

He sold 159 acres on the southwest side of Brushy Mountain on Walker's Creek, to his son Johannes for $200 on December 13, 1808 in Wythe (Bland) Co., Virginia.[41]

He died on June 22, 1814 in Reed Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[42] Rev. John Stranger's records state that "old Lampe man died on June 22 1814." This is taken to mean Johann Heinrich Lambert by many researchers, but may be meant to indicate a member of the Lampy (Lampey) family living in Wythe County at that time. (Wythe Co. Census: 1810 pg 285; 1820 pg 218)

He was also known as Heinrich Lambert Sr. or Henry Lambert Sr.[43] Johann Heinrich is shown as Henry or Henry Sr. in many Wythe County Virginia records. To reduce confusion among the various Henry Lamberts of Wythe County Virginia, the following given names will be used in this work. Heinrich (Henry) Lambert Sr. (1736), Heinrich (Henry) Lambert II (1775), Henry Lambert Jr. (1799) & Henry Lambert (1804). The Henry Lambert born in 1804, is the son of Johannes and husband of Emaline Leedy. The lineage of these various Henry Lamberts is discussed in Henry Lambert Jr's (s/o Johann Heinrich II) family file.

At the time of his marriage Heinrich Sr. resided in Otterberg, Germany. His father was listed in the marriage record as Johann Nicholas Lambert. On 6 Dec. 1760, Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. married Maria Magdalena Daude, daughter of Heinrich Daude, a Wagner (wagon maker) from Fröschen, Bavaria, Germany. Henry's children who were baptized in the parish of Thaleischweiler, Bavaria, Germany were as follows: Maria Catherina, b. 5 Dec 1760 "illegitimate" and Maria Charlotta, b. 23 Oct. 1763. This does not mean that Johann Heinrich Sr. did not have other children who were born in Germany, it simply means that these were the only children born to him and were baptized in that particular parish. The same applies to anyone else whose children were born in Germany during this period. It must be kept in mind that Germans moved around a lot more than we might think, due to the fact that land was scarce. Most people didn't own land so they tended to move from farm to farm or town to town. Records may be found for a family in a number of different parishes in the same area. Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. apparently notified his church in Otterberg that he would be leaving for Pennsylvania on 7 May 1763 ("has left for Pennsylvania with wife and children 1763 May 7"). It is assumed that the 1763 date is an error by the pastor or transcriber and that the 1765 year is the correct one, as the Philadelphia lists show Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. arriving in 1765. His father-in-law, Johann Heinrich Daude applied for leave from the same church on 7 May 1765 as did a number of other parishioners. The surnames, Daude, Kinter (Guinter) Michaels or other German names associated with Henry and his children, are not listed as being aboard the ship "Chance" on Henry's 1765 trip to America. This does NOT eliminate the possibility that these other associated German families could not have arrived aboard the same ship on another trip to America, either before or after Henry's 1765 crossing.

There were three lists kept by the port officials in Philadelphia. First are the Captains lists. Most captains recorded only the names of the male passengers. These lists were written on large sheets of paper and handed to the magistrate of the court. Unfortunately these loose sheets of paper were largely lost. Second is the Oath of Allegiance, also written on loose sheets of paper, and for the most part lost. Third is the Oath of Abjuration, also known as the Declaration of Fidelity and Abjuration, which was kept in bound books and is the most common of all of the lists still in existence. Both the oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration were required to be signed by male adult passengers only. It was not until the 1780's that we regularly see the names of female passengers on the lists. Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. appears on the Lists of Abjuration in Philadelphia, PA on 9 Sept. 1765 for the ship "Chance." The original allegiance list for this group shows that Henry could write his name in legible script. However, his father-in-law Johann Heinrich Daude does not appear on that same list. It can probably be assumed at this time that Johann Heinrich Daude was on the "Chance" with his son-in-law Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr., since he asked to leave the church on the same date and it is to be assumed that he would have traveled with his wife and family. However, we must not make this assumption a certainty. The fact that they left in May and arrived in September would be correct for the trip involved at that time. It took 4-6 weeks simply to travel up the Rhine River to Rotterdam, Netherlands during which they would encounter 26 customs houses. At each of these customs houses, each ship was examined at the convenience of the officials. Once they arrived in Holland, they were detained another five to six weeks. They then arrived at the English port of Cowes on the Isle of Wight, where they would have about a 1 to 2 week layover as they went through customs and waited for favorable winds. Then they began a trip of 8 to 12 weeks, crossing from Cowes to the port of Philadelphia. All in all, the trip took up to six months to complete. The above information was obtained from the book "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" by Ralph Beaver Strassberger and William J. Hinke. (R. Groeneveld 6/03)

He was married to Maria Magdalena (Mary) Daude (daughter of Johann Heinrich Daude Jr. and Anna Elizabeth Brandstetter) on December 6, 1760 in Thaleischweiler, Germany, near Pirmasens.[44,45,46]

Maria Magdalena (Mary) Daude[44,18] was born on August 8, 1742 in Froschen, Germany.[47,45,48] Froschen is near Pirmasens, southwest of Kaiserslautern, in the Rhineland-Palatinate.

She was baptized on August 12, 1742 in the Lutheran Church in Otterberg, Germany.[45] Mary's sponsors were Maria Elizabeth Reinhardt, wife of Johann; Maria Magdalena Hoffen, single daughter of Georg, and Johann Jacob Matthils, single son of Peter, a miller.

She appeared in the Baptismal records on December 15, 1765 in Dauphin, Dauphin Co., Pennsylvania.[19] Mary appeared as a sponsor for Ann Barbara Stahelin. Appearing as a sponsor with her was Godfried Gampher. Godfried came to America with Johann Heinrich Lambert in 1765 and may be the nephew of Mary's grandmother Maria Catherina Gampher Brandstetter.

She died on April 29, 1809 in Reed Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[49] Rev. Stranger's records state that "the wife of Heinrich Lampert died on April 29 1805." The reader should note the Lampert spelling.

Maria's maiden name is sometimes spelled Daute, Doty, etc.
Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.) Lambert Sr. and Maria Magdalena (Mary) Daude had the following children:

10 i. Maria Catharina Lambert[18] was born on December 5, 1760 in Thaleischweiler, Germany.[18,50] She was baptized on December 6, 1760 in the Lutheran Church in Thaleischweiler, Germany.[18,50] The church records show Maria Catherina as illegitimate.

11 ii. Maria Charlotta Lambert[18] was born on October 23, 1763 in Thaleischweiler, Germany.[18,50] She was baptized on October 28, 1763 in the Lutheran Church in Thaleischweiler, Germany.[50]

+12 iii. Louisa Lambert (born on August 30, 1766).

+13 iv. Barbara Lambert (born on October 3, 1772).

THIRD GENERATION

12. Louisa Lambert (Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on August 30, 1766 in Dauphin Co., Pennsylvania.[51,52]

She was baptized on October 4, 1766 in St. Paul's Evangelical Church, Derry Twp., Dauphin Co., Pennsylvania.[53] The witnesses for Louisa were, Johann Eberhard Kettenring (Kettering), Cath. Daudin (female-Daude) and Louisa Gunterin (female-Guinter).

She died on January 5, 1810 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[54]

She was married to Andrew Hounshell Sr. (son of Johan (John) Caspar Hounshell Sr. and Christina Messersmith) on September 17, 1786 in Montgomery/Wythe Co., Virginia.[55] Louisa's name is transcribed as Lovelass Lambard from the original document. Clifford Canfield suggests in his book "The Hounshell Family of Southwest Virginia," that Louisa may be Andrew's second marriage with the following entry: "It is possible that Louisa was Andrew's second wife, or perhaps the recording of their marriage might have been delayed, as their son Andrew would have been only sixteen years old when he married Caty Peck in 1803. In those days there were traveling preachers and they did not always record events immediately at the Court House." Andrew Hounshell Sr. was born in 1759 in Pennsylvania.[56]

He purchased 113 acres of land from his father John, for $500, on September 1, 1798 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[57] Andrew's deed reads: "A certain tract of land lying (&) being in Wythe on a small branch of south fork of Reed Creek called and known by the name of Rocky Spring being the same whereon the said John Hounshell now lives supposed to contain 113 acres however the whole survey be the same more or less to have and to hold all the right and title to the property. Interest and claim which I the 1st John had or have in and to the absent tract as survey of land to the entry proper will benefit and behoof of him the said Andrew Hounshell and his Heirs free and clear from all & every other grants bargains and sales encumbrances from John Hounshell & his heirs etc.

Johannas (X) Hounshell Christina (X) Hounshell
mark mark October court 1798" (c.o.d.)

He died before February 23, 1832 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[58]

He had an estate filed on February 23, 1832 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[59]

He appeared in an estate sale of 45 acres of land for $350, located on the waters of Reed Creek, to Henry Umbarger on January 1, 1833 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[60] Andrew's heirs listed in this estate sale were: John & Sally Hounshell, Henry & Elizabeth Hounshell, Peter & Elizabeth Hounshell, Joseph & Sally Hounshell, Peter & Polly Creeger, Isham & Christina Brown, Jacob & Elizabeth Catron, William & Margaret Catron and Michael & Jemima Catron. All are shown residing in Wythe County. The absence of Andrew Jr. should be noted. This land laid next to Michael Lambert, Henry Hoppes Jr., said Henry Umbarger and John Umbarger. A plot of the deed shows that it contained 46.9 acres.

+19 i. Andrew Hounshell Jr. (born before 1786).
+20 ii. John Hounshell (born in 1788).
+21 iii. Henry Hounshell Sr. (born in 1789).
+22 iv. Maria Magdalena Hounshell (born on September 18, 1794).
+23 v. Christina Hounshell (born on February 28, 1796).
+24 vi. Peter Hounshell (born on April 25, 1797).
+25 vii. Joseph Hounshell (born on August 13, 1799).
+26 viii. Elizabeth Hounshell (born in 1804).
+27 ix. Margaret (Peggy) Hounshell (born in 1806).
+28 x. Jemima Hounshell (born in 1808).

13. Barbara Lambert (Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on October 3, 1772 in Dauphin Co., Pennsylvania.[61]

She died in 1846 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[62]

Barbara's marriage to Jacob has not been proven beyond subjective research by Lambert researchers and census data.

She was married to Jacob Creger (son of Michael KRIEGER Jr. and Catherine Mary (KRIEGER\MAR)) on February 15, 1789 in Montgomery/Wythe Co., Virginia.[63,5] Jacob Creger[64] was born on August 6, 1771 in Frederick, Frederick Co., Maryland.[63]

He died in November 1847 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[63]

Barbara Lambert and Jacob Creger had the following children:

+29 i. Michael Creger (born on May 20, 1790).
30 ii. Jacob Creger[63] was born on February 7, 1793 in Reed Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[63] He died after 1850 in Virginia.[65] He appeared in the census on August 19, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[66] Jacob is living with Sally Fuller, and is shown as a laborer at age 60.

+31	iii.	Samuel Creger (born on March 8, 1795).
32	iv.	Mary (Polly) Creger was born on January 20, 1797 in Reed Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[63] She died on August 24, 1881.[63] Polly never married and is living with her nephew Leonard Creger's wife Polly in 1880. The census shows her incorrectly as a sister-in-law.
+33	v.	John Creger (born on October 23, 1798).
34	vi.	Catherine Creger was born on May 10, 1801 in Reed Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[63]
35	vii.	Elizabeth (Betsy) Creger was born on August 17, 1803 in Reed Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[63]

14. Peter Lambert Sr. (Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born about 1774 in Pennsylvania.[67] Other researchers have Peter's birth place as Wythe Co. Virginia. If Peter's birth year is 1777 or earlier, and he is the son of Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr., he would have been born in either Pennsylvania or Germany. As he is not listed with Heinrich Sr., and Heinrich Sr.'s two daughters, on the immigration records, he would have probably been born in Pennsylvania. Heinrich Sr. immigrated to Virginia after Peter's probable birth year.

He appeared in a petition on December 15, 1804 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[68] Peter signed a petition to remove a dam on Reed Creek, along with John & George Lambert, Daniel Wisely, Michael Brown, Jacob Kinder, Frederick Repass, William Gullion and other family surnames associated with the Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. descendant line. Most, but not all, of the family surname individuals are grouped together, indicating that the names may be in order as collected.

He emigrated from Wythe County Virginia between 1805 and 1809 to Russell Co., Virginia.[69]

He paid a personal & tithable tax in 1810 in Russell Co., Virginia.[69]

He appeared in the Land Tax Records of Virginia in 1815 in Russell Co., Virginia.[70] Peter is shown with the surname Lamphert and living along Sinking Creek in Glade Hollow about 7 miles northeast of Dickensonville. He is living next to, or close to, his proposed brother Jacob.

He paid a personal & property tax in 1815 in Russell Co., Virginia.[71] Peter paid taxes on "one farm in Glade Hollow, 280 acres having thereon one dwelling house of wood, one story, 18 feet by 14 feet, one barn of wood, one stable, one loom house, one spring house, one corn house, valued at $840."

He appeared in the census in 1820 in Russell Co., Virginia.[72] The 1820 census has Peter's family as: Peter Lambert males <10-3, 10/16-1, 16/18-1, 16/26-1, >45-1, females <10-3, 10/16-1, >45-1.

He appeared in the census in 1830 in Lee Co., Virginia.[73] The 1830 census has Peter's family as: Peter Lambert males 10/15-1, 15/20-1, 20/30-1, 40/50-1, females <5-1, 10/15-1, 15/20-1, 20/30-1, 40/50-1.

He died bet 1830 & 1840 in Lee Co., Virginia.[74,75]

PETER LAMBERT, SR OF WYTHE, RUSSELL AND LEE COUNTIES VIRGINIA

No public data has been found to confirm Peter Lambert Sr.'s relationship to Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. Anecdotal and coincidental data only, make him a candidate as a son to Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. Development of early family heritage from anecdotal history, tax and census records is complicated by the fact that the wife's and children's given names do not appear in the census record with the "head of household" before 1850, just their "age group" and sex.

The 1815 Virginia Land Tax Records show that Peter Sr. and Jacob are living in the same location in Russell County Virginia under the surname Lamphert. In the 1820 Russell County census Peter Sr., along with Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr.'s son Jacob, and a Benjamin Lambert, appear as the first Lambert families to reside in Russell County. Benjamin's heritage is unknown, but is shown living in Wythe Co. Va. in 1810 and moving to Kentucky between 1821 & 1830. Wythe County Va. marriage and estate records show that the wives of Peter Sr. and Jacob were sisters. In 1830, Peter Sr. is found in Lee County Co. Va., along with his oldest son Joseph and Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr.'s grandson Henry Jr. In 1830 Russell Co. Va., the only Lamberts are Jacob, and Peter Sr.'s son William. These circumstances heighten Peter's possible close relationship to Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr.

The children shown here for Peter Sr. are, in part, a reflection of research done by Marva Wingard of Indianapolis Ind., and Mary England of Rutledge Tenn. Census compilations from 1810 to 1860 for Wythe, Smyth, Tazewell, Giles, Russell & Lee counties, leave little room for the Joseph & William Lambert shown here as the sons of Peter Sr., to be the sons of any other Va. Lambert except him. In 1830 they appear separately in the Lee County census record, with 2 male children of their age groups missing from Peter Sr.'s family record. J. Wayman is found missing from Peter Sr's family at the correct time (1840) and is buried in Claiborne Co. Tennessee, along with his brother Joseph and members of their descendant families. Using census records, John Wesley is the only child that creates any difficulty in his appropriate placement into Peter Sr.'s family. Being placed correctly into Peter's family in 1820, his place in the family is incorrectly "aged" in the 1830 & 1840 censuses. He is shown at 20 to 30 years old in 1830, and 40 to 50 years old in 1840. While the age difference in the 1830 census is within normal census deviation, the 1840 deviation is not reconcilable. If the age given by him in post 1840 censuses is correct, he would have been about 17 in 1830 and about 27 in 1840.

With no Henry Lamberts in Peter Sr.'s descendant line before 1899 (3 generations), his family does lack the normal German given name "hand-down" present in Johann Heinrich Lambert's proven family tree. In order by usage, Peter Sr.'s family contains a preponderance of male given names Peter, William, John, Benjamin and Stephen. Except where shown by source subscripts, all of the public resource data shown here for Peter Sr.'s family was transcribed by the compilers.

He was married to Mary King (daughter of John King and Anna Sibylla Kinser) on August 28, 1800 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] Peter & Mary were married by John Stranger M. G.

Mary King[77] was born about 1775 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[78]

She appeared in the census in 1840 in Lee Co., Virginia.[79] The 1840 census has Mary's family as: Mary Lambert, males 10-15/1, 20-30/1, 40-50/1, females <5/1, 60-70/2. She appeared in the census on October 11, 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[80] The 1850 census has Mary living alone at age 60, next door to her son John Wesley.

She appeared in the census on August 2, 1860 in Lee Co., Virginia.[81] The 1860 census has Mary's family as: Mary Lambert a.85 (house keeper) b.Withe [sic] Co. & Mary a.23 b.Lee Co. Mary, age 23, is probably John Wesley's daughter, as she did not marry until 1866. Mary is living next to her son John Wesley Lambert. She died after 1861 in Lee Co., Virginia.[82] Mary is shown as the sister of Catherine King, Jacob Lambert's wife, in their mother's estate records. Peter Lambert Sr. and Mary King had the following children:

+36 i. Joseph Marion Lambert Sr. (born between 1800 and 1802).

+37 ii. William Lambert (born in 1805).

38 iii. male Lambert was born between 1800 and 1810 in Russell Co., Virginia.[74,67]

+45 x. Peter Lambert Jr. (born in 1820).

46 xi. Juliann* Lambert was born in 1829 in Russell Co., Virginia.[83] She appeared in the census on October 11, 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[84] Juliann is living with her sister Winnie and brother-in-law William Cheek at age 21. * Juliann is probably the grandchild of Peter & Mary.

15. Johann Heinrich (Henry II) Lambert II[85,86] (Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on February 25, 1775 in Dauphin Co., Pennsylvania.[65,87] Henry's given name Johann Heinrich Lambert II is taken from his Pa. baptismal records and early Wythe County Deed records.

He was baptized on March 27, 1775 in the Lutheran Church in Dauphin Co., Pennsylvania.[87] Johann Heinrich Lambert II's sponsors were John Henry & Juliana Fretzler.

He purchased a land grant of 220 acres on the north side of Walker's Creek adjoining survey of John Henderson on July 8, 1796 in Montgomery (Wythe) Co., Virginia.[88] Henry purchased this land using the name Henry Lampert.

He purchased 50 acres on Walker's Creek adjoining William King and John Grayson on February 5, 1800 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[89] Heinrich II purchased this property with the recorded name Henry Lambert II. His son, Henry Jr., was born in 1799.

He paid a tithable & property tax on April 22, 1800 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[36,37] Henry Lambert Jr. is shown with 1 tithable male (himself) and 3 horses.

He purchased 61 acres on the south side of Brushy Mountain on Walker's Creek from his father Henry for $100 on December 13, 1808 in Wythe (Bland) Co., Virginia.[90]

He paid a personal & property tax in 1815 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[91] Heinrich II paid taxes on one farm on Walker's Creek, 110 acres having thereon one dwelling house of wood, one story, 20 feet by 18 feet, one barn, one spring house, all of wood, (all) valued at $250.

He appeared in the Land tax records of Virginia in 1815 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[92] Henry's surname is spelled Lampert. Henry is shown living at the headwaters of Walker's Creek about 16 miles northwest of Wytheville.

He purchased a land grant 138 acres on Walker's Creek on November 11, 1831 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[93] This property may have been bought by Johannes' son Henry. This record has been transcribed as Henry Lampost. There was no Henry Lampost in Wythe County in 1831.

He purchased a land grant containing 67 acres of land on Walker's Creek on November 12, 1831 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[94] The grant index has Henry's surname as Lampost.

He sold 285 acres of land for lifetime maintenance, lying on Walker's Creek, to his son James on January 4, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[95]

He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[96] The 1850 census has Heinrich II & Barbara living with their son James Lambert as: Henry Lambert a.75 b.Va. & Barbara a.78 b.Va.

He died on January 19, 1856 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[97,98]

He was also known as Heinrich Lambert II, Henry Lambert Sr. and Henry Lambert Jr.[99]

Johann Heinrich Lambert II is shown by other researchers as having a son named Wayman and being born in Virginia. This Wayman is shown marrying a Nancy Southern and dying in Claiborne Co., Tenn. The 1840 through 1880 US census records show a Wayman Lambert (born in Va.) living in Wythe and Russell/Lee Counties Va. The one living in Wythe County is Michael's son Wayman, and is identified by being at home with his parents in 1850, and remaining in Wythe County through 1880, with his mother and sisters living with him in 1860 and 1870. The Russell/Lee County Wayman is shown as Waymore Lambert in 1840 Lee County and shown being born in Russell County in the 1870 census, eliminating him as the child of Johann Heinrich Lambert II. The record for Wayman Lambert, shown by other researchers, is shown born about 1809. As some of the Russell/Lee County Wayman Lambert's children are seen living in Claiborne County Tenn. after leaving home, it would be reasonable to assume that the Wayman Lambert buried there is the individual from Russell/Lee County Va. There is no Wayman Lambert shown in any Tenn. census index from 1840 through 1880. The Russell/Lee County Va. Wayman gives his birth year as about 1820 in both the 1860 and 1870 censuses. The Wayman Lambert of Russell/Lee County has his wife's given name listed as Harriett in the 1860 and 1870 censuses. (5/03)

He was married to Barbara Wolf (daughter of John Wolf and ?? (Wolf\mar)) on August 26, 1794 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] Henry & Barbara were married by John Stranger, Minister of God. Barbara Wolf was born in 1772 in Germany.[65] Other researchers show Barbara's birthplace as Germany. Barbara 's sister Christina has her children list her birthplace as Germany in the 1880 census. As Barbara is older than Christina, she also will be shown born in Germany.

She died between 1851 and 1860.[97] Johann Heinrich (Henry II) Lambert II and Barbara Wolf had the following children:

+47	i.	John Lambert Jr. (born on April 10, 1797).
+48	ii.	Sarah Lambert (born on March 29, 1798).
+49	iii.	Henry Lambert Jr. (born in September 1799).
+50	iv.	Susannah Lambert (born on April 18, 1804).
+51	v.	Maria Margaretha (Margaret) (Peggy) Lambert (born on April 18, 1804).
52	vi.	female Lambert was born between 1804 and 1809.[100]
53	vii.	male Lambert[101] was born between 1804 and 1809 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[102]
+54	viii.	Stephen Lambert (born in 1808).
55	ix.	Mary Lambert was born in 1818 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[103,104] She appeared in the census in 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[104] Mary is living with her brother James in 1880 as a sister age 62.
56	x.	Barbara Lambert[65] was born in 1818 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65] She appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[105] Barbara, age 32, is living with her parents and brother James in 1850.
57	xi.	female Lambert was born between 1815 and 1820 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[100]
58	xii.	male Lambert was born between 1815 and 1820 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[100]
+59	xiii.	James R. Lambert (born in 1820).
60	xiv.	female Lambert was born between 1820 and 1825 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[100]

16. Johannes Lambert (Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on October 2, 1779 in Montgomery/Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,44]

He was baptized on October 17, 1779 in the Kimberling Lutheran Church, Wythe Co., Virginia.[44] John & wife Christina Hounshell were John's sponsors. Johannes' baptismal record gives his birth & baptism as: "Johannes Lambert; born 2 Oct 1779; baptized 17 Oct 1779; parents Johann Heinrich Lambert/Magdalena Lambertin."

He purchased a land grant of 100 acres located "on Walker's Creek, a branch of New River adjoining William Davis on July 15, 1797 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[106]

He paid a tithable & property tax on April 22, 1800 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[36,37] John is shown with 1 tithable male (himself) and 2 horses.

He purchased 159 acres on the southwest side of Brushy Mountain on Walker's Creek, from his father Henry for $200 on December 13, 1808 in Wythe (Bland) Co., Virginia.[107]

He appeared in the census in 1810 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[108] The 1810 census has John's family as: John Lambert males 26/44-1, <10-4, females <10-1, 10/15-1, 26/44-1.

He sold 133 perches (.83 acres) of land on June 20, 1842 in Walker's Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[113] This land was donated by Johannes and the deed reads: "This indenture made the 20th day of June in the year of Christ one thousand eight hundred forty two between Daniel Perkey and Latitia his wife & John Lambert Sr. and Christina his wife of the first part, and Alexander Umbarger Trustee for the Lutheran church James Henderson Trustee for the Methodist Episcopal church & John Shannon Trustee for the Presbyterian church all of Wythe County Virginia of the second part witnesseth that the said Daniel Perkey and John Lambert Sr. in consideration of a desire to promote the cause of religion and for the further consideration of one dollar in hand paid the receipt of which they do hereby acknowledge have given granted bargained and sold and by those presents do give grant bargain sell and convey unto the said Alexander Umbarger James Henderson & John Shannon, Trustees as aforesaid and to their successors for the joint use and benefit of the respective churches aforesaid one certain piece or parcel of land laid off from the land of the said party

He purchased 200 acres of land for $400 at the head waters of Walker's Creek. from his brother Michael Lambert on September 28, 1849 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[116] John sold this land 1 year later to his sons Samuel & Henry.

He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[117] The 1850 census has John's family as: John Lambert [farmer] a.70 b.Va., Christina a.74 b.Va., Joseph a.44 b.Va., Elijah a.42 b.Va., Catherine Oury a.38 b.Va., Polly Lambert a.11 b.Va., James Franklin a.7 b.Va. & Elizabeth Lambert a.44 b.Va. Catherine, Polly and James Franklin are found living with John's son Joseph in the 1860 census.

He sold 259 acres of land for $1 & lifetime maintenance, to his sons Joseph & Elijah on October 5, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[118]

He sold 200 acres of land for $400 lying on the head waters of Walker Creek, to his sons Samuel & Henry on October 5, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[119] This land was sold to sons Samuel and Henry jointly.

He died on November 19, 1856 in Walker's Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[98] John is shown having died of "erysephelas" [sic] at age 77. He is shown as a farmer with parents unknown. His death was reported by his son Joseph.

He was also known as John Lambert Sr.[43] John is referred to as John Lambert Sr. in a deed record in Wythe County in 1842.

He was married to Christina Wolf (daughter of John Wolf and ?? (Wolf\mar)) on March 24, 1799 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] John & Christina were married by John Stranger M. G. Christina Wolf was born in 1775 in Germany.[65] Christina's death record shows her place of birth as Germany, while her birth place is shown as Va. in the 1850 census. Germany will be used in this database.

She died on April 13, 1856 in Walker's Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[120,98] Christina is shown having died from "fits" at age 81 years. Her son Joseph reported her death. Johannes Lambert and Christina Wolf had the following children:

+61	i.	Samuel Lambert (born in 1799).
+62	ii.	Mary Margaret (Peggy) Lambert (born in 1802).
63	iii.	female Lambert was born between 1800 and 1804 in Virginia.[103]
+64	iv.	Henry Lambert (born in 1804).
65	v.	Elizabeth Lambert was born in 1806 in Virginia.[97,65] She appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[121] Elizabeth is shown living with her brother Joseph at age 50. She died between August 1860 and March 1863 in Bland Co., Virginia.[122] She appeared in a deed sale of interest by William & Barbara Lambert Henegar to Barbara's brother Joseph Lambert, on April 16, 1863 in Bland Co., Virginia.[123] William & Barbara were giving up any claim to Barbara's deceased sister Elizabeth's claim in lands granted to their brothers Joseph & Elijah Lambert, by their father Johannes in 1850. The land was shown as adjoining Daniel Perkey. Barbara and William were paid $100 for this "quit claim" deed.
+66	vi.	Joseph Lambert (born about 1807).
+67	vii.	Elijah Lambert (born in 1808).
+68	viii.	Catherine Lambert (born in 1812).
+69	ix.	Barbara Lambert (born in 1813).

17. Johann Michael Lambert (Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on September 5, 1782 in Reed Creek, Montgomery/Wythe Co., Virginia.[44]

He was baptized on September 17, 1782 in the Kimberling Lutheran Church, Wythe Co., Virginia.[124] Michael's sponsors were John Michael Niess & wife. Michael's baptismal record is shown as "Johann Michel Lambert; born 5 Sept; baptized 17 Sept; parents Hinrich [sic] Lambert/Maria Magdalena Lambert." The year is not shown but most of the entries are in order by date, with Michael's entry laying between other 1782 dates. His birth day is shown as 5 Sept, but as the number five is against the left edge of the page, and the page is badly worn, the day could be 5, 15 or 25. Most transcriptions show the date as 5 Sept.

He purchased 140 acres of land on the south fork of Reed Creed from his father Henry for $300, on November 23, 1808 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[125]

He appeared in the census in 1810 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[126] The 1810 census has Michael's family as: Michael Lambert males >10-2, 10/15-1, 26/44-1, >45-1, females 26/44-1, 16/25-1, >10-1. Michael would qualify for the male 26/44, and his wife Maria the female 16/25. Their sons William & David would be the 2 males under 10. Because Michael is known to have lived and farmed the original Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr's farm in Crockett, and the death year for Johann Heinrich is 1814, it must be assumed that the male above 45 years is Johann Heinrich Sr. The two unidentified individuals (male 10/14 & female 26/45) cannot be reconciled because of the death of Johann Heinrich Sr.'s wife in 1809 and Michael & Maria Michael's proposed marriage about 1804. The male child 10/14, may be the unnamed child of Michael & Maria if they married about 1799, making Maria about 15 years old. This would not be unusual for 18th or 19th century marriages. This male child is not present in Michael's family nor identified as a separate individual in Wythe, Smyth, Lee or Tazewell counties in 1820. The female 26/45 could be Maria's mother or sister, and/or one of Michael's two older sisters who have not been found in research to date. They would have been 46 & 50 years old in 1810. It appears that Maria's parents are present in Cumberland Co., Pa. in 1800, with both individual's being above 45 years old, making the female aged 26/45 in this census not a probable match for Michael's mother-in-law. (4/04)

He purchased 135 acres of land labeled "the Stuart Tract," laying north of his current property on Reed Creek in 1812 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[127] This 135 acres joined the east side of the St. Paul Lutheran Church property. This land also adjoined the land granted to his father Henry in 1797, by John Messersmith.

He paid a personal & property tax in 1815 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[128] Michael paid taxes on one farm on South Fork of Reed Creek on the main road, 287 acres having thereon four dwelling houses of wood, the one two stories high, 30 feet by 23 feet, one and a half stories, 22 feet by 18 feet, two others one story each, 18 feet by 16 feet, four barns, one stable, two spring houses, three meat houses, one loom house, (all) valued at $2870.

He purchased a land grant of 200 acres of land on the head waters of Walker's Creek on November 3, 1832 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[129] This land grant is indexed as being in Cabell Co. Va. It is not known whether this is a transcription or clerical error. The deed reads "Wythe Co." and plotting of the land description, proves that it is the same land that Michael sold to his brother Johannes (John) in 1849, who 1 year later sold the land for the same price to his sons Samuel and Henry. The 1832 deed reads: "Two hundred acres, situate in Wythe County on the head waters of Walker's Creek etc., etc." Michael's surname is spelled Lampent on this record.

He sold 200 acres of land for $400, to his brother Johannes (John Sr.) on September 28, 1849 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[130] Michael purchased this property via a land grant in 1832.

He appeared in the census on September 6, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[131] The 1850 census has Michael's family as: Michael Lambert [farmer] a.66 b.Va, Mary a.65 b.Va., Wayman a.38 b.Va., Elizabeth a.35 b.Va, Polly a.25 b.Va., Jackson a.10 b.Va. & Carline(?) Wang a.10 b.Va.

He signed a will on August 19, 1859 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[132] Michael's will reads: "In the name of God Amen I Michael Lambert of the county of Wythe and State of Virginia being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life do therefore make proclaim publish and declare this to be my last Will & Testament. That is to say First after all my lawful debts are paid and discharged the residue of my Estate Real and Personal I give bequeath and dispose of as follows to wit to my two sons Waymon & Jacob all my land and appurtenances situated thereon I will and direct that my son Waymon to have and to hold the parcel of land known by the grant and the home where I now live and the land and appurtenances to be divided by the parties namely my sons Waymon & Jacob as they shall think best. I will and direct that my son Waymon and my daughter Elizabeth to have and to hold all my personal property equally between them. I will and direct that my two daughters Elizabeth & Ann live, remain, and have their home with me as long as they shall remain unmarried. I will and appoint that our old Home shall be the residence and the Home of my beloved wife and myself until our death supported by the parties namely Waymon & Jacob and I will and direct that the said parties Waymon & Jacob pay out five hundred dollars after my death equally among the following Heirs namely William Catherine David Joseph and Ann. Likewise I make, constitute and appoint my said son Waymon to be the sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal the nineteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty nine.

Michael X Lambert

Attest Peter Wetzel William Umbarger"

He signed a codicil to his Will on January 10, 1860 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[133]

He died on March 13, 1860 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[134,135] Michael's birth date shown on his cemetery marker does not agree with his birth and baptismal records. His baptismal records will be used here. Michael appears on the 1860 census mortality record as having died in March 1860, age 77, born in Va., married, farmer, and dying from crassithphales that he suffered from for 10 days.

He was buried after March 31, 1860 in the St. Paul's Lutheran Church Cemetery, Wythe Co., Virginia.[33]

He had a will filed in April 1860 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[136]

Michael's children have been determined by the heirs listed in his Will, and census data.

He was married to Maria (Mary) Michaels (daughter of Martin Michaels and Catherine (Michaels\mar)) before 1805 in Northumberland Co., Pa. or Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]

Maria (Mary) Michaels[137] was born on February 4, 1784 in Austria/Germany.[65,33,138] Maria's sons Wayman, Jacob and William, give their mother's birth place as Austria/Germany in the 1880 Wythe County Va. census. Her cemetery marker gives her birth date as 5 Jan 1784 in Germany.

She appeared in the census on June 23, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[97] The 1860 census has Mary, age 78, living with her son Wayman.

She appeared in the census on June 23, 1870 in Black Lick Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[139] The 1870 census has Mary's family as: William Lambert [farmer] a.63, Mary a.87. Betsey [sic] a.49, Ann Snavely a.42, Sarah A. Snavely a.22, Thomas Wood [day laborer] a.12 & Wesley Findley [day laborer] a.22. William, Betsy & Ann Snavely are Mary's children. William's appearance with his mother, sisters, niece and 2 day laborers in the above record, shows from the stop number, that this is his 2nd appearance in the census on the same day, and that his own home is close to his mother's residence, and probably the original home of his parents. It is assumed that this appearance is a visit by him to help with the operation of his mother's farm. This appearance is stop 202 and his own family is stop 183.

She died on November 3, 1872 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[33]

She was buried after November 3, 1872 in the St. Paul's Lutheran Church Cemetery, Wythe Co., Virginia.[33]

Mary Michaels' family heritage is not known (6/03). On 5 Sept. 1785 the ship "Favorite" arrived in Philadelphia with the Martin Michael family. Martin was accompanied by his wife Catherine, daughters Catherine Elizabeth, Anna Maria and a George Muller. This family's daughters and/or mother could fit the two Michael's marriages in Wythe County for a Henry Lambert to a Catherine Michaels on 23 May 1797 and Michael's marriage to Maria (Mary) Michaels about 1804. The 1797 marriage could be a 2nd marriage for Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr., as the death date shown in this database for him is from an entry in the St. Paul's minister's diary that reads; "old Lampe man died on June 22 1814" which could be another Wythe County family and not a misspelling for Johann Heinrich Lambert. A Lampey (Lampe) family resided in Wythe County at the time of this death record. Martin Michael is found living in Northumberland County Pa. in 1790 census with 3 female family members (1 male-Martin). This is one of the counties that Heinrich Lambert Sr. (1736) is known to have lived in before he immigrated to Montgomery/Wythe County Va. A list of the Michael/Michaels families living in the Northumberland area of Pa. from 1790 to 1840, indicates that the Michael spelling was more common than Michaels. Many families appear to "change" back and forth in the public record on the surname spelling, just as our Lambert/Lampert families did in Wythe and Bland Counties. The public record indicates that Henry Lambert Sr. came to Virginia before 1785 but this would not necessarily preclude him or Michael from knowing Martin's family. As there were no male family members in Martin's family besides himself in 1790, and he disappears from the Pa. census record in 1800, his wife and daughters could have moved to Wythe County before the time of the two Michaels/Wythe Co. marriages. This would also not eliminate the possibility that the families were acquainted prior to their emigration to Pa. and Va., and the courtship and/or marriages were arranged via letters.

+71 i. William Lambert (born on July 27, 1805).

+72 ii. David Lambert (born in 1807).

73 iii. female Lambert was born between 1805 and 1810 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[103]

74 iv. Wayman Lambert was born in 1812 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]

He purchased 85 acres of land for $500, lying on the waters of Reed Creek, from John B. Straw on April 15, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[140]

He purchased .64 acres of land adjoining his father Michael's land for $10, from Henry Hoppess of Carroll Co. on February 14, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[141]

He sold 22 acres of land for $562, laying corner to the church, to the St. Paul's Lutheran Church Trustees on February 9, 1852 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[142] Wayman received $10 cash with the balance being held as a loan to the church. This land was sold the same day his brother Jacob sold additional acreage to the church.

He was commissioned a Justice of the Peace on June 28, 1852 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[143,144] Wayman is shown as Justice of the Peace on a security deed written on behalf of his brother Jacob & Ephraim Catron.

He served on the Wythe County Board of Justices between 1854 and 1858 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[145]

He purchased 98½ acres of land for $700, lying on the waters of Cripple Creek, from John & Alpha Wisely on May 25, 1854 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[146] Wayman bought this land in co-ownership with his brother Jacob.

He appeared in the census on June 23, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[147] The 1860 census has Wayman's family as: Wayman Lambert [farmer] a.48 b.Va., Mary a.78 b.Va., Elizabeth a.41 b.Va., Ann Snavely a.37 b.Va., Mary Snavely a.13 b.Va., Sarah Snavely a.12 b.Va & Isabelle Snavely a.9 b.Va. Mary, age 78, is Wayman's mother. Wayman's father Michael, died in March of 1860. Ann Snavely & Elizabeth Lambert are Wayman's sisters.

He appeared in the census on August 5, 1870 in Speedwell Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[149] The 1870 census has Wayman's family as: Wayman Lambert [farmer] a.54, Catherine {sister-in-law} a.46, Mary {niece} a.25, George A. {nephew} a.3, Gordon Brown a.13, Robert Earheart a.14, Rush Ward [day laborer] a.29, Jane Parks [domestic servant] a.29, Lucy Parks a.6 & William Murry [day laborer] a.18. Catherine, Mary & George A. are Wayman's brother Joseph's wife and family. As a bricklayer, anecdotal speculation states that Joseph may have been away building his own home, which was built at about this time in another location in Speedwell Twp. Rush Ward is the husband of Wayman's niece Mary. Why Mary is not shown with the surname Ward is probably an enumerator error. {-} Compiler's insert. He appeared in the Virginia Agriculture Census on August 6, 1870 in Speedwell Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[150] Wayman is shown with 300 acres of improved and 400 acres of woodlands valued at $10,000. He is shown with farm implements worth $150, livestock worth $1000 and a total farm production value of $450.

He appeared in the census on June 5, 1880 in Black Lick, Wythe Co., Virginia.[151] The 1880 census has Wayman & Elizabeth (sister) living alone as Wamen [sic] a.68 b.Va. f.b.Austria m.b.Austria, Elizabeth (sister) a.58 b.Va f.b.Va. m.b.Va.

He died in 1882 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[152] Wayman's birth year on his cemetery marker does not agree with the 1850 census record. His cemetery marker date will be used here.

He was buried in 1882 in the St. Paul's Lutheran Church Cemetery, Wythe Co., Virginia.[153]

+75 v. Joseph Lambert (born on February 4, 1814).

76 vi. Catherine Lambert was born between 1810 and 1820 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[103] Catherine is named in Michael's will, but not found in other public records.

+77 vii. Elizabeth (Betsy) Lambert (born on March 31, 1818).

+78 viii. Anne (Anna) Lambert (born on July 5, 1821).

+79 ix. Jacob Michael Lambert (born on October 15, 1825).

80 x. Polly Lambert[154] was born on November 14, 1825 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,155]
She died on March 23, 1852 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[155] She was buried after March 23, 1852 in the St. Paul's Lutheran Church Cemetery, Wythe Co., Virginia.[155]

18. Jacob Lambert Sr.[156] (Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born about 1787 in Montgomery/Wythe Co., Virginia.[83,78]

He purchased 135 acres of land on the south fork of Reed Creek from his father Henry for $300, on November 23, 1808 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[157]

He sold 135 acres of land on the south fork of Reed Creek to George Kinzer in 1810 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[127] Jacob moved to Russell County Virginia after this sale. No land purchase has been found for Jacob in Russell or Lee Counties. (7/03)

He appeared in the Land Tax Records of Virginia in 1815 in Russell Co., Virginia.[158] Jacob is shown with the surname Lamphert and living along Sinking Creek in Glade Hollow about 7 miles northeast of Dickensonville. He is living next to, or close to, his propose brother Peter.

He paid a personal & property tax in 1815 in Russell Co., Virginia.[159] Jacob paid taxes on "one farm in Glade Hollow, 270 acres having thereon one dwelling house of wood, one story. 18 feet square, one stable, one corn house, valued at $1080."

He appeared in the census in 1820 in Russell Co., Virginia.[160] The 1820 census shows a male child born between 1794 and 1804. Jacob and Catherine were not married until 1807. No 1810 census has been found for Jacob, making the age discrepancy for the oldest child unremarkable in 1820.

He appeared in the census in 1830 in Russell Co., Virginia.[161] The 1830 census has Jacob's family as: Jacob Lambert males 40/50-1, 10/15-2, 5/10-1, <5-1, females 40/50-1, 20/30-1, 10/15-1, <5-1.

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Lee Co., Virginia.[162] The 1840 census has Jacob's family as: Jacob Lambert males 50/60-1, 20/30-1, 15/20-1, 10/15-1, females 50/60-1, 15/20-1, 10/15-1, <5-1.

He purchased 4 tracts of land containing 286 acres for $1300, on the south fork of the Powell River on February 8, 1844 in Lee Co., Virginia.[163] Jacob purchased this land from Benjamin F. & Barbary Habin.

He purchased 50 acres of land located on the north side of Powell Mountain for $50 on August 11, 1846 in Lee Co., Virginia.[164] Jacob purchased this land from James Wills.

He purchased a land grant of 10 ½ acres near the south fork of the Powell River on August 31, 1846 in Lee Co., Virginia.[165] The deed describes this 10 1/2 acres adjoining a "corner" of Jacob's existing land in Lee County.

He sold 346 ½ acres of land in 6 tracts located on the south fork of the Powell River, for $800 on August 17, 1847 in Lee Co., Virginia.[166] This land was sold to Jesse Gilly. This land was purchased by Jacob in 1844 & 1846 containing 6 tracts. His original purchase price was in excess of $1350. This land may have been purchased and sold by Jacob Lambert Jr., as the wife's given name is not shown on the 1847 sale deed and Jacob Jr. moved from Lee to Russell County about 1844.

He appeared in the census on July 30, 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[167] The 1850 census has Jacob's family as Jacob Lambert [farmer] a.61, Catherine a.61, Harvey a.37, Mary a.35, James a.5, Catherine a.4, Emily Morris a.15 and William Patten a.7. Mary is Harvey's wife and James & Catherine are Harvey's children. Emily Morris & William Patten's relationship to Jacob is unknown. William Patten is shown as Patton Lambert with Jacob in 1860. Jacob's grandson Harvey V. Lambert names a son Patton.

He appeared in the census on August 9, 1860 in Lee Co., Virginia.[168] The 1860 census has Jacob's family as: Jacob Lambert [farmer] a.75 b.Wythe Co., Nancy a.35 b.Lee Co. and Patten a.18 b.Lee Co. Jacob is living two stops from his son Harvey and 4 stops from his daughter Catherine Poteet.

He appeared in the census on July 22, 1870 in Lee Co., Virginia.[169] The 1870 census has Jacob's family as: Jacob Lambert a.83 b.Wythe Co. & Nancy a.48 b.Lee Co.

He died after August 1870 in Lee Co., Virginia.[82]

He was married to Catherine King (daughter of John King and Anna Sibylla Kinser) on December 3, 1807 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] Jacob & Catherine were married by John Stranger M. G. Catherine King[170] was born in 1789 in North Carolina.[83] She died between 1850 and 1854.[83,171] Catherine is shown as the sister of Mary King, Peter Lambert Sr.'s wife, in their mother's estate records.

Jacob Lambert Sr. and Catherine King had the following children:

81	i.	Anna Lambert[5] was born between 1810 and 1815 in Virginia.[67]
82	ii.	Elizabeth Lambert[5] was born between 1811 and 1815 in Virginia.[67]

This individual is assumed to be Joseph's & Sarah's daughter because of her proximity to her nephew, age and the uncommon given name Barthena (Bartheny). She is shown single and having had no children. She is listed in her father's 1875 Will as Barthena Wolfe, indicating that she was married at that time.
+138	xi.	Wayman C. Hounshell (born in December 1843).

26. Elizabeth Hounshell (Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1804 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]

He is listed in other family researchers as the son of Jemima Catron, William & Margaret's daughter. This is not probable as Jemima is married to George Smith by 1859 with a son James A., born in Nov 1859, present with George & Jemima in 1860.

She was married to William Catron on April 28, 1825 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[55] William Catron was born in 1802 in Virginia.[65]

He appeared in the census on July 16, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[220] The 1850 census has William's family as: William Catron [farmer] a.48, Margaret a.46, Ephraim a.21, Jemima a.18, Rachel a.16, Mary A. a.13, Elizabeth a.10, Martha J. a.8, Frances a.5, Stephen a.2 & Margaret Stroupe a.4.

He appeared in the census on July 13, 1860 in Grayson Co., Virginia.[221] The 1860 census has William's family as: William Catron [miller] a.57, Peggy a.54, Jane M. a.17, Frances a.15, Stephen a.12, William K. a.10 & Margaret S. a.14. Because Margaret S. (Stroupe) is out of age order and appears in 1850 as Margaret Stroupe, it is assumed that she is not the child of William & Peggy, but the probable mother of Harvey V. Catron, living with Peggy in 1870 at age 10.

He died before 1870 in Grayson Co., Virginia.[222]

The Hawks who married William & Peggy Hounshell Catron's daughters, Martha & Frances, are probably 1st cousins, as they are living next to one another in the 1860 census record with fathers that appear as probable brothers (Isaac & Martin). The surname Hawks, as shown on some records for this family, appears in the pre 1910 census record in Grayson County more often as Hawk or Houk.

Margaret (Peggy) Hounshell and William Catron had the following children:

+145 i. Peter Catron (born in March 1826).
+146 ii. Catherine Catron.
+147 iii. Ephraim Catron (born in 1829).
+148 iv. Jemima Catron (born in 1832).
+149 v. Rachel Catron (born in 1834).
150 vi. Mary A. Catron was born in 1837 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]
+151 vii. Elizabeth Catron (born in 1840).
+152 viii. Martha Jane Catron (born in 1842).
+153 ix. Frances (Fannie) Catron (born in October 1846).
+154 x. Stephen Catron (born in 1848).
+155 xi. William Kent Catron (born in March 1851).

28. Jemima Hounshell (Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1808 in Crockett, Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]

She appeared in the census on August 19, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[223] The 1850 census has Jemima living alone with her children as: Jamima Catron a.42, Margaret a.19, Stephen a.5 & Catherine Gillmore a.2.

She appeared in the census on June 22, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[224] The 1860 census has Jemimah's family as: Jemima Catron a.45 & Stephen a.14. Jemimah is living next to her son William and nephew Ephraim Catron, s/o William.

She was married to Michael Catron on April 3, 1828 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[55] Michael's surname is spelled Cetron on their marriage record. Michael Catron was born before 1808 in Crockett, Wythe Co., Virginia.[225]

He died between 1845 and 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]

Jemima Hounshell and Michael Catron had the following children:

156 i. Margaret G. Catron was born in 1831 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]
+157 ii. William Austin Catron (born in 1838).
158 iii. Stephen Catron was born in 1845 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]

29. Michael Creger[63] (Barbara Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on May 20, 1790 in Reed Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[63] He died in 1844.[63]

He was married to Mary (Polly) Depriest (daughter of Robert Depriest and Martha Patsy Taylor) on September 8, 1812.[55] Mary (Polly) Depriest[63] was born on March 1, 1793 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[63] She died on September 8, 1838 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[63]

Michael Creger and Mary (Polly) Depriest had the following children:

+159 i. Dicey Creger (born between 1813 and 1820).
+160 ii. Elizabeth Creger (born on January 3, 1821).

31. Samuel Creger (Barbara Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on March 8, 1795 in Reed Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[63]

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[225] Samuel does not appear in a page by page search of the 1840 Wythe County Census.

He appeared in the census on August 14, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[226] The 1850 census has Samuel' family as: Samuel Creiger [farmer] a.57, Leah a.54, Amandis a.22, Ann a.?, Sally a.17, John a.15, Frances a.9 & Bob a.2. Bob is assumed to be a grandson because of Leah's advanced age (54) at the time of his birth.

He appeared in the census on June 18, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[227] The 1860 census has Samuel's family as: Samuel Cregor [farmer] a.65, Laye [sic] a.61, Sallie a.21, Francis a.19 & William a.8. William is assumed to be a grandson because of Leah's advanced age (58) at the time of his birth.

He died after 1861 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[63,97]

He was married to Leah Myers on November 23, 1823 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[55] Leah is shown as Lea Mayer on their marriage record. Leah Myers was born in 1794 in Virginia.[65]

Samuel Creger and Leah Myers had the following children:

161 i. male Creger was born between 1824 and 1825 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[100]
+162 ii. Amandis Creger (born in 1828).
163 iii. Ann Creger was born in 1830 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]
164 iv. Sally Creger was born in 1833 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]
+165 v. John Creger (born in 1835).
166 vi. Frances Creger was born in 1841 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]

33. John Creger (Barbara Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on October 23, 1798 in Reed Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[63]

He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[228] The 1850 census has John's family as: John Cruger [sic] [farmer] a.48, Jemima a.35, Rachel a.17, Wayman a.16, Jefferson a.14, Peter a.12, Stephen a.10, Daniel a.8, George a.6 & Barbara a.4.

He was married to Jemima Tobler (daughter of Jacob Tobler Jr. and Mary Huddle) on October 28, 1830 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] Jemima Tobler was born in 1814 in Virginia.[65]

John Creger and Jemima Tobler had the following children:

167 i. Rachel Creger was born in 1833 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]
+168 ii. Wayman Creger (born in 1834).
169 iii. Jefferson Creger was born in 1836 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]
+170 iv. Peter Creger (born in 1838).
+171 v. Steven S. Creger (born in 1840).
+172 vi. Daniel Creger (born in October 1837).
173 vii. George Creger was born in 1844 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]
174 viii. Barbara Creger was born about 1846 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]
175 ix. Jane Creger was born in 1851 in Wythe or Lee Co., Virginia.[78] Jane may not be John & Jemima's daughter. She may be Waynian's child. She is placed here by speculation and location in the 1860 Lee County census record. She is living with James Rollins who had a sister that married her proposed brother Stephen and a probable aunt who married her brother Peter.

36. Joseph Marion Lambert Sr.[229] (Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born between 1800 and 1802 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[230] If Joseph is the son of Peter, he would have been born in Wythe Co. Va., as Peter was married there and appears on a Wythe County petition in 1804. Joseph gives his age and birth year as 1796 in 1850 and 1798 in 1860. His age bracket in 1830 shows him born between 1800 and 1810. Peter & Mary were married in 1800 making Joseph's birth year, if he is Peter's son, about 1801. This compiler has found that the earliest census record is normally the more accurate because it is nearer to the year of birth.

He emigrated from Lee Co. Virginia between 1830 and 1832 to Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[230] Joseph's emigration is based upon his children's birth place and ages in the 1850 census record.

He purchased land from George Toast for $150 in 1833 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[231]

He purchased land from Mark Hurst for $250 in 1836 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[232]

He appeared in the census on September 11, 1850 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[233] The 1850 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Lambert [farmer] a.56 b.Va., Mary a.50 b.Va., Mary a.21 b.Va., William a.19, b.Va., Benjamin a.17 b.Tenn., Susan a.14 b.Tenn, Joseph a.12 b.Tenn., Eliza a.9 b.Tenn., Isaac a.7 b.Tenn, Orlean a.6 b.Tenn & Peter a.4 b.Tenn.

He sold land to Timothy Roark for $50 in 1859 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[234] This land sale is listed under the name Joseph Lambert Sr.

He appeared in the census in 1860 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[235] The 1860 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Lambert [farmer] a.62 b.Va.. Mary a.40 b.Tenn., Louisa a.21 b.Tenn., Isaac a.18 b.Tenn., Peter a.14 b.Tenn., Franklin a.6 b.Tenn. & Kate a.3 b.Tenn. Franklin & Kate are assumed to be grandchildren. Lee County Va. marriage records show that Franklin is the grandson of Joseph & Mary and the son of David.

He died bet 1861 & 1869 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[236]

Census compilation records indicate that Joseph & Mary's children Lydia & John, may be twins.

Numerous printed & electronic family resource information shows that Joseph is either the son of Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. [1736-1814] or his son Johann Heinrich Lambert II [1775-1856], both of Wythe County Virginia. If the census records for Joseph are used to calculate his birth year, the most optimistic early birth year would be 1794, with early census records (pre 1850) placing his birth around 1800. If the 1794 birth date is used, Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr's wife Maria Daude would have been no less than 52 years of age at the time of Joseph's birth. This would make her a phenomenon, even for 18th century mothers.

Birth and census compilation records show conclusively that Joseph could not be the son of Johann Heinrich Lambert II, as he had ONLY two sons born between 1797 and 1808. Baptismal records show these sons as John (1797) & Henry Jr. (1799). The 1810 through 1840 census records confirm that these are the ONLY sons born to Johann Heinrich II during the years before 1808. His third son Stephen, born 1808, is confirmed as a son by land sale records.

If Joseph were born in Wythe County Virginia, compilation of the early census records for Wythe & Lee Counties, give strong evidence that Joseph can ONLY be the son of Benjamin or Peter Lambert. Benjamin is found to have only one son in Joseph's age group, and is assumed to be Benjamin Lambert Jr., who is of the same age group as Joseph, and living in the same area as Benjamin Sr. in Russell County Virginia and Kentucky. If Joseph is NOT the son of Peter, Benjamin must be the next logical choice, as he cannot reasonably be the son of Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. or Johann Heinrich Lambert II.

He was married to Mary Kimberling about 1819 in Russell Co., Virginia.[237] Mary Kimberling[238] was born in 1800 in Tennessee.[230] She died between 1850 and 1854 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[239,230]

Joseph Marion Lambert Sr. and Mary Kimberling had the following children:

+176	i.	Rev. David Lambert (born on November 3, 1820).
+177	ii.	John Lambert (born about 1823).
+178	iii.	Joseph Jefferson Lambert (born in 1825).
+179	iv.	Lydia Ann Lambert (born on August 27, 1826).
+180	v.	Mary M. Lambert (born on May 11, 1828).
+181	vi.	William Josiah Lambert (born on July 11, 1830).
+182	vii.	Elizabeth Lambert (born in 1830).
+183	viii.	Benjamin J. Lambert Sr. (born in 1832).
+184	ix.	Susan Lambert (born in 1836).
185	x.	male Lambert was born bet 1835 & 1840 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[240]
+186	xi.	Joseph Marion Lambert Jr. (born in March 1834).
187	xii.	Louisa (Eliza) Lambert was born in 1841 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[241,230]
188	xiii.	Isaac Lambert was born in 1842 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[241]
189	xiv.	Orleana (J. J.) Lambert was born in 1844 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[230]
190	xv.	Peter Lambert was born in 1846 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[241]

He was married to Mary (Millia) Whitaker (daughter of Rice W. Whitaker and Nancy (Whitaker\mar)) on August 6, 1854 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[242] They were married by Mark Hurst M.G. Mary (Millia) Whitaker was born in 1820 in Tennessee.[241] She appeared in the census on July 18, 1870 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[243] The 1870 census has Millia's family as: Millia Lambert a.50, Franklin a.15 & Catherine a.13. The father shown here for Mary may be incorrect. (7/04)

+191	i.	Catherine (Katie) S. Lambert (born on January 25, 1857).

37. William Lambert (Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1805 in Wythe Co.,

Virginia.[244]

He appeared in the census in 1830 in Russell Co., Virginia.[245] William is shown at age 20-30 & single in this census, and absent from his father Peter's family. As William and Matilda were married in July 1830, this would indicate that the census was taken before the marriage date (the 1830 census was taken in June).

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Russell Co., Virginia.[246] The 1840 census has William's family as: William Lambert males 30/40-1, females 5/10-1, 20/30-1. William & Matilda's children John & Eliza, do not appear with them in this census, but are probably the two children, 1 male (10/15) & 1 female (>5), living with William's mother Mary in 1840. The age discrepancy for John (age 8 in 1840) is not remarkable. William is living 4 stops from his proposed uncle Jacob Lambert Sr. in 1840.

He appeared in the census on September 4, 1850 in Russell Co., Virginia.[247] The 1850 census has William's family as: William Lambert [farmer] a.45, Matilda a.35, John F. a.16, Mary Ann a.14, Eliza V. a.11, William H. a.9, Sarah E. a.7, Stephen E. a.4 & Ellen S. a.2. All are shown born in Russell Co. Va.

He appeared in the census on October 5, 1860 in Russell Co., Virginia.[248] The 1860 census has William's family as: Wm Lambert (farmer) a.54, Matilda a.45, Eliza a.22, William H. a.19, Stephen P. a.14, Savannah a.12, James H. a.8, Nancy C. a.5, James C. Price a.5, Eunice Price a.4 & Wm O. Price a.2. The Price children are assumed to be the children of William's daughter Mary Ann & Oliver Price who were married in 1857.

He signed a will on April 23, 1867 in Russell Co., Virginia.[249]

He died between April 24, 1867 and May 6, 1867 in Russell Co., Virginia.[249]

He had a will filed on May 7, 1867 in Russell Co., Virginia.[250] William's will reads: "I William Lambert of the County of Russell & State of Virginia being of sound mind and memory but very low in health do make and publish my last will and testament as follows. First. I desire that my executor hereinafter named shall sell my tract of Land on a reasonable credit reserving in the sale the present growing crop, and the crop that may be planted this spring for the use of any family, and also reserving the possession of my place till the first of January next for the same use. and out of the proceeds of the sale of my Land I desire that he shall pay all my just debts and funeral expenses, and residue of the money arising from the sale, I desire shall be for the use of my wife and my Daughter Eliza. that is shall be a fund for their support as long as they live. Some researchers show a son named Jacob born 1848 in William's family. He is not present in 1850 or 1860.

He was married to Matilda McLaughlin (daughter of Eli McLaughlin and Mary Wampler) on July 12, 1830 in Scott Co., Virginia.[251] Matilda McLaughlin was born in 1815 in Russell Co., Virginia.[244] She died after November 1860 in Russell Co., Virginia.[252]

William Lambert and Matilda McLaughlin had the following children:

+198	vii.	Ellen Savannah Lambert (born in 1848).
199	viii.	Letitia Lambert was born in 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[253]
+200	ix.	James Harvey Lambert (born in 1851).
201	x.	Nancy C. Lambert was born on August 20, 1854 in Russell Co., Virginia.[252,254]
202	xi.	Nathan Lambert was born on January 2, 1857 in Russell Co., Virginia.[255] He died on June 12, 1857 in Russell Co., Virginia.[256]

39. Winnie Lambert (Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1808 in Virginia.[257] She died on August 6, 1870 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[257] Winnie's death month may be incorrect as she is not with William in the July 1870 census record.

She was married to William S. Cheek (son of William Cheek and Hester (Cheek\mar)) before 1835 in Virginia.[82,258]

William S. Cheek[259] was born in 1817 in Lee Co., Virginia.[82]

He appeared in the census on October 11, 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[260] The 1850 census has William's family as: William Cheek [farming] a.39, Winney a.41, Mary a.14, Andrew a.11, James a.9, Isaiah a.7, Regina a.4 & Juliann Lambert a.21. Juliann is Winnie's sister.

He appeared in the census on August 9, 1860 in Lee Co., Virginia.[261] The 1860 census has William's family as: Wm S. Cheek [farmer] a.47, Winny a.50, July a.30, Mary a.27, Andrew a.21, J W. a.19, Isah [sic] a.16 & Regina a.14. All are shown born in Lee County except Winnie, which is Russell County.

He appeared in the census on July 20, 1870 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[262] The 1870 census has Williams's family as: William Cheek [works on farm] a.53 b.Lee Co., Julia a.35 b.Lee Co., Catherine a.21 b.Harlan Co., Ky. & James Lambert a.14 b.Lee Co. (Harlan Co. Ky. written over).

Winnie Lambert and William S. Cheek had the following children:

203	i.	Julia Ann (July) Cheek[82] was born in 1835 in Lee Co., Virginia.[82] She appeared in the census in June 1880 in State Road Fork, Magoffin Co., Kentucky.[263] Julia is living with her sister Mary & brother-in-law James Love in 1880. She is shown single and aged 45 years.
+204	ii.	Mary Cheek (born in May 1836).
205	iii.	Andrew Cheek was born in 1839 in Lee Co., Virginia.[83]
+206	iv.	James W. Cheek (born in 1841).
+207	v.	Isaiah Cheek (born in 1843).
+208	vi.	Regina Cheek (born in March 1845).

40. Catherine Lambert[264] (Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1811 in Russell Co., Virginia.[67,74,265] She died between 1880 and 1900 in Roane or Loudon Co., Tennessee.[266]

She was married to John Wesley Grammer (son of Joseph Grammer and Mary (Grammer\mar)) on June 17, 1832 in Lee Co., Virginia.[267] John & Catherine were married by Jonathon Bishop. John Wesley Grammer[268] was born in March 1811 in Virginia.[265,266]

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Lee Co., Virginia.[269] The 1840 census has John's family as: John Grammer males 5/10-1, 30/40-1, females 5/10-1, 30/40-1.

He appeared in the census on September 26, 1850 in Roane Co., Tennessee.[270] The 1850 census has John's family as: John W. Grammer [no occupation] a.39 b.Va., Catherine a.39 b.Va. & William a.17 b.Tenn.

He appeared in the census on June 26, 1870 in Roane Co., Tennessee.[271] The 1870 census has John's family as: Wesley Grammer [farmer] a.55 & Catherine a.55. Both are shown born in Tennessee [sic].

He appeared in the census in June 1880 in Roane Co., Tennessee.[272] The 1880 census has John's family as: John Grammer a.69 b.Tenn. [sic] & Catherine a.68 b.Tenn. [sic].

He appeared in the census on June 13, 1900 in Loudon Co., Tennessee.[273] John is shown a widower and living with his grandson Henry Grammer in 1900 at age 89.

He died between 1901 and 1910 in Loudon Co., Tennessee.[274]

Joseph & Mary Grammer are chosen as John W.'s parents because they are living close to John & Catherine in 1840 Lee Co. Va., and 1850 Roane Co. Tenn. They are also the only Grammer family in both Lee & Roane counties in 1840 & 1850 that have a son in John's age group. In 1900, John lists his father's birthplace as Germany and his mother's as Virginia. This coincides with the birthplaces given by his proposed parents Joseph & Mary in the 1850 census record.

+209	i.	William L. Grammer (born on January 9, 1833).
210	ii.	female Grammer was born between 1834 and 1835 in Lee Co., Virginia.[75]

41. J. Wayman Lambert[275] (Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1812 in Russell Co., Virginia.[75,78,276]

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Lee Co., Virginia.[277] The 1840 census has Wayman's family as: Wayman Lambert males 15/20-1, females <5-1, 20/30-1.

He appeared in the census on August 2, 1860 in Lee Co., Virginia.[278] The 1860 census has Wayman's family as: Wayman

All of the children are shown born in Lee County with no birth place shown for Wayman or Harriet. William is shown out of age order (8) and is placed as an 18 year old.

He appeared in the census on July 19, 1870 in Lee Co., Virginia.[279] The 1870 census has Wayman's family as: Wayman Lambert (farmer) a.50 b. Russell Co. Va., Harriett [sic] a.45 b.Rowan Co. N.C., Charlotte a.24, Buenavista a.16, Nancy L. a.14, Sarah C. a.12, Stephen G. a.10 & Martha R. a.5. All of the children are shown born in Lee Co. Va.

He appeared in the census on June 3, 1880 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[280] The 1880 census has Wayman's family as: Waymon [sic] Lambert [farmer] a.61 b.Va., Harriett [sic] a.58 b.Tenn., Sarah a.29 b.Tenn. & Stephen a.19 b.Tenn. The birth places shown for Stephen & Sarah are incorrect as they were both born in Virginia. Harriet's birth place is N. Carolina.

He died on January 6, 1896 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[155,281]

He was buried after January 6, 1896 in the Brooks Cemetery, Massingill Rd., Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[282,283]

If J. Wayman is the son of Peter, he is not present in the 1830 census record for Peter's family. With J. Wayman marrying in Tennessee, and returning to Virginia, several possibilities arise to explain or eliminate him from Peter's family. He lists his birth date/place as about 1820, in Russell County, in the 1870 census record, and in 1820 only three Lambert families were living in Russell County; Peter, Benjamin & Jacob. Peter does have a son J. Wayman's age shown in the family in 1820, but both J. Wayman and Peter Jr. show their birth year as about 1820 in later census records. The possibility of twins can be proposed but not confirmed. Benjamin does not have a son J. Wayman's age in 1820. Jacob has two sons in that age group (<10) in 1820, but they are known sons Jacob Jr. & Harvey. Heinrich Lambert II of Wythe County has a son in this age group who leaves the family in 1840, but with J. Wayman giving his birth place as Russell County in 1870, little evidence exists that he is the son of Heinrich Lambert II. With J. Wayman marrying in Tennessee about 1839, his absence from Peter's family at age 10 may be explained by his being in Tennessee in 1830 with another family. An individual's absence from a single census is not remarkable during the first half of the 19th century. J. Wayman is shown as J. Waymond Lambert on his son Peter's marriage application. Peter Lambert Sr.'s son John Wesley had a son named J. Wayman, adding credibility to this J. Wayman being John Wesley's brother. Another option is possible if Wayman is about 2 years younger than shown here. He could be the unnamed son of Henry Lambert Jr. (son of Henry Lambert II) of Lee County Virginia. Because J. Wayman gives his birth location as Russell County in 1870, this possibility has little weight as Henry Lambert Jr. is not known to have resided in Russell County.

He was married to Nancy Jane Southern on February 19, 1839 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[284] Other researchers have Wayman & Nancy being married in March 1839. An examination of the original "typed" carbon copy transcript, shows that the couple were married by a Justice of the Peace, and the marriage was performed the same day as the application, which is shown as 19 Feb 1839. Both dates are recorded and are definitively the same. This record is almost unreadable because of the age of the copies photographed for the microfilm. Nancy Jane Southern was born between 1810 and 1820.[75]

J. Wayman Lambert and Nancy Jane Southern had the following children:

+211	i.	Catherine Jane (Kate) Lambert (born on January 13, 1840).
212	ii.	William Lambert was born in 1842 in Lee Co., Virginia.[78]
+213	iii.	Mary A. Lambert (born in 1844).
214	iv.	Peter K. Lambert was born in 1845 in Lee Co., Virginia.[78] He enlisted in Co. K of the 64th Infantry Regiment of Virginia on February 1, 1863 in Lee Co., Virginia.[285] Peter was absent without leave on 28 Feb 1863 and absent for sickness on 30 April 1863. He was Paroled on 28 April 1865 at Cumberland Gap, Ky.
+215	v.	Charlotte (Lottie) Lambert (born on May 15, 1846).

He was married to Harriet (Lambert\mar) before 1854 in Virginia.[78] Harriet (Lambert\mar) was born in 1825 in Rowan Co., North Carolina.[82] Harriet's marker transcription lists her birth year as 1820. The 1880 census year is used here. She died in 1895 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[286] She was buried in 1895 in the Brooks Cemetery, Massingill Rd., Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[282,283]

J. Wayman Lambert and Harriet (Lambert\mar) had the following children:

+216	i.	BeunaVista (Sarah)(Vista) Lambert (born in 1854).
217	ii.	Nancy L. Lambert was born in 1856 in Lee Co., Virginia.[78]
218	iii.	Sarah C. (Sallie) Lambert was born in 1858 in Lee Co., Virginia.[78] She died on August 30, 1920 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[287] She was buried after August 30, 1920 in the Brooks Cemetery, Massingill Rd., Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[283,282] Sarah never married.
219	iv.	Stephen J. Lambert was born in October 1859 in Lee Co., Virginia.[78]
220	v.	James Lambert was born in October 1862 in Lee Co., Virginia.[257] He died on February 28, 1865 in Lee Co., Virginia.[257]

42. John Wesley Lambert Sr. (Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1813 in Russell Co., Virginia.[78]

He appeared in the census on October 11, 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[288] The 1850 census has Wesley's family as: Wesley Lambert (farming) a.37, Mary a.35, Elizabeth a.8, Catherine a.7, Peter a.6, Wayman a.5 & Juliane a.4 & Benjamin a.4/12.

He appeared in the census on August 2, 1860 in Lee Co., Virginia.[289] The 1860 census has John's family as: John W. Lambert [farmer] a.47, Mary a.41, Catherine a.16, Peter a.13, Wayman a.11 [sic], July A. a.9, Benjamin a.7, Rebecca a.5, Mariah a.5, Blanton a.4 & John W. a.3.

He appeared in the census on July 16, 1870 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[290] The 1870 census has John's family as: Wesley Lambert [farmer] a.56, Mary a.49, Julian a.23, Rebecca a.18, Marian(Mariah) a.18, Rufus B. a.15 & Wesley a.12. The census shows that Rebecca & Mariah are twins.

He appeared in the census in 1880.[291] The 1880 census has John's family as: John W. Lambert [farmer] a.68, Mary a.55 b.Tn., Julian a.24, R. Blanten a.23, Ellen L. [granddaughter] a.10 & Sophia R. [granddaughter] a.4.

He died in September 1886 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[257] This may not be John Wesley's correct death date. The individual is shown born in Russell County and being 75 years old. The informant was a son B. B. Lambert. This may be a poor transcription for Rufus Blanton's initials.

He was married to Mary (Lambert\mar) before 1840.[83] Mary (Lambert\mar) was born in 1815 in Sullivan Co., Tennessee.[78,83]

John Wesley Lambert Sr. and Mary (Lambert\mar) had the following children:

+222	i.	Mary Lambert (born in November 1840).
223	ii.	Elizabeth Lambert was born in 1842 in Lee Co., Virginia.[83] She died in December 1856 in Wallen's Creek, Lee Co., Virginia.[258]
+224	iii.	Catherine Lambert (born in 1844).
+225	iv.	Peter Lambert (born in July 1846).
+226	v.	J. Wayman Lambert (born in 1845).
+227	vi.	Julia Ann Lambert (born in 1846).
228	vii.	Benjamin Lambert was born in June 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[83] He died on August 8, 1865 in Lee Co., Virginia.[257] Benjamin is shown 13 years old on his death record.
229	viii.	Elizabeth Lambert was born in 1854 in Lee Co., Virginia.[257] She died in December 1856 in Wallen's Creek, Lee Co., Virginia.[257]
+230	ix.	Rebecca L. Lambert (born in November 1855).
+231	x.	Mariah E. Lambert (born in 1855).
232	xi.	Rufus Blanton Lambert was born in 1856 in Lee Co., Virginia.[78]
233	xii.	female Lambert was born in August 1856 in Lee Co., Virginia.[257] She died on February 12, 1857 in Lee Co., Virginia.[257] This individual may have been a twin to Blanton. The parents are shown as Wesley and Mary Lambert. (7/04)
+234	xiii.	John Wesley Lambert Jr. (born in December 1857).
235	xiv.	Evaline Lambert was born in November 1858 in Lee Co., Virginia.[257] She died on December 29, 1859 in Lee Co., Virginia.[257]

44. Mary (Polly) Lambert[258] (Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born about 1817 in Russell Co., Virginia.[67,258]

She was married to Stephen Southern on August 13, 1839 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[292] Stephen Southern[239] was born between 1810 and 1820.[240] He appeared in the census in June 1840 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[293] Stephen and Mary are shown with 1 child over 5 and 2 under 5. Because they married in August 1839, it is not possible to determine if the under 5 children are Mary's

45. Peter Lambert Jr. (Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1820 in Russell Co., Virginia.[78]

He purchased 50 acres of land on the north side of Powell's Mountain for $150 from William W. Sage on March 9, 1848 in Lee Co., Virginia.[294] This land was corner to Francis Allen & William Wilson & laid along a line common to William Wilson's & Hiram Brasier's property.

He purchased 15 acres of land on the north side of Powell's Mountain for $45 from Abraham Crabtree on March 27, 1848 in Lee Co., Virginia.[295]

He appeared in the census on July 23, 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[296] The 1850 census has Peter's family as: Peter Lambert [farmer] a.31, Ann a.28, James M. a.9, Ursley A. a.7, Mary J. a.5, Rhoda a.3, Stephen a.1 & Julia Ann Cheek a.23. Julia Ann is probably Peter's sister Winnie's child, but the age shown is probably incorrect.

He sold about 50 acres of land on the north side of Powell's Mountain for $70 to Jacob Rasnick on March 1, 1851 in Lee Co., Virginia.[297] This parcel is shown to be property Peter purchased from Francis Allen. Peter's wife Ann is shown as cosigner of the deed.

He purchased land from Francis C. Allen & wife on April 25, 1858 in Lee Co., Virginia.[298] He appeared in the census on August 10, 1860 in Lee Co., Virginia.[299] The 1860 census has Peter's family as: Peter Lambert (farmer) a.40 b.Russell Co., Ann a.43 b.Russell, Monroe a.19 (farm labor), Mary a.16, John a.15, Rhoda a.13, Stephen a.12, Adaline a.10, William a.8, Martha a.4 & David a.1/12. The children are all shown born in Lee County Va.

He appeared in the census on August 12, 1870 in Rocky Station Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[300] The 1870 census has Peter's family as: Peter Lambert (farmer) a.50 b.Grayson Co., Va.?, Anna a.49 b.Lee Co., Mary a.24, Stephen a.21, Adaline a.18, William a.16, Martha a.14, David a.12, Allie a.8, James D. Hall (works on farm) a.30, Charlotte Hall a.12, Rhoda Hall a.4 & Nancy B. Hall a.11/12.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Rocky Station Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[301] The 1880 census has Peter's family as: Peter Lambert (farmer) a.54, Anna a.60, Steven [sic] a.30, Addie a.28, David a.21, Alice [sic] a.17, Hettie a.16, Nancy a.10 & Taylor a.6. Taylor is shown to be Adaline's (Addie) son in the 1900 census record.

Hettie, Nancy & Taylor are shown in the census records as the children of Peter & Anna, but are probable grandchildren, as Anna would have been 47 years old at the time of Hettie's (oldest of the 3) birth. Hettie, born 1864, is also not present with Peter & Anna in 1870. Hettie & Nancy may be the children of Ursula & James Hall and adopted by Peter & Anna after Ursula's premature death. Nancy's age is shown correctly for Nancy Hall, and Hettie could be either Charlotte or Rhoda Hall with an incorrect age shown in 1880. Taylor is listed as Adaline's (Addie) son in 1900. Hettie will be shown here as an adopted daughter of Peter & Anna, and Nancy as the daughter of Ursula & James Hall. There is a marriage for a Peter Lambert to M. Johnson on 4 Aug 1885 in Lee County. The age of Peter is shown as 56, and this Peter is the only Peter Lambert close to this age in Lee County in 1885. As no parents are listed for either party, the marriage will not be entered here.

He was married to Anna Workman before 1841 in Russell Co., Virginia.[78]

Anna Workman was born in 1817 in Russell Co., Virginia.[83] Anna's birth year is taken from the 1850 census record as her age in each census year is not consistent in each succeeding census. 1850 is used here because it is the closest date to her birth year.

Peter Lambert Jr. and Anna Workman had the following children:

+236	i.	James Monroe Lambert (born in 1841).
+237	ii.	Ursula A. Lambert (born in 1843).
+238	iii.	Mary J. Lambert (born in 1845).
+239	iv.	John W. Lambert (born in January 1847).
+240	v.	Rhoda E. Lambert (born on June 6, 1847).
+241	vi.	Stephen K. Lambert (born in 1849).
+242	vii.	Adaline (Addie) Lambert (born in 1850).
+243	viii.	William Waterson (Bill) Lambert (born on June 30, 1856).
+244	ix.	Martha Ellen Lambert (born in November 1857).
+245	x.	David Lambert (born in May 1860).
+246	xi.	Alice Emma (Allie) Lambert (born in May 1863).
247	xii.	Hettie Lambert was born in 1864 in Lee Co., Virginia.[302]

47. John Lambert Jr. (Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on April 10, 1797 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[33]

He was baptized on June 11, 1797 in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Wythe Co., Virginia.[33] John's sponsors were John Wolf & wife.

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[303] This family consists of John Lambert Jr. and wife, both aged between 20 & 30 years, and 2 daughters aged 5/10 & <5 years. The age shown for John, if this is John & Mahala, would be incorrect, as he would have been 42 years old in 1840. This is compatible with early census age discrepancies. The daughter Elizabeth, shown living with John & Mahala in 1860 & 1870, would fit the female child in John Lambert Jr's family, shown at age 5/10 years in this census. As John & Mahala married in Feb. 1840, they would have appeared as a family in the 1840 census, without children, unless the children shown for John Lambert Jr. were from a previous marriage. As Mahala was only 16 years old in 1840, she is not the probable mother of the child shown above the age of 5. John Lambert Jr. is living NEXT to Mahala's parents and 12 stops from his father Johann Heinrich Lambert II in 1840, making this family, that of John & Mahala, difficult to refute as John Lambert Jr. in 1840.

He purchased 11+ acres of land for $112.50, at the head waters of Walker's Creek lying next to his father's land on June 7, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[304] This land was sold to John by his wife's parents Henry & Elizabeth Hounshell. John is shown on the deed as John Lambert Jr., like he appeared in the 1840 census. This land was located along the waters of "Big" Walker's Creek, adjacent to the western line of his father's land.

He purchased 9+ acres of land for $100, from Mahala's parents, lying on the Head Waters of Walker's Creek on June 7, 1842 in Wythe/Bland Co. Virginia.[305] This land was located along the waters of Big Walker's Creek, adjacent to the western line of his father's land.

He purchased 10 acres of land from Johannes Lambert for $20, lying along the head waters of Walker's Creek on July 23, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[127] The land adjoined the property of Johannes & Christina Lambert.

He appeared in the census on September 11, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[306] The 1850 census has John's family as: John Lambert [farmer] a.52 b.Va., Mahala a.36 b.Va., Robert a.4 b.Va., Eva a.2 b.Va & Heiman [sic] a.6/12 b.Va.

He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[307] The 1860 census has John's family as: John Lambert [laborer] a.60 b.Va., Mahala a.42 b.Va., Eve a.12 b.Va., Herman [sic] a.10 b.Va., Lindsey a.7 b.Va., Jane a.4 b.Va., Agness a.1 b.Va., Elizabeth Lambert a.28 b.Va., Mary a.3 b.Va., Stephen a.1 b.Va., William a.22 b.Va., Sarah a.21 b.Va. & Frederick Repass a.86 b.Va. Because of John's advanced age (42) at the time of his marriage to Mahala Hounshell, William (a.22) and Elizabeth (a.28) are probably John's children from a previous undisclosed marriage. It is assumed that the Sarah Lambert, age 21, is William's wife. Mary age 3 and Stephen age 1, may be Elizabeth's children, but descendants of Elizabeth state that Mary & Stephen are not her children.

He appeared in the census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[308] 1870 census has John's family as: Jno. Lampert [sic] [farmer] a.72, Mahala a.56, Linsay [sic] [farm laborer] a.17, Elizabeth a.40 [without occupation], Mary a.14, Paris a.4. With the individual Elizabeth being out of age order, the two children Mary & Paris are shown here as her children. Later marriage records confirm this arrangement.

He appeared in the Virginia Agriculture Census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[309] John is shown with 16 acres of improved and 2 acres of woodlands valued at $150. He is shown with no farm implements, livestock worth $54 and a total farm production value of $48. This census places John among the poorest farms in the Sharon District.

He appeared in a Homestead deed filed on his 20-acre farm on September 9, 1870 in Bland Co., Virginia.[310] This claim was filed for both his real estate and personal property.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[311] The 1880 census has John's family as: John Lampert a.83, Mahala a.64 & Sarah Jane a.24.

He appeared in a deed record to "swap" property with J. H. Lindamood on October 6, 1883 in Bland Co., Virginia.[312] John & Mahala swapped 8.82 (9) acres of the 18.2 (lot #8) Mahala inherited from her father Henry Hounshell, for $5 and 7½ acres of land on the head waters of Big Walker's Creek, north of the Old Plaster Bank road. The new land was part of "Lot #7," Peter Hounshell's section of the Hounshell inheritance. John is shown as John Lampert Jr. in this record.

He sold 17½ acres of land to A.W. Shewey for $150 & a 1 year note for $25 on May 18, 1887 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[313] John & Mahala sold this land which was about 10 acres of Mahala's "Hounshell" Lot #8 inheritance, plus 7.16 acres of her brother Peter's Lot #7 inheritance.

He was married to ?? (Lambert\mar) about 1830.[225] John's phantom marriage is created to place Elizabeth who is shown with him in 1860 and 1870. He did not marry Mahala Hounshell until 1840 (at age 40), making him old enough at the time of Elizabeth's birth (about 1831) and a logical candidate to be her father from a previous unrecorded marriage. The family of John Lambert Jr. in the 1840 census record contains a child Elizabeth's age. If the sex of the youngest child, <5 in 1840, is male instead of female, the William Lambert shown with him in 1860 could also be his child from this proposed previous marriage. On Elizabeth's son Paris' marriage record, she is shown as the only parent under the name Betsy Lampert, indicating a Henry Lambert Sr. Bland County descendant connection with the Lampert surname spelling. ?? (Lambert\mar)[225] was born before 1812.[225]

+248 i. Elizabeth (Betsy) Lambert (born about 1831).

249 ii. female Lambert was born between 1835 and 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[101]

He was married to Mahala Hounshell (daughter of Henry Hounshell Sr. and Elizabeth Cline) on February 17, 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] Mahala is shown on the marriage record as the daughter of Henry Hounshell. Elijah posted the bond with Michael Cline on the date shown here. This may indicate some relationship to John's proposed first wife. Mahala Hounshell was born in 1822 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,225] Mahala's birth year is taken from a compilation of several census records and is only an estimate. (4/03)
John Lambert Jr. and Mahala Hounshell had the following children:

250 i. Robert Newton Lambert was born in July 1844 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[314]
He died on December 29, 1853 in Walker's Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[314,98] Robert died from "fever" at age 9 years & 5 months. His death was reported by his father John.

+251 ii. Geneva Victoria (Eva) Lambert (born in August 1847).

+252 iii. Hiram (Herman) Lambert (born in March 1850).

+253 iv. Lindsey G. Lambert (born on June 3, 1853).

+254 v. Sarah Jane Lambert (born in February 1856).

255 vi. Agness Lambert was born in 1859 in Virginia.[97]

48. Sarah Lambert[315] (Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on March 29, 1798 in Crockett, Wythe Co., Virginia.[196]

She died on January 13, 1866 in Lee Co., Virginia.[196]

She was married to Joseph Hounshell (son of Andrew Hounshell Sr. and Louisa Lambert) about 1819 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[316,103] Joseph Hounshell[317] was born on August 13, 1799 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[196]

He appeared in the census in 1820 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[318] The 1820 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Hounshell males <10-1, 16/26-1, female 16/26-1.

He appeared in the census in 1830 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[319] The 1830 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Hounshell males <5-1, 5/10-2, 10/15-1, 20/30-1, females <5-1, 5/10-1, 30/40-1.

He appeared in the census on September 27, 1850 in Dst. 31, Lee Co., Virginia.[320] The 1850 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Houndshell [sic] [Farming] a.51, Sarah a.51, Mary a.25, Dicy M. a.21, Draper a.21, Joseph A. a.18, Benjamin F. a.14, Peter a.12, Vanburan [sic] a.10, Barthena [sic] a.10 & Wayman a.5.

He appeared in the census on July 14, 1860 in Lee Co., Virginia.[321] The 1860 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Hounshell [farmer] a.60 p.o.b-Wythe Va., Sarah p.o.b-Wythe Va. a.61, Benjamin F. p.o.b.-Smith Va. a.23, Peter p.o.b.-Smith Va. a.22, Martin V. p.o.b.-Smith Va. a.21, Wayman p.o.b.-Lee Va. a.18, Bartheny [sic] p.o.b.-Smith Va. a.21 & Dicy p.o.b.-Wythe Va. a.27.

He appeared in the census on September 24, 1870 in Lee Co., Virginia.[322] The 1870 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Houndshell [sic] [farmer] a.71, Dicy a.42, Draper a.40, Martin V. a.34 & Alameda a.8(?). Alameda's age would indicate that she may be a grandchild, and will not be added to this family without further evidence of her parents.

He signed a will on December 9, 1875 in Lee Co., Virginia.[207] Joseph's Will reads: "I, Joseph Hounshell of the County of Lee and State of Virginia being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this mortal life do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in the manner and form following, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made. That is to say, First after all my just debts are paid, I give and bequeath unto my daughters, Disa M. Hounshell and Barthena Wolfe all my estate both real and personal, except eight dollars which I give and bequeath to my other children, Viz Andrew Hounshell, Mary Ann Cole, George W. Hounshell, Draper Hounshell, Joseph A. Hounshell, Peter Hounshell, Martin V. Hounshell and Wayman Hounshell to each one dollar. He appeared in the census in June 1880 in Rose Hill Dist., Lee Co., Virginia.[323] The 1880 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Hennshell [sic] [farmer] a.75, Catherine [dau] a.35 & Barthina [dau] a.33.

He died on January 13, 1884 in Lee Co., Virginia.[196]

He had a will probated on March 25, 1884 in Lee Co., Virginia.[207] Sarah Lambert and Joseph Hounshell had the following children:

+128	i.	Andrew J. Hounshell (born on May 27, 1821).
+129	ii.	Mary Ann Hounshell (born in 1825).
130	iii.	female Hounshell (born between 1825 and 1830).
131	iv.	Dicey M. Hounshell (born in 1828).
+132	v.	J. Draper Hounshell (born on September 28, 1829).
+133	vi.	Joseph Anderson Hounshell (born about 1831).
134	vii.	Benjamin F. Hounshell (born on October 24, 1836).
+135	viii.	Peter Hounshell Jr. (born on July 11, 1838).
+136	ix.	Martin VanBuren Hounshell (born on July 17, 1839).
137	x.	Barbara Katherine "Barthena" Hounshell (born in June 1840).

49. Henry Lambert Jr.[324,76,325] (Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in September 1799 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[44]

He was baptized on October 27, 1799 in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Wythe Co., Virginia.[33]

He purchased a land grant of 50 acres of land on the north side of Powell Mountain on November 20, 1828 in Lee Co., Virginia.[326] Henry's uncle Jacob purchased 10½ acres of land near the south fork of the Powell River in Lee County in 1846. This land is described in the deed as adjacent to land purchased by Jacob before 1846.

He appeared in the census in 1830 in Lee Co., Virginia.[327] The 1830 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert males 20/30-1, 5/10-1, females 20/30-1, 5/10-1, <5-2.

He sold 50 acres of land on the north side of Powell Mountain on September 11, 1839 in Lee Co., Virginia.[328] This land was sold to Claiborne, James & Abraham Young, for $61.75. The grantees are shown as Henry & Jane Lambert.

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Lee Co., Virginia.[329] The 1840 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert males 30/40-1, 15/20-1, 5/10-2, <5-1, females 30/40-1, 15/20-2, <5-1.

He sold about 50 acres of land located on the Dry Branch (Creek) on August 15, 1842 in Lee Co., Virginia.[330] This land was sold to John H. Allen for $75. The grantees are shown as Henry & Jane Lambert. This deed cannot be plotted as written, but appears to contain about 50 acres, based upon 3 side lengths given in the deed.

He sold a parcel of land located on the waters of Wallings Creek on August 16, 1842 in Lee Co., Virginia.[331] This land was sold to Abraham Young for $175. The grantees are shown as Henry & Jane Lambert. This deed cannot be plotted as written, but appears to contain about 50 acres, based upon 3 side lengths given in the deed. Because of the selling price, this parcel may have contained Henry & Jane's home.

He appeared in the census on November 11, 1850 in Fulton Co., Arkansas.[332] The 1850 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert a.51 b.Va., Jane a.46 b.N. C., Elmira a.22 b.Va., Ephraim a.19 b.Va., Stephen a.17 b.Va., Henry a.15 b.Va., John a.11 b.Va. & Sarah a.9 b.Va. This census is significant because of the ages and birthplace for Henry and Jane (Jenny). In the 1830 & 1840 censuses, Henry is shown as 30 and 40 years of age (via age groupings) respectively, while being shown 51 in 1850. The 1850 census for Henry was taken in November. With Henry's birth date known to be Sept 1799, and the 1850 census taken so late in the year, this census record shows that he was certain of his birth date. Data by other Eagle family researchers shows that Jenny was born in N.C. in 1804, giving strong credence to the Jane shown as Henry's wife in 1850, being Jenny Eagle. With Henry's wife's given name appearing as Jane on deeds and the 1850 census record, it must be noted that a study by the Connecticut State Library in November 1996, of 18th & 19th century nicknames shows that Jenny was the nickname for the proper given names Virginia, JANE, Janet & Genevieve. Henry is the only Lambert family in Fulton Co. Ark. in 1850.

He died after December 1850.[333]

He was married to Jane (Jenny) Eagle (daughter of William Eagle and Elizabeth (Betsy) Permen) on August 2, 1821 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] Some marriage indexes spell Jenny's surname as Engle. Henry & Jenny were married by Sam Newbery [sic]. Jenny's name is spelled Jiney Eagle on the original marriage ledger page.

THE EARLY HENRY LAMBERTS OF SOUTHWEST VIRGINIA

During the period 1784 through 1870, there were a number of "Henry Lamberts" residing in Lee, and Wythe Counties, Virginia, and the portion of Wythe County that became Bland County in 1860. The placement of these individuals in the genealogy of the Wythe County Lambert family has relied for some time on rudimentary evidence and legend, resulting in confused and often mistaken identification. The following is a discussion of research recently completed to identify and correctly place several Henry (or Heinrich) Lamberts of that time. It includes data which identifies Samuel Lambert of Wythe County (1799-1866) as a descendant of Johann Heinrich Lambert, Sr.

PART 1: THE HENRY LAMBERTS OF WYTHE COUNTY, VIRGINIA

BIRTHS & BAPTISMS:

1. Johann Heinrich Lambert, Sr.: He was the son of Johann Nicholas Lambert and Maria Margaretha Schuler; was born 1 February 1736 in Otterberg, Germany; and was baptized Johann Heinrich Lambert on 5 February 1736 at the Lutheran Church in Otterberg, Germany. [Hereafter referred to as Heinrich or Henry Lambert, Sr.]

2. Johann Heinrich Lambert II: He was the son of Johann Heinrich, Sr., and Maria Magdalena Daude; was born 25 February 1775 in Dauphin County, Pennsylvania; and was baptized Johann Heinrich Lambert on 27 March 1775 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania. Johann Heinrich II signed at least one deed record as Henry Lambert II, making him distinguishable from any other Heinrich or Henry as Johann Heinrich Lambert II. [Hereafter referred to as Heinrich or Henry Lambert II.]

3. Henry Lambert, Jr.: He was the son of Johann Heinrich II and Barbara Wolf; was born September 1799 in Wythe County, Virginia; was baptized Heinrich Lambert on 27 October 1799 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Wythe County, Virginia. [Hereafter referred to as Heinrich or Henry Lambert, Jr.]

MARRIAGES:

1. Johann Heinrich Lambert, Sr., to Maria Magdalena Daude: 6 December 1760 in Thaleischweiler, Germany. This family has been documented from immigration records in Germany and Pennsylvania and church and land sale records in Pennsylvania and Virginia. Johann Heinrich Lambert, Sr., and Maria Magdalena Daude do not appear in any Virginia census records, leaving undocumented children possible.

2. Johann Heinrich Lambert II to Barbary (Barbara) Wolf: 26 August 1794 in Wythe County, Virginia. This family is well documented, with baptismal records to prove his parents.

3. Henry Lambert to Catherine Michaels: 23 May 1797 in Wythe County, Virginia. They were married by John Stranger. This family has not been found or documented. This may actually be a second marriage for Johann Heinrich Lambert, Sr., if his death date shown here is incorrect. Henry Lambert II was married by 1797 leaving this marriage a conundrum. Catherine Michaels could have been the mother of or sister to Michael Lambert's wife Maria Michaels. The Michaels family, and the above marriage participants, could be presumed from ship passenger lists records and Dauphin County, Pennsylvania census records.

4. Henry Lambert to Jenny Eagle: 2 August 1828 in Wythe County, Virginia. Documentation and records for Henry and/or Jenny are nonexistent. It is possible that either or both died shortly after their marriage. It is possible that this is the first marriage for Heinrich Lambert II's son Henry, Jr., who was born in 1799.

5. Henry Lambert to Emaline Leedy: about 1834, place unknown. The date for their marriage is anecdotal and unrecorded in Wythe County, Virginia. They and their family are well documented and "historically" placed as the probable Henry, Jr., son of Heinrich Lambert II. That Henry, Jr., was born in 1799.

PART 2: THE RETIREMENT OF BROTHERS HEINRICH II AND JOHANNES LAMBERT

In 1850, brothers Heinrich II and Johannes Lambert, sons of Henry Lambert, Sr., and Maria Magdalena Daude, were living in the portion of Wythe County which in 1860 became Bland County. That year, they divested - or retired - themselves of their land holdings to their children. Each held 255 to 259 acres of land along Walker's Creek in Bland County, lying at the southern base of Brushy Mountain. The lands are described in one of the divestiture land transfers as adjoined by a common "partitioning line." Deed mapping of these lands confirms a common northwest to southeast property line, with Henry's land lying to the west and Johannes' to the east. This common "partition line" lies then, and today, atop the road leading to the Old Bethel Church and cemetery. Part of the Church land was donated by Johannes in 1854. Johannes included in his divestitures a separate 200 acre lot laying west of the lands of Heinrich II. A plot map of these holdings is included in the appendix.

JOHANNES LAMBERT. . .

1. Between 1797 & 1826, land & land grant purchases and sales leave Johannes with 259 acres of home farm located along Walker's Creek at the southern base of Brushy Mountain, and adjoining his brother Heinrich II.

2. In November 1832, Michael Lambert, a brother of Johannes and Heinrich II, purchased a land grant of 200 acres "lying along the head waters of Walker's Creek." It is doubtful if Michael or his children ever lived on this land. In September 1849, Johannes purchased these 200 acres from Michael for $400. Mapping of this deed shows that this land lay 745 feet from the western line of the property already owned by their brother Heinrich II, which adjoined the land of Johannes as described in paragraph 1.

3. On 5 October 1850, Johannes deeded the 259 acres of his home farm to his two youngest sons, Joseph and Elijah, for the price of $1 each and lifetime maintenance for him and his wife Christina Wolf. On the same day, he sold the 200 acres he had purchased from his brother Michael one year earlier to Samuel Lambert and Henry Lambert (husband of Emaline Leedy) in co-ownership for $200 each.

HEINRICH LAMBERT II. . .

1. In 1800 and 1831, Heinrich II purchased land grants totaling about 255 acres, described as "lying along the head waters of Walker's Creek." Later deed records show that this is the property that adjoined the land of his brother Johannes. On 4 January 1850 he deeded his 255-acre home farm to his youngest known son James, for $1 and lifetime maintenance for him and his wife Barbara Wolf.

PART 3: SAMUEL LAMBERT OF WYTHE COUNTY VIRGINIA

1. The 1850 sale described above by Johannes of 200 acres, in co-ownership, to Samuel Lambert and Henry Lambert (husband of Emaline Leedy) indicates a very close relationship between Samuel and Henry. After Samuel developed a serious skin disease in 1853, which resulted in his death in 1866, he and Henry sold Samuel's half of this lot (100 acres) to John W. Lindamood in March 1854 for $492. On the same day, Samuel relinquished to Henry for $1 his interest in Henry's half. It should be noted that the increase in value for his half is significant ($200 to $492) for a four-year period, implying that Samuel and Henry bought the land at a bargain price. In August 1865, while living in Mason County, West Virginia, Samuel sells his interest in land in Bland Co. Va., via a quit claim, to James R. Bales for $20. James Bales is the husband of Samuel's proposed niece Mary Perkey, daughter of Margaret (Peggy) Lambert and Solomon Perkey. This quit claim sale heightens the relationship between Samuel and Johannes because the Bland County deed record for this transaction shows that this land was part of the Johannes Lambert farm that was given to his sons Joseph and Elijah in 1850 for $1. (see part 2, par. 3)

2. Samuel was born about 1799 in Wythe County. He appears in the Wythe County census records from 1830 through 1850. In 1850 MOST of the Bland area Lamberts, and several associated families, appear on four consecutive census pages, indicating that they lived in close proximity to one another.

3. A comprehensive search over more than three years, completed in 2002, produced a compilation of all of the Lambert families in Wythe, Tazewell, and Smyth Counties. All possibilities were examined to find Samuel's probable parents. All were eliminated factually except two: Stephen Lambert of Tazewell County and Johannes Lambert of Wythe County.

4. Samuel Lambert's wife was Nancy Johnston (or Johnson), and her surname is used here to help establish family relationship terms used in letters discussed below. Her maiden surname can be proven by five different documents, including several death records.

5. In a letter dated January 1866 from Ephraim Lambert in Gallia County, Ohio, to his brother - and Samuel's son - Stephen in Bland County, Ephraim mentions that he "saw old Mr. Gullion this morning . . ." and "Mr. Gullion is going to start back home in March . . ."

6. In March 1867 Nancy Johnston Lambert, living with her son Ephraim, writes to her son Stephen in Bland County and states, "I want you to write to find out by your uncle Rubin Gulyen (Gullion) . . ." A search of the census records for Wythe, Smyth, Tazewell, and Bland Counties in 1850, 1860, and 1870 shows only one Ruben Gullion living in the Bland County area. In 1860, Ruben, age 52, is shown married to a Mahala, age 47. Living with Ruben and Mahala is Hannah Jo(H)nson, age 75.

7. Census, deed, and poor school records show that there was a Hannah and John Johnston living in the Bland area of Wythe County between 1810 and 1840. These records also show that Hannah was widowed by 1830.

8. References to Ruben Gullion by Ephraim and Nancy in their letters indicates that the use of the term and name "Uncle Rubin Gulyen" is factual. This is reinforced by Nancy's direct statement to Stephen about contacting "your uncle." Because widowed mothers often lived with their children, credence is given to the probability that the Hannah Johns(t)on living with Ruben Gullion was his mother-in-law. Nancy Johnston Lambert was three years older than Ruben's wife, making Mahala her logical sister.

9. The terms brother, sister, mother and other close family relationships are used throughout these letters, and virtually all are proven relationships, and not casual terms of endearment. Hannah's relationship to Nancy Johnston Lambert is reinforced by the sale in 1825 of 140 acres of land in Wythe County by John and Hannah Johnston, which is described as "lying on (Big) Walker's Creek." This is further verification of the location of these families inside the Bland area of Wythe County.

10. In January 1876, Nancy writes again to her son Stephen Lambert in Bland County and asks: "How your uncle Joseph and Henry is doing?"

11. In March 1876, Ephraim writes to Stephen and requests: "Write and tell me whether uncle Henry and uncle Joseph and my aunts are still alive and how they are getting along."

12. The letters leave little doubt that there is an "uncle" relationship, therefore limiting the surname search for a Henry and Joseph to either Johnston or Lambert. A search of the Bland, Wythe, Smyth and Tazewell county censuses show that there is no Henry or Joseph Johnston/Johnson "both" present in these counties closest to Stephen in 1860, 1870, or 1880. However, both Henry and Joseph Lambert live within walking distance of Stephen during this period. (See plot map on page 596)

13. In March 1886, Eli Lambert - the proven son of Henry and Emaline Leedy Lambert - wrote to Stephen Lambert in Bland County, Virginia, from Elliott County, Kentucky. He begins his letter: "Dear cousin...." and signs the letter, "Eli Lambert to Stephen Lambert"

CONCLUSIONS & QUESTIONS:

1. For Samuel's son Ephraim to ask about "uncles" in these letters, a relationship between Ephraim and these individuals must have been established before Samuel's move from Wythe (Bland) County in 1860. As Ephraim was about 13 years old at that time, would he not ask preferentially about close family members who lived nearby during his years in Wythe County? For example, why did he not inquire about first cousins, once removed, James R. and John Lambert, Jr., both of whom are known children of Heinrich Lambert II, and also lived close by?

2. Because Joseph Lambert is the proven son of Johannes, there is undeniable evidence for a family blood relationship between Henry, Joseph, and Samuel.

3. Only Johannes Lambert in the Wythe County area has an unnamed son in Samuel's age bracket in the census records of 1810 and 1820, and missing from Johannes' family in 1830, the time of Samuel's first appearance in the census record. This fact and the above information leave little doubt that Samuel is the son of Johannes. Heinrich II cannot be Samuel's father as his male children in Samuel's age bracket are known from birth, census, and baptismal records.

PART 4: HENRY LAMBERT, HUSBAND OF EMALINE LEEDY, AND SAMUEL LAMBERT

In 1850 Heinrich II and Henry (husband of Emaline Leedy) appear on the same census page. Heinrich II appears as Henry, and Henry appears as Henry, Jr. When two family heads appear in the same close area with the same names, it was common practice for the enumerator to add the "Jr." or "Sr." appendages to delineate "same name" families. This was true for both related and unrelated individuals. In no other public document apart from the 1850 census does Henry (husband of Emaline Leedy) appear as Henry, Jr. These appendages cannot be assumed to be correct by today's usage.

1. Through five censuses - from 1840 to 1880 - Henry, Emaline, and all of their children are shown at the correct 10 year intervals for their ages, which is unusual for 19th century families. The only exception is for Emaline in the 1870 census, where her age is shown at one year less than expected. Where the age in years is shown for Henry, the census indicates that he was born in 1804. This leaves little doubt that the family knew their birth years and were consistent in reporting their ages to each enumerator. Poor School records also show that all of the older children attended school and could probably read and write.

2. A compilation of the census records for Johannes and Heinrich II for 1810 through 1850 shows that only Johannes had enough male children in the correct age brackets to be the father of both Henry and Samuel. In addition, only Johannes had a male child disappearing at the correct time from his census record, while appearing as a separate family: Samuel, in 1830, and Henry in 1840. If Henry (husband of Emaline Leedy) is the son of Henry II, regardless of the birth year assigned to him (1799 or 1804), he would have to be part of Heinrich II's census family in 1810, 1820, and 1830, or appear separately under the name Henry Lambert. Heinrich II's family does not show him as a member of the household in the 1830 census, and neither has another Henry Lambert been found separately in Wythe County before 1840. He is also not found in deed or tax records for Wythe County during this period.

3. Mary Kegley writes in her book "St. Paul Lutheran Church Wythe County, Virginia: Annotated Baptismal Records 1793-1833," that Henry, born September 1799, son of Johann Heinrich II and Barbara Wolf Lambert, "...may have been the Henry Lambert who married Jenny Eagle 6 August 1821." Until now, the placement of Henry Lambert, husband of Emaline Leed, as this son born in 1799 of Heinrich Lambert II, has been the standard arrangement in genealogy chronicles.

4. If Henry (husband of Emaline Leedy) is placed as the son of Johannes, three options arise:

A. Henry, Jr., and Jenny Eagle both died early. If this is true, then the Henry who married Emaline Leedy must be the son of Johannes.

B. Jenny died and Henry, Jr., remarried Emaline Leedy. If Jenny Eagle died, why is Henry, Jr., not in the census or tax records from 1821 to 1839, either by himself or with Heinrich II?

C. They both survived and lived elsewhere.

PART 5: THE SEARCH FOR HENRY LAMBERT, Jr., SON OF JOHANN HEINRICH II, BORN SEPTEMBER 1799

A compilation of U.S. census records for all individuals named Henry Lambert living and/or born in Virginia, from 1810 through 1860, gives several possibilities for the identity of Henry, Jr. In collating the census records for any Henry Lambert before 1850, only those living in Virginia were collected. After 1840, all Henry Lamberts living east and north of Ohio were dismissed as being unlikely prospects. A cursory review was also conducted of the deed records for the counties where these individuals were living, in and out of Virginia. There are several such instances, but only one deed stands out before 1830, the time period for the proposed disappearance of Henry, Jr., and Jenny Eagle.

1. On 20 November 1828, a Henry Lambert purchased 50 acres of land on a land grant located on the "north side of Powell mid 19th century cemetery markers, but this is the only time it has been seen in a census record. The term concubine was commonly used to indicate the succeeding wife, or wives, of an individual whose 1st wife has died.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Maiden Spring Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[360] The 1880 census has Stephen's family as: Stephen Lambert [farmer] a.70, Caroline a.42, Zarilda [sic] a.16, Charles a.14, George a.12, Augustus a.10, Julia a.8, Amanda a.6, William a.3 & John Hager a.22. Zarilda, Charles & John Hager are all the children of Caroline's first husband Henry Hager.

He died after 1883 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[361]

He was married to Dicey Creger (daughter of Michael Creger and Mary (Polly) Depriest) on August 9, 1835 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[55] Dicey Creger was born between 1813 and 1820 in Virginia.[192]

She died between 1844 and 1849 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[192,195]

Dicey's surname appears as Crigger on her marriage record.

Stephen Lambert and Dicey Creger had the following children:

+279 i. Michael Lambert (born in 1836).

+280 ii. James E. Lambert (born in 1839).

281 iii. Thomas Lambert was born in 1841 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[362] He died in December 1849 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[362]

+283 v. John T. Lambert (born in October 1843).

284 vi. Stephen Lambert was born about 1844 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[362] He died in March 1850 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[362] Stephen & Thomas may not be part of this family, as their birth and death dates are taken from census mortality schedules which provide little information. Because both died under the surname Lampart, and as there were no Lampart families in Smyth County in 1850, and Stephen Lampert is the only Lambert family using the Lampert spelling in Smyth County, these children are placed in this family. The given name Stephen for the youngest child, is strong evidence favoring the above premise.

He was married to Pricilla Doan on March 30, 1848 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[363] Pricilla Doan[55] was born in 1828 in Virginia.[215] She died after June 1870 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[215,364]

Stephen Lambert and Pricilla Doan had the following children:

285 i. David Lambert was born in 1849 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[195]

286 ii. Henry T. Lambert was born in 1853 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[215] He appeared in the census on August 5, 1870 in Rich Valley Twp., Smyth Co., Virginia.[365] The 1870 census has Henry, age 18, living with the George & Martha Roberts family and listed as a "gentleman."

287 iii. Elizabeth Lambert was born in 1854 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[215]

+288 iv. Mary Margaret (Maggie) Lambert (born in 1856).

+289 v. Edward Lambert (born in April 1858).

+291 vii. George B. Lambert (born in 1867).

+292 viii. Augustus (Gustavas) Lambert (born in June 1870).

He was married to Malinda Caroline Moore (daughter of Martin Moore and Mary Polly Bartton) on September 14, 1871 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[366] Malinda Caroline Moore was born in 1838 in Virginia.[364,195]

Stephen Lambert and Malinda Caroline Moore had the following children:

293 i. Julia Lambert was born in 1872 in Virginia.[361]

294 ii. Amanda Lambert was born in 1874 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[361]

+295 iii. William Lambert (born in March 1878).

+296 iv. Susie Elizabeth Lambert (born in 1880).

59. James R. Lambert (Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1820 in Virginia.[65]

He purchased 285 acres of land for lifetime maintenance, lying on Walker's Creek, from his father Heinrich II, on January 4, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[367]

He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[368] The 1850 census has James' family as: James Lambert [farmer] a.30 b.Va., Elizabeth a.23 b.Va., Wesley a.4 b.Va., Laralet (fem) a.2 b.Va., Henry Lambert [none] a.75 b.Va., Barbara a.78 b.Va. & Barbara a.32 b.Va.

He sold 22 acres & 1 rood of land for $209, on the head waters of Walker Creek, to John H. Lindamood on January 27, 1857 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[369]

He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[370] The 1860 census has James' family as: James

Lambert [farmer] a.39 b.Va., Mandarra a.28 b.Va., William (Wesley) a.12 b.Va., Larlett a.10 b.Va., Elizabeth a.9 b.Va., Paris a.6 b.Va. & Henry a.5 b.Va., Mathias a.2 b.Va, Lucinda a.1 b.Va. & Gideon Waddle a.16.

He appeared in the census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[371] The 1870 census has James' family as: Jas. Lampert [sic] [farmer] a.49, Mendara a.38, Barbara a.31, Elizabeth a.20, Paris a.16, Henry a.15, Mathias a.13, Lucinda a.11, Louisa a.9, Mary a.7, Anna a.5 & Amanda a.2.

He appeared in the Virginia Agriculture Census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[372] James is shown with 130 acres of improved & 110 acres of woodlands valued at $1200. He is shown with farm implements worth $30, livestock worth $324 and a total farm production value of $507. He paid out no wages in 1870. The census places James' farm at above average value for farms in the Sharon District.

He appeared in a Homestead deed filed on his 240-acre farm on August 2, 1870 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[373] This claim was filed for both his real estate and personal property.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[374] The 1880 census has James' family as: Jas. Lampert a.59, Mimdany [sic] a.49, Sarah E. a.29, Lucinda C. a.21, Levicy Jane a.19, Mary Ann a.17, Anna M. a.15, Amanda a.12, Missouri Kitts [niece] a.4 & Mary Lampert [sister] a.62.

He died before October 1893 in Bland Co., Virginia.[189]

He appeared in a partition deed involving his heirs on October 19, 1893 in Bland Co., Virginia.[375] James' heirs are listed in this deed as: Mandana (wife), Elizabeth & Isaac P. Pauley, Clementine & Henry Thompson, Mathias Lampert, Lavalett & Marion Robinett, Wesley Lampert, Levica J. & R.L. Tibbs, Lucinda & George I. Neel & Paris Lambert.

James' children, Mathias & Lucinda are shown older than 10 years in the 1870 census, but do not appear in the 1860 census. The ages shown for them in 1870 are carried by these two individuals throughout their census lives. The ages shown in 1900 and/or 1870 will be used here.

He was married to Elizabeth Wolf on June 13, 1844 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[55] Elizabeth Wolf was born in 1827 in Virginia.[65] She died before 1856 in Virginia.[225]

James R. Lambert and Elizabeth Wolf had the following children:

+297	i.	William Wesley Lambert (born in March 1846).
+298	ii.	Melvina Lavlet (Lave) Lambert (born on March 24, 1848).
299	iii.	Ellen Brown Lambert was born about April 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[33] She was baptized on April 21, 1850 in the St. Paul's Lutheran Church Wythe Co., Virginia.[33] James is the only adult James Lambert in Wythe County, of the correct age, to be Ellen's father.
+300	iv.	Sarah Elizabeth (Betty) Lambert (born in 1851).
+301	v.	Paris George Lambert (born in August 1853).

He was married to Mandana (Dainey) Kitts (daughter of Henry Kitts and Mary (Polly) Cline) before 1856 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[376] Mandana (Dainey) Kitts was born in February 1832 in Virginia.[97,377] She appeared in the census on June 1, 1900 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[378] The 1900 census has Mandarra living alone with 2 granddaughters as: Mandary [sic] [farmer] a.68 b.Feb 1832, Alberta J. (granddaughter) [dressmaker] a.21 b.Nov 1878 & Orpha V. a.16 b.April 1884 (granddaughter). The granddaughters are the children of Henry P. The birth dates shown here are incorrect for both girls. Mandanna is shown widowed and having had 8 children with 6 alive in 1900. Alberta (Albertis) is shown single and having had 1 child (Seldon Crockett) with 1 alive in 1900. She died after 1904 in Bland Co., Virginia.[379]

+302	i.	Henry Pierce Lambert (born in January 1856).
+303	ii.	Mathias Joseph (Dudley) Lambert (born in February 1857).

306	v.	Mary Ann Lambert was born in 1863 in Bland Co., Virginia.[345]
307	vi.	Anna M. Lambert was born in December 1867 in Bland Co., Virginia.[345,377] Anna & Amanda are shown as twins in the 1870 census.
+308	vii.	Amanda C. (Clemmie) Lambert (born in December 1867).

61. Samuel Lambert[380] (Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1799 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]

The following deposition, found in Samuel's son Wayman's military pension file, gives the different surname spellings that Samuel's family was using during their lives in Mason County W.Va.: "State of Ohio County Gallia We upon our oaths declare, that we are well acquainted with Nancy Lambert alias Lampert, and know of our own knowledge that she cannot write her name but invariably signs by a cross mark when doing business requiring her signature we further declare, that her family are called Lamberts and among her neighbors they are frequently called Lamberts and or often Lamperts. And we further declare, that Wayman Lambert and Lampert, and Nancy Lambert and Lampert are identical and intended to apply to Nancy Lampert who we know had a son, whose name was Wayman Lampert and who died at New Creek station in Virginia 19th May 1862 of typhoid fever while in the service of the United Sates. And we further declare, that we also know that if she wants a letter written she goes to some neighbor woman to write it, and that we are not interested. We further declare that her late husband ~~~~ Lampert died not long since. Charles Cach / Joseph Cady Sworn to and subscribed before me this 16th day of November 1866. . . etc."

An additional deposition from Samuel's son-in-laws also states: "We, James Wolf and Andrew Wolf, residents of Mason County and the State of West Va. upon our oaths declare, that we have been intimately acquainted with Samuel and Nancy Lampert for span of twenty years last June 6, and know that their name has been called Lampert as the real and true name, but by many persons called Lambert, . . . etc."

He appeared in the census in 1830 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[381] The 1830 census has Samuel's family as: Samuel Lambert; males under 5- 2 (Stephen, unk.), 20 to 30- 1(Samuel), females 15 to 20- 1 (Nancy). [( ) transcriber's inserts]

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[382] The 1840 census has Samuel's family as: Samuel Lambert, males: 30/40-1(Samuel), 10/15-1(Stephen), 0/5-1(Andrew): females 30/40-1 (Nancy), 5/10-2 (Barbara & Elizabeth). [( ) transcriber's inserts]

He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[383] The 1850 census has Samuel's family as: Samuel Lambert [farmer] a.51 b.Va., Nancy a.41 b.Va., Elizabeth a.16 b.Va., Andrew a.13 b.Va., Hannah a.11 b. Va., Wayman a.7 b.Va. & Ephraim a.4 b.Va. Neither Samuel, Nancy nor any of his children, except for Barbara Thompson and Elizabeth Wolf are found in a page-by-page search of the 1860 Gallia County Ohio and Mason County W.VA. censuses (12/2001). Samuel does not appear in the 1860 Ky., Ohio, Va. or W.Va. census indexes. Nancy, age 60, is found in the 1870 Mason County W.Va. census living with her youngest son James and grandson Samuel, Andrew's oldest child.

He purchased ½ of 200 acres of land for $200 lying on the head waters of Walker Creek, from his father Johannes on October 5, 1850 in Wythe (Bland) Co., Virginia.[384] This land was held jointly with his brother Henry (born 1804).

He sold 100 acres of land, held co-jointly with Henry (born 1804), for $492 to John W. Lindamood, on March 4, 1854 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[385] This sale was for Samuel's half of 200 acres purchased by Samuel and Henry from their father Johannes in 1850. The deed shows that James Lambert, son of Heinrich II, also held partial title to this land sale. The deed consists of two partials showing that James sold a small tract containing only 2.51 acres. Why this small tract was included in the sale is unknown. Actual plotting of the tract sold to Samuel and Henry in 1850 by Johannes, shows that this small tract was not included in that sale, but was part of the original 200 acres sold to Johannes by his brother Michael in 1849. There is a section, located in the southeast corner of this 100 acres, in both the sale to Samuel & Henry and this sale to John H. Lindamood, which is not plottable because of incorrect surveying. This 100 acres would be Samuel's half of the 200 acres that was farmed by him, with Henry farming the other half. This is confirmed by the $1 sale by Samuel of his "claim & interest" in the other half of the 200 acres to Henry, on the same day as this deed.

He became "decrepit" (disabled) about 1855 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[386] A deposition in Wayman's military pension file dated 10 Sept 1864 from Lidia Childers and Elizabeth Lambert Wolf (Samuel's daughter) reads:

"The State of Ohio County of Gallia SS: We, Lydia Childers and Elizabeth Wolf residents of Mason County and State of West Virginia persons whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit and who being by me duly swom according to the law, say that they were present and saw Nancy Lampert make her mark to the foregoing declaration. They further say that the aforesaid Nancy Lampert resides in their immediate neighborhood and know of our own knowledge that Wayman Lampert previous to his enlistment to the service of the United States, by his labor and earnings contributed to support his mother, the aforesaid Nancy Lampert and Samuel Lampert his father. That after the enlistment of the aforesaid Wayman Lampert, and previous to his death a portion of his pay regularly transmitted to his mother, to pay her house rent, and other necessary expenses. We further say that Samuel Lampert, the husband of Nancy Lampert and father of Wayman Lampert, has been decrepit and unable to support his family for at least ten years past, by reason of illness and old sores on his legs, which has become constitutional and presenting a diseased mass of flesh whereby he cannot labor, and consequently has now to be supported by the labor of his said wife. They do not own land or any real estate, live on rented land, cultivating only a garden, has no help that she can use to assist her in support of herself and her old and decrepit husband, and we further declare that they do not own personal property to the value of an hundred dollars, and has no income whatever. And they further say that the facts so stated they know of their own knowledge, and they further say that Wayman Lampert left surviving mother wife child or children, and we further say that Nancy Lampert has not aided or abetted the rebellion but has been loyal to the government of the United States, and we further say that of monies and other means at least fifty dollars was contributed by Wayman Lampert annually toward supporting his mother. And now that she has no pension to aid her she is compelled to knit and do other light work for her neighbors to earn a very scanty support, especially when flour is now twelve dollars per baral (barrel), corn meal one dollar per hundred bacon thirty cents per lb, sugar twenty five cents per lb, molasses a dollar twenty five cents per gallon common cotton shirting seventy five cents per yard and other things in proportion, and now we further say that by the loss of their (line unreadable) in no wise interested in Mrs. Lampert's claim to a pension. 10 September 1864
/s/ Lydia X Childers /s/ Elizabeth X Wolf"

He emigrated from Wythe Co., Va. about 1860 to Mason Co., West Virginia.[386] The following affidavit in Wayman's pension file describes the time of their move to Mason County W.Va. and the circumstances of the family at that time.

"State of Ohio County of Gallia SS:

We Philip Leppert and Jane Barnes residents of the County and State above written upon our oaths declare that on or about the year 1860 as well as we recollect a certain family consisting of Samuel Lampert, Nancy Lampert his wife, Wayman Lampert a son and perhaps one or two adult relatives , located but a few miles from our father's dwelling house in Mason County in Virginia, and but a short time intervened until they called on his family, and we further declare, that we and each of us were residing nearby, by which we also became acquainted with the family of Samuel Lampert, from which we observed from our own personal knowledge that they were very poor people, that Samuel Lampert the husband of Nancy and father of Wayman was quite an old man and his body covered with ulcers and putrefied sores from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet of which he died on the 28th September 1866 and we further declare, that when first we became acquainted with the family, the old gentleman was unable to support himself, that son Wayman worked out by day work or by the month, to earn the means whereby his mother could get a support for herself and her diseased husband which support by then on continued until he was enlisted in Co F. 60th Regt Ohio Vol Infantry. That after his enlistment of the first pay he received he sent to his said mother a part, some ten or twelve dollars or perhaps more with instructions to use it in the purchase of such supplies as were required for their support. The said Wayman Lampert having enlisted in March 1862 and was paid up to the last of April 1862. . . And we further declare that the old lady with her superannuated husband was entirely supported by the labor of their son the said Wayman Lampert, and while being so supported, they had no other means of support, as they did not own real or personal estate from which they derived any income, and from the time of the death of the said Wayman Lampert and death of her husband Samuel Lampert she the said Nancy Lampert, has not nor now owns twenty dollars worth of property of any description, and is truly dependent on a pension for support. . . And they further declare that Nancy Lampert now supported by advances of money by friend to be repaid out of the pension when settled, and that (we) are disinterested.

He sold his "quit claim" interest for $20, in 200/400 acres of land in Bland (formally Wythe) Co., Va., on August 19, 1865 in Mason Co., W.Va. & Bland Co., Virginia.[387] Samuel and Nancy sold the "rights to their share" of this land to James R. Bailes, indicating that they were co-holders, or had inherited rights to this land with other parties. The land is described as "bounded on the north by the lands of Joseph Lambert (s/o Johannes), Daniel Perkey on the south, James Lambert (s/o Heinrich II) on the west and Stephen Repass on the east." The Virginia deed record for this quit claim states that the property contained 400 acres rather than the 200 acres shown in the Ohio document. The deed descriptions strongly suggests that this was in fact all or part of the lands sold and given by Johannes to his sons Elijah, Joseph, Samuel and Henry in 1850. In neither the Virginia nor Ohio record is the land described in detail beyond the above descriptions. Samuel & Nancy are shown as signing the quit claim deed in Gallia County Ohio. Samuel and Nancy were living in Mason County W.Va. on this date, but would have gone to Gallia County to sign the paperwork because of the lack of proper authorities in their area of Mason County. Samuel and Nancy signed and had written most of their legal documents in Gallia County Ohio during their lives in Mason County W.Va.

He resided in Point Pleasant in May 1866 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[388] Samuel & Nancy are reported by Ephraim as living in Point Pleasant in a letter to his brother Stephen in Bland Co., Va., dated 5 May 1866.

He died on September 28, 1866 in Point Pleasant, Mason Co., West Virginia.[386,388] A deposition in Wayman's pension file, dated 6 April 1868, from Philip Leppert and Jane Barnes, gives Samuel's death date.

He was buried after September 28, 1866 in Point Pleasant, Mason Co., West Virginia.[388] Samuel's burial location is based upon his residence in May of 1866. It is not known if he was living in the village at the time of his death.

Samuel's placement into the Johann Heinrich Lambert descendant line is based upon research and documents that are discussed in Henry Lambert Jr.'s (s/o Johann Heinrich II) family file beginning on page 27.

He was married to Nancy Johnston (daughter of John Johnston and Hannah (Johnston\mar)) about 1827.[65] Nancy Johnston[389] was born in 1809 in Virginia.[65]

She applied for the Military death pension from Wayman's military service on September 10, 1864 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[386] This application shows that she was a resident of Mason County W. Va. at the time of this request and signed it with her "X."

She was given a Military Death Pension of $8 a month from Wayman's Civil War service on March 5, 1869 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[386] The pension file shows that payment was retroactive to the date of Wayman's death on 15 May 1862. If this is true, she would have received $664 for back payment.

She appeared in the census on July 13, 1870 in Clendenin Twp., Mason County, West Virginia.[390] The 1870 census has Nancy's family as: Nancy Lambert [keeping house] a.60 b.Va., James P. [laborer] a.17 b.Va. & Samuel R. a.10 b.Va. The 1880 Illinois census for Andrew J. Lambert, Nancy's son, shows that Samuel R. is Andrew's son and James P. is Nancy's youngest son Preston.

She emigrated from Mason County West Virginia about March 1872 to Catlettsburg, Boyd Co., Kentucky.[388] Nancy states in a letter to Stephen dated 28 April 1872 that "I have moved to Kentucky." The letter contains the header "Cattletsburg Ky."

She emigrated from the Wheeling West Virginia Military Pension District on December 4, 1875 to the Lexington Kentucky Military Pension District.[386] Nancy was living in Kentucky before May 1872 but her pension district was changed on this date.

She resided in January 1876 in Apple Grove, Mason Co., Virginia.[388]

She resided in June 1878 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[388] Nancy was living with her son Preston during this period and was suffering from "failing eye sight."

She appeared in the census on June 24, 1880 in Saline Mines, Gallatin Co., Illinois.[391] Nancy is living with her son James Preston Lambert, at age 70 years, born Va. This family is living next to Nancy's son Andrew J.

She died on September 14, 1882 in Hardin Co., Illinois.[392,386,388] Nancy died at her son James Preston's home in Hardin County Illinois.

She was buried after September 14, 1882 in Hardin Co., Illinois.[388] Ephraim states in a letter dated 29 Feb 1884, that Nancy was buried in a location close to his home.

Nancy's surname is taken from her children Andrew's & Barbara's death certificates and early Wythe county records. The surname Johnston is the more common spelling before 1880, but is shown as Johnson after that date in most records. The 1880

Lincoln County W.Va. census lists a Nancy Lambert age 60 with several grandchildren. This Nancy is the wife of William Lambert of Tazewell Co., Va and her maiden surname was Hedrick. (Rob & Sally Lambert 2001)

Samuel Lambert and Nancy Johnston had the following children:

309 i. male Lambert was born between 1828 and 1830.[100] He died before 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[101]

+310 ii. Stephen Lambert (born on October 16, 1829).

+312 iv. Elizabeth (Betsy) Lambert (born in 1834).

+313 v. Andrew Jackson Lambert Sr. (born on May 27, 1837).

+314 vi. Hannah Jane Lambert (born in July 1840).

315 vii. Wayman Lambert was born in 1843 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,393]

He enlisted in Co. F, 60th Ohio Infantry, at the age of 19 for one year, on March 24, 1862 in Gallipolis, Gallia Co., Ohio.[394] Wayman was mustered into the Ohio 60th on the same day he enlisted at age 19. His surname is spelled Lampert on most of his military records but his mother Nancy, who received his death pension, has her surname shown as Lambert.

He appeared in the Co, F of the Ohio 60th Infantry Muster Rolls from March 30, 1862 to October 30, 1862.[395] He appears on the Company Muster Rolls as follows: March/April 1862, no comments; May/June 1862, died at New Creek Virginia May 15 1862; July/August 1862, deceased in hospital at New Creek Virginia; Sept/Oct 1862, no comments. Wayman was last paid through 20 April 1862.

Wayman's death, due to lack of proper medical supervision, as noted in a letter by the 60th Ohio's Commanding Officer, is of significant military note. Dismissal of an officer during the Civil War would require significant justification and will on the part of any officer. The following letter in Wayman's pension file, by the 60th Ohio's commanding officer William Trimble, concerning Wayman's death, is pertinent to the issue which resulted in the Commander's request for the Assistant Regimental Surgeon's resignation. The letter reads:

"Hillsborough [sic] 23rd Nov 1864

Gen Newsom*

Sir

I have been absent from home most of the time since the 11st [sic] of March and had no opportunity of seeing Dr. Noble formerly surgeon of the 60th till today -- He was at Gallipolis when the Reg. was at New Creek & did not join us till afterwards. The ast (Assistant) surgeon resigned and left the Reg while at New Creek. I censured him severely the evening we reached New Creek for not attending to the sick men that evening and told him if he did not resign I should ask his dismissal. We can therefore gain nothing from him. My sick men were taken to the Hospital the evening we reached New Creek Station & I suppose from the date of Lamberts death he did not leave the hospital from that time. The hospital surgeon in charge at New Creek at that time is the only person that can know the disease of which he died, and give the certificate needed. If I had not myself been ill and confined to a sick room all the time the Reg was at New Creek except the brief space allowed for preparation for the march after Fremonts arrival(,) I should no doubt have followed my usual custom of visiting my sick men daily and would have known the disease of which Lambert died. . . As it is I am utterly ignorant as to that part of the requirement in a certificate. I might say from the fact that he was in my Reg in the service & was taken to the Hospital at New Creek and died there, that I have no doubt of the disease which he died being contracted in the service, but owing to the circumstances I have named(,) no one can say of what disease he died save the surgeon in attendance on the Hospital at New Creek at that time. . . I suppose the records of the medical department at Washington City will show who was the surgeon in charge. . . I see no other way of getting at this matter & regret very much that you will be compelled to resort to so unusual a mode of obtaining the pension for Lamperts widow. . . If you fail in getting exactly what the law requires, and a certificate from me of the kind indicated. . . That is, that Lambert was a member of my Reg That the surgeon was absent from the Reg while at New Creek, That I compelled the Ast surgeon to resign for inattention to the sick of the Reg. . . and sent my sick men to the hospital at New Creek, that Lampert was one of the men and I have no doubt died of disease contracted in the service, will answer on the absence of the more direct testimony required, I will only be too happy to furnish it. . . With great res / your most obdt / Wm H Trimble"

The Assistant Surgeon listed on the regiment's roster at the time of this incident was R. H. [sic] Dwyer. He is shown as discharged on May 7, 1862. The "Highland Weekly News" of Hillsborough [sic], Highland Co., Ohio, on 29 May 1862, reports the following concerning Dr. Dwyer's resignation: "We learn that Dr. R. A. Dwyer, of New Petersburg, Assistant Surgeon of the 60th Ohio, has been compelled to resign his position and return home, on account of ill health. He was very kind and efficient in the discharge of his duties, and the whole regiment greatly regretted to part with him." *The lawyer working for Nancy in her pension application was also named Newsom(n) and the "Gen Newsom," as transcribed here from a copy of the original letter, indicates that the letter may have been sent to the lawyer. (Ms. J. Volker 22 Jan, 2002 & Sept 2005).

He died on May 15, 1862 in a hospital in New Creek, West Virginia.[396,386] Mason County W.Va. death records listed a Mary Ann Lambert, died May 17, 1862 in New Creek W.Va., aged 20 years and being born in Wythe Co., Va. The parents were listed as Samuel & Nancy Lambert with a sister Elizabeth Wolf providing the information. Military pension records show Samuel & Nancy's son Wayman dying in New Creek Station, W.Va. from typhoid while serving in the Army. The Mason County "Mary Ann Lambert" death record lists the place of death as "New CK S? Va.," which must have been intended to show New Creek Station Virginia. The given name on the original journal record is clearly Mary Ann and shows the sex as "female." On the line above this entry is the record for Elizabeth's (Wayman's sister) daughter Margaret Ann Wolf and shows the child's sex as "male." The number of certain errors in these two entries, suggests that an abnormal or careless method of entering the data was used in both cases. The number of coincidences between the Mason County death record for Mary Ann and the military death record for Wayman, leaves little doubt that the Mason County record for Mary Ann Lambert is Wayman Lambert, son of Samuel & Nancy Lambert of Wythe County Va. This death record for Wayman (Mary Ann) shows "measles" as the cause of death. Wayman's military date and cause of death (typhoid) will be used in this database. His death is shown as having happened in "the line of duty" in all military records. The cause of death for Elizabeth's child Margaret Ann Wolf will be shown as measles.

He appeared in the Co. F Muster Out Roll on November 10, 1862 in Chicago, Illinois.[395] The Company Muster Out Roll has the following notation for Wayman: "Age 19 years. Deserted in Hospital in New Creek Virginia." The word "deserted" is an obvious clerical error.

He was also known as Raymond Lamberton?[386] Wayman's government death records list his name as Raymond Lamberton on the death record only.

+316 viii. Ephraim William Lambert (born on May 13, 1846).
+317 ix. James Preston Lampert (born in 1853).

62. Mary Margaret (Peggy) Lambert[65] (Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1802 in Ceres, Wythe Co., Virginia.[65] She appeared in the census on July 30, 1860 in Lawrence Co., Arkansas.[397] The 1860 census has Margaret living alone with her daughter Sarah, next to her daughter & son-in-law David & Christina Perkey Wolf as: Margaret Perky [sic] a.58 b.Va., Sarah J. a.26 b.Va. & Lucinda a.6 b.Ark.

Mary Margaret (Peggy) Lambert Perkey is placed with Johannes because of co-ownership of land -purchased in 1842- by her husband Solomon Perkey and Elijah Lambert. Elijah is the known son of Johannes and it is not probable that Elijah and Solomon would co-own property without a close family relationship. Deed records show that the co-owned land was previously owned by Johannes. Other researchers have Margaret (Peggy) as the daughter of Johannes' brother Heinrich Lambert II. Margaret is shown as Peggy Lambert in the sale of the property mentioned above. (See the land purchase by Elijah on 5 Feb 1842)

She was married to Solomon Perkey on October 3, 1824 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[35] Their marriage license has Maria Magdalena Lambert. Solomon Perkey was born in 1802 in Virginia.[65]

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[398]

He purchased 123 acres of land for $350, lying along a branch of Wolf Creek from Stephen & Susannah Repass on February 5, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[399] This land was purchased in co-ownership with Margaret's brother Elijah Lambert.

He appeared in the census on September 9, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[400] The 1850 census has Solomon's family as: Solomon Perky [miller] a.48 b.Va., Margaret a.48 b.Va., Rufus [farmer] a.19, Sarah a.17, William a.13 & David Wolf [miller] a.26. David is the husband of Solomon's & Margaret's daughter Christina and appears in this census twice.

He died before 1860.[401] Solomon & Margaret's daughters Christina & Elizabeth are placed in this family based upon the 1840, 1850 & 1860 Wythe Co. Virginia and Lawrence Co., Arkansas censuses and marriage records. Christina's husband, David Wolf, appears twice in the 1850 census. He is found with Christina and their children and again with Solomon's. Both Christina & Elizabeth are of the correct age to fill the location of unnamed female children appearing with Solomon in the 1840 census record. There is another Perkey family in Wythe County (David) in 1840 and 1850, but David is too young to be the father of either Christina or Elizabeth. As Elizabeth married John Wolf, it may be that sisters married brothers. The 1860 census for Lawrence Co. Ark. has David & John Wolf, with their wives, living next to, or within walking distance of Margaret Lambert Perkey and her son Rufus J.

+318 i. Mary (Polly) M. Perkey (born on June 24, 1825).
+319 ii. Christina Perkey (born in 1827).
+320 iii. Elizabeth Perkey (born in 1829).
+321 iv. Rufus James Perkey (born in 1831).
322 v. Sarah Perkey was born in 1833 in Virginia.[65]
323 vi. William Perkey was born in 1837 in Virginia.[65]

64. Henry Lambert (Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1804 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,33]

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[402] The 1840 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert; males 30/40-1 (Henry), 5/10-1 (William), 0/5-2 (Eli & George); females 30/40-1 (Emaline), 0/5-1 (Christina). {( ) Compiler's insert}

He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[403] The 1850 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert Jr. [farmer] a.46 b.Va., Emaline a.35 b.Va., William a.15 b.Va., Eli a.14 b.Va., Christina a.12 b.Va., George a.10 b.Va., John a.8 b.Va., Polly a.6 b.Va., Augusta a.5 b.Va., Dulaney a.4 b.Va., Henry a.2 b.Va.& James a.6/12 b.Va.

He purchased 200 acres of land laying on the head waters of Walker Creek, from his father Johannes on October 5, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[404] Henry purchased this land jointly with his brother Samuel for $200 each.

He sold 100 acres of land lying along the head waters of Walker Creek, to John Lindamood on March 4, 1854 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[405] This 100 acres is half the 200 acres bought by Samuel & Henry in 1850 from their father Johannes Lambert. The $492 went to Samuel as the property description shows that Henry held onto his 100-acre half. Samuel sells his interest in Henry's half, to Henry, later the same day for $1. James, the son of Heinrich Lambert II, is also mentioned in this sale. James has a 2.51-acre tract included in the 100-acre sale, not owned by Samuel or Henry. The inclusion of this 2.51-acre tract is probably due to surveying errors of the original 200-acre tract made at the time of sale to Samuel and Henry in 1850.

He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[406] The 1860 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert a.56, Emaline a.45, John a.18, Polly a.16, "Margaret" (male-Augustus) a.14, "Juliana" (male-Dulaney) a.13, Henry a.12, Floyd a.8, Jane a.7, Sarah a.4 & Joseph a.2. {( ) compiler's insert}

He sold 18 acres of land for $50 on April 12, 1866 in Bland Co., Virginia.[407] This land was identified in the deed as being from the "estate of Elijah and late residence of Joseph, on the waters of Walker Creek." Henry's claim to this land is not explained by the deed records, but may be due to his relationship (brother) to Joseph and Elijah Lambert. The land was sold to James M. Stowers, Joseph Lambert's son-in-law. The term "late residence" shows that Joseph's "former" home is involved, not his death, as he was still alive in 1866.

He sold interest in Elijah Lambert's lands for $50 to James M. Stowers on April 12, 1866 in Bland Co., Virginia.[408] This was land inherited by Elijah from his father Johannes in 1850 and would have been ½ of Johannes' 253-acre home farm.

He appeared in the census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[409] The 1870 census has Henry's family as: H. Lampert [sic] [farmer] a.66, Emiline [sic] a.54, Polly a.26, Floyd a.18, Jane a.16, Sarah a.13, Joseph a.12 & Henry a.2.

He appeared in the Virginia Agriculture Census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[410] Henry is shown with 40 acres of improved and 53 acres of woodlands valued at $450. He is shown with no farm implements, livestock worth $99 and a total farm production value of $110. This census places Henry among the poorest farms in the Sharon District.

He died between 1871 and 1879 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104,345]

Johann Heinrich Lambert II of Wythe County Va. had a son Henry Jr. born in Sept 1799 and baptized on 27 Oct 1799 in the St. Paul Lutheran Church in Wythe County. Many family researchers have confused the Henry shown here with the above son of Johann Heinrich born in 1799. The Henry shown here appears as Henry Jr. only once in the public record. This occurs when Johann Heinrich II is living with his youngest son James in 1850, and they are living in the northern part of Wythe County within several stops of the Henry shown here. They are living in that area of Wythe County that became Bland County in 1860. This Henry Lambert, shown as a brother to Samuel, will be given the birth year of 1804, as he appears in ALL census records with that birth year exclusively. His wife and children are, unlike most families in the 19th century, consistent about their ages in ALL census records. The 1804 year conflicts with the birth record for Johann Heinrich II's son Henry Jr. born in 1799, and this Henry (1804) is described in two Samuel Lambert family letters as "uncle Henry." Henry & Emaline Leedy Lambert had a son named Eli who addresses Samuel's oldest son Stephen as "Dear cousin" in a letter dated 12 March 1886 from Elliott County Kentucky. The son of Johann Heinrich II, born in 1799, has been located living in Lee County Virginia in 1830 and 1840, and in Arkansas in 1850. His wife Jenny Eagle and several of her siblings, can be found living close to Jenny & Henry Jr. in Lee County. Henry Jr. & Jenny (Jane) are further identified in the 1850 census record by age and birth location. More detail concerning Henry's placement in Johannes' family can be found in the Henry Lambert Jr.'s (s/o of Heinrich Lambert II) file beginning on page 27.

He was married to Emaline (Ellen) Leedy (daughter of John Leedy and Mary (Polly) Gullion) about 1834.[65]

Emaline (Ellen) Leedy was born in 1815 in Virginia.[65]

She appeared in the census in 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[104] Emaline is living with her son George W. in 1880.

She died after 1880.[104]

Emaline's nickname "Ellen" is taken from the marriage record of her son James to Martha Hancock. Emaline is shown as Amy Lambert in the land sale of 1854.

Henry Lambert and Emaline (Ellen) Leedy had the following children:

+324 i. William Lambert (born in 1835).

+325 ii. Eli Lambert (born on September 16, 1836).

326 iii. Christina Lambert was born in 1838 in Virginia.[65]

She appeared in the Poor School on August 24, 1849 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[411] Christina also appeared in the Poor School directory on 16 Aug 1850. She appears as C. Lambert child of H. Lambert. She appeared in the census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[412] Christina is living with the John & Nancy Stowers family and working as a domestic servant. If this is she, she is shown as C. Lampert a.32. John & Nancy are at stop 141 and her parents are at stop 160, making her a short distance from home. No other unmarried Lambert females, with the given name beginning with the letter C, and of the same approximate age, is found living in Bland County in 1870.

+327 iv. George Washington (Wash) Lambert (born on January 10, 1840).
+328 v. John T. Lambert (born in 1842).
+329 vi. Mary A. (Polly) Lambert (born in January 1844).
+330 vii. James Augustus (Gus) Lambert (born on March 27, 1845).
+331 viii. Julian Dulaney (Laney) Lambert (born in 1847).
+332 ix. Henry Taylor Lambert (born on September 16, 1849).
333 x. James Lambert was born in April 1850 in Virginia.[65] He died before 1860.[97] James does not appear in the 1860 census. He would have been 10 years old.
+334 xi. Rush Floyd Lambert (born in November 1851).
+335 xii. Jane Lambert (born in 1853).
+336 xiii. Sarah A. Lambert (born in 1856).
+337 xiv. Joseph Lambert (born in 1858).

66. Joseph Lambert (Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born about 1807 in Virginia.[65]

He purchased 170 acres of land for $1000, on the S. Fork of Reed Creek from heirs of Henry Huddle & etc. on January 29, 1847 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[413] The heirs of Eve Groseclose and Regina Staley are also mentioned as sellers of this property.

He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[414] The 1850 census has Joseph living with his father as: Joseph a.44 b.Va., Polly Lambert a.11 b.Va., James Franklin a.7 b.Va. & Elizabeth Lambert a.44 b.Va. Elizabeth is assumed to be Joseph's wife, but may be his sister.

He purchased 1/2 of 259 acres of land for $1 & lifetime maintenance, from his father John Sr. on October 5, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[415] This property was held jointly with his brother Elijah.

He sold 2.1 acres of land for $38, on the head waters of Walker Creek, to John H. Lindamood on January 2, 1857 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[416] This land was jointly held by Joseph & Elizabeth and Patten & Elizabeth Thompson. Joseph's wife's maiden surname was also Thompson suggesting that she and Patten may have been brother and sister.

He purchased a land grant of 93 acres "on waters of Walker's Creek" on March 1, 1859 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[417] Joseph was granted this land as co-owner with his brother Elijah. Part of the land is described as "bounded on a line of the Henry (Heinrich II) Lambert patent of 220 acres."

He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[418] The 1860 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Lambert [farmer] a.53 b.Va., Elizabeth a.51 b.Va., Polly Lambert a.19 b.Va., Franklin a.16 b.Va., Eliza Lambert a.50 b.Va., Kate Oury a.42 b.Va. & Wm. Lambert [laborer on farm] a.25 b.Va. Eliza is probably Joseph's sister. William is Henry & Emaline Leedy Lambert's son, Joseph's nephew.

He purchased for $100, rights & title to land on the head waters of Walker Creek from William & Barbara Henegar on April 16, 1863 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[419] This land was given in co-ownership to Joseph and Elijah Lambert in 1850 by their father Johannes. This deed suggests that William and Barbara Lambert Hennigar's claim to this land must be based upon more than a "casual" family relationship. As Elijah was deceased by the time of this sale, title to his half of the original 259 acres would have fallen to his wife (deceased), children (none) and then to close family members. If Barbara Lambert Hennigar is Elijah's sister, and Elijah's wife (Ann Hennigar) is William Hennigar's sister, William and Barbara Lambert Hennigar would have a double "heritage claim" relationship to Elijah. This would explain this "rights & title" sale of Elijah's half share of 259 acres at the extremely modest price of $100. The deed is also definitive for its lack of land survey description, indicating a "heritage claim" sale. Other Lambert family researchers have Barbara Hennigar as Elijah and Joseph's cousin, not their sister. That would make this sale confusing, as no deed record of sale to William & Barbara Hennigar by Elijah or Joseph, is found in the Wythe or Bland County deed records. The other siblings of Joseph and Elijah would hold a less "rightful" claim to Elijah's half, making their nonappearance in this sale reasonable.

He appeared in the census on July 7, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[420] The 1870 census has Joseph's family as: Joseph Lampert [farmer] a.64, Elizabeth a.64, J. M. Stowers Jr. a.29, Polly Stowers a.29, Adam Stowers a.6/12, Cath. Aury [sic] a.57 & Polly Neal a.18. Catherine Oury is Joseph's sister. J. M. & Polly Stowers are Joseph's daughter and son-in-law.

He was buried in the Old Bethel Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[422]

He was married to Elizabeth Thompson (daughter of Andrew Thompson and Elizabeth (Thompson\mar)) about 1840 in Wythe

Co., Virginia.[225,65,97] Elizabeth Thompson[127] was born in 1809 in Virginia.[97]

She inherited 27 acres of land on Walker Creek, partitioned from Estate of Andrew Thompson on May 21, 1857 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[423]

She appeared in the census on June 23, 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[104] Elizabeth is living with her daughter and son-in-law, James Stowers in 1880 as Ettis [sic] [servant] [mother-in-law] age 73 born Va. Elizabeth is shown widowed in 1880.

She died after July 1880 in Virginia.[104]

She was buried in the Old Bethel Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[422]

Elizabeth is placed as the child of Andrew Thompson because a partition deed record shows that Elizabeth Thompson Lambert was Andrew's daughter. She is shown as the wife of Joseph Lambert and the land being partitioned is an estate in Wythe County along Reed Creek. The writing in the deed makes it difficult to determine if Joseph Lambert is alive or deceased at the time of the partitioning in 1857. The deed can be read to imply that either Joseph Lambert or Elizabeth Thompson (Andrew's wife) was deceased at that time. It is interpreted here to show that Elizabeth's mother, Elizabeth Thompson, was deceased, not Joseph or his wife. This Joseph and Elizabeth Lambert are the only Joseph and Elizabeth Lambert living in Wythe County between 1850 and 1860.

Joseph Lambert and Elizabeth Thompson had the following children:

+338 i. Mary U. (Polly) Lambert (born in 1841).

339 ii. James Franklin Lambert was born in 1843 in Virginia.[97] He served in Company G of the Virginia 36 Infantry between August 1, 1862 and March 17, 1864 in Bland Co., Virginia.[424] This record may not be James Franklin, son of Joseph & Elizabeth Lambert. The military record reads: "LAMPERT, JAMES F.: Co. G; enlisted. Aug. 1, 1862 in Bland Co. Present until AWOL Dec. 17, 1862. Present on Feb. 1863 roll until sick May 29, 1863. Present on Aug. 1863 roll until on leave Dec. 1863. Captured at Winchester, Sept. 19, 1864. POW Pt. Lookout, exchanged. Mar. 17, 1865." A second roll shows he died of pneumonia, Jan. 20, 1865.

67. Elijah Lambert (Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1808 in Virginia.[65]

He purchased 123 acres of land for $350, lying along a branch of Wolf Creek from Stephen & Susannah Repass on February 5, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[425] This land was bought in CO-ownership with Solomon Perkey. This deed reinforces the suggested relationship between Elijah and Solomon's wife Margaret Lambert. This compiler has placed Margaret as Elijah's sister, rather than the daughter of Heinrich II. A brother/brother-in-law relationship for co-ownership of land would be more reasonable than for the cousin/cousin-in-law relationship suggested by Margaret being placed as the daughter of Heinrich II. Census compilation data shows that both Johannes & Heinrich II had a daughter Margaret's age and leaving home at the proper time to be Solomon's wife. Marriage & census records also show another Margaret (Peggy) Lambert of the same approximate age being married to Jared Kegley in the Bland area of Wythe County. That Margaret is placed as the daughter of Heinrich II.

He sold 123 acres of land for $250, lying along a branch of Wolf Creek, to John Creger on October 21, 1843 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[426] Elijah was co-owner of this land with Solomon Perkey, his brother-in-law. Elijah is shown single in this deed record.

He appeared in the census in 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65] Elijah is living with his father in 1850.

He purchased 1/2 of 259 acres of land for $1 & lifetime maintenance, from his father John Sr. on October 5, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[427] This property was held jointly with his brother Joseph.

He purchased a land grant of 93 acres "on the waters of Walker's Creek" on March 1, 1859 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[428] Elijah was granted this land as co-owner with his brother Joseph.

He died after April 1859 in Virginia.[65,97,225]

He was married to Ann Hennigar (daughter of John Hennigar and ?? (Hennigar\mar)) on December 10, 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] The date shown here is the "bond" date and may not be the correct marriage date. Elijah and Ann are not known to have had any children. Elijah posted the bond with Ann's brother William. Her father is shown as John. Ann Hennigar was born about 1808.[225] She died between 1841 and September 1843 in Virginia.[65,127]

68. Catherine Lambert (Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1812 in Virginia.[65]

She appeared in the census in 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65] Catherine is living with her parents in 1850 as Cath. Oury age 38.

She appeared in the census in 1860 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[97] Catherine is living with her brother Joseph in 1860 as Kate Oury age 42.

She appeared in the census in 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[104] Catherine is living with her niece Polly (Mary W.) Lambert Stowers, daughter of Joseph, as Catharine [sic] Oury [servant] age 66.

Catherine is shown in the 1850 census living with John & Christina Lambert as Catherine Oury. She may not be their daughter but is shown in the 1850 census, in the correct age order, for the children of John & Christina.

She was married to John Oury between 1830 and 1840 in Virginia.[225,101,65] John Oury[65,225] was born between 1780 and 1790 in Virginia.[101]

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[429] The 1840 census has John's family as: John Oury, males 50/60-1, female 20/30-1.

He died before 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]

John is selected as Catherine's husband because Catherine is shown living at home with her parents in 1850 as Catherine Oury, and John is of significant advanced age in 1840 to be deceased by 1850. He does not appear in the 1850 or 1860 census record in the U.S. John & Catherine are shown with no children in 1840 and Catherine has no children with her in 1850.

69. Barbara Lambert[430] (Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1813 in Virginia.[344]

She appeared in the census in 1880 in Seddon Twp., Bland Co., Virginia.[104] Barbara is living with her daughter Elizabeth Hennigar Neal in the 1800 census as: Barbara Heninger [widow] [mother] a.78.

Barbara's attachment to Johannes & Christina Lambert is based upon land sales in Bland County and her marriage to William Hennigar. See the 16 Apr 1863 "rights & title" land purchase by her brother Joseph.

She was married to William Hennigar (son of John Hennigar and ?? (Hennigar\mar)) on March 13, 1834 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[431,55] William Hennigar was born in 1815 in Virginia.[340]

He appeared in the census on July 24, 1850 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[432] The 1850 census has William's family as: William Henager [farmer] a.35 b.Va, Barbary a.38 b.Va., Joseph a.13 b.Va., Chas C. a.12 b.Va., Eliza F. a.7 b.Va., Mary M. a.5 b.Va & Lucinda J. a.2 b.Va.

He appeared in the census on July 6, 1860 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[433] The 1860 census has William's family as: William Heneger [farmer] a.45, Barbary a.37, Joseph a.23, Charles C. a.21, Eliza F. a.18, Mary a.15, Lucinda a.10 & Alexander a.7 b.Va.

He sold Land lying on Walker's Creek on April 16, 1863 in Bland Co., Virginia.[434] This land is described as: "the same land granted by John Lambert, deceased, to Joseph and Elizabeth Lambert...," and was purchased by Joseph Lambert.

He appeared in the census on August 24, 1870 in Bland Co., Virginia.[435] The 1870 census has Williams's family as: Wm Hennigar [farm laborer] a.58, Barbara a.59, Alexander a.16, Peter P. Neel a.26, Elizabeth L. (?) Neel a.26 & William Neel a.2. Elizabeth Neel is William's daughter.

He died between 1871 and 1879 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104]

Barbara Lambert and William Hennigar had the following children:

340 i. Joseph Hennigar was born in 1837 in Virginia.[340]
341 ii. Charles C. Hennigar was born in 1839 in Virginia.[344]
+342 iii. Eliza F. Hennigar (born in 1843).
+343 iv. Mary Magdalena Hennigar (born on November 2, 1844).
344 v. Lucinda J. Hennigar was born in 1848 in Virginia.[340]
+345 vi. John Alexander Hennigar (born in 1853).

70. Manerva (Mandia) Lambert (Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born about 1825 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[100] Manerva's presence in the Johann Heinrich Lambert descendant line is based upon speculation and a Bland County marriage record for a Henry J. Wadldle to Rhoda Devor (Deavor) in 1871. His parents are shown as Jos Waddle & Manerva Lampert on this record. Harvey J. is shown being born in Wythe County and living in Bland County in 1871. If the family arrangement shown here is correct for Manerva, she would most probably be the daughter of Johannes or Heinrich II, as the Waddle family of Wythe County resided predominately in the northwestern portion of Bland (Wythe) County from 1840 through 1870. With his mother's surname spelled LamPert on his marriage record, and this spelling being used in Bland County to delineate families descended of Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr. from the Phillip Lambert line, only Johannes Lampert had a daughter present in 1840 and missing in 1850 of the correct age.

She was married to Daniel Joseph Waddle before 1844 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,238] Daniel Joseph Waddle[436] was born in 1820 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[100]

He appeared in the census on September 30, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[437] The 1850 census has Daniel's family as: Daniel J. Waddle [farmer] a.30 Mandia a.25, Joseph a.6 & Rachel Grayson a.7.

Manerva (Mandia) Lambert and Daniel Joseph Waddle had the following children:

+346 i. Harvey Joseph Waddle (born in 1844).

71. William Lambert[5] (Johann Michael-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on July 27, 1805 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[103,65,155]

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[101] The 1840 census has William's family as: William Lambert, males <5-1, 30/40-1, females <5-1, 10/15-1, 30/40-1 & 50/60-1. The female 10/15 years of age may be William's daughter by another marriage, but probably not Susan's, as she would have been too young. This child is not listed in this family database.

He purchased Daniel Aker's half of 324 acres of land held in co-ownership by William & Daniel Aker, for $1300, on May 4, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[438,439] The original land was purchased by William and Daniel Aker (William's brother-in-law) from Daniel Wisely. A deed for this land was created on 14 July 1856 pursuant to a court order dated 9 July 1855.

He sold the dower estate of Elizabeth Wisely for $300 to John J. Wisely on April 26, 1849 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[440] This estate was held by William & Susan and Daniel Wisely & wife. The acreage of land is not shown in this deed.

He appeared in the census in 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[441] The 1850 census has William's family as: William Lambert [farmer] a.45 b.Va., Susan a.36 b.Va., Sygman a.13 b.Va., James a.7 b.Va., Michael a.3 b.Va. & Margaret a.6/12 b/Va. Sygman is Lycurgus.

He purchased 30 acres of land on the Waters of Reed Creek & the "McAdamized" Road for $300, from Benjamin Staley on October 5, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[442]

He appeared in a court ordered evaluation for compensation for work preformed on southwestern McAdam Road on November 28, 1853 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[443] William received $60 for loss of land and inconvenience.

He purchased 2 lots, known as Ridge Brown's lots, in the village of Mt. Airy for $82.08, from Peter Buck on September 1, 1854 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[444] Mr. Buck was in default of a loan.

He purchased a land grant 326 acres of land on the waters of Reed Creek on April 1, 1857 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[445]

He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[446] The 1860 census has William's family as: William Lambert [farmer] a.54 b.Va., Susan a.49 b.Va., John (James) a.17 b.Va., Mary a.12 b.Va., Florence a.10 b.Va., & Flemming a.9 b.Va. Mary does not appear in the 1850 census record and is probably an enumerator entry error for both name and sex, as son Michael is present in this age location in both 1850 and 1870. Flemming appears as Thomas (S.) in all later censuses.

He served in Co. E of the 51st Virginia Infantry Regiment commanded by Brig. Gen Gabriel C. Wharton between 1861 and 1865 in Virginia.[424]

He appeared in the census on June 23, 1870 in Black Lick Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[447] The 1870 census has William's family as: William Lambert [farmer] a.65, Susan a.60, Lycurgus a.33, James R. a.26, Michael a.22, Florida a.18, Thomas a.20 & Joseph Severs a.12. William appears again in this census, on the same day, at the home of his mother. This visit is stop 183 and his mother's is stop 202.

He appeared in the Virginia Agriculture Census on June 23, 1870 in Black Lick Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[448] William is shown with 160 acres of improved and 150 acres of woodlands valued at $5000. He is shown with farm implements worth $60, livestock worth $430 and a total farm production value of $553.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Black Lick, Wythe Co., Virginia.[449] The 1880 census has William's family as: William Lambert [Wagon Maker] a.74 b.Va. f.b.Va. m.b.Ger, Susan W. a.65 b.Va. f.b.Va. m.b.Va. & Thomas S. [son] a.24 b.Va.

He signed a will on January 8, 1890 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[450] William's Will reads: "In the name of God Amen I William Lambert of the County of Wythe in the State of Virginia being of Sound mind and perfect understanding and contemplating the uncertainty of life do make and publish this my last will and testament this 8th day of January 1890 in the manner and form following to wit Ref

450 i. William D. Hounshell was born about 1851 in Kentucky.[181]
451 ii. Martha A. Hounshell was born in 1852 in Kentucky.[181]
452 iii. John C. B. Hounshell was born in 1853 in Kentucky.[181]
453 iv. James B. Hounshell was born in 1857 in Kentucky.[556]
454 v. Elias B. Hounshell was born in 1859 in Kentucky.[556]
455 vi. Nancy Hounshell was born in 1864 in Kentucky.[556]

He was married to Catherine Jones (daughter of Milton B. Jones and Malinda (Jones\mar)) on March 24, 1868 in Clay Co., Kentucky.[556,557] The marriage location for George and Catherine is placed in Kentucky because of their location in 1880 and Catherine's birthplace (Ky.). Catherine Jones was born in April 1846 in Kentucky.[544,558]

She appeared in the census on June 18, 1900 in Clay Co., Kentucky.[559] The 1900 census has Catherine's family as: Catherine Hounshell [farmer] a.54 b.April 1846, Stephen a.20 b.June 1879 [sic] & Floyd a.18 b.Nov 1881. The census shows Catherine having had 5 children with 3 alive in 1900. Catherine's number of children is incorrect and is corrected by her in the 1910 census record. She appeared in the census on May 11, 1910 in Clay Co., Kentucky.[560] The 1910 census has Catherine living alone, but next door to her son Marion, as: Catherine Hounshell [farmer] [widow] a.66. The census shows Catherine having had 13 children with 8 alive in 1910.

George Washington Hounshell and Catherine Jones had the following children:

456 i. Mary A. Hounshell was born in 1869 in Clay Co., Kentucky.[541]
457 ii. Luemma Hounshell was born in 1870 in Kentucky.[556]
458 iii. George W. Hounshell was born in 1871 in Kentucky.[556]
459 iv. Marion Crockett Hounshell[561] was born in January 1873 in Kentucky.[556,561]
460 v. Poppy Hounshell was born in 1875 in Kentucky.[556]
461 vi. Jefferson Hounshell was born in September 1876 in Kentucky.[556,558]
462 vii. Catherine V. Hounshell was born in 1878 in Kentucky.[556]
463 viii. Susannah W. Hounshell was born in December 1879 in Clay Co., Kentucky.[556]
464 ix. Steven Hounshell was born in June 1880 in Clay Co., Kentucky.[558] Steven is shown born in 1879 in the 1900 census. This is incorrect as he is not present in June 1880, and his sister Susannah is shown born in Dec 1879 in the 1880 record.

465 x. Floyd Hounshell was born in November 1881 in Clay Co., Kentucky.[558]

96. Elizabeth Sophia Hounshell (Henry-4, Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born about 1816 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[562] She died before 1860.[196]

She was married to John Franklin Gullion before 1841 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[563]

Elizabeth Sophia Hounshell and John Franklin Gullion had the following children:

466 i. Francis Gullion was born in 1841 in Virginia.[65] He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[564] The 1850 census has Francis living with his maternal grandparents as: Francis Gullion a.9.

97. Polly Hounshell (Henry-4, Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1818 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[97] She died after July 1860.[97]

She was married to P. Archibald Thompson (son of Andrew Thompson and Elizabeth (Thompson\mar)) before 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[565,65] P. Archibald Thompson[566] was born in 1813 in Virginia.[97,65]

He appeared in the census on September 14, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[567] Archibald, Polly and their children are living with his father Andrew Thompson in 1850 as: Andrew Thompson [farmer] a.70, Archibald a.37, Polly a.30, Darthula a.9, Liza a.7, Winton a.5, Ludima a.3, Henry a.1 & Mary Thompson a.40.

He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[568] The 1860 census has Archibald's family as: Archibald Thompson [farmer] a.50, Polly a.42, Dartula [sic] a.19, Eliza a.17, William a.15, Ludmia a.12, Henry a.10 & Mary Thompson a.55.

He died after August 1860.[97]

Polly Hounshell and P. Archibald Thompson had the following children:

+467 i. Darthula Thompson (born in 1840).

468 ii. Elizabeth Thompson was born in 1843 in Virginia.[97]

469 iii. William (Winton) Thompson was born in 1845 in Virginia.[97] William appears with the given name Winton in the 1850 census.

+470 iv. Ludema Thompson (born on October 28, 1847).

+471 v. Henry Thompson (born in March 1850).

98. Mahala Hounshell (Henry-4, Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1822 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,225] Mahala's birth year is taken from a compilation of several census records and is only an estimate. (4/03)

She was married to John Lambert Jr. (son of Johann Heinrich (Henry II) Lambert II and Barbara Wolf) on February 17, 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] Mahala is shown on the marriage record as the daughter of Henry Hounshell. Elijah posted the bond with Michael Cline on the date shown here. This may indicate some relationship to John's proposed first wife. John Lambert Jr. was born on April 10, 1797 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[33]

He was baptized on June 11, 1797 in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Wythe Co., Virginia.[33] John's sponsors were John Wolf & wife.

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[569] This family consists of John Lambert Jr. and wife, both aged between 20 & 30 years, and 2 daughters aged 5/10 & <5 years. The age shown for John, if this is John & Mahala, would be incorrect, as he would have been 42 years old in 1840. This is compatible with early census age discrepancies. The daughter Elizabeth, shown living with John & Mahala in 1860 & 1870, would fit the female child in John Lambert Jr's family, shown at age 5/10 years in this census. As John & Mahala married in Feb. 1840, they would have appeared as a family in the 1840 census, without children, unless the children shown for John Lambert Jr. were from a previous marriage. As Mahala was only 16 years old in 1840, she is not the probable mother of the child shown above the age of 5. John Lambert Jr. is living NEXT to Mahala's parents and 12 stops from his father Johann Heinrich Lambert II in 1840, making this family, that of John & Mahala, difficult to refute as John Lambert Jr. in 1840.

He purchased 11+ acres of land for $112.50, at the head waters of Walker's Creek lying next to his father's land on June 7, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[570] This land was sold to John by his wife's parents Henry & Elizabeth Hounshell. John is shown on the deed as John Lambert Jr., like he appeared in the 1840 census. This land was located along the waters of "Big" Walker's Creek, adjacent to the western line of his father's land.

He purchased 9+ acres of land for $100, from Mahala's parents, lying on the Head Waters of Walker's Creek on June 7, 1842 in Wythe/Bland Co. Virginia.[571] This land was located along the waters of Big Walker's Creek, adjacent to the western line of his father's land.

He purchased 10 acres of land from Johannes Lambert for $20, lying along the head waters of Walker's Creek on July 23, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[127] The land adjoined the property of Johannes & Christina Lambert.

He appeared in the census on September 11, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[572] The 1850 census has John's family as: John Lambert [farmer] a.52 b.Va.. Mahala a.36 b.Va., Robert a.4 b.Va., Eva a.2 b.Va & Heiman [sic] a.6/12 b.Va.

He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[573] The 1860 census has John's family as: John Lambert [laborer] a.60 b.Va., Mahala a.42 b.Va., Eve a.12 b.Va., Herman [sic] a.10 b.Va., Lindsey a.7 b.Va., Jane a.4 b.Va., Agness a.1 b.Va., Elizabeth Lambert a.28 b.Va., Mary a.3 b.Va., Stephen a.1 b.Va., William a.22 b.Va., Sarah a.21 b.Va. & Frederick Repass a.86 b.Va. Because of John's advanced age (42) at the time of his marriage to Mahala Hounshell, William (a.22) and Elizabeth (a.28) are probably John's children from a previous undisclosed marriage. It is assumed that the Sarah Lambert, age 21, is William's wife. Mary age 3 and Stephen age 1, may be Elizabeth's children, but descendants of Elizabeth state that Mary & Stephen are not her children.

He appeared in the census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[574] 1870 census has John's family as: Jno. Lampert [sic] [farmer] a.72, Mahala a.56, Linsay [sic] [farm laborer] a.17, Elizabeth a.40 [without occupation], Mary a.14, Paris a.4. With the individual Elizabeth being out of age order, the two children Mary & Paris are shown here as her children. Later marriage records confirm this arrangement.

He appeared in the Virginia Agriculture Census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[575] John is shown with 16 acres of improved and 2 acres of woodlands valued at $150. He is shown with no farm implements, livestock worth $54 and a total farm production value of $48. This census places John among the poorest farms in the Sharon District.

He appeared in a Homestead deed filed on his 20-acre farm on September 9, 1870 in Bland Co., Virginia.[576] This claim was filed for both his real estate and personal property.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[577] The 1880 census has John's family as: John Lampert a.83, Mahala a.64 & Sarah Jane a.24.

He appeared in a deed record to "swap" property with J. H. Lindamood on October 6, 1883 in Bland Co., Virginia.[578] John & Mahala swapped 8.82 (9) acres of the 18.2 (lot #8) Mahala inherited from her father Henry Hounshell, for $5 and 7½ acres of land on the head waters of Big Walker's Creek, north of the Old Plaster Bank road. The new land was part of "Lot #7," Peter Hounshell's section of the Hounshell inheritance. John is shown as John Lampert Jr. in this record.

He sold 17½ acres of land to A.W. Shewey for $150 & a 1 year note for $25 on May 18, 1887 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[579] John & Mahala sold this land which was about 10 acres of Mahala's "Hounshell" Lot #8 inheritance, plus 7.16 acres of her brother Peter's Lot #7 inheritance. Mahala Hounshell and John Lambert Jr. had the following children:

250	i.	Robert Newton Lambert (born in July 1844).
+251	ii.	Geneva Victoria (Eva) Lambert (born in August 1847).
+252	iii.	Hiram (Herman) Lambert (born in March 1850).
+253	iv.	Lindsey G. Lambert (born on June 3, 1853).
+254	v.	Sarah Jane Lambert (born in February 1856).
255	vi.	Agness Lambert (born in 1859).

99. Amanda M. Hounshell (Henry-4, Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1824 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[345]

She died on June 25, 1879 in Bland Co., Virginia.[580]

She was married to Peter Kitts before 1839 in Virginia.[581] Peter Kitts[582] was born in 1816 in Virginia.[345]

He appeared in the census on September 11, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[583] The 1850 census has Peter's family as: Peter Kitts [farmer] a.35, Manda a.21, Austin a.11, Emaline a.8, Stephen a.4, Franklin a.3 & Cosby a.1.

He appeared in the census on July 6, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[584] The 1870 census has Peter's family as: Peter Kitts [farmer] a.54, Amanda a.46, James F. a.22, Robert a.17, Angeline a.14, Rachel a.11 & Elizabeth a.8.

He appeared in the census on June 21, 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[585] The 1880 census has Peter's family as: Peter Kitts [farmer] a.64, Jas Lampert [son-in-law] [laborer] a.25, Angeline Lambert a.25, Mathias C. Lambert a.4 & Rosa M. A. Lambert a.1.

He died on August 21, 1891 in Bland Co., Virginia.[580]

Peter does not appear in the 1860 census record.

Amanda M. Hounshell and Peter Kitts had the following children:

472	i.	Emaline Kitts was born in 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65]
+473	ii.	Austin Maden Kitts (born in June 1843).

100. Peter Hounshell (Henry-4, Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on October 2, 1826 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,78,155]

He appeared in the census on June 5, 1900 in White Shoals Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[591] The 1900 census has Peter living with his son George as Peter Hounshell a.86 b. Oct 1813. Peter is shown widowed.

He died on July 13, 1906 in Lee Co., Virginia.[592]

He was buried after July 13, 1906 in the Morelock Cemetery, Lee Co., Virginia.[593]

He was married to Susan Jane Johnson in June 1853 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[594] No day of the month is entered on this marriage record. Peter & Susan were married by Stephen Rudy. Susan Jane Johnson was born on June 1, 1838 in Stokes Co., North Carolina.[196,78] She died on September 17, 1869 in Lee Co., Virginia.[196]

Peter Hounshell and Susan Jane Johnson had the following children:

+481 i. Barbara Ellen Hounshell (born in 1855).
482 ii. James Mathias Hounshell[302] was born in 1856 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[78] He appeared in the census in 1880 in Lee Co., Virginia.[595] The 1880 census has James living with his brother George as Jas. W. Hounshell [brother], age 24, laborer.

+489 ii. Mary Dixie Hounshell (born in 1873).
490 iii. E. J. Hounshell[275] was born in 1875 in Lee Co., Virginia.[302] E. J. may be the individual (Ellen Hounshell) who married Ernie Delph in 1899 in Lee County.
+491 iv. John Clinton Hounshell (born on September 26, 1877).
492 v. L. D. (Ann) Hounshell was born in 1878 in Lee Co., Virginia.[302]

101. Malinda (Linda) Hounshell (Henry-4, Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in September 1827 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,377]

She died on April 3, 1908 in Bland Co., Virginia.[597,598,599] Letters, written by Stephen's brother Ephraim & their mother Nancy, and other documents in the possession of family descendants, contain an obituary for "Linda Lampert" giving the death date shown here. Malinda is also referred to as Linda in one of these Lampert letters

She was buried after April 3, 1908 in the Hounshell Family Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[62] No marker exists for Malinda but anecdotal evidence and the cemetery being located on Stephen & Malinda's farm, give ample credibility to her burial location being in the Hounshell Family Cemetery.

She was married to Stephen Lambert (son of Samuel Lambert and Nancy Johnston) on July 10, 1849 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] Stephen & Melinda were married by S. Rudy (Lutheran minister). Stephen & Malinda's marriage bond was posted by Stephen and his 1st cousin once removed James R. Lambert. James is the youngest son of Heinrich II & Barbara Wolf Lambert. The bond was dated 4 July 1849. James writes his own signature and spells his surname Lampert. Stephen's surname is spelled Lambert by the recorder and overwritten with Stephen's "X." Stephen became a Justice of the Peace later in life, and samples of his handwriting are in the possession of family members and public documents 130 years later. These papers indicate that Stephen learned to write during the 10-year period before his tenure in the Confederate Army.

Stephen Lambert[65] was born on October 16, 1829 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,598]

He appeared in the Poor School directory on July 8, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[600] Stephen also appears in the Poor School directory on 5 Jan 1844.

He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[601] The 1850 census has Stephen's family as: Stephen Lambert [farmer] a.21 b.Va. & Melinda a.23 b.Va. Stephen & Malinda are living next to his uncle Henry & Emaline Leedy Lambert on one side and next to Malinda's parents Henry & Elizabeth Hounshell on the other.

He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[602] The 1860 census has Stephen's family as: Stephen Lambert [laborer] a.30 b.Va., Malinda a.32 b.Va., James a.9 b.Va. & Mary a.9 b.Va. The census is marked to show James & Mary as twins. Stephen is living 3 stops from James & Mandana Kitts Lambert who inherited the lands of Heinrich & Barbara Wolf Lambert in 1850. James is Stephen's 1st cousin, once removed. Stephen is shown owning no land in this census.

He served in the 2nd Company G, 36th Virginia Infantry from May 3, 1862 to June 13, 1865 in the Confederate States of America Army.[155,598] His military record states that he was "present until detached to the Nitre Cave" in Bland County, Virginia, on July 18, 1862. He is also shown as present in the February 1863 roll until on leave in December 1863. He was promoted to the rank of Corporal on 8 August 1864. The regiment disbanded in Christianshurg, Virginia, on April 12, 1865, after receiving news of General Robert E. Lee's surrender to General Ulysses S. Grant. Second Company G had participated in at least 21 battles during the war. After the war's end, Stephen received a signed pardon, a "Parole of Honor," on 13 July 1865; the document helpfully provides a physical description of Stephen, noting that he had black hair, blue eyes, a fair complexion, was 5 feet 9 inches in height, and apparently had no whiskers. His age is incorrectly recorded as 34. At the time of signing the oath, Stephen was 35. (T. R. Harner 1/04)

He sold 8 acres of dowry land to Henry Hounshell Jr. for $85 on September 3, 1869 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Bland Co., Virginia.[603] This land is Stephen's wife Malinda Hounshell's 8-acre inheritance portion of her mother Elizabeth Hounshell's 72-acre lot. Elizabeth received this land in 1860 as her dower portion of her husband Henry Hounshell Sr.'s 250-acre farm. Elizabeth's 72 acres would have had to be divided into nine 8-acre shares. After his death, Henry Hounshell's farm was divided among 11 heirs, including Elizabeth's 72-acre dower portion. After Elizabeth's death between 1864 and 1868, five 8-acre dowry deeds have been found, showing three 8-acre shares sold to Henry Hounshell Jr. and two to J. H. Lindamood. With their share of Elizabeth's estate, Henry Hounshell Jr. would then hold 32 acres, Stephen & Malinda Lambert 8 acres and J. H. Lindamood 16, leaving 16 acres unaccounted for after 1868.

The reader should note that this deed states that Stephen "was residing" on his 8 acres, making the placement of his residence in 1869 within or near the land he purchased in 1890. Lot No. 10 is shown in this deed as the dower portion. This is incorrect as Lot No. 10 was the portion of the original distribution of Henry Hounshell's estate given to his daughter Amanda Hounshell Kitts. Lot No. 10 was the northeast portion of the farm. She and her husband Peter Kitts sold this land to William Umbarger in Dec 1862. The 1860 partition deed does not title Elizabeth's dower portion of 72 acres with a lot number, which was at the center of the farm. This land included the Hounshell Family Cemetery which today rests on the lands of Stephen's descendant George E. Lambert. (2005) (see map included in the back of this work)

He appeared in the census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[604] The 1870 census has Stephen's family as: Stephen Lampert [sic] [Wagon Maker] a.39, Malinda a.39, James a.19 & Mary a.19. Stephen & Malinda are living next to Malinda's brothers Henry B. Hounshell on one side and Hiram Hounshell on the other. He is shown owning real estate valued at $300 & living in Sharon Township. This property is probably the land that was Malinda's lot #1 & Jemima Hounshell Repass' lot #2 inheritances from their father Henry Hounshell's estate. Each received about 17.5 acres. Stephen is shown selling these two tracts and one other, totaling 32+ acres in 1879 to A. W. Shewey for $475.

He was appointed as a Supervisor of Elections on September 9, 1876 in Sharon Springs, Bland Co., Virginia.[605]

He was appointed a Justice of the Peace in June 1877 in the Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[606]

He sold 32 acres of land in 3 parcels on January 24, 1879 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[607] This record shows that Stephen probably owned and sold parts of his wife Malinda's (Hounshell) inheritance (lot #1), along with the 17+ acres inherited by her sister Jemima Hounshell Repass (lot #2).

He appeared in a partition deed for the distribution of his cousin James R. Lambert's estate lands, on October 18, 1879 in Bland Co., Virginia.[608] Stephen is mentioned in this record as an appointed commissioner and the partition survey was to be performed by him only.

He appeared in the census on June 1, 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[609] The 1880 census has Stephen's family as: Stephen Lampert [blacksmith] a.51 b.Va. & Malinda a.51 b.Va. Living next door to Stephen is his son James.

He appeared in the 1880-1889 Chataigne's Va. Gazetteer & Classified Business Directory in 1888 in Bland Co., Virginia.[610] Stephen is shown as a Coach & Wagon Builder, undertaker and a coal miner. He is listed under the surname Lampert and is shown residing in the "Bland Courthouse" region of the county. This area is described as "situated in the valley formed by Brushy Mountain and Walkers Mountain and is a busy little place of about 325 inhabitants, distant 25 miles from Wytheville."

He appeared in the Va. Chancery records as a defendant and M. E. Litz, et al, as plaintiff in 1888 in Bland Co., Virginia.[611]

He appeared in the Va. Chancery records as a defendant and Samuel Williams as plaintiff in 1888 in Bland Co., Virginia.[614]

He appeared in a bond deed to S.W. Williams for $43.10, due in 1 year, on the land that Stephen "now lives" on August 6, 1888 in Bland Co., Virginia.[612]

He sold 7 acres of land to John H. Lindamood for $10.45 on August 25, 1890 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[613]

He purchased 92 acres of land around the Sulphur Spring branch for $750, from William Umbarger on August 25, 1890 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[614] This land is the middle/northeastern portion of the Henry Hounshell Sr. farm, partitioned in Nov 1860. Actual plotting of this 1890 survey gives a minimum of 110 acres versus 92 shown on the deed, with some "line" estimates read into the survey & deed. The roadway leading to the farm today appears to be an appendage to this survey, with the primary intent to include the road in this purchase.

He appeared in the census on June 2, 1900 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[615] The 1900 census has Stephen family as: Stephen Lampert [farmer] a.70 b.Oct 1829 Va., Malinda a.72 b.Sept 1827 Va. & Clarence Lampert [grandson] a.19 b.Nov 1880. The census shows Stephen and Malinda being married for 51 years with Malinda having had 2 children with 1 alive in June 1900. Their daughter Mary Isabel Lambert Stowers died one month earlier on May 6 in Scioto County Ohio.

He appeared in the Confederate Army Pension List in 1909 in Bland Co., Virginia.[616,617] Stephen appears as Stephen LamPert and was drawing a pension from the 1900 Pension Act. He is shown disabled from "receiving a slight wound in left arm and disease of old age." The Confederate Pension Act is described as follows: "After the Civil War ended the problem of disabled Confederate soldiers and Confederate widows came before the Virginia Legislature several times. In 1888 the Legislature approved payment of pensions for widows of soldiers killed in action or who died in service and those who were severely maimed while wearing the grey. In 1900, as the veteran population aged, some restrictions were lifted. In 1902 requirements were further eased. The procedure followed was that the veteran or widow filled out an application for a pension. This pension was then presented to a local pension board for review. If this board approved the pension, then it was sent to the Auditor of Public Accounts for payment. The pension applications were not kept at the county level. The Auditor of Public Accounts published a list annually, by county, of the recipients of these Confederate pensions." Stephen received $15 a month beginning in 1900.

He appeared in the census in 1910 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[618] Stephen is living with his son James at age 79.

He died in 1916 in Bland Co., Virginia.[619]

He was buried in 1916 in the Hounshell Family Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[620,621] The Hounshell Family Cemetery is on land that was part of Stephen's 1890 farm and Elizabeth Hounshell's (Malinda's mother) 1860 72-acre dower land. The cemetery was purchased from Walter Shewey in 1906 by 10 Hounshell family members. Stephen's surname is spelled Lambert on his Confederate veteran's marker. Malinda (Linda) Hounshell and Stephen Lambert had the following children:

+493 i. James Albert Lambert (born on October 22, 1850).
+494 ii. Mary Isabel Lambert (born on October 22, 1850).

She appeared in the census in 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[623] The 1880 census has a Rosann Burress living as follows: Rosann Burress a.48, Robert [laborer] a.20 & Wiley [laborer] a.16.

The family shown here may not be Rosannah Hounshell. (3/03)

She was married to James R. Burress (son of James Burress and Frances (Burress\mar)) about 1859 in Tazewell or Bland Co., Virginia.[624,344] James R. Burress[196] was born in 1838 in Virginia.[344]

He died between 1864 and 1870 in Virginia.[344,345]

In 1850, there are two James Burresses in Tazewell County. One age 13 and one age 12. The son of James, age 12, is used because of the middle initial R, that is shown in the 1860 census, and other Hounshell researcher data. The other James is the son of Thomas.

Rozannah Hounshell and James R. Burress had the following children:

495 i. Robert Burress was born in January 1860 in Virginia.[104,344] Robert may not be the child of Rosannah Hounshell. (3/03)

If Jacob is Martha's brother, he appears twice in this census, once here on July 5, and also with his mother Jemima on 25 June.

He died on January 26, 1905 in Bland Co., Virginia.[626]

He was buried after January 26, 1905 in the Hounshell Family Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[626]

Henry's middle initial is taken from the marriage record for his son William. He is shown with the middle initial B in 1880.

He was married to Martha J. Cline (daughter of George Cline Sr. and Jemima (Cline\mar)) on February 21, 1856 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[345,459] On their marriage register, Henry is shown at age 25 and Martha 13. Martha J. Cline was born on June 13, 1835 in Virginia.[345,626] She appeared in the Confederate Pension List in 1909 in Bland Co., Virginia.[616] Martha's pension was prorated to 1902. She died on August 26, 1919 in Bland Co., Virginia.[626] She was buried after August 26, 1919 in the Hounshell Family Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[626] The parents for Martha cannot be definitively proved. In 1850 there are two Martha Cline's aged 13. The family chosen here is because a proposed brother Jacob Cline, is living with Henry & Martha in 1860. Jacob, age 8, is shown with his sister Martha, age 13, as children of George & Jemima Cline, in the 1850 census. The other family in 1850 with a daughter named Martha, age 13 (Michael Cline), is not found in Wythe or any close county in 1860. His military draft registration records show his birth date as 1 Feb 1880. The 1881 years will be used here. His given name is spelled and signed Stuart on the draft records. He registered for the military draft on September 12, 1918 in Bland Co., Virginia.[630] He is described as tall & slender with blue eyes and dark hair. His nearest relative is listed as his brother Charles. He is shown a farmer in Ceres, Va. and not married. He signed his name Stuart Monroe Hounshell. Margaret is shown as Danny's mother, and her surname entry is left blank, leaving the viewer to assume her surname is the same as the previous surname on the record. In this case it is Daugherty. If this is an incorrect transcription, the entry may indicate that Margaret & Andrew are husband and wife. There is a Lee County Va. marriage on 21 Dec 1892 for an A. Hounshell & N. M. Young.

Margaret is shown as Danny's mother, and her surname entry is left blank, leaving the viewer to assume her surname is the same as the previous surname on the record. In this case it is Daugherty. He appeared in the census on September 28, 1870 in Rose Hill Dist., Lee Co., Virginia.[830] The 1870 census has Daniel's family as: Daniel Criger [sic] a.25 b.Wythe Co., Mary J. a.26 b.Lee Co. & Elizabeth a.12/12 b.Lee Co.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Rose Hill Dist., Lee Co., Virginia.[831] The 1880 census has Daniel's family as: Daniel Criger [farmer] a.32, Mary Jane a.42, Elizabeth E. a.11, Mertiler J. a.9, Ange a.6, Thomas J. a.5 & Mary a.4.

He was married to Mary Jane (Creger\mar) about 1868 in Lee Co., Virginia.[82] Mary Jane (Creger\mar)[302] was born in 1844 in Lee Co., Virginia.[82]

Crigger [sic] [widow] a.62 b.Oct 1837 Va., Thomas J. a.24 b.April 1876 Va. & Mary E. a.21 b.Jan 1879 Va. The census shows Mary having had 6 children with 4 alive in 1900. Because of the several age discrepancies, this may not be Daniel Creger's family.

He died on November 14, 1875 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[836]

He was buried after November 14, 1875 in the Cave Springs Cemetery, Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[282] David may not be the son of Joseph M. In some family trees David is placed as the son of Benjamin F. Lambert & Catherine Brill. Lee & Russell County Va. census compilations from 1820 through 1850, suggest strongly that David is the son of Joseph, as shown here. The 1850 Claiborne Co., Tenn. census record gives his place of birth as Va., along with other of his proposed siblings located in the immediate vicinity of him in 1850. (7/04)

He was married to Mary Frances Brooks on July 26, 1841 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[230,837] Mary Frances Brooks was born in January 1826 in Virginia.[230,838] Mary gives her birth date as Jan 1830 in the 1900 census. Earlier census records indicate the year was probably 1826. She appeared in the census on June 1, 1900 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[839] The 1900 census has Mary living with her daughter Elizabeth & son-in-law Benjamin F. Green as: Mary F. Lambert a.70 b.Jan 1830 Virginia f.b.Virginia m.b.Virginia. She is also living with her nephew James B. Lambert. She died after June 1, 1900 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[838]

Rev. David Lambert and Mary Frances Brooks had the following children:

+748	i.	James Jefferson (Jeff) Lambert (born on April 22, 1844).
+749	ii.	Elizabeth (Eliza) Lambert (born in October 1846).
+750	iii.	Mary (Mollie) A. Lambert (born on June 10, 1849).
+751	iv.	Franklin Lambert (born on May 23, 1854).

177. John Lambert (Joseph Marion-4, Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born about 1823 in Lee Co., Virginia.[74,241] John's birth year is difficult to discern from the census record, as his given age varies greatly with each census. The 1850 census birth year is shown here.

He appeared in the census on September 11, 1850 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[840] The 1850 census has John's family as: John Lambert a.23, Martha a.25, Wm P. a.6, James C. a.4, Mary M. a.3 & Joseph S. a. 5/12.

He appeared in the census in 1860 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[841] The 1860 census has John's family as: John Lambert [farmer] a.37 b.Va., Mary a.28 b.N.C., Joseph a.13, Sarah a.11, William a.9, Lucy J. a.6, Martha a.6 & Anna a.2. Later censuses indicate that the child Anna is in fact a son named Ferney. This census has John living between his brother Jefferson and his father Joseph.

He appeared in the census on July 15, 1870 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[842] The 1870 census has John's family as: John Lambert [farmer] a.51, Mary a.39, William a.19, John a.19, Lucy a.15, Martha A. a.13, Femna [sic] [male] a.11, James a.9, Andrew a.7, Rebecca a.5, Amanda a.2 & Mary a.1/12. John's son John is not present in the 1860 census and will not be placed with this family. John is living next to his brother Joseph in this census.

He appeared in the census on June 24, 1880 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[843] The 1880 census has John's family as: John Lambert [farmer] a.59, Elizabeth [wife] a.37, Ferny a.22, James a.19, Andrew a.17, Jane a.14, Amanda a.12, Mary a.10, Cornelia a.7, Wesley a.5, Timothy a.3 & Joanna a.1.

John's extended family is difficult to reconcile with 2 sons named William, 2 sons named James, and 2 daughters named Mary. It was not unusual, prior to the 20th century, for a 2nd child to carry the same given name of an older deceased sibling. The families written here can be shown to carry across each succeeding census, using the given names and ages of the children as the bridge. The placement of the children with the proper mother is speculative, based upon gaps in birth years. Census compilation of all John Lamberts born in Virginia, and living in Tennessee from 1850 through 1880, gives credible evidence that the families shown here are reasonable. The reader is cautioned to assume that the extended family for his son James B. may be incorrect. The children William P, James C. & Mary M. are deceased by 1860, as they do NOT appear in later census records either with John or alone with their own extended families. They will be shown here as deceased by 1860. John could be the oldest son of Henry Lambert Jr., the son of Henry Lambert II of Wythe Co., Va. (8/03)

754	iii.	Mary M. Lambert was born in 1847 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[241] She died before 1860 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[241]

+758	vii.	Lucy J. Lambert (born in 1854).

He was married to Mary Vancel on September 1, 1854 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[845] The 1860 census record shows that John was previously married, as his oldest children were born before 1854. The given name Francis, in front of Mary, is crossed through on this document. Mary Vancel was born in 1831 in North Carolina.[241,282] She died in 1871 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[846] She was buried in 1871 in the Cave Springs Cemetery, Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[282]

+764 vi. Amanda Lambert (born on February 17, 1868).
765 vii. Mary Lambert was born in June 1870 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[236] Mary may be the Mary Bell Lambert who married F. M. Edington in 1887 in Claiborne Co. Tenn. Burial records in Ely cemetery in Claiborne County are also credible evidence. Because no confirming evidence has been found, this marriage will not be recorded here. (10/04)

He was buried after April 12, 1864 in the Lexington National Cemetery, Lexington, Kentucky.[854] There is another Jefferson Lambert, born in Va., who marries Mary A. Emmett on 9 June 1857 in Hawkins County Tenn. The children for the Jefferson Lambert in Hawkins County in 1880 are John W., Sarah E., Thomas, Ellen, Hugh, Ada & Hiram. The application for marriage was made on the 30th of Dec 1854. Susan Caroline Hill was born in June 1835 in Tennessee.[230,883] She died before 1911 in Franklin Co., Illinois.[884] She was buried in 1911 in the Horse Prairie Cemetery, Franklin Co., Illinois.[258]

She was married to G. Washington Hamilton on December 3, 1845 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[887] Their marriage record is listed as: G. w. Hamilton to Elizabeth Lambert. G. Washington Hamilton was born in 1807 in Virginia.[241]

He appeared in the census on October 4, 1850 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[888] The 1850 census has Washington's family as: Washington Hamilton a.45 b.Va., Elizabeth a.20 b.Tenn., James a.4, Martha J. a.2 & Sarah E. a.9/12. Elizabeth is shown born in Tenn. in this census, but in Va. in all subsequent censuses.

183. Benjamin J. Lambert Sr. (Joseph Marion-4, Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1832 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[230,155]

He appeared in the census on June 1, 1860 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[241] The 1860 census has Benjamin's family as: Benjamin Lambert a.23, Angeline a.15 [sic], Jane a.6, James a.5 & Benjamin a.1.

He appeared in the census on June 12, 1880 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[893] The 1880 census has Ben's family as: Ben J. Lambert [farmer] a.48, Angeline a.40, John a.19, Samuel a.17, Louise a.13, Macey a.11, Martha a.8, Lanie a.5, Cordelia a.4 & Tilman a.2.

He appeared in the census on June 8, 1900 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[894] The 1900 census has Benjamin's family as: Benj Lambert [farmer] a.60 b.April 1840 [sic], Angie a.48 b.May 1852 [sic], John [son] [married] a.38 b.April 1862 [sic], Lanie a.26 b.Jan 1874, Homfort [daughter] a.13 b.May 1887 & Charlie Daniels [grandson] a.6 b.May 1887. Because of her age, the daughter Homfort [sic] is assumed to be Cordelia. This census shows Benjamin & Angeline being married for 40 years with Angeline having had 12 children with 4 alive in 1900. The census shows their son John being married for 12 years and not widowed. With John shown married, the only Lambert female of the approximate correct age in Claiborne County with family and no husband present, is a Sarah C. Lambert. She is living with the Joseph (age 28) & Ida (age 18) Richardson family and is shown as a mother and single. Because these comments are speculative, Sarah Lambert & Ida Richardson will not be shown here as John's wife and daughter. Charlie Daniels is the known son of Benjamin's daughter Louise & G. W. Daniel. The surnames Daniel & Daniels are interchangeable in Claiborne County during this period. Living next door to Benjamin's family, as a boarder, with the John & Lizzie (age 16) Bussell family, is a Bill Daniel age 10. Because Benjamin's daughter Louise and her husband G. w. Daniel are not found in 1900, and the close proximity of Bill Daniels, he will also be added as the son of Louise and her husband for clarity & future research purposes. Access to post 1890 Claiborne marriage records may show that Lizzie Bussell IS the daughter of Benjamin & Angie, as 4 of their children are missing in this 1900 record.

He died in 1907 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[155]

He was buried in 1907 in the Hazelwood Cemetery, Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[895]

He was married to Sarah Fergerson on June 18, 1855 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[896,897] The marriage application was made on the 16th of July. They were married by James Chick. Sarah Fergerson[239] was born before 1837.[239] She died between 1859 and 1860 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[241]

Benjamin J. Lambert Sr. and Sarah Fergerson had the following children:

811	i.	Jane Lambert was born in 1855 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[241]
+812	ii.	James Lambert (born in 1856).
+813	iii.	Benjamin J. Lambert Jr. (born in April 1857).

He was married to Angeline (Lambert\mar) about January 1860 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[241]

The grandson Charlie Daniels listed with Benjamin & Angeline in 1900, will be shown as the son of Benjamin & Angeline's daughter Louise, as there is a Claiborne County marriage for a Luesa Lambert to G. W. Daniel in Claiborne County in 1888. The surname Daniel & Daniels were both present in Claiborne County in 1900, and the spelling as shown in the marriage transcription (Daniel) will be used here. As G. W. & Luesa cannot be found in the 1900 through 1920 U. S. census record, the placement of Louse as G. W. Daniel's wife is used to place Charlie as a descendent of Benjamin & Angeline. The reader must assume that the marriage as shown here for G. W. Daniel & Louise is speculative.

Angeline (Lambert\mar) was born in 1840 in Virginia.[241,818]

She appeared in the census on May 13, 1910 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[898] The 1910 census has Angeline's family as: Angeline Lambert [widow] [farmer] a.70 & Rosco Rowlett [grandson] a.12.

+818	v.	Martha J. Lambert (born in July 1872).
819	vi.	Lanie Lambert was born in 1875 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[818]
820	vii.	Tilman Lambert was born in 1878 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[818]

She was married to Jeremiah (Jerry) Ellison (son of Thomas Ellison and Elizabeth (Ellison\mar)) on November 23, 1859 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[899] Jeremiah (Jerry) Ellison was born in 1835 in Tennessee.[230]

He appeared in the census on July 20, 1870 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[901] The 1870 census has Jeremiah's family as: Jeremiah Ellison [farmer] a.31 & Thomas a.7. Both are shown born in Tenn.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[902] The 1880 census has Jeremiah's family as: Jerry Ellisson [sic] [blacksmith] a.50, Eliza a.32, Thomas a.17, Floid [sic] a.15, Shelton a.14 & Nancy a.1. The Claiborne County marriage records indicate that Jeremiah married Eliza Sandifer [sic] on 4 March 1872. The two boys, Floid, & Shelton are shown with Eliza, at home with her parents William & Nancy Sandefer, in 1870 as: Floyd Sandefer age 7 & She [sic] Sandefer, age 4. Eliza is listed at age 25 and all are shown born in Tenn. As no marital status is given in 1870, Floyd & Shelton are probably the illegitimate children of Eliza, with Jeremiah adopting the children upon his marriage to Eliza in 1872.

He appeared in the census on June 6, 1900 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[903] The 1900 census has Jeremiah's family as: Jerry Ellison a.68 b.May 1832, Eliza a.55 b.May 1845, Ara a.32 b.March 1866 & Robert a.19 b.Nov 1880. The census shows Jerry & Elizabeth being married for 27 years with Eliza having had 4 children with 4 alive in 1900. Ara is shown married for 12 years. Ara is probably Shelton Sandefer/Ellison, Eliza's 2nd son.

Susan Lambert and Jeremiah (Jerry) Ellison had the following children:

822	i.	Nancy J. Ellison was born in 1856 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[78] Because of her age, as shown in the 1860 census, and the marriage date for Jerry & Susan, Nancy may not be the daughter of Susan Lambert.
+823	ii.	Thomas E. Ellison (born in May 1863).

186. Joseph Marion Lambert Jr. (Joseph Marion-4, Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in March 1834 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[230,282,838]

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Moccasin, Russell Co., Virginia.[932] The 1880 census has William's family as: William Lambert (laborer) a.39. Mary Ann a.40 & James a.21.

William is shown at home alone in 1860 with no wife or children at age 19. His parents and marriage are confirmed by the 1865 Russell county Marriage records, providing evidence for the proper relationship for William H. to his two sons William F. & James L. and wife Mary Ann Mays. The two boys are obviously illegitimate as they are present with Mary Ann in 1860 as Mary A. Mays a.21, William F. Mays a.3 & James L. Mays a.1. Mary Ann is living 1 stop from William's family in 1860, giving strong evidence of a premarital relationship.

He was married to Mary Ann Mays (daughter of James Mays and Rebecca (Mays\mar)) on November 22, 1865 in Russell Co., Virginia.[505] The date shown here is the application date. Mary Ann Mays was born in 1838 in Giles Co., Virginia.[82,244] She appeared in the census on October 5, 1860 in Russell Co., Virginia.[933]

196. Sarah E. Lambert (William-4, Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on April 17, 1844 in Russell Co., Virginia.[244,155] She died on February 3, 1900 in Dickenson Co., Virginia.[155] She was buried after February 3, 1900 in the Wampler Cemetery, Bear Ridge, Dickenson Co., Virginia.[935]

He appeared in the census on October 5, 1860 in Russell Co., Virginia.[936] The 1860 census has Elijah's family as: Elijah Austin [farm laborer] a.25 & Sarah a.17. Elijah & Sarah are living next to her parents in 1860.

+845	ii.	Mary J. Austin (born in August 1863).

+848	v.	John P. Austin (born on July 20, 1870).
849	vi.	Joseph Austin was born on December 11, 1872 in Russell Co., Virginia.[255] He died before 1874 in Russell Co., Virginia. There are two Joseph Austin's born to Elijah & Sarah listed in the Russell County birth records. The dates shown here are as shown in these birth records. Naming a 2nd child after another sibling who died at an early age, was not uncommon in the 19th century. This is the assumption made here for the two Joseph Austin's shown in this family. The 2nd Joseph shows his birth date as Dec 1873 in the 1900 census record, making this conundrum more difficult to reconcile. This is further complicated by the birth in Sept 1874 of a Joseph Austin, son of Fleming & Ellen Austin, in Russell County. He lists his birth date as Dec. 1874 in the 1900 census record, adding to the confusion. The birth records are assumed to be of primary proof. (11/04)

He appeared in the census on August 6, 1870 in Rocky Station Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[948] An individual named Harvey Lambert age 19, is shown living with James' brother William H. in 1870. As James' middle initial is known to be H., it is assumed that this is James. He is shown as "works on farm."

He appeared in the census on June 18, 1880 in Scott Co., Virginia.[949] The 1880 census has James' family as: Harvey Lambert [farmer] a.30, Nancy a.29, Mary a.4 & James a.2.

He died between 1889 and 1892 in Russell or Scott Co., Virginia.[950,505] Nancy is shown widowed on her 2nd marriage record in 1892.

James' middle name is taken from the 1870 census after the death of his father William. He is not found under the name James in 1870, but a Harvey Lambert is living with James' known brother William H. Lambert at the correct age for James H. This individual is listed in William H.'s 1870 family in out of age order. It is known that James' middle initial was H. making him the logical individual living with William H. in 1870. His given name is transcribed in the 1870 census indexes as Henry, but close examination reveals the name to be either Harvey or Harry. (8/04)

He was married to Nancy E. Hawkins (daughter of Thomas Lowery Hawkins and Libby (Hawkins\mar))on July 16, 1873 in Russell Co., Virginia.[505] The date shown here is the application date. Nancy E. Hawkins[505] was born in December 1851 in Russell Co., Virginia.[950]

The Vancel surname is found spelled in many forms during the 19th century including, Vincil, Vencel, Vincel, Vincell, Vancell, Vansil & Vensel. The parents show here for John are not proven and are selected from limited census location and marriage records. Their surname spelling is taken from their marriage and the 1870 Hancock Co. Tenn. census records. John's birth year is important in this determination, as he is shown born about 1850/1851 in all the records used. There are a limited number of families with any of the above-mentioned surnames living in Tennessee during John's tenure at home after 1860, therefore giving increasing evidence that the family shown here has some basis in fact. The biggest inconsistency in the public record for John's relationship to the parents shown here, is their birthplaces as given by John after his marriage to Charlotte, and that given in his parents marriage & early census records for them. They are shown married in Tazewell County Virginia with their probable emigration to Tennessee between 1860 and 1870. All of the children including John, are shown born in Va. in 1870. John will be shown here as born in Virginia, but the reader is cautioned to remember that he gives his and his parents birthplaces as Tenn. in all subsequent censuses after his marriage to Charlotte.

He appeared in the census on June 3, 1880 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[1012] The census shown here is speculative for this individual and his wife Mattie Lambert. This family is living 6 stops from Mattie's parents in 1880 and is shown as: Joseph Lambirt [sic] [farm laborer] a.20 b.Tenn. & Martha a.15 b.Tenn. Both show their parents born in Tennessee. As no known Joseph Lambert born in Tenn. fits this individual, and his given name fabricated from his cemetery marker, which shows his name as F. J. Lambert, and John F. on the marriage license., it is probable that this family is Mattie and her husband. Both are shown born in Tenn, and Mattie WAS born in Virginia. Living next to this couple is Joseph and Matilda Casey Lambert, Mattie's first cousin once removed. The cemetery burial has Mattie buried next to her 2nd husband Robert Lingar, with F. J. Lambert located on Robert's other side. No explanation can be given for the 1880 Joseph given name entry except possible enumerator error or this 1880 census is not Martha's family.

He died in September 1887 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[1013]

He was buried after September 1887 in the Lingar Cemetery, Massengill Rd., Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[282]

The census shows Robert and Maggie being married for 12 years with Maggie having had 8 children with 8 alive in 1900. This shows that all of Maggie's children, to 1900, are present in this census.

He appeared in the census on April 28, 1910 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[1019] The 1910 census has R. F. The census shows Robert & Mattie being married for 22 years with Mattie having had 11 children with ?(2)? alive in 1910. The census may indicate that 2 of Mattie's children are dead in 1910. He was buried after September 29, 1938 in the Lingar Cemetery, Massengill Rd., Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[282]

Robert's parents cannot be found in the 1870 & 1880 census record. He is found in 1870 & 1880 living with his paternal grandparents John & Sarah Lingar in Claiborne Co. Tenn. It is probable that he is the child of John & Sarah's sons Rufus M. (b.1840) or Marshal (b.1848), as Rufus & Marshal are not found in 1870 or 1880. Rufus M. Lingar is also not found in 1860, making Marshal the probable father.

Peter's family and 2nd marriage are enhanced by John Wesley's daughter Julia Ann, and her husband James Sheets, living 1 stop from the Peter Lambert family shown here, in Collin Co., Texas in 1900. His son Charles is also living in Collin Co. in 1900.

He was married to Julia Ann Maxwell (daughter of Charles Maxwell and Susannah Kimberling) on December 28, 1865 in Lee Co., Virginia.[1038] Peter & Julia were married by R. P. Spencer. His parents are shown as Wesley & Mary Lambert on the marriage record. Julia Ann Maxwell was born in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[302,65,101]

Peter Lambert and Julia Ann Maxwell had the following children:

Peter & Igoria were married by D. V. York. Igoria T. Edwards [1042] was born in November 1858 in Lee Co., Virginia.[828,275] Igoria's parents have not been confirmed and are shown on her marriage record as J. & M. Edwards. The Lee county marriage records show Igoria being born in Lee County, and only the parents shown here are present in Lee county at the time of Igoria's birth, with a daughter her age in 1860 through 1880. The daughter's given name changes in each census record. Most are difficult to transcribe and vary from Pertina to Lessissa. Ingoria would be a reasonable female version of Ignatious. (9/04)

226. J. Wayman Lambert[171] (John Wesley-4, Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1845 in Lee Co., Virginia.[83,82]

The family shown here is reinforced by the male child Bethie being born in May 1870. Calculating a normal term birth for Bethie, makes his conception in Aug 1869, the month and year of Wayman & Mary A. E. Blakemore's marriage.

He was married to Mary Adalia E. Blakemore (daughter of Joseph S. Blakemore and Susannah (Susan) Hamblen) on August 9, 1869 in Lee Co., Virginia.[82,1044] J. Wayman's parents are shown as Waymond [sic] & Mary on his marriage record. His given name is also shown as Waymond. His father's given name may be an entry error, as his uncle J. Wayman Lambert was never married to an individual with the given name Mary. Wayman & Mary were married by Wm H. Cooper. Mary Adalia E. Blakemore was born in 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[82]

J. Wayman Lambert and Mary Adalia E. Blakemore had the following children:

972 i. Bethie Lambert was born in May 1870 in Lee Co., Virginia.[82]

The census shows James & Julia being married for 13 years with Julia having had no children.

* Bertha is not the child of James & Julia Ann Lambert, but the daughter of James' first wife. Bertha married an unknown Lee County Lambert family member, and is shown here to maintain family continuity for Bertha's children into the Lee County Lambert family line.

+973 i. Bertha* Sheets (born in November 1874).

230. Rebecca L. Lambert (John Wesley-4, Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in November 1855 in Lee Co., Virginia.[78,828]

She was married to William Nathaniel Southern (son of Daniel Southern and Laticia VanDeventer) on December 26, 1877 in Lee Co., Virginia.[1050] Rebecca and William were married by F. A. Farley. William Nathaniel Southern was born in January 1859 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[82,1051] The 1870 census gives William's birth place as Lee Co. Va. This is incorrect as he is found living with his parents in Claiborne Co. Tenn. in 1860 and shown born in Tenn. William gives his birth date as Jan 1861 in the 1900 census. This is incorrect as he is present with his parents in 1860.

He appeared in the census in June 1880 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[1052] The 1880 census has Williams's family as: Nathaniel Southern a.20, Rebecca a.27, Benjamin a.2 & Blanton a.1/12.

The census shows William & Rebecca being married for 23 years with Rebecca having had 8 children with 5 alive in 1900. Sophia is shown widowed and having had 2 children with 2 alive in 1900. She is also shown as a daughter, which must be incorrect as she is not present with the family in 1880. She may have been born after 1880, but this suggests that the 5 living children for Rebecca is incorrect as there are 6 children (including Sophia) present in this census. Sophia will not be added as a child to this family.

974 i. Benjamin Southern was born in June 1879 in Lee Co., Virginia.[302,828]

The following Rasnic family history was related by Mary Ardena Rasnic's granddaughter Hazel Hinkle Hughes to her daughter Mattie P. Hughes/Neeley and then to Sue Lawson Buzby. "Mary Ardena Rasnic was born October 17, 1848, in Lee County, Virginia. Her great-grandfather, Jacob Rasnic was a Hessian soldier who came to the colonies from Germany to help the British defend their colony from the traitors. Mary Ardena was a fourth or fifth generation American and came from hard working and brave ancestors. She married James Monroe Lambert, December 31, 1862, when she was 14 years old. James Monroe Lambert served in the Confederate Army, was taken prisoner and along with seven others escaped by digging a hole underneath the log house where they were being held, the smallest going first and each man striking out for himself, no one waiting for the other. Uncle William "Billy Cat" Lambert was one of the seven. Monroe succeeded in getting to Kentucky, which did not require men to serve in either army. He went to the home of his sister-in-law (Mary Ardena's sister), Lindy Hamilton in Boonesborough on the Big Sandy River, and by some means sent word to his wife, Mary Ardena in Lee County, Virginia. She took their approximately three month old daughter to Wise County, Virginia, with the help of her brother who had a horse. She made the rest of the way on foot carrying the baby through the mountain region of Kentucky. (Note: You would not want to cross those rugged, steep mountains on foot today even though the route is marked and paved.) On the way, she encountered a group of men, probably soldiers from the descriptions. One of them insisted on having her shawl, but one of the men, Dr. Ward from Lee County Virginia, talked to her and found that she was from Lee County, also. He knew her people and told the men to stand back. No one was to "bother that woman and child" (her words). One night she took refuge in an abandoned house on a mountain. The next morning she set out on a path which brought her back to the same house. Another path had the same results. She said she never saw so many paths. She tried them all. They all led back to the house. At last, she heard a cowbell, went to the cow and when the cow went home that evening, Mary Ardena followed her and found people who helped her. She said the first person she saw was a man cutting wood. She also saw a pile of cucumbers nearby which she began eating because she was so hungry. She had found some berries to eat along the way and of course had taken some food with her when she left. She said the baby sucked on a chicken bone during the entire trip. The people in the cabin kept her all night and gave her directions on how to get to where her husband was. She was only 15 years old at the time. She must have been a brave young girl who loved her husband very much. The baby's name was Emily Jane, born April 5, 1864, who grew up, married Ambrose Hinkle, and had a large family of her own. James Monroe Lambert and Mary Ardena Rasnic Lambert returned to Lee County after the War, but his health was broken and he contracted tuberculosis, which at that time was a fatal disease. He died before his second child, Annie, was born May 25, 1866. Annie, too, grew up and married Floyd Hinkle, brother to sister Emily's husband. After Monroe's death, Uncle "Billy Cat" Lambert came carrying a little spinning wheel for Emily. Mary Ardena told him that she had no money to buy it. He said, "It's already paid for. James Monroe gave me five dollars while we were in the Army together and told me when I got back to make his little girl a spinning wheel." After several years, Mary Ardena married Mr. Hiram Gobble, a widower several years her senior. Mary Ardena's only children were Emily and Annie, but she reared some children of Mr. Gobble. She was born, lived, loved, died and was buried in one little area of the world where several family descendants still live, and she left many loving vibes before she died, October 19, 1929." (Sue Lawson Buzby)

A Mary age 4 & Stephen age 1, are also shown with John & Mahala in 1860, but no relationship is indicated. Descendants of Elizabeth's known children, Paris & James E., state that Mary & Stephen are not Elizabeth's children. Elizabeth, while living with John &

Mahala in 1870, is shown with a son, Paris Lambert, age 4. Elizabeth appears alone in the 1880 census with an additional son Jas. E. B. Lambert age 7.

Speculation: Because Elizabeth is shown with an apparent illegitimate son Paris in 1870, and James in 1880, Elizabeth is the probable daughter of John Lambert Jr., with her 2 sons born out of wedlock. 275. David F. Kegley[218] (Maria Margaretha (Margaret) (Peggy) Lambert-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born about 1829 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[100,324] David is shown at age 9 in 1839 Poor School directory.

He appeared in the Poor school records in February 1839 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[1164] David appears as the child of Peggy Cagly [Kegley]. This may not be Margaret [Peggy] Lambert Kegley, wife of Jared Kegley. A David Kegley appears in the Poor School directory again in March 1841 at age 12, as the child of Jarret Kegly (Kegley), lending strong evidence to this being the correct family. Jared does not appear in the Va. census record after 1830. A Margaret Kegley does appear in the 1840 census with the three oldest children matching the sex of the children shown with her and Jared in 1830.

He appeared in the Poor school record on February 22, 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[1165] David is shown at age 11 and the son of Margaret Kegly (Kegley) and the brother of Mary M.

He appeared in the Poor school records on March 7, 1841 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[1166] David appears at age 12 and the son of Jarret Kegly [Kegley].

He appeared in the census on July 8, 1850 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1167] David is living with the Wm & Y. C. Headerick family at age 21. Living with him is his brother Jesse.

He appeared in the census on September 20, 1860 in Grayson Co., Virginia.[1168] The 1860 census has David's family as: David F. Kegley [brick mason] a.29, Margarette a.24, Margaret a.3 & Mary a.2.

He appeared in the census on July 18, 1870 in Elk Creek Twp., Grayson Co., Virginia.[1169] The 1870 census has David's family as: Daniel [sic] Kegley [farmer] a.40, Charlotte a.31, Margarett a.14, James a.9, Wm W. a.7, Lovelett a.6, Laura a.5, Sarah a.4, John a.2 & Cynthia a.8/12.

Other family researchers have David married to Emily Repass on 18 Oct 1855. The only David Kegley with a wife Emily, is one found living in Wythe County in 1850 at age 36 (born 1814) with wife Jane and son James M. This individual appears in Hawkins County Tennessee in 1860 at age 46 with wife Emily, age 37, and daughter Margaret age 5/12. All, except Margaret, are shown born in Virginia.

He was married to Charlotte (Kegley\mar) before 1857 in Virginia.[218] Charlotte (Kegley\mar) was born in 1836 in Virginia.[218]

David F. Kegley and Charlotte (Kegley\mar) had the following children:

277. Joseph Wesley Kegley[775] (Maria Margaretha (Margaret) (Peggy) Lambert-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born about 1834 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[101,1171]

He appeared in the Poor school records on February 11, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[1172] Wesley is shown as Westley [sic] age 8, son of Margaret Cegley (Kegley). He is shown with his brother David age 11.

He appeared in the census on July 8, 1850 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1173] A.J.W. Kegley, age 15, is shown living with the George Ritter family in this census. This may not be Wesley, but this individual is living next door to Wesley's brothers David and Jesse.

He appeared in the census on September 5, 1870 in Alleghany Co., North Carolina.[1174] The 1870 census has Wesley's family as: Wesley Kegley [farmer] a.35 b.Va., Polly a.44 b.N. C., Sarah a.19 b.N. His surname is spelled Kegley on the original census sheet.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Elk Creek Twp., Grayson Co., Virginia.[1175] The 1880 census has Wesley's family as: Jos. W. Kegley [farm laborer] a.47 b.Va., Polly a.53 b.N.C. & Jackson Phipps a.7. The family shown here may not be Wesley's. The oldest child Sarah, is shown as being born about 1851 when Wesley would have been only 17 years old. He is shown with property valued at $1925 in the 1870 census. It may be that several or all of the children shown in 1870 are stepchildren, belonging to his wife who is listed as being 9 years his senior.

He was married to Polly (Kegley\mar) about 1851 in Virginia or North Carolina.[1176] Polly (Kegley\mar) was born in 1826 in North Carolina.[1177]

Joseph Wesley Kegley and Polly (Kegley\mar) had the following children:

He was married to Mary J. (Lambert\mar) before 1860 in Virginia or Tennessee.[1179] Mary J. (Lambert\mar) was born in 1837 in North Carolina.[1179]

He appeared in the census on June 2, 1880 in Buchanan Co., Missouri.[1181] The 1880 census has James' family as: Jas Lambert [farmer] a.41, M. E. a.39, Wm a.13 b.Va., Sarah V. a.11 b.Va. & Nettie C. a.9 b.Va.

He appeared in the census on June 23, 1900 in Buchanan Co., Missouri.[1182] The 1900 census has James' family as: James Lambert a.62 b.Sept 1837 Va., Margaret a.59 b.Aug 1841 Va., William a.22 b.Jan 1868 Va. & Annie a.28 b.Feb 1872 Va. The census shows James & Margaret being married for 34 years with Margaret having had 3 children with 2 alive in 1900.

He was married to Margaret (Lambert\mar) about 1860 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[215] Margaret (Lambert\mar) was born in 1842 in Virginia.[215]

James E. Lambert and Margaret (Lambert\mar) had the following children:

1134 i. William Lambert was born in 1868 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[1183]
1135 ii. Sarah V. Lambert was born in 1869 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[1183]
1136 iii. Nettie C. (Annie) Lambert was born in 1871 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[1183]

283. John T. Lambert (Stephen-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in October 1843 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[195,1184]

He appeared in the census on August 13, 1870 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[1185] The 1870 census has John's family as: John Lambert [farmer] a.26, Nettie a.22 & Susan a.1.

He appeared in the census on June 5, 1880 in Buchanan Co., Missouri.[1186] The 1880 census has John's family as: John Lambert [farmer] a.36, Nettie a.32 & Martha a.9.

The census shows John & Nettie being married for 32 years with Nettie having had 2 children with 1 alive in 1900. John T. & Robert are shown as twins on the 1850 census.

He was married to Nettie M. (Lambert\mar) in 1868 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[1184] Nettie M. (Lambert\mar) was born in August 1846 in Virginia.[1184]

John T. Lambert and Nettie M. (Lambert\mar) had the following children:

1137 i. Susan Lambert was born in 1869 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[364]

1138 ii. Martha Lambert was born in October 1870 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[1183,1184]

288. Mary Margaret (Maggie) Lambert (Stephen-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1856 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[215] Margaret is not shown at home in 1870 at age 14, but another daughter named Mary is shown at age 12. It will be assumed that Mary and Margaret are the same individual until other evidence proves otherwise. Other researchers have Mary and Edward as twins but Mary is not shown in the 1860 census.

She was married to Pat Griffith before 1885 in Virginia.[1188]

1139 i. John Hurt Griffith[1188].

She was married to Daniel Puckett on April 5, 1890 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1189] This marriage may not be for Mary Lambert, d/o Stephen & Pricilla Lambert. Daniel Puckett was born in 1847 in Virginia.[1189]

289. Edward Lambert (Stephen-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in April 1858 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[215,1131]

He appeared in the census on June 11, 1900 in Maiden Spring, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1190] The 1900 census has Edward's family as: Edward Lambert [farm laborer] a.42 b.April 1858, Emily a.27 [sic] b.May 1867 N. Carolina m.f./b.N. Carolina, Mary M. a.16 b.Feb 1884 & William H. a.14 b.Feb 1886. The census shows Edward and Emily being married for 18 years with Emily having had 3 children with 2 alive in 1900.

He appeared in the census on April 21, 1910 in Maiden Spring, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1191] The 1910 census has Edward's family as: Edward Lambert [laborer/lumber mill] a.56, Emily a.43. The census shows Ed & Emily being married for 23 years with Emily having had 2 children with none alive in 1910. Both of Edward's and Emily's children were alive in 1910, making the census information incorrect. They are living next to his daughter Mary Lambert w/o Walter Honaker/Bailey.

He appeared in the census on January 23, 1920 in Maiden Spring, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1192] The 1920 census has Edward's family as: Edd Lambert [coal miner] a.64 & Emily a.47. Edward & Emily are living with their daughter & son-in-law, Mary & Walter Bailey.

He died before 1930 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1193]

He was married to Emily Jane (Emma) Brown (daughter of Noah W. Brown and Nancy J. Duggins) on September 29, 1881 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1189] Ed & Sarah were married by Rev. P. J. Lockhart. The marriage log shows Ed at age 23 and Emily as age 15. Emily's parents are shown as Noah & Nancy Duggins Brown. Emily Jane (Emma) Brown[341,1194] was born in May 1867 in North Carolina.[1131] Emily is shown the daughter of Noah & Nancy in her marriage record to Edward Lambert. She appeared in the census on April 16, 1930 in Maiden Spring, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1195] The 1930 census has Emma living with her son William Henry at age 64 and she is shown widowed. This census also shows her and her parents born in Virginia, which is incorrect for her parents who were born in North Carolina.

She died on October 13, 1933 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1196,1194]

Because Emily and parents are not found in the 1870 or 1880 census record, it is possible that Emily may be up to 7 years older than is shown on her marriage and early census records. If the marriage record shown here is incorrect, Emily may be the daughter of John & Indria Brown of Lee Co., Va.

Edward Lambert and Emily Jane (Emma) Brown had the following children:

+1140 i. Mary Magdaline Lambert (born on February 2, 1884).

+1141 ii. William Henry Lambert (born on February 19, 1886).

290. Barbara Lambert (Stephen-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1863 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[364]

She was married to William Nuckles (son of Calvin Nuckles and Hester (Nuckles\mar)) on September 3, 1886 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1189] William's surname is spelled Nuchols on his marriage record but is shown as Nuckles on earlier census records. William Nuckles was born in July 1864 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[1189,1131]

He appeared in the census on June 14, 1900 in Maiden Spring Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1197] The 1900 census has William's family as: William Knuckles [sic] [farm laborer] a.36 b.July 1864 & Barbara a.34 b.1866. The census shows William & Barbara being married for 13 years with Barbara having had 7 children with 6 alive in 1900. The number of children born to Barbara is contradicted by the 1910 census which shows she has had 1 child by 1910. This is more probable than the 7 shown here, which would have been unlikely in the 13-year period of their marriage between Sept 1886 and June 1900. This is more pronounced by the lack of juvenile children at home in 1900, if 6 were still alive at that time.

He appeared in the census on May 5, 1910 in Maiden Spring Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1198] The 1910 census has William's family as: William Nuckles [farm laborer] a.47 & Barbara a.44. The census shows William & Barbara being married for 21 years with Barbara having had 1 child with 1 alive in 1910.

291. George B. Lambert (Stephen-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1867 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[364]

He appeared in the census on June 12, 1900 in Maiden Spring, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1199] The 1900 census has George's family as: George Lambert [farmer] a.33 b.July 1866, Virgie C. a.28 b.July 1871, Caroline a.10 b.Mar 1890 & Charles a.8 b.Feb 1892. The census shows George and Virgie being married for 11 years with Virgie having had 3 children with 2 alive in 1900.

He appeared in the census in 1910 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1200] The 1910 census has George's family as: George Lambert a.43, Vicie a.38 & Charlie a.18.

He was married to Virgie C. Cordell (daughter of William Cordell and Rosina (Cordell\mar)) on February 6, 1889 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1131,1189] George's parents are shown as Stephen & Caroline on his marriage record. Caroline would have been his stepmother at the time of his marriage. Virgie is shown as Vicie A. on her marriage record. Virgie C. Cordell was born in July 1871 in Virginia.[1131] Virgie is shown born in 1873 on her marriage record.

George B. Lambert and Virgie C. Cordell had the following children:

1142 i. Caroline Lambert was born in March 1890 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1131]
+1143 ii. Charles Lambert (born in February 1892).

292. Augustus (Gustavas) Lambert (Stephen-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in June 1870 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[1201] Gus shows his birth date as Sept 1876 in the 1900 census record. This is incorrect as he is not present with his parents in the 1880 census record.

He appeared in the census on June 12, 1900 in Wise Co., Virginia.[1202] The 1900 census has Gus' family as: Gustavas Lambert [R.Road section] a.32 b.June 1867, Sarah a.23 b.Sept 1876, Amanda B. a.7 b.May 1893, Anna V. a.4 b.Oct 1895 & Eva M. a.1 b.June 1898. The census shows Gus & Sarah being married for 9 years with Sarah having had 3 children with 3 alive in 1900.

He appeared in the census on May 4, 1910 in Wise Co., Virginia.[1203] The 1910 census has Gus' family as: Gus S. Lambert [foreman ??house/E??? works] a. 40, Sarah E. a.34, Mandy B. a.16, Ella R. a.13, ??? W. a.9, Kellie C. a.6, George E. a.3 & John H. a.1. The census shows Gus & Sarah being married for 18 years with Sarah having had 7 children with 7 alive in 1910.

He appeared in the census in January 1920 in Wise Co., Virginia.[1204] The 1920 census has Gus' family as: Gus Lambert [widower] [E-tract laborer] a.52, Mandy a.26, Wentz a.17, George a.14, John H. a.12, Paul a.4, Pauline a.4 & Martha Hall [granddaughter] a.6/12.

The census shows that Eva has been married for 2 years.

He was married to Sarah E. Watson (daughter of Arabell C. Watson) in 1891 in Smyth or Wise Co., Virginia.[1206,1201] Sarah E. Watson[1206] was born in September 1876 in Virginia.[1201] She died between 1916 and 1920 in Wise Co., Virginia.[1207] The mother shown here for Sarah may be incorrect. (1/05)

Augustus (Gustavas) Lambert and Sarah E. Watson had the following children:

1144 i. Amanda B. Lambert was born in May 1893 in Virginia.[1201]
1145 ii. Anna V. Lambert was born in October 1895 in Virginia.[1201]
1146 iii. Eva M. (Ella) Lambert[1208] was born in June 1898 in Wise Co., Virginia.[1201]

295. William Lambert (Stephen-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in March 1878 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1131,361]

He appeared in the census on June 11, 1900 in Maiden Spring, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1210] The 1900 census shows William's family as: William Lambert [farm laborer] a.22 b.Mar 1878, Amelia R. a.26 b.Mar 1873, Jessie [sic] a.7 b.July 1892, Abbie a.5 b.Aug 1894 & Mary a.1 b.July 1899. Jesse is shown as female in this record. The census shows William & Amelia being married for 4 years with Amelia having had 3 children with 2 alive in 1900. This census suggests that Jesse may be Amelia's son from a previous marriage with Abbie being William's from a previous marriage. Data from the 1910 census shows their marriage length, and all of the children's ages, sufficient to make all of the children Amelia's. The 1910 census data will be used here until further evidence shows otherwise.

He appeared in the census on April 25, 1910 in Maiden Spring, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1211] The 1910 census has William's family as: William Lambert a.32, Mela a.38, Jesse a.15, Abbie a.13, Mary a.9, John a.6 & Martha a.1 1/2.

In 1910 they are shown being married for 16 years. The 1910 (1894) year will be used here. Amelia R. (Lambert\mar) was born in June 1873 in Virginia.[1131]

+1155 i. Jesse Lambert (born in July 1894).

1157 iii. Mary Lambert was born in January 1899 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1131]

1158 iv. John Lambert was born in 1904 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1212]

296. Susie Elizabeth Lambert (Stephen-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1880 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1213]

She was married to James William Puckett (son of Samuel Harvey Puckett and Nancy (Puckett\mar)) on November 19, 1896 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1214] James William Puckett[361] was born in 1875 in Virginia.[1212]

He appeared in the census in 1910 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1215] The 1910 census has James' family as: James W. Puckett a.35, Susan a.30, Robt a.12, Lewis a.10, Roby a.8, Augustus a.6, Lulu May a.4 & Nannie a.n.r.

He appeared in the Poor School directory on July 8, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[1257] Stephen also appears in the Poor School directory on 5 Jan 1844.

He appeared in the census on October 2, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[1258] The 1850 census has Stephen's family as: Stephen Lambert [farmer] a.21 b.Va. & Melinda a.23 b.Va. Stephen & Malinda are living next to his uncle Henry & Emaline Leedy Lambert on one side and next to Malinda's parents Henry & Elizabeth Hounshell on the other.

He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[1259] The 1860 census has Stephen's family as: Stephen Lambert [laborer] a.30 b.Va., Malinda a.32 b.Va., James a.9 b.Va. & Mary a.9 b.Va. The census is marked to show James & Mary as twins. Stephen is living 3 stops from James & Mandana Kitts Lambert who inherited the lands of Heinrich & Barbara Wolf Lambert in 1850. James is Stephen's 1st cousin, once removed. Stephen is shown owning no land in this census.

He served in the 2nd Company G, 36th Virginia Infantry from May 3, 1862 to June 13, 1865 in the Confederate States of America Army.[155,598] His military record states that he was "present until detached to the Nitre Cave" in Bland County, Virginia, on July 18, 1862. He is also shown as present in the February 1863 roll until on leave in December 1863. He was promoted to the rank of Corporal on 8 August 1864. The regiment disbanded in Christiansburg, Virginia, on April 12, 1865, after receiving news of General Robert E. Lee's surrender to General Ulysses S. Grant. Second Company G had participated in at least 21 battles during the war. After the war's end, Stephen received a signed pardon, a "Parole of Honor," on 13 July 1865; the document helpfully provides a physical description of Stephen, noting that he had black hair, blue eyes, a fair complexion, was 5 feet 9 inches in height, and apparently had no whiskers. His age is incorrectly recorded as 34. At the time of signing the oath, Stephen was 35. (T. R. Harner 1/04)

He sold 8 acres of dowry land to Henry Hounshell Jr. for $85 on September 3, 1869 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Bland Co., Virginia.[1260] This land is Stephen's wife Malinda Hounshell's 8-acre inheritance portion of her mother Elizabeth Hounshell's 72-acre lot. Elizabeth received this land in 1860 as her dower portion of her husband Henry Hounshell Sr.'s 250-acre farm. Elizabeth's 72 acres would have had to be divided into nine 8-acre shares. After his death, Henry Hounshell's farm was divided among 11 heirs, including Elizabeth's 72-acre dower portion. After Elizabeth's death between 1864 and 1868, five 8-acre dowry deeds have been found, showing three 8-acre shares sold to Henry Hounshell Jr. and two to J. H. Lindamood. With their share of Elizabeth's estate, Henry Hounshell Jr. would then hold 32 acres, Stephen & Malinda Lambert 8 acres and J. H. Lindamood 16, leaving 16 acres unaccounted for after 1868.

The reader should note that this deed states that Stephen "was residing" on his 8 acres, making the placement of his residence in 1869 within or near the land he purchased in 1890. Lot No. 10 is shown in this deed as the dower portion. This is incorrect as Lot No. 10 was the portion of the original distribution of Henry Hounshell's estate given to his daughter Amanda Hounshell Kitts. Lot No. 10 was the northeast portion of the farm. She and her husband Peter Kitts sold this land to William Umbarger in Dec 1862. The 1860 partition deed does not title Elizabeth's dower portion of 72 acres with a lot number, which was at the center of the farm. This land included the Hounshell Family Cemetery which today rests on the lands of Stephen's descendant George E. Lambert. (2005) (see map included in the back of this work)

He appeared in the census on July 8, 1870 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1261] The 1870 census has Stephen's family as: Stephen Lampert [sic] [Wagon Maker] a.39, Malinda a.39, James a.19 & Mary a.19. Stephen & Malinda are living next to Malinda's brothers Henry B. Hounshell on one side and Hiram Hounshell on the other. He is shown owning real estate valued at $300 & living in Sharon Township. This property is probably the land that was Malinda's lot #1 & Jemima Hounshell Repass' lot #2 inheritances from their father Henry Hounshell's estate. Each received about 17.5 acres. Stephen is shown selling these two tracts and one other, totaling 32+ acres in 1879 to A. W. Shewey for $475.

He was appointed as a Supervisor of Elections on September 9, 1876 in Sharon Springs, Bland Co., Virginia.[1262]

He was appointed a Justice of the Peace in June 1877 in the Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1263]

He sold 32 acres of land in 3 parcels on January 24, 1879 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[1264] This record shows that Stephen probably owned and sold parts of his wife Malinda's (Hounshell) inheritance (lot #1), along with the 17+ acres inherited by her sister Jemima Hounshell Repass (lot #2).

He appeared in a partition deed for the distribution of his cousin James R. Lambert's estate lands, on October 18, 1879 in Bland Co., Virginia.[1265] Stephen is mentioned in this record as an appointed commissioner and the partition survey was to be performed by him only.

He appeared in the census on June 1, 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1266] The 1880 census has Stephen's family as: Stephen Lampert [blacksmith] a.51 b.Va. & Malinda a.51 b.Va. Living next door to Stephen is his son James.

He appeared in the 1880-1889 Chataigne's Va. Gazetteer & Classified Business Directory in 1888 in Bland Co., Virginia.[610] Stephen is shown as a Coach & Wagon Builder, undertaker and a coal miner. He is listed under the surname Lampert and is shown residing in the "Bland Courthouse" region of the county. This area is described as "situated in the valley formed by Brushy Mountain and Walkers Mountain and is a busy little place of about 325 inhabitants, distant 25 miles from Wytheville."

He appeared in the Va. Chancery records as a defendant and M. E. Litz, et al, as plaintiff in 1888 in Bland Co., Virginia.[611]

He appeared in the Va. Chancery records as a defendant and Samuel Williams as plaintiff in 1888 in Bland Co., Virginia.[611]

He appeared in a bond deed to S.W. Williams for $43.10, due in 1 year, on the land that Stephen "now lives" on August 6, 1888 in Bland Co., Virginia.[1267]

He sold 7 acres of land to John H. Lindamood for $10.45 on August 25, 1890 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Wythe

Co., Virginia.[1268]

He purchased 92 acres of land around the Sulphur Spring branch for $750, from William Umbarger on August 25, 1890 in the Head Waters area of Walkers Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[1269] This land is the middle/northeastern portion of the Henry Hounshell Sr. farm, partitioned in Nov 1860. Actual plotting of this 1890 survey gives a minimum of 110 acres versus 92 shown on the deed, with some "line" estimates read into the survey & deed. The roadway leading to the farm today appears to be an appendage to this survey, with the primary intent to include the road in this purchase.

He appeared in the census on June 2, 1900 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1270] The 1900 census has Stephen family as: Stephen Lampert [farmer] a.70 b.Oct 1829 Va., Malinda a.72 b.Sept 1827 Va. & Clarence Lampert [grandson] a.19 b.Nov 1880. The census shows Stephen and Malinda being married for 51 years with Malinda having had 2 children with 1 alive in June 1900. Their daughter Mary Isabel Lambert Stowers died one month earlier on May 6 in Scioto County Ohio.

He appeared in the Confederate Army Pension List in 1909 in Bland Co., Virginia.[616,617] Stephen appears as Stephen LamPert and was drawing a pension from the 1900 Pension Act. He is shown disabled from "receiving a slight wound in left arm and disease of old age." The Confederate Pension Act is described as follows: "After the Civil War ended the problem of disabled Confederate soldiers and Confederate widows came before the Virginia Legislature several times. In 1888 the Legislature approved payment of pensions for widows of soldiers killed in action or who died in service and those who were severely maimed while wearing the grey. In 1900, as the veteran population aged, some restrictions were lifted. In 1902 requirements were further eased. The procedure followed was that the veteran or widow filled out an application for a pension. This pension was then presented to a local pension board for review. If this board approved the pension, then it was sent to the Auditor of Public Accounts for payment. The pension applications were not kept at the county level. The Auditor of Public Accounts published a list annually, by county, of the recipients of these Confederate pensions." Stephen received $15 a month beginning in 1900.

He appeared in the census in 1910 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1271] Stephen is living with his son James at age 79.

He died in 1916 in Bland Co., Virginia.[619]

He was buried in 1916 in the Hounshell Family Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[620,1272] The Hounshell Family Cemetery is on land that was part of Stephen's 1890 farm and Elizabeth Hounshell's (Malinda's mother) 1860 72-acre dower land. The cemetery was purchased from Walter Shewey in 1906 by 10 Hounshell family members. Stephen's surname is spelled Lambert on his Confederate veteran's marker.

He was married to Malinda (Linda) Hounshell (daughter of Henry Hounshell Sr. and Elizabeth Cline) on July 10, 1849 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[76] Stephen & Melinda were married by S. Rudy (Lutheran minister). Stephen & Malinda's marriage bond was posted by Stephen and his 1st cousin once removed James R. Lambert. James is the youngest son of Heinrich II & Barbara Wolf Lambert. The bond was dated 4 July 1849. James writes his own signature and spells his surname Lampert. Stephen's surname is spelled Lambert by the recorder and overwritten with Stephen's "X." Stephen became a Justice of the Peace later in life, and samples of his handwriting are in the possession of family members and public documents 130 years later. These papers indicate that Stephen learned to write during the 10-year period before his tenure in the Confederate Army.

Malinda (Linda) Hounshell was born in September 1827 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,377]

She died on April 3, 1908 in Bland Co., Virginia.[597,598,599] Letters, written by Stephen's brother Ephraim & their mother Nancy, and other documents in the possession of family descendants, contain an obituary for "Linda Lampert" giving the death date shown here. Malinda is also referred to as Linda in one of these Lampert letters

She was buried after April 3, 1908 in the Hounshell Family Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[62] No marker exists for Malinda but anecdotal evidence and the cemetery being located on Stephen & Malinda's farm, give ample credibility to her burial location being in the Hounshell Family Cemetery. Stephen Lambert and Malinda (Linda) Hounshell had the following children:

+493 i. James Albert Lambert (born on October 22, 1850).

+494 ii. Mary Isabel Lambert (born on October 22, 1850).

Early census data shows that her birth year was 1831. Because the death record is 3rd party data, the 1831 year is used in this database.

She appeared in the Poor School directory on July 8, 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[324] Barbara also appears in the Poor School directory on 5 Jan 1844.

She appeared in the census in 1900 in Ohio Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[1274] The 1900 census has Barbara living as a widow with some of her family as: Barbara Thompson [widow] a.63 b.Dec 1836 W.Va. f.m.b.W.Va., Mary Bright [daughter] a.46 b.Mar 1852 W.Va. f.m.b.W.Va., Charles Thompson [son] a.28 b.May 1873 Ohio, Hellen [sic] Porter [gdaughter] a.22 b.Feb 1878 Ohio, Nellie Thompson [gdaughter] a.5 b.Aug 1894 Ohio, Georgia D. Andrew states in a sworn statement dated 14 September 1909: (3rd person) "That owing to the loss of the family Bible being lost. His mother took it along when the family moved West and it being worn a good deal a new Bible was purchased. He knows that when he went to get married his correct age was taken from the old Bible. Being under age at time he was married, October 29th 1857 it became necessary to have consent of his parents or parent in order to obtain a license to marry. His father gave a written consent which was presented at the Probate Court at the time the license was issued. . ."

He appeared in the Poor School directory on August 24, 1849 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[1300] He is shown as: "Andrew J., age 12, son of Samuel Lambert."

He served in Company I of the 55th Kentucky Infantry Regiment from February 25, 1865 to September 19, 1865 in Kentucky.[1301] The 55th Infantry Regiment was formed on 1 Nov 1864 in Covington, Kentucky and dissolved on 19 Sept 1865 in Louisville, Kentucky. The regiment fought in one battle on 1 February 1865. During its existence, it lost no officers to battle but lost 7 to disease. It had 7 enlisted men killed, or mortally wounded in battle, and 29 lost to disease or accident. Andrew enlisted on 25 Feb 1865 in Covington and was mustered into Company " I" as a Private on 1 March 1865, which is shown as a "mounted" company in pension records. He was promoted to Corporal on 30 May 1865. He mustered out as a Corporal in Louisville on 19 September, 1865. His Muster-Out Roll sheet shows that he "never has been paid" and was "due $24.0? for clothing allowance, $8.00 for arms & equipment and $66.66 for Bounty." It shows that he was charged $5.2? for a blanket and hair brush. Andrew's military records give us the following personal information: "Born- With [sic] County Virginia, 5' 8½" tall, complexion- fair, eyes- blue, hair- brown, aged- 27 years, occupation- farmer, enlisted for 1 year." He signed his enlistment and pension papers with an X, indicating that he could not read or write.

He resided at the home of Isaac Woodrum in August 1865 in Quincey, Lewis Co., Kentucky.[1299] A letter dated 7 May 1879 in Andrew's Military Pension file states: (3rd person) ". . .in the service and in the line of duty at Quincey, Lewis County Ky. on or about the 5th of August 1865, he was thrown violently from a horse and his shoulder broken down, he at the time of duty as corporal and as mounted infantry. That his shoulder blade was broken and he was healed in the house of a private family located near by the place of accident named Isaac Woodrum. etc..that since leaving the service he has resided in Mason County W.Va. and his occupation has been that of a farmer." This letter is witnessed by his brother Ephraim Lambert and John W. Holloway. (Compiler's note: Ephraim is found living in Mason County in the 1870 W. Va. census) Andrew's story is confirmed, in part, by Edmond Long, a Private serving with Andrew in the Kentucky 55th. Mr. Long was a resident of Point Pleasant W. Va. on 22 March 1888, the date on his affidavit.

Andrew's 1865 Company Muster Roll shows him "present - March 30 to April 30, May & June - present, and July & August - present." The Pension Office Records state that "Records show him enrolled Feby 28, 65, June 15, 65 left - absent Crippled, July 14, 65 - returned from Georgetown (KY.) for duty." No reason is given in either the Military or Pension files to explain the differences between the two records.

He appeared in the census on June 24, 1880 in Saline Mines, Gallatin Co., Illinois.[1304] The 1880 census has Andrew's family as: Andrew Lampert [sic] [works on farm] a.42 b.Va, Evaline [wife] a.32 b.Va./f.b.Va./m.b.Va., Samuel [son] a.17 b.Oh., Andrew [son] a.15 b.Va., John H. [son] a.13 b.Oh., William T. [son] a.11 b.Oh., Preston [son] a.5 b.Ky., Eddie [son] a.4 b.Va. & Nancy L. [dau] a.11m b.Va.

He applied for a Military Disability Pension, again, on February 2, 1887 in Clendenin Twp., Mason County, West Virginia.[1305] Andrew's 1887 Invalid Pension Application reads as follows: (his inputs in caps) "That while a member of the organization aforesaid (Kentucky 55th, Co. I), in the service and in the line of duty at OR NEAR QUINCY, in the state of KENTUCKY on or about the ___ day of AUGUST, 1865. he CONTRACTED INJURY TO LEFT SHOULDER AND SIDE BY BEING THROWN FROM HIS HORSE, HE WAS OUT GATHERING UP GOVERNMENT HORSES AND HIS HORSE RAN AWAY WITH HIM, AND THREW HIM INJURING HIM AS ABOVE. That he was treated in hospital as follows: NOT IN ANY, TREATED IN A PRIVATE HOME AT QUINCY. That since leaving the service this applicant has resided in the ____of____ in the state/s of OHIO & W. VA., and that his occupation has been that of a FARMER. That prior to his entry into the service above named he was a man of good, sound physical health, being when enrolled a FARMER. That he is now ALL disabled from obtaining his subsistence by manual labor by reason of injuries, above described, received in the service of the United States; and he therefore makes his declaration for purposes of being placed on the invalid pension-roll of the United States."

Andrew was granted his disability pension on 9 July 1890 and given $8 a month. He then applied for an increase in payment on 16 Nov 1891 because of "increase of pre named cause." A request for a "full medical history" is shown on Andrew's claim, but never received, so the claim was marked "abandoned 13 Sept., 1893." This claim for an increase in benefits was "rejected" on 26 Sept 1893. In 1899, Andrew's pension file shows him disabled because of "disease of rectum and impairment of use of right arm." An examination by doctors in August 1887, July 1891, Feb. 1893, May 1901, Oct. 1902, April 1904 & March 1906 assigned him various levels of disability from 25 to 66 %.

He appeared in the Veteran's Census Roster in 1890 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[1306] He appears in this record with the surname Lampirt. His service date and regiment are correct. He is also shown as: "thrown from horse right shoulder dislocated."

He resided on November 16, 1891 in Apple Grove, Mason Co., Virginia.[1299]

He resided on 1st Avenue in May 1897 in Gallipolis, Gallia Co., Ohio.[1307] At the time of Andrew's and Sarah's daughter Convey's death, the family is shown living on 1st Avenue. This street runs along the Ohio river and would have been the "listed" address for persons living aboard a river boat, if the boat was docked in Gallipolis. The dock area during this period was known as "Dogham" and was home for gambling and other vices that took place in Gallipolis. Because of this, murders and other crimes were prevalent in the area and was considered by residents of Gallipolis to be an undesirable place to visit or live. (Ms. Mary Lee Marchi, Gallia Co. Genealogical Society-9/2000)

He resided on June 29, 1899 in Mason Co., Kentucky.[1308] An affidavit from Andrew to the U.S. Military Pension office, on this date, states that his address ."..hereafter will be Maysville Mason County Ky."

He resided between March 12, 1900 and September 7, 1900 in Yoho, Guyan Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[1299] A registered letter sent by the Commission of Pensions Law Division on 17 June 1899, addressed to Andrew at P.O. Yoho, Ohio was returned, postmarked Yoho, Ohio, on 23 June 1899. Yoho (no longer exists in 2001) was located along what is now State Route 218 near the Guyan Twp. Townhouse.

He appeared in the census on June 12, 1900 in Guyan Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[1309] The 1900 census has Andrew's family as: Andrew Lambert [farmer] a.59 b.May 1841 W.Va./ f.b.W.Va./m.b.W.Va., Nancy C. a.47 b.Jan 1853 Ohio, Vieta Caldwell [stepdaughter] a.20 b.Feb 1880 Oh., Fleety Caldwell [stepdaughter] a.11 b.Jan 1889 Oh., Miles Caldwell [stepson] a.9 b.Dec 1890 Oh. & Charles Caldwell [stepson] a.7 b.Jan 1893 Oh. This record shows Andrew and Nancy being married for 1 year and Nancy having had 6 children with 5 alive in 1900. In this census, Andrew is living just 1 stop (stop # 132) from his sister Barbara Wolf (stop #130). Between Barbara and Andrew is the John H. Johnson, age 32, family. Andrew's and Barbara's mother Nancy's maiden name is shown as Johnson on Andrew's death certificate. What relationship this John Johnson might have to Nancy, if any, is not known (9/2001).

He resided at 125 Ward Street on June 14, 1902 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio.[1299]

He resided at 128 Ward Street on February 27, 1904 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio.[1299]

He resided at 101 Barber Avenue between February 13, 1906 and February 14, 1907 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio.[1299]

He appeared in a letter from the Pension Board to the Hon. B. G. Dawes, a member of the House of Representatives on August 9, 1906.[1299] The letter to (U.S.) Representative Dawes reads: "In response to your inquiry of the 6th instant, received the 7th, relative to the claim for pension under general law, certificate number 672.883, of Andrew J. Lambert, who served in Company I, 55th Kentucky Infantry, and whose address is 101 Barber avenue, Marietta, Ohio, I have the honor to advise you that it awaits the testimony of an officer or comrades of his company showing when, where and under what circumstances the alleged injury to left shoulder and side was incurred, and the testimony of the surgeon or assistant surgeon showing treatment therefor in the service, which was called for September 13, 1893, but not having been furnished the case is classed as abandoned. On receipt of the evidence indicated the claim will receive further consideration. If he is unable to furnish any part of this evidence he should state the fact and reason under oath."

He resided at 205 Barber Avenue on October 11, 1909 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio.[1299]

He appeared in the City Directory & is listed with wife Nancy C., retired and living at 125 Barber Street in 1910 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio.[1310] His two stepsons Miles & Charles Caldwell are listed with the surname Lambert at the same address. Both boys are shown working in a chair factory.

He appeared in the census on April 23, 1910 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio.[1311] The 1910 census has Andrew's family as: Andrew J. Lambert a.71 b.W.Va./ f.b.W.Va./ m.b.W.Va., Mancie R. a.56 b.Oh, Milse Wall [stepson] a.19 b.Oh & Charlie Wall [stepson] a.17 b.Oh. This census is remarkable as its content obviously shows that it is the same family Andrew was with in 1900. The age and given names of the two stepsons are obviously Miles & Charles Caldwell, as shown in the 1900 census. The transcription of Nancy C. to Mancie R. defies logic. Andrew is shown as having his "own income" in the employment column. The census shows that Andrew has been married three times and Nancy two and being married to each other for 11 years with Nancy having had 5 children with 5 alive in 1910.

He resided at 125 Barber Street on June 22, 1912 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio.[1299]

He applied for an increase in his disability pension on June 22, 1912 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio.[1299] Andrew was applying for this increase under the Act of May 11, 1912. This document states that he was receiving a pension (disability) under certificate #672.883. This application was disapproved on 15 May 1913 in letter stating that "you have not reached the age of seventy-five." He was receiving $15 a month effective 6 Oct 1909 under the Act of 6 Feb 1907. His benefits were raised to $19 a month on 15 May 1912, as he was later confirmed to have reached the age of 75. His pension was increased to $22.50 a month on 11 June 1914. At the time of his death, his military "Drop Pensioner" report shows him receiving $50 a month.

In Andrew's pension file a note dated 7/25/ (no year) reads: "Pres Lambert, Eph Lambert; Saline Mines Ill.: Co. (county) Clk (clerk) at Shawneetown Ill. for death record of Evaline Lambert former wife." With no year shown on the note, only a vague assumption can be made as to its year and purpose. It can be speculated that the note was written between 1899 and 1912 for evidence of Andrew's age for his pension increase request in 1912, or his marital status before his relationship with Sarah Pritchard, because of her request for spousal benefits in 1899. The abbreviated names Pres & Eph are assumed to be his brothers Preston and Ephraim, who were living in Gallatin and neighboring Hardin County Illinois during this period.

He resided at 619 Pearl Street on April 15, 1914 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio.[1299]

He appeared in the census on January 22, 1920 in Ohio Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[1312] Andrew, age 82, is shown in the 1920 census, 4 years prior to his death, living with William Thompson and is shown as an uncle to William. William is the son of Alexander & Barbara Lambert Thompson. Barbara is Andrew's sister. This family is living next to Sam W. Johnson. What, if any, relationship to Andrew's mother Nancy Johnson Lambert is not known (9/2001). Andrew's surname is spelled Lampbert in this census.

He was appointed a guardian on November 6, 1924 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[1299,1313] Andrew's guardianship application reads: " (page 1) Probate Court of Gallia County, Ohio. Nov 1, 1924. In the matter of the guardianship of Andrew J. Lambert, an alleged Incompetent, a resident of said county of Gallia and represents to said Court that one Andrew J. Lambert aged 88 years, a resident of said County, and has a legal settlement in the Township of Ohio therein, and that the said Andrew J. Lambert, by reason of Infirmity and old age is Incompetent and by reason thereof is incapable of taking care of or preserving his property: and he further represents that the whole estate of said Andrew J. Lambert is as follows, to wit: Personal property consisting of about $400 in money and a U.S. Pension of $50 per month. The following named persons are the only next of kin of the said Andrew J. Lambert, resident of said County vis: Dude Lambert - son - Gallipolis Ferry W.Va., Nan Cornell - daughter -unknown (e.o.p. 1) (page 2) Your petitioner therefore prays that a guardian of the person and property of said Andrew J. Lambert may be appointed and he further asks that the court may fix a time for hearing this application, and that notice thereof be given to the above named persons pursuant to law. Marion (his mark) Scarberry Petitioner. The State of Ohio, Gallia County. Marion Scarberry being duly sworn says that the statements contained in the foregoing application are true as he verily believes Marion (his mark) Scarberry. Sworn before me and signed in my presence, J. S. Clark (Probate Judge), this 1 day of Nov A.D. 1924...." (end of doc.).

The hearing was set for Nov 6, 1924 @ 1PM but changed to 9 AM in a letter to Prospective Ward. A Mr. Ira Neal of Bladen Ohio, made application, was appointed and posted $1700 bond as Guardian on November 6. The Guardianship appointment is witnessed by Marion Scarberry & Clyde Keller. The file contains a letter, dated Nov 7, 1924, asking for certification of Ira Neal as Guardian to Andrew J. Lambert of Crown City Ohio. This letter is addressed to the Commissioner of Pensions (Military) in Washington D.C. The letter contains no signature but is assumed to have originated from the probate court. A Department of the Interior (Bureau Of Pensions) letter dated 11 Nov 1924 asks the Gallia County Probate court to verify that a Guardianship Bond of not less than $1200 has been executed. It states that an "Invalid Pension" in above described case # 672883 "has recently been allowed." The court approved the Guardianship on November 6 1924 and appointed Ira Neal as his Guardian.

The Guardianship Account Ledger reads: First & Final Account.: Cash received from = $505; C. R. Halley Funeral Expenses = $120, J. S. Clark (Probate) Court Cost = $13.50, Dr. J. S. Webster Medical Services = $7.50, Ira Neal Guardian's Compensation = $40, Helen Scarberry-given at request of A. J. Lambert at time of appointment = $100, Marion Scarberry Bond & Housing from June 12th to Nov 30th = $224. Total income = $505; Total expenditures = $505. Ira Neal & Marion Scarberry are found living in Ohio Twp., Gallia County several census pages away from Andrew and Wm. Thompson in the 1920 census. (papers courtesy Rob & Sally Lambert 4/2001) Ira Neal is shown as a Grocery Merchant in the 1920 census. The file was closed on 30 November (includes funeral expenses).

He died on November 29, 1924 in Crown City, Gallia Co., Ohio.[1314] Andrew is shown as 88 years old in his death records and obituaries. Cause of death was arterial sclerosis. A letter dated 19 March 1925 by Ira Neal to the Military Pension office states that "Andrew Lambert died Jan 28, 1925." The death record shows this date to be incorrect.

He was buried on December 1, 1924 in the Campbell Cemetery, Gallia Co., Ohio.[599,1315] Two death notices in the Gallia Times, 4 Dec 1924, have Andrew's burial at the Campbell Cemetery in one and in the Lanier Cemetery in the other. The Campbell cemetery will be used here until other evidence shows otherwise (10-2001).

In a Department of Interior form, dated 31 Aug 1899 requesting information about Andrew and his families, the following information was provided:

1) Are you a married man? If so, please state your wife's full name, and her maiden name. Answer..."Miss Sarah ("FIRST" written above Sarah) Gaskins died 1861: Miss Emaline Gardner ("DIED 1879" written above Gardner): Miss Sarah Pritchet - living: Miss Nancy Howlow - living."

2) When, where, and by whom were you married? Answer..."We was married in Ironton Ohio in March 1899 By Squires ?lont."

3) What record of marriage exists? Answer..." Marriage is on the Record in Ironton Ohio."

4) Were you previously married? If so, state the name of your previous wife and the date and place of her death or divorce. Answer..."Miss Nancy Holow she is living no divorce."

5) Have you any living children? If so, please state their names and the dates of their birth. Answer..."first wife; 1 child: 2 (the two is written OVER the A in Andrew, the next word, with another 2 written ABOVE the name) Andrew~ Jhon[sic]~ Prston~ Edward~ Nancy Lambert. I don't remeber[sic] their birth. third wife- Josephine 15 years~ Gideon 13 years~ Charley 10 years~ Ocie Lambert 8 years."

Andrew is not found in the Ohio, W.Va. or Kentucky 1860 censuses.

The surname spelling (Lambert/Lampert) for Andrew's children is determined from common usage by each individual.

He was married to Sarah A. Gaskins (daughter of Solomon Gaskins and Sarah Dannar) on October 29, 1857 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[1316] This marriage and date are alluded to in a letter from the U.S. Civil War Division to the Special Examinations Divisions, while trying to determine Andrew's correct age for his pension benefits. The letter is dated 16 April 1914. They were asking the examiner to determine if Andrew was not "of age" when this marriage occurred and if a parental consent was shown on the license. A Department of Interior review, dated 3 June 1914, concerning his Pension appeal, as it related to his date of birth states: "On Sept 15, 1909 claimant filed a certified copy of Court Record of Marriage, showing that he was married Oct 29, 1857 - A marginal note fixed his age at 20 years & 7 months, but on account of certain erasures the Certificate was not accepted. Since rejection of the claim for increase filed June 24 1912 - the claimant has taken an appeal to the Honorable Secretary and others."

On 28 May 1914, a deposition written by the Gallia County Probate Judge, Morris Tipton and given to a Pensions Bureau Special Examiner, Wm H. Wentz, which states: " ....Additional statement... Since the above was written I have found and [sic] old book giving a record of the Licenses issued from March 12, 1852 and I find that this record shows that on October 12, 1857 license was issued to Andrew J. Lambert and Sarah A. Gaskins and the record further shows that the groom was 20 years of age and the marginal note shows that the written consent was given for his marriage and the age of the bride is given as 18 years. I have made a diligent search for the said letter or written consent mentioned in said record but have been unable to find it. This additional statement has been read to me and the same is correctly recorded."

An undated form in this file states "Due consideration of the appeal by the Bureau it was directed that a Special Examiner verify the Certificate of Marriage with the Court records. This has been done and it is shown by the Court records that a license was issued and the marriage performed as shown in Certificate and that the groom was 20 years of age and had the written Consent of his parents to the marriage. This undoubtedly sustains his allegation that he was born May 27 1837 and it is believed that the claim filed June 24 1912 should be reopened and approved for allowance giving him the benefit of Act Mch 4, 1913." Sarah A. Gaskins was born in 1837 in Ohio.[1299,1317] Sarah's 1837 birth year is taken from the 1850 census, as it is the closest record to her birth.

She appeared in the census on August 14, 1850 in Raccoon Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[1318] Sarah A. Gaskins, age 13, is living alone with Elizabeth Gaskins and her husband Uriah Rose in this census. She is shown being born in Ohio. Elizabeth and Sarah are probably 1st cousins.

She died about 1863.[1299]

Sarah is placed as the daughter of Solomon Gaskins because she is living with Elizabeth Gaskins, her 1st cousin (assuming her father is Solomon) in the 1850 census. She is living with Elizabeth and her husband, next door to Reubin Gaskins, but the children of her age are accounted for in Reubin's family and only Solomon Gaskins has a daughter her age, in 1840, in Gallia County. Solomon's family is not found after the 1840 census and if he and his wife were deceased before 1850, it is expected that Sarah would be living with another family relative in 1850. As Elizabeth married in 1849, Sarah, age 13, would be a logical live-in in 1850. Solomon purchased land in Gallia County in 1837, but sold the land prior to 1850. As Bartholomew, Solomon and Reubin are the ONLY Gaskins families living in Gallia County in 1840, it must be expected that Sarah (& Solomon) is descended from either Bartholomew's or Reubin's families. In 1840, ONLY Solomon qualifies to be her father from the Gaskins families living in Gallia or nearby counties. Solomon cannot be Reubin's son as Solomon is too old, thereby making him the logical son of Bartholomew and brother to Reubin.

Andrew Jackson Lambert Sr. and Sarah A. Gaskins had the following children:

1239 i. Samuel R. Lambert was born in February 1863 in Gallia or Scioto Co., Ohio.[392,1319] Samuel's birth month & year are taken from the 1900 census, an estimate of the year of death of his mother and the 1880 census. He appeared in the census in 1900 in Battery Rock Pct., Hardin Co., Illinois.[1320] The 1900 census has Samuel living as a border with Richard Bell. Samuel is shown at age 37 and born Feb. 1863 in Ohio. He is listed as a "fisherman" and single. His father is shown born in Va. and his mother in Ohio. This would be correct for Andrew and Sarah Gaskins Lambert.

There is a Samuel R. Lambert living with Andrew's mother Nancy in 1870. This boy is shown as 10 years old. This would have made Nancy 51 years old at the time of Samuel R.'s birth, which would be difficult to reconcile even by 19th century standards.

In 1870, Samuel R.'s proposed father Andrew would have been living with his 2nd wife Evaline Gardner. As often happened with a second wife and child like Samuel R., being the oldest child of the previous marriage, it would not be unusual to find such a child living with his widowed grandmother (Nancy) in 1870.

The military pension records for Andrew in 1899, show an unnamed living child by his first wife Sarah Gaskins. This form letter in Andrew's pension file is somewhat vague as to the reason why an unnamed child is shown in answer to the question of "living children," while the remaining living children are named. It may be that the individual filling out the form for Andrew was unclear in making his point about "the names of living" children, and Andrew began by listing the children by each wife in order and number only.

No son named Samuel is shown with Andrew's family in the 1870 census, making his appearance with Andrew in 1880 remarkable. The 1870 censuses do not indicate the children's family relationship, giving credence to the speculation that the Samuel R. with Nancy in 1870, is the same individual with Andrew in 1880. Naming the first born male child after the paternal father (Samuel) was the norm during this period. The Samuel R. living with Nancy in 1870 and the Samuel living with Andrew in 1880 is assumed to be the same individual in this database, and the child of Sarah Gaskins.

He was married to Elizabeth Evaline Gardner (daughter of William M. Gardner and Nancy Leona (Oney) Martin) on May 6, 1871 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[1321] This marriage was performed by J. A. Martindale. This marriage was recorded 7 years after the birth of Andrew's & Evaline's children born before 1871. Andrew and his family were living aboard a "shanty" boat and traveled extensively up and down the Ohio River from Marietta, Ohio to Gallatin Co., Illinois. The children born prior to 1871 can be shown to be Evaline's by public documents, including birth, death and pension records. Elizabeth Evaline Gardner was born about 1843 in Virginia.[1298,1303,1322,1323,392]

She died on August 30, 1881 in Shawneetown, Gallatin Co., Illinois.[1324,1325,1326] Cause of death is shown as Typhoid Malarial Fever, birth place - Virginia, age - 36 years (no month or day), resided in Illinois - 2 years, place of death - Saline Pct, Gallatin County Ill., physician returning certificate - W. N. Warford & Son M.D. of Sparks Hill Gallatin County Ill. Evaline's death year is given as 1882 by Sarah Pritchard, Andrew's 3rd wife, in a deposition to the Military Pension Board, and Andrew gives the year as 1879 in another deposition.

She was buried on September 1, 1881 in the McCue Cemetery, Gallatin Co., Illinois.[1303,1327]

Andrew Jackson Lambert Sr. and Elizabeth Evaline Gardner had the following children:

+1240 i. Andrew J. (Dude) Lambert Jr. (born on December 20, 1864).

+1241 ii. John Henry Lampert (born in July 1867).

1242 iii. William Thomas Lambert was born in December 1869 in Ohio.[1298] He died in 1881 in Saline Mines, Gallatin Co., Illinois.[1328] He was buried in 1881 in the McCue Cemetery, Gallatin Co., Illinois.[1322] Thomas' birth year is shown as 1871 on his cemetery marker. The 1870 census gives his age as 6 months. The 1870 census date will be used here. Although William is shown born before his father's marriage to Elizabeth Gardner, he is shown as her son by a deposition given by his father, Andrew Lambert Sr., to the military pension board in 1899.

1243 iv. Thomas Lambert was born in 1871 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[388] He died in August 1877 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[388] The death date on the marker (4/77) is incorrect. A letter from Ephraim gives the death date as Aug 1877. He was buried in August 1877 in the McCue Cemetery, Gallatin Co., Illinois.[1329]

+1245 vi. Edward Lambert (born on September 25, 1877).

He was married to Sarah Elizabeth Pritchard (daughter of John Wesley Pritchard and Catherine Harriet Fowler) on July 10, 1883 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[1330] This marriage record appears as: Lambert, Andrew 42, Bland Co. Va.; Mason (end of line 1) Lee, Sarah 24 Mason 10 July 1883, in the original journal record. At the time of this marriage, the part of Wythe County Va. where Andrew was born, would have become Bland County.

In her "abandoned wife" petition to the military pension board in 1899, Sarah states that she and Andrew were married on 10 July 1883. A certified copy of this marriage is contained in Andrew's military pension file. (Andrew Lambert to Sarah Lee, 10 July 1883). In a letter received by the Pension Office on 19 September 1899, Andrew writes: "Kind Sir, I will state the plain case to you in case of me and Mrs. Sarah E. Lambert. She deceive me. she was married to Jack Lee in Gallipolis Gallia Co Ohio. her marriage is on the record thare and she had no divorce from him. we have bin married about 16 years as near as i can remember. she deceived ("she was a bad person" is written above the word deceived) me and we was apart three years or over and i married again but i did it innocently as she was a married woman (e.o.p. 1) Mrs. Sarah E. Lambert was married and not divorced her first husband Jack Lee and i think that ought to clear me and i have seen so much trouble that my memory is bad ("and poor health" is written below the words "is bad") and i am now up in my 60 year and this is the first trouble i ever had. i have come down of solod (solid?) fact not (now?) for i don't want to be deviled to death in my old Aag. i would have a good home if i was left alone. we was married some time before i new she was married and that caused the trouble between us (e.o.p. 2) and if i have done eny thing wrong i did it innocently. Oblige me as a friend, Andrew J. Lambert (Sidney L. Wilson)." (e.o.d.) {Some punctuation and spelling corrected for ease of reading}

Sarah Elizabeth Pritchard was born on July 30, 1860 in Mason Co., Virginia.[1331,1332] Her death certificate shows her place of birth as Va.

She resided on 1st Avenue in May 1897 in Gallipolis, Gallia Co., Ohio.[1307]

She resided on September 6, 1897 in Hogsett, Mason Co., West Virginia.[1299] On this date Sarah wrote the Military Pension Board asking for the P.O. address for Andrew. She signed the letter "His wife, Sarah Lambert."

She applied for one half of Andrew's Military Pension as a Deserted Wife on April 13, 1899 in Apple Grove, Mason Co., West Virginia.[1299] Sarah's claim was rejected on 12 March 1900 because "Claimant unable to prove that she is the legal wife of pensioner." A note at the top of this form states: "your statement as to death of former husband & former wives not sufficient." In her claim she states that Andrew abandoned her in Sept 1896 and that he "has not contributed any money whatever to support of the applicant and family, but loses his pension money and squanders it. Said Andrew J. Lambert when last I heard from him was living on a Shanty Boat on the Ohio river near Portsmouth Ohio." Another deposition written in Sarah's behalf on 11 April 1899 reads: "We can state that the said Sarah E. Lambert is a good moral and industrious woman and that her said husband Andrew J. Lambert left her in the fall of 1896 and she has been compelled to make a living for herself and family since that time by her own hands. Just working like a slave all the time. The said husband is a man who is no Earthly account and lays around on (a) Shanty boat on the Ohio river and squanders his pension. . . .etc, etc. John S. Hanley."

She resided on June 29, 1899 in Maysville, Mason Co., Kentucky.[1299]

She resided on March 12, 1900 in Apple Grove, Mason Co., West Virginia.[1299]

She resided in 1910 in Groveport, Franklin Co., Ohio.[1333]

She appeared in the census on April 22, 1910 in Franklin Co., Ohio.[1334] Appearing with her 4th husband John Giberson, the 1910 census shows Sarah had 9 children with 5 living in 1910. These 5 children would have been Alice Nibert, Minnie Josephine Lambert, Gideon Lambert, Charles Lambert and Osa (Rose) Lambert.

She resided about 1918 in Westerville, Delaware Co., Ohio.[1332]

She resided about 1920 in Newport, Ohio.[1335]

She resided before 1924 in Mt. Sterling, Madison Co., Ohio.[1336,1337]

She died on April 18, 1926 in Paint Twp., Madison Co., Ohio.[1338,1339,1340] A letter written by Alice Nibert Martindale, in 1962, states that "my father died April 6 the same month my mother died. He on the 6th and she on the 18th, 1926." Alice is the child of Sarah and Allen Nibert. (The letter content is anecdotal, as this compiler has never seen it.) Sarah's death certificate lists pulmonary tuberculosis as cause of death. The duration of the disease was 3 years. Her birth date on the death certificate is listed as July 30, 1860, but either this date or age, as shown, must be incorrect. Her age is shown as 65y, 8m, 18 dys. With a death date of April 18, 1926 and using the age listed, her birth date would have been July 31. It is more probable that Alvin (informant) would have known her birth date and the clerk incorrectly calculated her age.

She was buried on April 20, 1926 in the Sedalia Cemetery (Range), London, Madison Co., Ohio.[1331]

+1247 i. Minnie Josephine (Josie) Lambert (born on August 9, 1883).

Lambert whose father is shown as Anderson. This is contained in the Mason Co., W. Va. District 2 death records page 53, 1880-1903. The child's age was 2y 3m & 30 dys. (no death date) Ephraim's place in this family is based upon anecdotal information given to Rose Lambert VanDyke by her namesake aunt Rose Lambert Adams. Her aunt Rose resided with Rose VanDyke during the last several years of her life and gave her the information about her brother Ephraim, which Rose VanDyke recorded.

1252 vi. Convey Senboy Lambert was born on March 15, 1897 in Gallipolis Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[1307,1342] She died on May 22, 1897 in Gallipolis, Gallia Co., Ohio.[1343] Convey's funeral home death records in Gallopolis, Ohio show her father as "Anda Lambert, b. W.Va." and her mother as "Sarah Pritchard, b. W.Va." The family was residing on 1st Avenue at the time of Convey's death. She was buried after May 22, 1897 in the Mound Hill Cemetery, Gallia Co., Ohio.[1307]

He was married to Nancy C. Halley (daughter of James T. Halley and M.J. (Halley\mar)) in March 1899 in Ironton, Lawrence Co., Ohio.[1273,1299] This marriage is confirmed by a letter from James T. Halley to the Military Pension Board, 1 Sept 1900, stating: ". . .The reson I rite to you he (Andrew) maried a woman here this Spring and I herc he got a register leter from you some two months ago asking him to show evidence why she should not have half of his Pension and he left the Countney the next day and hasent bin herd of since. . ." James Halley is the father of Andrew's third wife Nancy and performed their marriage. The 1900 census for Andrew and Nancy Halley shows that they had been married for 1 year. Nancy C. Halley was born in January 1858 in Ohio.[1273,1344]

She appeared in the census in 1880 in Guyan Twp., Gallia Co.. Ohio.[1345] Nancy appears at home with her parents in 1880. She was married to James Wolf (son of John Wolf and Elizabeth (Wolf\mar)) on October 3, 1856 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1349,341] James Wolf was born in 1836 in Virginia.[1349,195]

James and Hannah are living next to Hannah's mother Nancy Lambert.

He emigrated from Mason County W.Va. about 1879 to Saline Mines, Gallatin Co., Illinois.[392,1352] James and Hannah probably moved to Illinois with Hannah's brother Andrew. Their son Samuel is shown being born in Va. (W.VA.) in the 1880 Illinois census at age 2.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Saline Mines, Gallatin Co., Illinois.[1353] The 1880 census has James' family as: James Wolf a.47 b.Va., Jane a.39 b.Va., John a.22 b.Ohio, Stephen a.21 b.Ohio, George a.18 b.Ohio, Andrew a.17 b.Va., Elizabeth a.15 b.Va., James a.13 b.Va., Jane a.11 b .Va., Lucinda a.7 b.Ohio, Charles a.5 b.Va., Samuel a.2 b.Va.

Because Wayman's birth year is shown in other records as 1846, Ephraim's birth year will be taken from the 1850 census (age 4), which is the "earliest" record.

He served in the Army and Navy before January 1866 in Mason Co., W.Va. or Gallia Co., Ohio.[1354] Ephraim states in a letter, marked Gallia Co. Ohio, to his brother Stephen: "well brother the first thing I done after I got well I was a soldier and next a sailor and now I am a collier boy." There is an Ephraim Lambert shown serving in Co. F of the Illinois 92nd Infantry during the Civil War. This is not Ephraim William, as the Ephraim shown in the 92nd is listed as being from Silver Creek (Lincoln) Ill. When Ephraim says he was a sailor, this may mean that he worked aboard a commercial vessel and not military.

He resided in January 1866 in Swan Creek, Gallia Co., Ohio.[388]

He emigrated from Gallia County Ohio between February 1866 and May 1866 to Cabell Co., West Virginia.[388]

He appeared in the County Delinquent Tax List for the Year 1889 on June 16, 1890 in Lands in Twp. 11S, Range 7E & 9E, Hardin Co. Illinois.[1357] The list shows Ephraim under the name "William Lampert" for the land in Range 7E, and "E. W. Lampert" for the land in Range 9E. As his son William Ephraim Lampert, did not marry until 1891, it will be assumed that the lands in both Ranges belong to Ephraim William.

He appeared in the census in 1900 in Battery Rock Pct., Hardin Co., Illinois.[1358] The 1900 census has Ephraim living alone as: William E. Lampert [none] a.54 b.May 1846 old Va. f.b.old Va. m.b.old Va. & Lucy J. Miller [servant] a.33 b.May 1867 Ill f.b.Pa. m.b.Pa. In William's application file for admittance to the Soldier's Home, the following letter dated 30 Oct., 1915 reads: "R. C. Repass, County Clerk Bland Co., Virginia, The Bearer of this letter is Mr. William Lampert, a Confederate Veteran of Ceres, Bland County, Virginia, on his way to R. E. Lee Camp Soldier's Home, at Richmond, Virginia. Conductors on trains will please see that he makes proper connections, and that he is properly taken care of. Respectfully &c., R. C. Repass, Bland Co., Va." She is shown with parents named J. C. & E. J. Painter. A review of census records for all Painter families in the Wythe County area in 1860, shows two daughters for the James C. & Elizabeth Painter family, Martha age 14 and Margaret age 12. The 1870 census for James' family shows that both daughters are still at home, raising doubt that this is the correct family. In 1870, William is living alone with brother Augustus, giving credence to the possibility of his wife's early death or divorce. The 1880 census, the first census showing marital status for each family member, shows James Painter's daughter Martha being divorced and Margaret being single. This gives proof to Martha being William's wife and divorcing him before 1870. William is not found in the 1880 all-name U.S. census index. Martha Jane Painter was born in 1847 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[436,97]

He was married to Elvinia Catron (Kettering) (daughter of Andrew Catron and Sidney Creger) after October 24, 1859 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[97,459] The Certificate to Obtain a Marriage License on file in the Wythe County Courthouse for Eli Lambert and Elvina Catron has Eli's parents listed as Henry and Emaline Lambert. Elvina's parents names are too difficult to transcribe. Eli's age is listed as 23 years and Elvina's is listed as 19. The certificate was given under Eli's hand on October 24, 1859 and bears his signature. The certificate is incomplete as the County Court, Date of Marriage and Place of Marriage are all blank. At this time it is not verified that this marriage ever took place. In a letter written by Betty Lambert Vanhoozier, daughter of Augustus & Lena Baumgardner Lambert, in January 2004, she makes the following comments & remembrances about her grandfather George W. Lambert's family. "China Estel Lambert could play anything from a Harmonica, Banjo, Fiddle, Guitar and I don't know what else. And he could play beautiful, and his son Claude could play anything also. I remember them playing "Wildwood Flower," "Redwing," Sourwood Mountain," "Little Redwood Casket" and lots of other songs I can not remember. Betty says (this letter was written for Betty by her husband Henry Vanhoozier) her dad loved "Little Church in the Wildwood." She says he used to sing it when she was small. I want to tell you one story told me by China Estel Lambert about George W. Lambert. He said George W. said when he was a boy "on Walker's Creek where he was born" that he carved his initials on a mud turtle & 50 years later he found the turtle in the Branch at Poor Valley. . .. He also said George W. could play "Dixie" on a "Jews Harp" and make it sound like a Harmonica. . . " +1320 i. Minnie Belle Lambert (born on August 11, 1870).

+1321 ii. China Winton Lambert (born on April 25, 1873).

328. John T. Lambert[436] (Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1842 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[65,436]

He appeared in the Poor School on August 24, 1849 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[1427] John also appears in the Poor School directory on 16 Aug 1850.

He served in Co. G of the 36th Virginia Infantry of the CSA Army from May 3, 1862 to February 19, 1865 in Virginia.[424] "LAMPERT, JOHN T.: Co. G; enlisted. May 3, 1862 in Bland Co. Present until sick Sept. 5, 1862. Present on Dec. 1862 roll until captured at Piedmont, June 5, 1864. POW Camp Morton, exchanged. Feb. 19, 1865. Bur. Old Bethel Cem., Bland Co."

He appeared in the census on July 26, 1870 in Seddon Twp., Bland Co.. Virginia.[1428] The 1870 census has John, age 28, living alone with Laralett [sic] (Melvina Lavlet) Lambert, d/o James R. Lambert (s/o Johannes & Barbara Wolf Lambert) They are living with the Hiram Robinette family next to Hiram (Herman), s/o John & Mahala Hounshell Lambert. Lavlet is the future wife of Hiram Robinette's son Marion. Hiram & Lavlet are 1st cousins and John & Lavlet are 2nd cousins.

He appeared in the census on June 7, 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1429] The 1880 census has John's family as: John F. Lampert [laborer] a.28 [sic], Jane R. a.36, Charles C. a.6, Stephen K. a.5, Barbara a.3, Eli F. a.2, Ellenia a.2m & N. J. Havens [stepdaughter] a.9.

He was buried in the Old Bethel Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[424] John's marker shows his surname as Lampert.

John's middle initial is shown as T. on his marriage license and cemetery marker.

He was married to Jane Rachel Havens (daughter of Elijah Havens and Rebecca F. (Havens\mar)) on January 16, 1873 in Bland Co., Virginia.[436] Jane Rachel Havens[436,1430] was born in 1843 in Giles Co., Virginia.[436] Jane's age is taken from the 1860 & 1880 censuses. Jane's surname is shown as Havens on her marriage to John in 1873. Her mother is shown as Rebecca F. Havens. The family for Jane Rachel and her oldest daughter Marcia Havens is difficult to reconcile as being part of a previous marriage before John Lambert. Family anecdotal evidence indicates that both Jane Rachel and her daughter Marcia are illegitimate. The early census records, while not collaborating or disproving this information, is extremely difficult to reconcile. Jane's mother Rebecca was probably married to Elijah Havens about 1830. He is the only head of a Havens household in 1840, with a wife of Rebecca's age group, to disappear from the 1850 Virginia census record. Rebecca is living alone in Giles county in 1850 with a daughter Sarah age 5 and living next to the Isaac Bland family with a child James Havens (male), age 7. This sheet contains a notable and unusual entry by the enumerator. Rebecca Havens is shown as the head of household but her surname is dittoed ["] from the male "James Havens age 7," on the line directly above as the last member in the Isaac Bland family. On the line directly above James Havens, in the Bland family, is the child James Bland, ALSO age 7. The 1860 census for Rebecca shows that she has two acknowledged daughters Rachel age 18 & Mary age 13. It seems probable that the 1850 enumerator erred with the James Havens entry which should have read "Jane" Havens age 7 female (not male), and was probably a hurried duplication from the previous line. As Jane Havens gives her Middle initial as R in the 1880 census, the 1850 & 1860 census records will be interpreted to mean that the James Havens, is Jane Rachel in 1850 and Sarah is the daughter named Mary in 1860, maintaining a reasonable age reconciliation of the two daughters between the two census records. This family arrangement is further confirmed by the fact that Jane Rachel Haven's daughter Marcia is living with Rebecca and her two daughter's (Jane) Rachel & Mary (Sarah) in 1860. Compiler's note: This information is convoluted beyond reasonable explanation with words alone and the curious reader is advised to view the original censuses described here. (3/04)

John T. Lambert and Jane Rachel Havens had the following children:

1323 i. Martin S. (aka Charles C.) Lambert was born on April 10, 1874 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104,1138] There is a Bland County birth record for Martin S. Lambert, 10 April 1874. Martin is shown as the son of John & Jane Lampert. This may be Charles.

Lambert was born in November 1877 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104,377] She appeared in the census on June 16, 1900 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1432] The 1900 census has Barbara living with the Charles Scott family as a boarder, She is shown single and being born Nov 1877 at age 22. This family is shown as stop #117 and at stop #122 there is a Eututhia(?) Lampert age 20 living with the Walter Groseclose family. This individual is indexed as Gertrude Lampert but close examination of the census sheet discloses that the name begins with the letter E and ends with the letters "thea." Because there are no known Gertrude's in the Lampert family at this time this individual will be shown as Barbara's sister Ellenia.

He registered for the military draft on September 12, 1918 in Bland Co., Virginia.[630] Samuel is described as medium height and slender build with grey eyes and brown hair. He is shown farming for himself in Ceres and lists his mother, "Mrs H. T. Lampert," as his closest relative. He signed his name Samuel Thomas Lampert. He died in 1965 in Virginia or West Virginia.[422] He was buried in 1965 in the Clear Fork Baptist Church Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[422] Samuel's cemetery marker transcription shows his middle initial as I.

This is incorrect as he was not present in the 1850 census record, but listed as 8 years old in 1860. A compromise year of 1851 is used here, with his birth month taken from 1900.

He appeared in the census in 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1471] The 1880 census has Floyd's family as: Rush F. Lampert a.26, Marshey a.19, Loo P. E. a.1 & George Franklin a.3 m.

Havens was born in May 1860 in Giles Co., Virginia.[436,452,1430] Anecdotal evidence indicates that Marcia was illegitimate. Marcia's birth year is given as 1867 in the 1900 census. This is incorrect as her birth date is shown as May 1860 in the 1860 Giles County Va. census, while living with her grandmother Rebecca F. Havens. This is the date that will be used here. She appeared in the census on April 21, 1930 in Jefferson Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1480] The 1930 census has Jane living in the Tazewell County Home at age 75.

Jane Lambert and ?? unknown had the following children:

1375 i. Henry Lambert was born in 1868 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104] Henry & his proposed cousin Henry P. Lambert may be the same individual.

+1376 ii. Molly Melvina Lambert (born in October 1879).

1377 iii. Nannie Willow (Minnie) Lambert was born on August 12, 1889 in Bland Co., Virginia.[1481] (Speculation) Nannie is placed as the daughter of Jane because Jane is the only unmarried Jane Lambert in Bland County at the time of the birth of Nannie. David Lambert had a daughter Jane born in 1849, but David's family is shown living only in Wythe County. This child and mother are shown with the surname spelling Lampert on Nannie's birth record, giving some evidence of these individuals' family line, i.e.,

Bland County LamPert, not Wythe County LamBert. The child is shown as "illegitimate" in the birth record giving credence to the fact that Jane Lampert was a maiden name, not a married surname. The 1900 census has Minnie living with her sister Molly & James Pauley at age 11 and born Nov 1889.

336. Sarah A. Lambert (Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1856 in Virginia.[97] Sarah is shown on her marriage record born in 1861. Census data shows that this is incorrect.

She was married to Jasper N. Fannon (son of Acles Fannon and Sarah (Fannon\mar)) on February 5, 1885 in Bland Co., Virginia.[436] Jasper N. Fannon was born on October 18, 1851 in Wythe (Bland) Co., Virginia.[436] Jasper is shown born Oct 1852 in the 1900 census.

He appeared in the census on June 6, 1900 in Mechanicsburg Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1482] The 1900 census has Jasper's family as: Jasper N. Fannon [carpenter] a.47 b.Oct 1852 & Sarah a.41 b.Feb 1859. The census shows Jasper & Sarah being married for 16 years with Sarah having had no children.

He died on March 17, 1909 in Bland Co., Virginia.[422]

He was buried after March 17, 1909 in the Muncy Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[422]

337. Joseph Lambert (Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1858 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[97]

He emigrated from Bland County Va. after 1870 to Kentucky.[62]

He appeared in the census on June 17, 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1483] The 1870 census has Joseph, age 20, living with the S.W. & Charlotte Bogle family and working as a laborer.

He was married to Minerva Susan (Mary) Leedy (daughter of Samuel Leedy and Mary (Polly) Repass) in 1883 in Elliott Co., Kentucky.[690] Minerva Susan (Mary) Leedy was born in May 1860 in Carter Co., Kentucky.[690,700,695] Manerva is shown at 2 months of age in the Aug 1860 census. The 1860 birth year will be used here.

She appeared in the census on June 20, 1900 in Moccasin Twp., Elliott Co., Kentucky.[1484] The 1900 census has Mary's family as: Mary Lambert [farmer] [widow] a.39 b.May 1862 Ky. f.m./b.Ky., Robert a.16 b.Mar 1884, Mollie a.15 b.May 1885, Ollie [son] a.9 b.April 1891, John a.6 b.June 1894 & Malinda a.3 b.Jan 1897. She is shown having had 7 children with 5 alive in 1900. Ollie is shown as a son in this census record, while other family researchers have Ollie as a female, with no source material listed. He will be listed as male in this record. All of their children are listed with both their parents being born in Kentucky. This is incorrect as Joseph was born in Wythe Co., Va. Mary is living next to Emory D. Leedy age 41, born Feb 1859 in Kentucky.

Mary's (Minerva) parental family is difficult to document. The serious researcher is encouraged to view the 1860 Carter Co., Kentucky census for Samuel & Polly Lady. This family can be found in 1870 in Elliott Co., Kentucky under the name Samuel & Mary Geade. Comparing the two census records leaves little doubt that they are the same family, with individuals of the same age and appropriate given names. Minerva Susan is shown as Susan in 1860 and Marion in 1870. For Minerva's mother in 1870, the given name Mary was commonly represented with the nickname Polly in the 17th, 18th & 19th centuries. The relationship for Minerva to this family is fortified by the fact that her parents, as shown here, were married in Wythe County in 1842. As a widow in 1900, Minerva is living next to Emory Leedy, who is listed in the above mentioned 1870 census record as the son of Samuel & Mary Geade. Why she has adopted the given name Mary in 1900 is unexplained.

+1378	i.	Robert L. Lambert Sr. (born on December 8, 1883).
1379	ii.	Mollie Lambert was born on May 5, 1885.[690]
1380	iii.	Ollie Lambert was born in April 1891 in Elliott Co., Kentucky.[690]
1381	iv.	John Lambert was born in June 1894 in Elliott Co., Kentucky.[690]
1382	v.	Malinda Lambert was born in January 1897 in Elliott Co., Kentucky.[690]

338. Mary U. (Polly) Lambert[422] (Joseph-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1841 in Virginia.[65,97,422] Mary's birth year is shown as 1841 because she appears at 11 years of age in 1850 and 19 years old in 1860. As she does not appear in the 1840 census, her birth year will be taken from the 1860 census. She died in 1893 in Bland Co. Va. or Lincoln Co., West Virginia.[422] She was buried in 1893 in the Old Bethel Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[422] Mary's cemetery marker reads: Mary U. Stowers 1839-1893, wife of James M. Stowers Jr., buried at Bethany. her son Charles H. Stowers and her parents John and Elizabeth Thompson Lambert, buried here. There is another A. J. and Mary Stowers present in the 1870 Bland County census. These individuals do not have the correct age to be the family shown here. (3/03)

She was married to Andrew J. Stowers (son of William Stowers and Christina Creger) on October 1, 1861 in Bland Co., Virginia.[436] This marriage has not been confirmed as the Mary Lambert shown here. (3/03) Andrew J. Stowers was born in 1836 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[436]

She was married to James Madison Stowers Jr. (son of Hickman P. Stowers and Sarah (Sallie) Burton) before 1869 in Bland Co., Virginia.[345] James Madison Stowers Jr.[436] was born on January 12, 1840 in Virginia.[345,422]

352. Jackson J. Lambert[1543,62] (David-4, Johann Michael-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1836 in Virginia.[65,422] Jackson's birth year is difficult to discern. He is shown at age 10 in 1850 while living with his grandparents Michael & Mary Lambert. He shows his birth year as 1833 in the 1870 census. It would be difficult to confirm a 7 year difference for his age in 1860. The year taken from his cemetery marker will be shown here.

He appeared in the census on September 6, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[1544] In 1850, Jackson appears with his proposed grandfather Michael Lambert as Jackson J. Lambert age 10.

He died on March 29, 1913 in Bland Co., Virginia.[422]

He was buried after March 29, 1913 in the Sharon Lutheran Church Cemetery, Ceres, Bland Co., Virginia.[422]

Other family researchers have Jackson as the son of David and Mary Hounshell out of wedlock. He and his family moved from Va. to Boone Co and then Randolph Co. Mo. After his wife died he and William went back to Va. Jackson remarried in Bland Co. * William is placed as Jackson's son based on anecdotal evidence only. Margaret would have been 51 years old at the time of his birth, making his placement in this family tenuous.

He was married to Margaret Jane Creger (daughter of George Creger and Sarah (Sally) Steffy) on June 12, 1854 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[459] Jackson is shown as a brick layer on his marriage record. Margaret Jane Creger was born on August 21, 1834 in Virginia.[1543] She died on August 30, 1901 in Moberly, Randolph Co., Missouri.[1543] She was buried after August 30, 1901 in the Oakland Cemetery, Randolph Co., Missouri.[1543] She appeared in a newspaper obituary in the Moberly Daily Monitor on August 31, 1901 in Moberly, Randolph Co., Missouri.[1547]

Her parents as shown here, are based upon the following criteria. The 1870 & 1880 "all name" Virginia censuses lists only the Elizabeth shown here at ages 36 [sic] and 37 [sic] respectfully, with parents Phillip & Eliza. A soundex search of these censuses, using the surname Greever, Greaver, Graves, Greves and Greeves reveal only Philip Greever's daughter as a potential match for Jackson's wife. In 1850 she is shown as Mary E. at age 17. In 1880, still single with her parents, she is shown born in 1843, leaving little doubt that she was unsure of her birth year after 1870. Philip and his family are shown living in Tazewell county from 1850 through 1880, with Elizabeth at home in each census year.

355. Earsley Jane (Eva) Lambert[436] (David-4, Johann Michael-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1848 in Virginia.[104,65]

She was married to Austin Maden Kitts (son of Peter Kitts and Amanda M. Hounshell) on May 21, 1866 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[345,459] The year of marriage shown here for Austin & Jane may be incorrect. The census shows Austin & Lydia having had no children and being married for 18 years. Austin is living 1 stop from his brother Robert.

The family shown here for Christian has not been verified. The 1860 and 1870 census records list Jacob & Elizabeth Lambert's child as the only Lambert with the given name Christian born in Virginia between 1852 & 1856. Christian gives his age between 2 and 4 years younger, in the census record in 1900 & 1910, from that shown in 1860 & 1870. This may be explained by the early death of both his parents, leaving him uninformed as to his correct birth year. The birth record of Christian's son, William, shows Christian's birth place as "Dixon" County Virginia. There is/was no Dixon County Va., but with Christian being born in the Sand Lick District of Buchanan County Va. about 1854, he probably meant his county of birth to be Dickenson Co. Va., which was partially formed from the Sand Lick District of Buchanan County in 1880, and would have been Dickenson County at the time of William's birth in 1883.

He was married to Vida Elvira Knifong (daughter of Caleb Knifong and Gracie (Grace) Hoskins) on November 2, 1879 in Sullivan Co., Missouri.[1645,1646,1647] Vida Elvira Knifong[1648] was born in January 1859 in Sullivan Co., Missouri.[1649,1648]

He appeared in the census on May 6, 1910 in Garden Dist., Buchanan Co., Virginia.[1663] The 1910 census has George's family as: George Lambert [rented farm] a.31 [sic], Janie a.25, Etta a.6, Martha a.11, Walter a.9 & Noah Lambert [cousin] a.40. The only Noah Lambert known in the Russell, Lee and Buchanan County area is the great-grandson of Peter Lambert. He would be 50 years old in 1910, but is not found in the 1910 census records beyond the Noah in this family. George and Noah are living 2 stops from Noah's nephew Abel Lambert. Noah is shown never to have married in the 1900 and 1920 census records, making this individual the probable descendant of Peter Lambert Sr. If Peter is the son of Johann Heinrich Lambert Sr., Noah would be a 2nd cousin to George W. The children, Martha and Walter, are shown twice in this census living with their paternal grandmother Martha Johnson Lambert Cook on the 3rd of May in the New Garden Dist., Russell County. If George & Noah's parental lines are correct, as shown here, this census would be strong evidence that Peter Lambert Sr. is the son of Johann Heinrich Sr. of Wythe County.

He appeared in the census on January 21, 1920 in New Garden Dist., Russell Co., Virginia.[1664] The 1920 census has George living with his mother Martha Cook as: Martha Cook a.70, George W. Lambert [son] a.43 & Ruthe Lambert [granddaughter] a.5.

He served in Co. F/2 of the 64th Virginia Mounted Infantry between February 1, 1863 and April 28, 1865 in the Confederate States of America Army.[1702] James enlisted and was paroled as a private. James' birth place is listed as Lee County. The ONLY Burk (Burke) family in Lee County between 1860 & 1880 that closely meets any of the names for this Burk family are Thomas R. & Evaline Burk, with a son named John H. born about 1852. Because of this discrepancy and possible transcription error, the family shown here is for a John & Mary Burk (Burke) as shown in the 1880 Lee County census record. John H. He is shown with his mother Eliza in June 1880 at age 1, showing that he could not have been born in Oct 1880. He appeared in the census on April 16, 1910 in Lee Co., Virginia.[1735] The 1910 census has William's family as: William Lambert [farmer] a.30, Dora a.28, Franklin a.5 & Ethel a.1. He was married to Alice Manerva (Dora) Moore (daughter of James M. Moore and Martha R. McPherson) on February 14, 1904 in Lee Co., Virginia.[741,1738] The parents for William are not shown on their marriage record and the marriage principles shown here do not agree with the 1910 census record in two respects. The given name of the wife is shown as Dora, and the 9 year marriage period conflicts with the recorded marriage for William & Alice M. Moore in 1904. This family is arranged as shown here because the ages listed for William (25) and Dora (21) on the marriage record closely represent their ages as shown in the 1910 census. The marriage record shows William a widower and Alice single. Dora will be shown here as a nickname for Alice Manerva, and the marriage period given in the 1910 census will be assumed a mistake by either the principles or the enumerator. This family is reinforced by its location next to William's cousin Robert Alsop in 1900 & 1910, but the mitigating information presented above leave doubts about the family as shown here. He was also known as Walkin' Jim Lambert.[619] The following article about Jim appeared on June 5 1982 in a Wytheville Va. newspaper: "The Walkin' Jim Lambert Race and Celebration set for Saturday June 5, in Burke's Garden, has great sentimental meaning to Mrs. Rebecca L. Harner of Wytheville. Mrs. Harner is a granddaughter of the late Jim Lambert. (e.o.p.) Walkin' Jim, as he was affectionately known far and wide, was said to be a quick-footed veteran walker who could cover many miles of rough terrain in a relatively short amount of time. (e.o.p.) "He could out-walk a fast horse." Mrs. Harner said of her grandfather. "I didn't walk with him too often because I couldn't keep up." Mrs. Harner recalled that her brothers, Elmer L. Lambert and George E. Lambert (who resides in Bland), used to walk long distances in Bland County with Walkin' Jim. (e.o.p.) Mrs. Harner became extremely close to her grandfather during the early 1920's when he lived with her family in Bland. Walkin' Jim passed away in 1929 [sic], but his fabled walking legend has lived long after. (e.o.p.) Walkin' Jim who was said to take incredibly long steps, covered the trip from Ceres to Burke's Garden on a regular basis according to Mrs. Harner. In honor of the feats of Walkin' Jim, the Burke's Garden Fire Department is sponsoring a race. The race will be 10 Kilometer (6.2 mile) run through the west end of Burke's Garden. . ..etc." {(e.o.p.)=end of paragraph} Review of the original Bland County birth record journals reveals that there were two sons born to James and Clementine named Clarence Wisdom. Close examination reveals that they are two different entries. Naming a new child after an earlier deceased one was not unusual in the 19th century.

He was married to Rebecca Clementine (Clemmie) Kimberling (daughter of Stephen Kimberling and Elizabeth Kirby) on December 24, 1879 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104,436] The 1880 census shows that James and Clementine were married "during the current year."

Rebecca Clementine (Clemmie) Kimberling was born on November 2, 1859 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[104,78,620] Rebecca is shown at age 2 and 12 respectively in the 1860 and 1870 censuses. This would indicate her birth year was 1858. The 1860 census was taken on 2 Aug, and the 1870 on 27 June. Her cemetery marker incorrectly shows her birth year as 1869. A compromise year of 1859 is used here. She died on May 23, 1928 in Virginia.[620,598]

She was buried after May 23, 1928 in the Hounshell Family Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[620]

James Albert Lambert and Rebecca Clementine (Clemmie) Kimberling had the following children:

1729 i. Clarence Wisdom Lambert was born on November 26, 1880 in Bland Co., Virginia.[1805] Clarence's parents are shown as James & Clementine Lampert on his birth record. He died before December 1882 in Bland Co., Virginia.[1806]

+1730 ii. Clarence Wisdom Lambert (born on December 24, 1882).
+1731 iii. Luther Edmond Lambert (born on November 1, 1883).
+1732 iv. Ellis Arthur Lambert (born on March 18, 1886).
+1733 v. William Peery Lambert (born on August 20, 1888).
+1734 vi. Stephen Greever Lambert Sr. (born on December 24, 1891).
+1735 vii. Emory Oscar Lambert (born on October 20, 1894).
+1736 viii. Nellie Elizabeth Lambert (born on July 12, 1896).
+1737 ix. Ollie Katherine (Doll) Lambert (born on July 17, 1904).

494. Mary Isabel Lambert (Malinda (Linda) Hounshell-5, Henry-4, Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on October 22, 1850 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[97,598]

She died on May 6, 1900 in Portsmouth, Scioto Co., Ohio.[1807,1808,1809] Mary died at home on 14th Street. Mary's death record in the 1901 Probate records for Scioto County Ohio, lists her death date as 8 May 1900. The Obit "6 May" date will be used here as the more "immediate" source.

She was buried after May 6, 1900 in the Hounshell Family Cemetery, Bland Co., Virginia.[599] The obituary states that "the body was sent to Glenn County Va. for burial." This is an obvious transcription or entry error for Bland County Va. As her father Stephen was still alive in 1900, and the Hounshell Family Cemetery is on his property, it would be a reasonable assumption that Mary is buried there along with her twin brother James. Stephen Lambert family anecdotal information alleges that when Erastus & Mary left Bland County, Stephen had asked Erastus to return Mary to Bland County for burial, if anything happened to her. As this story was related to family members for over 100 years, her death record & obituary found in 2002 confirms this story. It was also alleged that Mary was not buried in the cemetery but about 200' down the hill from the cemetery, on the path leading up to it, under a tree.

She appeared in a Portsmouth Correspondent (German text) obituary Sunday May 11, 1900 in Portsmouth, Scioto Co., Ohio.[1810] Mary's obituary reads: "Mary E. Stowers: Died at her residence on 14th Street on Tuesday; 50 years old; she leaves behind a husband and 5 children; the body was shipped to Glenn County Virginia for burial." Her appearance in a German language newspaper begs the question "why?" Mary is shown as Polly Lampert on her son William's birth record.

She was married to Erastus Granger Stowers (son of Hickman P. Stowers and Sarah (Sallie) Burton) on July 27, 1875 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104,436] Erastus G. and Mary I. were married by W. K. Green M.G. Parents are shown as P. Hickman & Sarah Stowers and Stephen & Malinda Lambert. Granger is shown at age 20 and Mary at age 24 on their application. Granger is shown as a farmer.

Erastus Granger Stowers[1138,104,619] was born on September 27, 1854 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[344,1811] Granger is the only Granger, E., E.G. or G. (other than George) Stowers living in Va. from 1850 trough 1870 to meet any of the criteria to be Mary's husband.

The home shown next to Erastus's name, is located several hundred yards up the side of Brushy Mountain behind the old farmhouse of Stephen Lambert's grandson, Stephen Greever Lambert. Legend says it was built on land given to newlyweds Mary Isabel Lambert and Erastus Stowers by her father Stephen Lambert. Mary and Erastus sold it to the Davis family upon their departure for Nebraska about 1892. (Thomas R. Harner 10/03)

He was a farmer from 1875 to 1891 in Bland Co., Virginia.[436] Erastus is shown as a farmer on his marriage license application.

He appeared in the census on June 5, 1880 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[1812] The 1880 census has Granger's family as: E.G. Stowers [laborer] a.23, Mary Jane a.39 [sic], Edward S. a.4 & Willie S. a.1. Mary's age is an entry error by the census taker. She would have been 29 in 1880.

He emigrated from Bland County Virginia between January 1891 and November 1892 to Cass or Nuckolls County Nebraska.[388]

He resided in December 1892 in Cass or Nuckolls County Nebraska.[388]

Early census records show Erastus being born about 1854. The family is shown living on 14th Street.

He resided on Chillicothe Pike in 1910 in Clay Twp., Scioto Co., Ohio.[1814]

He appeared in the census on May 9, 1910 in Clay Twp., Scioto Co., Ohio.[1815] The 1910 census has Erastus' family as: Erastus G. Stowers [farmer] a.55, Ella a.65 b.Indiana. The census shows that Erastus & Ella have both been married twice and their current marriage for 8 years.

He appeared in the census in June 1920 in Pee Pee Twp., Pike Co., Ohio.[1816] The 1920 census has Erastus' family as: Erastus Stowers [farmer] a.66 b.Va. f.m./b.Va. & Jane E. a. 76 b.Ohio f.m./b.Ohio. He is shown owning his own home with a mortgage.

He died on June 15, 1921 in Pee Pee Twp., Pike Co., Ohio.[1817] Erastus' parents are shown as Hickman Stowers & Sallie Burton on his death certificate. The informant was Mrs. Sarah May Lewis of Clarksburg Kentucky. Sarah is his daughter.

He was buried on June 17, 1921 in the Ridgeway Cemetery, Pee Pee Twp., Pike Co., Ohio.[1811]

Granger's given name is shown at home in 1860 as Granger E. On the birth records for Edward and William, he is shown as "E.G." and "E." respectively.

Mary Isabel Lambert and Erastus Granger Stowers had the following children:

+1738 i. Edward Oliver Stowers Sr. (born on April 10, 1876).

498. Nancy C. Hounshell (Henry B.-5, Henry-4, Louisa Lambert-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1858 in Wythe (Bland) Co., Virginia.[345,436]

The census shows John & Nancy being married for 28 years with Nancy having had 3 children with 3 alive in 1910.

Apparently John & Nancy adopt a nephew named Lester R. Hounshell. He appears as Lestie B. Hounshell [nephew] a.8 in 1910 and Lester R. Kimberling [son] a.18 in 1920.

Nancy C. Hounshell and John F. Kimberling had the following children:

Benjamin gives his birthplace as Virginia in the 1870 through 1900 census record. If he was born in Virginia, he must be the son of Richard Greer of Franklin County Va. His age, as shown in the 1870 thru 1900 record conflicts with the age of the Benjamin shown with Richard in 1850 by 5 years. There is another Benjamin F. Greer, son of Samuel & Jane Greer of Cannon & Fentress Counties Tenn. The age of their son matches the age given by Benjamin in the later censuses, but his birthplace is shown as Tennessee in both 1850 and 1860.

He was buried after November 23, 1924 in the Lambert Cemetery, Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2072]

Sebert's given name can be found with the spellings of Seabord, Sebird, Cebert. The Sebert spelling is used here because his cemetery marker shows him as S.E. Bussell.

The census shows Frank born in Virginia, with the birth place of his parents listed as "unknown." This would indicate that Frank may have been unsure of his birthplace, with his marriage taking place in Lee Co., Virginia. As no members of this family have been found after 1880, the family shown here for Frank & Sarah has not been confirmed. (4/05)

He died on August 2, 1918 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[258]

He was married to Sarah Jane Smith (daughter of Elijah Smith and Susan Roberts) on September 8, 1872 in Lee Co., Virginia.[2074] Franklin's parents are transcribed as D. & M. Lambert with Franklin born in Tennessee. Sarah Jane Smith was born in 1854 in Lee Co., Virginia.[2075,78] Sarah's father is probably Elijah Smith born about 1827. Her marriage record gives her father's given name initial as F., and her mother's as S., which corresponds with her mother shown here. If Elijah is her father, she had a brother named Moses, born about 1857 in Lee Co. Va. Elijah is present in Lee County in 1860 without a wife, but is shown born in Claiborne Co.

Tennessee. Both Sarah J. & Moses are present with Elijah in 1860. The parents shown here were married in Claiborne Co. Tenn. in Feb 1854.

He was married to Elizabeth Hayes on August 20, 1874 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2287] The date shown here is the license application date and my not be the correct marriage day. Elizabeth Hayes was born in 1859 in Tennessee.[818]

James Lambert and Elizabeth Hayes had the following children:

The age difference is the strongest indicator with Lizzie (Rachel) being 10 years older, as indicated in 1880 & 1910, not the 20 shown here.

He appeared in the census on April 21, 1910 in Campbell Co., Tennessee.[2291] The 1910 census has Benjamin's family as: Benjamin Lambert [coal miner] a.55, Rachel a.66, Billy Lambert [grandson] a.19. The three "grandsons" shown here are the sons of Benjamin's half-brother Samuel, who was living with his wife and family, including the boys shown here, in Campbell County in 1900. Samuel and his wife cannot be found in the 1910, 1920 or 1930 U.S. census records. If Samuel and his wife were deceased by 1910, Benjamin & Rachel may have adopted the boys as "grandsons." All three boys are found living in Campbell County in 1920 or 1930.

He was married to Elizabeth (Lizzie)(Rachel) Ledwell on January 2, 1879 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2292] Their application was made on 1 Jan. Elizabeth (Lizzie)(Rachel) Ledwell[2293] was born in May 1847 in Tennessee.[818,2288] Elizabeth's maiden surname is difficult to discern from the original marriage record. A direct transcription would probably be Ledwod or Ledwoel, but no such surnames are present, with any variation in spelling, in 1850, 1860, 1870 or 1880 Tennessee, except the surname Ledwell. This particular entry has been often transcribed as Ledwood, but without some confirmation from other resources, the more common surname spelling form Ledwell will be used here. The reader is advised to use their own research or transcription. The Claiborne County Cemetery transcription records lists only the surname Ledworth (with a single entry) that could be considered a possibility.

The 7 living children for Sarah, Crockett's 2nd wife, would include the 5 Rowlett children under 10 and the 2 Thomas children. The sex of the individual Carlie is present in 1900 as female.

He was buried after October 10, 1932 in the Harrogate Cemetery, Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2308] record. He is shown born in 1861 in the 1900 census record.

He appeared in the census on June 6, 1900 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2309] The 1900 census has Thomas' family as: Tom Ellison [farmer] a.39 b.May 1861, Elizabeth a.36 b.April 1864, China May a.18 b.Feb 1882, Lou Virgie a.13 b.Oct 1886, Jeremiah a.12 b.May 1888, Susie a.10 b.July 1889, Ida a.9 b.Nov 1890, Midia a.7 b.May 1893, Mary a.6 b.Nov 1893, Ira a.4 b.March 1896, Floyd a.3 b.Jan 1897 & Cread a.5/12 b.Jan 1900. The census shows Thomas & Elizabeth being married for 18 years with Elizabeth having had 12 children with 10 alive in 1900. Thomas is living 1 stop from his father Jeremiah (Jerry) Ellison in 1900.

He appeared in the census in May 1910 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2310] The 1910 census has Thomas' family as: Thomas E. Ellison [farmer] a.50, Liza a.27, Lellon [sic] a.4, Faye a.2, Susan a.18, Ida a.17, Meada a.16, Mary a.13, Ira a.12, Floyd a.11 & Cread a.10. He was married to Elizabeth Hatfield (daughter of Walter E. Hatfield and Mary (Polly) Hurst) on March 31, 1881 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2312] Elizabeth Hatfield was born in April 1864 in Tennessee.[838,818] Elizabeth's parents may be incorrect as shown here. The 1870 & 1880 census records are contradictory as to Elizabeth's identification. In 1870, the location inside the family that should be occupied by Elizabeth is listed as a son named James (age 6). In 1880 Elizabeth appears at age 16, listed as a daughter with other siblings shown with the correct given names and ages. If Elizabeth's middle name was Jane, it is possible that the enumerator incorrectly entered her as James in 1870, with the improper sex orientation. If she is not the daughter of Walter & Mary, she may be the daughter of Lynch & Hella (Hetty) Hatfield, as Lynch & Hella had a daughter named Elizabeth shown born about 1862 in the 1870 census record. Lynch does not appear in 1880, but Hella does appear without Elizabeth, living 1 stop from Walter & Mary Hatfield. (10/04)

The Claiborne County marriage record lists the participants as, Sarah E. Lambert to Solomon Ellis. The known Sarah Lamberts in Claiborne County in 1877 are previously married or of a different age group. The age of Solomon's wife is taken from the 1880 Claiborne County census record, where his wife is shown as Elizabeth, age 23. The given name, middle name combination of "Sarah Elizabeth" was among the most common of all name combinations used during the 19th century. The 1880 U.S. census record index for Solomon Ellis lists two individuals, with the 2nd located in Carter County Tenn. This 2nd Solomon Ellis has a wife named Sarah, with a birth year of 1840. This family is found in 1870 with the same wife and children (born before 1870) present in both censuses, eliminating them as the Solomon Ellis family shown in the 1877 Claiborne County marriage record.

She was married to James Solomon Ellis (son of John H. 826. Martha Lambert (Joseph Marion-5, Joseph Marion-4, Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in May 1862 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[236,838] The cemetery marker information used here, shows a (Mattie) Eastridge's birth date as 21 Sept 1862. The 1900 census data will be used here because of the uncertainty of the individual's identification buried in this location. She died on July 13, 1903 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[155] The death & burial information shown here is for a Mattie Eastridge, buried 10 graves from Martha's (Mattie's) husband Robert. Although the cemetery marker birth information does not correlate completely with the 1900 census record, this is probably the grave of Martha, as Mattie is the common 19th century nickname for Martha. She was buried after July 13, 1903 in the Cave Springs Cemetery, Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2323]

She was married to Robert Eastridge (son of Isaac Eastridge and Thursa A. Willis) on September 19, 1878 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2324] Robert Eastridge was born in February 1857 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[236,241,838]

He died in 1924.[155]

He was buried in 1924 in the Cave Springs Cemetery, Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2327] Robert's cemetery marker transcription gives 1924 as his death year. This may be an incorrect transcription as he is not found in either 1910 or 1920 censuses.

Martha Lambert and Robert Eastridge had the following children:

2258 i. Ida Eastridge was born in August 1879 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[818,838]

827. William Thomas Lambert[838,1009] (Joseph Marion-5, Joseph Marion-4, Peter-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on May 21, 1864 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[236,838,282] The 1870 census gives William's birth year as 1865.

He was married to Rebecca Jane Richardson (daughter of Rev. John Richardson and Louisa Jane Fergerson) on February 9, 1890 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[838,2333] William & Rebecca were married by Isaac A. Campbell M. G. Rebecca Jane Richardson was born on July 17, 1867 in Tennessee.[838,282] Rebecca's birth year is given as 1870 in the 1900 census. This is incorrect and her birth year taken from the 1870 census will be used here (1866). She died on December 11, 1950 in Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[2334] She was buried after December 11, 1950 in the Cave Springs Cemetery, Claiborne Co., Tennessee.[282]

He appeared in the census on April 8, 1930 in Orange Co., California.[2344]

The marriage for Margaret & Garrett is speculative, based upon their ages and location. Margaret is the only Margaret Lambert in Claiborne County during the period of this marriage. The 1930 census for Garrett & his 2nd wife Nancy indicates that he married Nancy in 1898 while his own 1st marriage took place about 1886 when Nancy was only 15 years old. With his second marriage taking place before 1900, Margaret would never appear with him in the census record. There are no children with Garrett in 1910 above the age of 10, indicating that there was no children from his marriage to Margaret.

Anecdotal stories state that Ira married John & Eliza's daughter Rosa. This cannot be true as she is shown on her marriage record to Jacob Rasnic in 1909 to be 24 years of age and single. Ira's marriage to Rosa is more improbable because in 1900 the oldest of Ira's children is shown born in 1892, at which time Rosa would have been only 7 years old. Her sister Rebecca is placed as Ira's wife because she would have been about 18 years old in 1892 and her other 2 eligible sisters marry other individuals. The marriage in 1913 of Ira's daughter Mary Penley, lists her parents as Ira & Rebecca Penley, validating the marriage shown here. Ira Thomas Penley was born in April 1870 in Scott Co., Virginia.[213,2633] Ira shows his birthplace as Tennessee in the 1900 census, but earlier census records show him born in Scott Co. Va. In 1880, his mother and older brother George are shown born in Tennessee while he and his younger siblings are all born in Virginia.

He appeared in the census on June 1, 1900 in Rocky Station Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[2634] The 1900 census has Ira and his children living with his in-laws John W. & Eliza Kirk Lambert. may be incorrect. There is a son named Peter shown anecdotally in Jacob & Rhoda's family and a son named John P. in 1870 and J.P. in the 1880 census records. It would be reasonable to assume that Jacob's first male child would be named after the paternal or maternal grandfathers, i.e., John (Rasnic) and/or Peter (Lambert). (8/04)

She died on April 5, 1905 in Lee Co., Virginia.[155] She was buried after April 5, 1905 in the Sword Family Cemetery, Lee Co., Virginia.[2700]

She was married to Ira Thomas Penley (son of Thomas E. Penley and Kessiah (Penley\mar)) on August 26, 1900 in Lee Co., Virginia.[2701] Ira is shown widowed and Rosa single. Rosa & Ira were married by W. W. Sage.

Ira Thomas Penley was born in April 1870 in Scott Co., Virginia.[213,2633] Ira shows his birthplace as Tennessee in the 1900 census, but earlier census records show him born in Scott Co. Va. In 1880, his mother and older brother George are shown born in Tennessee while he and his younger siblings are all born in Virginia.

He appeared in the census on June 1, 1900 in Rocky Station Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[2702] The 1900 census has Ira and his children living with his in-laws John W. & Eliza Kirk Lambert. He is shown as: Ira Penly [sic] [son-in-law] a.30 b.April 1870

Tenn., Corra Penly a.8 b.Mar 1892, John R. Penly a.5 b.May 1895 & Mary Penly a.3 b.Jan 1897. The children are shown as grandchildren and Ira is shown married for 1 year [sic].

The 1883 year will be used here as he is shown older than Loutitia in 1900. Other researchers have 1885 as his birth year.

He appeared in the census on April 21, 1910 in Rocky Station Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[2703] The 1910 census has William's family as: William M. Lambert Jr. [farmer] a.25, Rebecca a.22, Stella a.3 & Robert a.1. The census shows William and Rebecca being married for 6 years with Rebecca having had 3 children with 1 alive in 1910. The enumerator for this page has made an obvious error, as 3 consecutive families with multiple children shown, are marked with only one child living. It may be that the enumerator entered the number of children deceased rather than living, before noticing his error. William is the first entry on this census page with the following two families showing only one child alive. There are two William M. Lamberts on this census page with the "Jr." designation appearing as an apparent afterthought for William Marvin. This would be typical for census enumerators for this period with two "same-name" family heads on the same page, as William Marvin is shown as the youngest of the two entries.

He appeared in the census on January 21, 1920 in Rocky Station Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[2704] The 1920 census has William's family as: Marvin W. Lambert [farmer] a.36, Rebecca J. a.33, Stella a.13, Robt a.11, Fay [sic] a.9, Emma a.6 & Alonzo a.4 2/12.

Her husband William M. Lambert is living next door and shown widowed. The census shows Jake & Lila being married for 2 years with Lila having had 2 children with 2 alive in 1910. This would indicate that Claude is the child of another wife, but will remain in Jacob & Lila's family for clarity.

"Mary Viola Lambert and William Collie (Tigg) Bowman, met while working for "Van Camps Cannery" in Indianapolis, Indiana. He was a returning, injured WW I veteran and she had the long hair of his dreams. They eloped in Shawneetown, Illinois. They had quite an interesting life together. Tigg was a cooper by trade and was foreman for several logging camps, mostly in Kentucky and Tennessee. Mary was the cook for the entire logging camp. Mary said the loggers loved her fried apple pies and her popcorn balls (I know I did). Mary & Tigg owned and operated a tugboat/houseboat. This was a working boat that also housed their living quarters. Sometimes the family would sleep in a tent along the shore of the rivers that they traveled. They pulled flat boats filled with grains, lumber, cotton, fruits and nuts up and down the rivers of the Midwestern States. They also trolled for mussel shells to sell to the button companies. On one occasion, Mary was on the shore boiling mussel shells to clean them while the kids were playing on a cot in the tent next to the river. A storm blew in rapidly and the river began to rise. Mary shouted warnings, but Tigg just kept trolling and the river continued to rise. The tent and cot, filled with snakes, frogs and kids, went floating down river by the time Mary got to them.

Mary & Tigg had a serious disagreement, and Tigg sold the boat and moved the family to Indiana. While living in Indiana, they bought and sold several farms. They used the produce of the farm to support the family. Mary sold her quilts, eggs, fruits and vegetables in a roadside stand to help support the family. Mary Viola Lambert Bowman, was a loving, caring, and giving person. She loved her kids, grandkids and great grandkids. I am proud to have her as my grandparent." (Marva L. Bowman Wingard -granddaughter 2005)

(Compiler's note: Several of the Wythe Co. Va. Lambert descendants, living along the Ohio river and its tributaries in Illinois, Ohio, West Virginia & Kentucky, lived on or worked the type boat described in this story. They were normally homemade, sometimes unpowered and were called Shanty Boats. To travel upriver in the unpowered boats, they would "hitch" a ride on a powered vessel by attaching a rope or cable. The ride was usually provided free or at a minimal cost.)

He appeared in the census on April 5, 1930 in Bluefield, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[2776] The 1930 census has Walton's family as: S. Walton Neel [railway electrician] a.39, Martha a.37 & Billie Raten [niece] a.16.

He was married to Martha (Neel\mar) before 1930 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1193] Martha (Neel\mar) was born in 1893 in Virginia.[1193]

He appeared in the census on April 29, 1930 in Clear Fork Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[2778] The 1930 census has John's family as: John C. [sic] Neal [sic] [W&W R.R./electrician] a.42, Bessie a.40, Alice a.11, Raymond a.9, Pauline a.5, Edna a.3 & Jesse W. a.1. The census shows John & Vesta being married for 24 years. This is probably incorrect as John is still at home in 1910.

He was married to Vesta W. (Bessie) (Neel\mar) in 1916 in Virginia.[1570,1193] Vesta W. (Bessie) (Neel\mar) was born in 1896 in Virginia.[1570]

2813 i. Alice E. Neel was born in December 1919 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1570]

The surname Atkins in this family is shown as Adkins in the 1910 and 1930 censuses.

Regina Victoria (Jennie) Lambert and H. Granger Atkins had the following children:

2818 i. Henry H. Atkins was born in 1906 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1212]
2819 ii. Obel L. Atkins was born in 1909 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1212]

1071. Sarah Ann Lambert[104,1193] (Hiram (Herman)-5, John-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on November 18, 1870 in Bland Co., Virginia.[1138]

She was married to Henry P. Lambert (son of ?? unknown and Mary A. (Polly) Lambert) on September 7, 1890 in Bland Co., Virginia.[436] Henry & Sarah are 3rd cousins. Henry P. Lambert[436] was born in 1868 in Virginia.[345,104]

He appeared in the census on June 20, 1900 in Clear Fork Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[2781] The 1900 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert [day laborer] a.33 b.May 1867, Sarah A. a.30 b.Dec 1869, Adam B. a.7 b.April 1893, Eva L. a.4 b.Feb 1896, Joseph G. a.3 b.April 1897 & Alma P. a.1 b.June 1898. The census shows Henry & Sarah being married for 10 years with Sarah having had 5 children with 4 alive in 1900. Henry & Sarah are living within 8 stops of her parents in 1900.

He appeared in the census on May 11, 1910 in Clear Fork Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[2782] The 1910 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert [farmer] a.43, Sarah A. a.39, Adam B. a.17, Letie a.14, Alma P. a.11, Lessie B. a.8, Simon P. a.6, Hiram T. a.4, John H. a.2 & Rosa E. a.3/12. The census shows Henry and Sarah being married for 36 years.

Henry P. Lambert is shown with Mary A. and her parents Henry & Emaline Leedy Lambert in 1860. Placed here as the s/o Mary A. (Polly) Lambert, he would have been born when Emaline Leedy Lambert was about 53 years of age, making him her probable grandson and not a son. A Bland county marriage record for 1890 shows a Henry P. Lampert, age 21 being married to Sara A. Lampert, age 19. Sarah is shown with parents Hiram and Letitia. Henry's parents are listed as Polly A. Lampert. Because of the single parent listing, Henry P. will be placed as the illegitimate son of Henry and Emaline's daughter Mary A. (Polly). The Henry shown with Henry & Emaline and Mary A., is the only Henry Lampert/Lambert of this age period in Bland County in 1860. Henry P. & Mary A. are not found in 1870. This issue is further confused by the fact that Mary's sister Jane, also has a son named Henry, born 1868, living with her in 1880. It is probable that the two Henries are the same individual, with parental line unproven beyond the marriage record. Sarah Ann Lambert and Henry P. Lambert had the following children:

2820 i. Adam B. Lambert was born in April 1897 in Bland or Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1131]

He was married to Sarah Alice Kirby (daughter of James F. Kirby and Sarah Caroline (Callie) (Kirby\mar)) on December 25, 1893 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1189] Sarah Alice Kirby[1131] was born in July 1872 in Smyth Co., Virginia.[664,1131] Alice is shown at age 9 in 1880. The birth date shown here is an average of the 1900 and 1880 censuses.

1075. Mahala (Hala) Jane Lambert (Hiram (Herman)-5, John-4, Johann Heinrich (Henry II)-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on September 29, 1878 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104,2792,1131] Jane is shown 11 years old in the 1880 census, but at the bottom of the family order. The birth dates for Regina and Sarah are known from Bland County birth records.

She was married to Harrison Perdue in 1900 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1131] Harrison Perdue was born in May 1879 in Virginia.[1131] He appeared in the census on June 17, 1900 in Clear Fork Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[2793] The 1900 census has Harrison & Jane living with her parents.

She was married to Eli F. Lambert (son of John T. Lambert and Jane Rachel Havens) in 1900 in Virginia.[1131] Eli and Malinda are 3rd cousins. Eli F. Lambert was born in May 1878 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104,1131]

Lampert [farmer] a.32, Malinda a.28, Marvin a.5, Lena B. a.8, Lane [nephew] a.21 & Hiram [father] a.60. Hiram is assumed to be Malinda's father. Lane is probably the son of Eli's uncle Julane Dulaney & Elizabeth Leedy Lambert. This individual was named Julain and born in 1898. His father used the nickname Laney, making the name Lane shown here reasonable. If this is correct, Eli and Lane (Julain) would be 1st cousins.

He appeared in the census on January 17, 1920 in Mercer Co., West Virginia.[2797] The 1920 census has Eli's family as: Eli ?. Lampert [stationary engineer/paper mill] a.40, Malinda L. a.37, Lena a.18 & Marvin a.14.

The family shown here for Eli and Malinda may be incorrect. John F. Lambert is the only Lambert/Lampert family in Va. or W.Va. with a son Eli in 1880. Eli IS shown with the middle initial F in 1880, as is the case for this Eli in 1910. An individual named Hiram Lampert age 60 and shown as "father" living with Eli and Malinda in the 1910 census, raises doubt as to this individual's relationship to Eli or Malinda. In 1880 NO Hiram Lambert with a son named Eli, Elijah, etc. is found in Virginia or W. Va. The 1900 census has Hiram and Harriet Lambert living within walking distance of Eli and Malinda. It will be assumed that Hiram & Harriet Hopkins Lambert are the parents of Malinda until additional evidence shows otherwise. Malinda F. Lambert and Eli F. Lambert had the following children:

2854 i. Lena B. Lambert was born in 1902 in Tazewell Co., Va. or Mercer Co. West Virginia.[2794]
2855 ii. Marvin Lambert was born in 1905 in Tazewell Co., Va. or Mercer Co. West Virginia.[2794]

+2983	i.	Audrey Helen Harner (born on September 30, 1909).
+2984	ii.	Elmo Rudolph Harner (born on February 10, 1912).
+2985	iii.	Hazel Gray Harner (born on October 14, 1914).

1221. Mary A. Thompson[1370] (Barbara Lambert-5, Samuel-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on March 28, 1851 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[1273,1307]

She appeared in the census in 1900 in Ohio Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[2897] The 1900 census shows Mary having had 3 children with 3 alive in 1900. She is living with her mother, Barbara Lambert Thompson.

She appeared in the census on April 22, 1910 in Newark, Licking Co., Ohio.[2898] The 1910 census has Mary, age 59, living with her son George. She is shown born in Virginia. She is also shown with Stephen at age 61 [sic] and being born in Ohio with her parents born in Va. The censuses for George & Stephen were taken the same day in Newark.

She died on August 14, 1910 in Guyan Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[2899]

She was buried after August 14, 1910 in the Campbell Cemetery, Gallia Co., Ohio.[1307]

The spouse and children shown here for Mary is speculative. She is shown at home with her mother Barbara Lambert Thompson, under the surname Bright, in the 1900 census. She is also shown having had three children with 3 alive in 1900. The family shown here is based upon the fact that Mary was away from home in the 1880 census and is assumed married. The marriage record shown here would be of the correct location and timing. An all-name search of the U.S. 1880 census record reveals the family shown here as the most likely prospect for her family, based upon location (Mason Co., W. Va.) and ages of the individuals shown. It must be noted that Gallia Co., Ohio & Mason Co., W. Va. were "twin" counties for individuals living in either, especially for families living in the Gallipolis area, on both sides of the Ohio River. Her relationship to this family is further strengthened when her proposed son George has his mother, Mary E. (Thompson) Bright, age 59, living with him in 1910. (Thompson) - compiler's insert.

She was married to John A. Bright (son of John H. Bright and Emily (Bright\mar)) on December 11, 1871 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[1370] John A. Bright[1273] was born in 1852 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[2900,1317,1280] John's birth year is shown as 1850 in the 1860 census, but he is not present in the 1850 census record. He gives his age as 27 in June of 1880, making his birth year about 1852, which will be used here. He appeared in the census in 1880 in Hannon Twp., Mason Co., West Virginia.[2901] The 1880 census has John's family as:

John I. A. Bright [farm laborer] a.27 b.Ohio f.b.Va. m.b.Ohio, Mary E. a.28, Luvina E. a.8, Stephen A. a.7 & George H. a.5. He died before 1900 in Gallia Co., Ohio or Mason Co., West Virginia.[1273]

Mary A. Thompson and John A. Bright had the following children:

+2991 i. Luvina E. (Vina) Bright (born in 1872).
+2992 ii. Stephen A. Bright (born in September 1872).

She was married to Thomas Porter on July 5, 1874 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[388,1370] A letter from Nancy Lambert to her son Stephen, dated 1 Jan 1876, states that Alex Thompson's daughter Lucinda has married Tom Porter and lives in Jim Town Boyd County Ky. Thomas Porter[388] resided in January 1876 in Boyd Co., Kentucky.[388]

2994 i. Hellen Porter was born in February 1878 in Ohio.[1273]

1226. Phoebe Ann Thompson[1344] (Barbara Lambert-5, Samuel-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in February 1861 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[1278] Phoebe gives her birth year as 1864 in the 1900 census record. This is incorrect as earlier census records for her parents, and later census records for Phoebe, indicate the year is probably 1861.

She was married to Lorenzo D. Brumfield (son of Frank Brumfield and Malinda (Brumfield\mar)) on August 11, 1888 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[1370] Lorenzo D. Brumfield[1370] was born in April 1871 in Ohio.[1273]

He appeared in the census on June 14, 1900 in Guyan Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[2902] The 1900 census has Lorenzo's family as: Lorenzo Brumfield [farmer] a.29 b.April 1871, Phebe [sic] a.36 b.Feb 1864. Virgie a.11 b.April 1889, Nessy a.9 b.Nov 1890 & Robert H. a.8/12 b.Sept 1899. The census shows Lorenzo & Phoebe being married for 12 years with Phoebe having had 4 children with 4 alive in 1900.

He appeared in the census on April 20, 1920 in Guyan Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[2903] The 1910 census has Lorenzo's family as: Lorenzo D. The census shows William & Minnie being married for 11 years with Minnie having had 5 children with 5 alive in 1900.

He appeared in the census on April 16, 1910 in Guyan Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[2905] The 1910 census has William's family as: William M. He was married to Virginia Warden before 1878.[388] Stephen and Virginia's marriage is mentioned in a letter by Stephen's grandmother Nancy Johnston Lambert on 30 June 1878. She also states that they have a son named William Wayman by that date.

This may not be Paris' family, but with their ages and given names in 1880, and the fact that many of Paris' Lambert & Wolf uncles & aunts were living in Saline Mines Illinois in 1880, makes this family difficult to deny as Paris'. His uncle, Andrew Jackson Lambert and family, are living only 8 stops from Paris.

He appeared in the census on June 20, 1900 in Groveport, Madison Twp., Franklin Co., Ohio.[2914] The 1900 census has Paris' family as: George P. 3018	ii.	Fred Wolf was born in March 1880 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[392] With Fred's age in the 1880 census given as 3 months, he may have been born Gallatin Co., Illinois, not Mason Co., W. Va.
3019	iii.	Hattie L. Wolf was born in April 1886 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[2912]
+3020	iv.	Shirley A. Wolf (born in January 1888).

1236. Robert Alexander Wolf (Elizabeth (Betsy) Lambert-5, Samuel-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1863 in Virginia.[1297]

He was married to Mary E. Hardiman in May 1883.[388]

1238. Rhoda Jane Wolf (Elizabeth (Betsy) Lambert-5, Samuel-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1869 in Virginia.[1297]

She was married to James E. Buckner in May 1883.[388]

1240. Andrew J. (Dude) Lambert Jr. (Andrew Jackson-5, Samuel-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on December 20, 1864 in Buena Vista, Louis Co., Kentucky.[2922,599,2923] Andrew's death record shows his birthplace as W. Va., conflicting with the 1900 and 1910 censuses which show his birthplace as Kentucky. The death record lists the informant as Andrew's youngest child Ned. Andrew's death certificate also lists his birth year as 1865. 1864 is used here as the earlier 1st person year taken from the 1900 census. A letter dated Jan 1866, from Andrew Jr.'s uncle Ephraim Lampert to Ephraim's brother Stephen, states that he had "visited Andrew (Sr.) in Lewis County Kentucky last fall." He also states that "Andrew's 2nd wife has a young son." Buena Vista, Ky. is shown as his birth place in several documents, but no county is listed. As there are 5 Buena Vistas in Kentucky, the one located in Lewis County will be used as Andrew Jr's birth place. His birth year would also be 1864 if Ephraim had visited Andrew "last fall," (fall 1865) as Andrew Jr. was born on 5 December.

He appeared in the census on June 25, 1900 in Clendenin Twp., Mason County, West Virginia.[2924] The 1900 census has Andrew's family as: Andrew Lambert a.34 b.Ky. The children are all shown being born in W.Va. This record shows that Bettie & Andrew had been married 14 years (1886).

He appeared in the census on May 12, 1910 in Clendenin Twp., Mason County, West Virginia.[2925] The 1910 census has Andrew's family as: Andrew Lambert [Farmer] a.45 b.Ken. f.b. Virginia m.b. West Virginia, Bettie F. a.46 b.Missouri f.b.West Virginia m.b.West Virginia, Walter [Railroad laborer] a.19 b.West Virginia, John [Laborer] a.18 b.West Virginia, Lesta (Luster) [Laborer-Horne Work] a.16 b.West Virginia, Charlie [Farm laborer] a.14 b.West Virginia, Clyde [Farm laborer] a.12 b.West Virginia, Lillie F. a.10 b. West Virginia, Eugene a.8 b.West Virginia, George P. a.6 b.West Virginia and William a.4 b.West Virginia. Review of the 1900 & 1910 censuses show that Andrew's family was living in the same approximate location during this 10-year period, indicated by several other family surnames appearing on the nearby census sheets.

He appeared in the census on February 5, 1920 in Clendenin Twp., Mason County, West Virginia.[2926] The 1920 census has Andy's family as: Andy Lambert [farmer] a.56 b.Kentucky f.b.Va. m.b.W.Va., Eva a.40 b.W.Va. f.b.W.Va. m.b.W.Va., Farly (?) a.23, Eugene a.18, George P. a.16, Willie W. a.14, Lucille a.6 & Oretha Gardner [stepdaughter] a.16 b.W.Va. Living next to Andy is his daughter Lilly F. with her husband Ocean Gardner, s/o Eva, Andy's current wife.

He appeared in the census on April 12, 1930 in Robinson Dist., Mason Co., West Virginia.[2927] The 1930 census has Andrew's family as: Andrew Lambert [farmer] a.65 b.Ky. & Evaline a.50 b.W.Va. Andrew is living next to his daughter Lucille and husband Otto Murphy.

He died on February 5, 1955 in Hartford, West Virginia.[2928] Andrew's death record shows him widowed. Andrew's parent's names are shown "unknown" on his death certificate. Andrew's obituary in the 7 February 1955 Point Pleasant register reads: "Andrew Lambert, 90, of Hartford, whose survivors include 40 grandchildren and 46 great-grandchildren, died Saturday at his home. Mr. Lambert was born December 20, 1864 in Buena Vista, Ky. He was buried on February 8, 1955 in the Beale Chapel (Apple Grove) Cemetery, Point Pleasant, West Virginia.[2929] This cemetery is located on Rt. #2, Point Pleasant, W.Va.

Andrew is the individual named "Dude" Lambert, of Gallipolis Ferry, W.Va., in Andrew Lambert Sr's guardianship papers, as one of his next of kin. Clyde Lambert Jr., his grandson, also referred to him using the nickname "Dude." Andrew & Bettie (Doss) are each shown having been married one time in their 1910 census. Although Andrew Jr. is shown born before his father's marriage to Elizabeth Gardner, he is shown as her son by a deposition given by his father, Andrew Lambert Sr., to the military pension board in 1899.

He was married to Elizabeth (Bettie) Frances Doss (daughter of Charles Doss and Angeline (Doss\mar)) on March 20, 1886 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[2930] Elizabeth (Bettie) Frances Doss was born on February 11, 1864 in Chariton Co., Missouri.[2925,599]

She emigrated from the Shenandoah Valley, Va. before 1870 to Mason Co., West Virginia.[2931]

She appeared in the census on August 17, 1870 in Arbuckle Dist., Mason Co., West Virginia.[2932] The 1870 census has Betty (Elizabeth) living with the John K. Hambrick family as: John K. Hambrick [farmer] a.56 b.Va., Lucretia a.50 b.Va., Griffith J. a.22, Jas. ?? a.18, Emily L. a.14, George A. a.12, Elizabeth Doss a.6 b.W.Va. & Wm. Fisher [school teacher] a.33. All of the Hambrick children are shown born in Va. except George who was born in Ohio.

She appeared in the census in 1880 in Clendenin Twp., Mason County, West Virginia.[2933] The 1880 census has Betty living with the Robert Dabney family as: Robert Dabney [farmer] a.66 b.Va., Lucretia a.59 b.Va. & Betty Doss a.16 b.W.Va. Lucretia is assumed to be the same individual as was shown as John Hamerick's wife in the 1870 census because of her age and given name.

She died on September 2, 1911 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[2925,1307,389,599] The funeral home record does not identify the date (2 Sept) as the death, arrival or burial date. It also shows her age as 48 years. It also shows her born in Mason Co., W.Va., which is incorrect. Bettie's death record shows that she died from typhoid fever at 7:30 A.M.

A newspaper obituary on 7 September 1911, in the "Point Pleasant, Mason County W.Va. Republican" reads: "Mrs. Bettie Lambert after nursing her daughter Mrs. Ellis Chapman through a siege of typhoid fever, was stricken with the same dreaded disease and died after a few days illness. Mrs. Lambert was formerly Miss Bettie Frances Doss and was born in Chariton Co. Missouri Feb. 11, 1864, and was married to Andrew Lambert Mar 20, 1886, to their union was born 12 children, 7 boys and 5 girls 2 of whom are dead. She died Sept. 2 at the age of 47 years 6 months 21 days and was buried at Beale Chapel Cemetery Sept 3, 1911. The funeral services being conducted by Rev Joseph Norris. She was a good and noble woman a kind and devoted wife and a loving and affectionate mother. She leaves many friends and relatives to mourn her departure. Her. . ."

She was buried on September 3, 1911 in the Beale Chapel (Apple Grove) Cemetery, Point Pleasant, West Virginia.[1307,389,599]

Bettie is shown as "Elizabeth F." on the 1900 census & "Bettie F." on the 1910. The 1910 census shows Bettie having 12 children with 10 alive in 1910. If Bettie was born in Chariton County Missouri in 1864, she is provably the daughter of Charles & Angeline or Phillip & Jane Doss. They are the ONLY Doss families in Chariton county in 1860 who would have been of child bearing age in 1864. These families disappear from the census record in 1870 and 1880. The family shown here for Bettie is speculation and should be assumed only probable. There is no record of a Phillip (Philip) Doss serving during the Civil War. Charles & Philip are both the sons of Thomas & Elizabeth Doss and this family is found living in Mason County Va. (W.Va.) in 1850 with Charles & Philip at home. Bettie states that both of her parents were born in Virginia in the 1900 census record, Philip's wife was born in Missouri while Charles' wife Angeline is shown being born in Virginia. For this reason, Charles & Angeline are shown here as Bettie's parents.

Andrew J. (Dude) Lambert Jr. and Elizabeth (Bettie) Frances Doss had the following children:

+3026 i. Minnie B. Lambert (born on December 21, 1886).

+3027 ii. Edith Goldie (Bunt) Lambert (born on March 16, 1887).

+3028 iii. Walter Lambert (born on October 8, 1890).

+3030 v. Luster (Lusty) Lambert (born in March 1894).

+3032 vii. Clyde Herman (Shorty) Lambert (born on December 21, 1896).

He was married to Evaline (Eva) Barber on March 6, 1912 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[2929,2937] As Andrew's first wife Bettie Doss did not die until Sept 1911, this marriage record may have been transcribed incorrectly. The year 1912 will be used until the original record can be viewed. Evaline (Eva) Barber[2929,2938] was born in February 1876 in West Virginia.[2939,2934] Eva is shown as 40 years old in the Feb 1920 census. She died in June 1935.[2936] Eva's death year has not been confirmed. The surname Barber is shown as Barbert on several documents.

Andrew J. (Dude) Lambert Jr. and Evaline (Eva) Barber had the following children:

+3037 i. Lucille (Hun) Lambert (born on February 12, 1913).

He was married to Lucy Bonecutter after 1935.[2929]

1241. John Henry Lampert (Andrew Jackson-5, Samuel-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in July 1867 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[1298,1346] John gives his age as 22 on his marriage license and gives his birth date as July 1866 in the 1900 census. He is shown at age 2 in the 1870 census making a definitive year of birth difficult. The year 1867 will be used here as a compromise with his birth place being West Va. as shown in the 1900 census record.

He was a farmer about 1888 in Hardin Co., Illinois.[1346]

He appeared in the census on June 23, 1900 in Rock Creek Pct., Hardin Co., Illinois.[2940] The 1900 census has John's family as: John H. Lampert [farmer] a.33 b.July 1866 W.Va. f.b.W.Va. m.b.W.Va., Margaret E. a.33 b.Jan 1867 Ill. f.b.Tenn m.b.Ill., Henry H. a.7 b.Aug 1892, William E. a.3 b.May 1897 7 John A. a.1 b.April 1899. The census shows that Margaret has had 6 children, with 3 living in 1900.

He appeared in the census in 1920 in Rock Creek Pct., Hardin Co., Illinois.[2941] The 1920 census has John's family as: John H. Lampert [farmer] a.53, Margaret E. a.53, Henry H. a.27, William E. a.22, John A. a.20, Zenas F. a.18, Jesse J. a.17, Daniel J. a.15 & Andrew R. a.13.

He appeared in the census on April 12, 1930 in Battery Rock Pct., Hardin Co., Illinois.[2942] The 1930 census has John's family as: John H. Lampert [farmer] a.63, Margaret E. a.63 & Richard a.24. The census shows Jon & Margaret being married for 42 years.

He died after 1931 in Hardin Co., Illinois.[2943]

He was buried in the Mt. Zion Cemetery, Hardin Co., Illinois.[2943]

He was married to Margaret Ellen Winn (daughter of Thomas Francis Marion Winn and Millie Ann Frailey) on July 1, 1888 in Hardin Co., Illinois.[2944] The marriage record for John & Margaret shows his birth place as Cioto (Scioto) County Ohio. The Hardin County marriage register abstracts has John Henry marrying Margaret Ellen Winn. The marriage was performed by John B. Tucker, Minister of the Gospel, at the bride's home on 1 July 1888. John is shown as a farmer at age 22. John's father and mother are shown as Andrew & Sarah Gardner Lampert. There was another Hardin County marriage on this date between a Samuel Lambert and Sarah H. Henson. This Samuel was the son of Jack & Margaret Histon Lambert, a descendant of Benjamin Lambert of Virginia and Kentucky. Benjamin is found in Wythe and Russell Counties Virginia in 1810 and 1820 respectively. Margaret Ellen Winn[1346] was born in January 1867 in Illinois.[1319]

She died after 1906 in Hardin Co., Illinois.[2943]

She was buried after 1906 in the Mt. Zion Cemetery, Hardin Co., Illinois.[2943]

He appeared in the census on June 14, 1900 in Hannon Twp., Mason Co., West Virginia.[2946] The 1900 census has Edward's family as: Edward LamPert [farm laborer] a.22 b.Sept 1877 W.Va. f.b. W.Va. m.b. W.Va., Lizzie a.16 b.Dec 1883 W.Va. f.b.W.Va. m.b.W.Va. & Ethel M. a.7/12 b.Oct 1899 W.Va.

He appeared in the census on January 13, 1920 in Delaware, Delaware Co., Ohio.[2947] The 1920 census has Edward living with the Hugh Christ family as Edward Lambert [boarder] a.44 b.W.Va. f.b.W.Va. m.b.W.Va. This may not be Edward son of Andrew J., but this is the only Edward Lambert of the correct approximate age and birth place in both Ohio and W.Va. to be Edward, son of Andrew J. This Edward is living next to Garret C. Lambert, age 36, born W.Va.

He resided on West Poplar Street in April 1930 in Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2948]

He appeared in the census on April 19, 1930 in Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2949] The 1930 census has Edward's family as: Edward Lambert [laborer] a.51 b.Va. & Sallie a.49 b.Ohio. Ed & Sallie are both shown as laborers in a steam laundry.

He died on March 30, 1935 in the White Cross Hospital, Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2935,2950,2951] Edgar died from pneumonia, developed while recovering from stab wounds. Edward was stabbed while chasing a woman who stole his wallet while shopping. The woman ran up the rear steps of a home, recovered a knife from inside the home, and stabbed Edward several times while he was climbing the stairs. He also sustained a broken left humerus [sic] during the attack. His wife Sally L. Lambert is named as the informant on the death certificate. Edward is shown as a farmer on the death record and being born in West Virginia with parents Andrew Lambert & unknown. An autopsy was performed and the death recorded as a homicide. The woman who attacked Edward was never prosecuted.

He appeared in the Columbus Citizen death notices on April 1, 1935 in Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2952] His death notice reads: Edward Lambert, 50, 1103 Mt. Pleasant Av, March 30.

She died on June 25, 1970 in Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2955] This may not be Sallie, the wife of Edward. Her surname is spelled Lumbert on the death record.

She was buried on June 30, 1970 in the Union Cemetery, Olentangey Rd, Columbus, Ohio.[2956] Lambert family anecdotal information states that Sally was much younger than Edgar. Sallie worked at the Lazarus Co. in Columbus Ohio as a seamstress. Sallie's maiden name is taken from the death certificate of Herald Franklin Blizzard. He has not been confirmed as the son of Sallie and her first husband, as her first husband's given name has not been determined. (1/2002) She was always known as Sallie "Blizzard" to Lambert family and friends, with her surname taken from a previous marriage.

1246. Nancy L. (Nannie\Nan) Lambert[2931] (Andrew Jackson-5, Samuel-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on July 24, 1880 in Hogsett, Mason Co., West Virginia.[2957,2958,599]

She resided about 1950 in Yellow Springs, Greene Co., Ohio.[2931]

She was a member of the Cedarville Church of God before 1963 in Clifton, Clark Co., Ohio.[599]

She died on September 2, 1963 in Springfield, Clark Co., Ohio.[2958,599] Nan's obituaries state: ". . . survivors include. . . a half brother, Gideon Lambert of Grove City [sic]. . ." and ". . .was the daughter of Andy and Elizabeth Gardner Lambert. . ." Nan's death certificate also gives Andy Lambert & Elizabeth Gardner as her parents. The informant on the death record was her daughter Clemma Sanders, Clifton Ohio. She is shown widowed. Her place of usual residence was listed as North Street, Clifton, Greene Co., Ohio.

She was buried on September 5, 1963 in the Clifton Cemetery, Clifton, Greene Co., Ohio.[2958,599]

She was married to John E. Cornell (son of Peter Cornell and Eliza Jane (Cornell\mar)) on October 22, 1898 in Crown City, Gallia Co., Ohio.[2931,1370,599] John E. Cornell[2931] was born on February 11, 1871 in Gallia Co., Ohio.[2957,1273,1344] John's death certificate shows his birth year as 1869. The 1880 & 1900 census birth year is used here.

He appeared in the census on June 25, 1900 in Ohio Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[2959] The 1900 census has John's family as: John Cornell [farm laborer] a.29 b.Feb 1871 Ohio/f.b.Ohio/m.b.Ohio, Nannie E. a.21 b.Oct 1878 W.Va./f.b.W.Va./m.b.W.Va. & Clarence E. a.10/12 b.July 1899 W.Va. He appeared in the census in 1910 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[2925] The 1910 census has John's family as: John E. Cornell [farm laborer] a. 40 b. Ohio, Nannie a.32 b.W.Va./f.b.W.Va./m.b.W.Va., Clarence a.10 b.W.Va., Clemma a.8 b.Ohio & William a.7 b.W.Va. John and Nan were 2 stops from her 1/2 brother Andrew Lambert Jr. in this census. They were also living next to a Charles L. Nibert. This may be the brother of Sarah Pritchard's (Nan's father, Andrew Lambert's 3rd wife) first husband Allen Nibert. Charles is shown at home with his mother in 1880.

He appeared in the census on January 24, 1920 in Cedarville, Greene Co., Ohio.[2960] The 1920 census has John's family as: John E. Cornell [farm laborer] a.49 b.Ohio, Nannie E. a.40 b.W.Va., Clarence E. a.20, Samuel W. a.17 & Clyde Lambert [nephew] a.23.

+3046 i. Clarence Edgar Cornell (born on July 22, 1899).

+3047 ii. Clemma Cornell (born in 1902).

3048 iii. William Samuel Cornell[599] was born in 1903 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[2925,2957] He resided in August 1944 in Yellow Springs, Greene Co., Ohio.[599] He resided in September 1963 in Grove City, Ohio.[599]

1247. Minnie Josephine (Josie) Lambert (Andrew Jackson-5, Samuel-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on August 9, 1883 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[1344,1307,2525]

She appeared in the census on June 2, 1900 in Cheshire Twp., Gallia Co., Ohio.[2961] She is shown being born in Sept 1883 and working as a servant for the James W. Vanzant (Vangart?) family.

She appeared in the census in 1910 in Marion, Smyth Co., Virginia.[2962] Josephine is shown in this census as Josephine Collier age 26, born Va. She is shown as a "patient" but the institution is not shown. This may not be our Josephine Lambert.

She was a housewife in 1916.[2525]

She resided on Garfield Avenue in September 1916 in Gallipolis, Gallia Co., Ohio.[1307]

She died on September 22, 1916 in Gallipolis, Gallia Co., Ohio.[2963,2964] Her funeral records show her father as Andrew Lambert/b. W.Va., and her mother as Sarah Elizabeth Pritchard/b.Gallia Co., Ohio and her age as 33y, 1m & 13dys. Her death record shows the same information. The informant for Minnie's death record was her 1/2 sister Alice Nibert/Martindale. Minnie died from Typhoid fever. Minnie died with the surname Collier and is shown as married. No given name for her husband is shown.

She was buried on September 24, 1916 in the Mound Hill Cemetery, Gallia Co., Ohio.[1307,2525]

She was married to Charles Brenheiser before 1909.[1341] Charles Brenheiser died on August 29, 1937 in Montgomery Co., Ohio.[2965] The death record shown here may not be Charles. (9/03)

Minnie Josephine (Josie) Lambert and Charles Brenheiser had the following children:

+3049 i. Geneva Elizabeth (Jean) Brenheiser (born on February 12, 1909).
+3050 ii. Clara Brenheiser.
3051 iii. Viola Brenheiser[1341]. Viola may have married a Brinker.
+3052 iv. Orville Brenheiser (born in 1914).

She was married to ?? Collier before September 1916.[1307,2525]

1248. Gideon Emanuel Lambert (Andrew Jackson-5, Samuel-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on July 28, 1885 in Mason Co., West Virginia.[2966] Although a birth record for Rose, Gideon's sister, is on record in Mason County W.Va., a review by the County Clerk's office reveals that no birth record of the other children of Andrew and Sarah Pritchard Lambert was ever recorded in the 1880 to 1903 birth record log book.

He is absent from the census record in 1910 in Canal Winchester, Franklin Co., Ohio.[1333] Gideon is not found in the 1910 census record, and placing him in Canal Winchester at that time is based upon anecdotal stories related by Gideon to his children. He states that he was working as a farm laborer for John W. & Kate Bickel for a time before and after his marriage to Ruth Nieberlein in 1911. The 1910 census record shows that Ruth's family is living on Winchester Pike outside Canal Winchester. In the same record, John Bickel is living on Cable Road which intersects Winchester Road. Family anecdotal information states that the Bickel and Nieberlein homes were located "around the corner" from each other. Living next to John & Kate Bickel is Gideon's mother Sarah and stepfather John Giberson, accompanied by Gideon's brother Charles. As Gideon would have been working for John Bickel at that time, it must be assumed that Gideon was also living with the Giberson's, explaining his presence in Canal Winchester, Franklin County in 1910 and his future relationship with his wife Ruth Nieberlein. His absence from this census is not unusual if he were detained elsewhere at the time of the enumeration. In later years Gideon always referred to "Dad" Giberson in endearing terms, leaving little doubt as to his location in 1910, and explaining his move to Canal Winchester, Ohio from Cincinnati prior to his marriage to Ruth.

He resided in December 1911 in Canal Winchester, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2967]

He was a farm laborer in 1920 in Franklin Co., Ohio.[2968]

He appeared in the census in 1920 in Groveport, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2969] The 1920 census has Gideon's family as: Gideon E. Lambert a. 34 b. W.Va., Anna R. a. 24 b. Ohio, Elmer G. a. 7 b. Ohio, Mary E. a. 5 b. Ohio, Margaret H. a. 3 b. Ohio and Gertrude L. a. 5/12 b. Ohio.

He was employed by the Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. between 1923 and 1955 in the Walnut Electric Power Plant, Groveport, Ohio.[99]

He appeared in the census on April 5, 1930 in Groveport, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2970] The 1930 census has Gideon's family as: Gideon E. Lambert [Belt repair/Electric Power Plant] a.44 b.W.Va., Ruth A. a.34 b.Ohio, Elmer G. a.18 b.Ohio, Gertrude L. a.11 b.Ohio, John J. a.8 b.Ohio & Betty R. a.5 b.Ohio. The census shows Gideon owning property valued at $4000 and the family residing on Main St.

He was employed by the Groveport Board of Education as a custodian between 1955 and 1958 in the Groveport Elementary/High School.[99]

He died on March 27, 1977 in the Alum Creek Rest Home, Columbus Ohio.[1059,99,2971] Gideon's death was due to cardiopulmonary failure.

He was buried on March 29, 1977 in Union Grove Cemetery, Canal Winchester, Ohio.[99,1332]

He was married to Ruth Anna Nieberlein (daughter of John Nieberlein and Ann Mary Boeshansz) on December 27, 1911 in Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2966] Gideon & Ruth were married by Rev. Schneider. Ruth was given in consent by her father John Nieberlein.

Ruth Anna Nieberlein was born on July 30, 1895 in Canal Winchester, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2967,2966] She resided at home in December 1911 in Canal Winchester, Franklin Co., Ohio.[2972] She died on May 6, 1989 in the Alum Creek Rest Home, Columbus Ohio.[1059,99,2935] She was buried on May 8, 1989 in Union Grove Cemetery, Canal Winchester, Ohio.[2935]

Ruth appears as Ruth Anna and also Anna Ruth in various public documents. Because she appears at home in the 1900 census at age 4 as Ruth A., and it is the earliest public document, she will be shown here as Ruth Anna.

Gideon Emanuel Lambert and Ruth Anna Nieberlein had the following children:

+3053 i. Elmer Gideon Lambert (born on February 20, 1912).

+3054 ii. Mary Elizabeth Lambert (born on January 28, 1914).

Margaret Helen Lambert[2525] was born on September 1, 1916 in Franklin Co., Ohio.[2966] She died on December 14, 1921 in Franklin Co., Ohio.[2973] Margaret died from pneumonia in Radium (Mercy) Hospital. She was buried after December 14, 1921 in Union Grove Cemetery, Canal Winchester, Ohio.[99]

+3056 iv. Gertrude Louise Lambert (born on August 11, 1919).

John J. Lambert was born on December 25, 1921 in Franklin Co., Ohio.[2935] He died on December 14, 1930 in Franklin Co., Ohio.[2974] John died at home from Hodgkin disease, which had been diagnosed about 1927. He was buried on December 16, 1930 in Union Grove Cemetery, Canal Winchester, Ohio.[2525] John's middle initial J. is used as a middle initial only and was never meant to stand for any name(Gideon Lambert).

+3058 vi. Betty Ruth Lambert (born on August 10, 1924).

1311. Ephraim Stewart Lambert (Eli-5, Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1866 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[699,3071]

He appeared in the census on June 23, 1900 in Hogtown Dist., Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3072] The 1900 census has Stewart's family as: Stewart Lambert [farmer] a.34 b.Mar 1866 Ky., Sarah J. a.25 b.1875 Ky., Burl a.5 b.June 1894, Alex a.3 b.Dec 1896, Eli a.1 b.May 1899, Lydia (Sarah) Jackson [mother-in-law] a.60 b.May 1899 Ky. & Millbourne Deow?? [boarder] a.17 b.1883 Ky. Sarah's mother's given name is problematical as the writing is extremely difficult to transcribe.

He appeared in the census in 1910 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3073] The 1910 census has Stewart's family as: Stewart Lambert a.43, Sarah J. a.35, Burl a.16, Alex a.13, Eli a.11, William a.9, John a.7, Rosa a.5 & Dock a.2. He died in 1943 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3071]

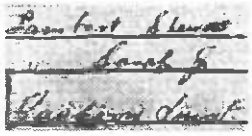
He was buried in 1943 in the Lambert Cemetery Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3071]

He was married to Sarah J. Jackson (daughter of William H. Jackson and Lydia H. Amyx) in 1891 in Kentucky.[1458,3075,3066]



Sarah J. Jackson[3076,3075] was born about 1874 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3071,3077,3078] Sarah's birth year on her cemetery marker (1874) conflicts with her age shown in the 1900 (1875) census. The marker year will be used here as it correlates with her age in 1880 as the child of William & Lydia Jackson.

She resided from November 29, 1918 to May 2, 1921 in Lexington, Fayette Co., Kentucky.[3079]

She appeared in the census on January 16, 1920 in Fayette Co., Kentucky.[3080] The 1920 census has a Sarah Lambert as a patient in the Kentucky Eastern State Hospital as Sarah Lambert [patient] a.44 b.Kentucky. The 1921 death record for this patient shows her place of residence as Rowan County Kentucky.

She died on May 2, 1921 in Lexington, Fayette Co.. Kentucky.[1458,3076,3081,3082,3083] Finding Sarah's death date & record has met with extreme difficulties. Her cemetery marker shows 1921. A Fayette County death record has been found for a Sarah Lambert, who died in the Eastern State Hospital in Lexington Ky. on 2 May 1921, at age 43. This individual is shown on the 1920 census in this location at age 44, and lists herself and her parents all being born in Kentucky. This correlates with the 1900 & 1910 census record for Stewart's wife Sarah. If Stewart's wife was confined in an asylum, it would not be unusual for a husband to list himself widowed (as Stewart did) on the 1920 census record, as the census enumerator would normally ask her location if she were not at home. This compiler has found a member of another non-Lambert family being shown "in prison" on another 1920 census record, indicating the type of questions that might have been asked by the census enumerators during this time period. In 1920, being placed in an asylum was considered a subject that was not normally discussed freely inside or outside the family. Her death record shows that her death was due to Pellagra, which is often caused by severe mental depression and might have been the result of a diseases like PPD, a condition recognized only late in the 20th century. Sarah's admission to the Eastern State Hospital 15 months after the birth of her last child Jesse, raises the question of "coincidence." Having Stewart list her as deceased on the 1920 census, while actually being confined in an asylum, would not be outside the normal reaction for a husband in 1920. This is predicated upon the assumption that this individual "may" be Stewart's wife. If the above predicate is correct, this would explain her cemetery marker listing her death year as 1921, there being no Rowan County death record (required by State law in 1920) and Stewart listing her as deceased in the 1920 census. The death record for the individual in Fayette County in 1921, gives no names of parents or spouse, but does give her marital status as "married" and residing in Rowan County, making the probability that this is Stewart's wife extremely high. The 1900 & 1910 censuses for Rowan County Lambert's, lists ONLY Stewart's wife Sarah as meeting any criteria (name,age & location) for the individual shown in this death record. (7/03)

She was buried after May 2, 1921 in the Lambert Cemetery Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3071]

In the 1900 census, Sarah's mother's is living with Sarah & Stewart, but her given name is problematical as the writing is extremely difficult to transcribe. The 1880 Kentucky "all-name" census has been reviewed and it is probable that Sarah's mother's given name is either Sarah or Lydia. This is based upon the fact that in the 1900 census, Stewart's wife Sarah Jackson and her mother (living with Stewart & Sarah), are both shown born in Kentucky. The 1880 census reveals only 2 families that meet the general criteria of age and given names for a mother & daughter, among all the Jackson families living in Kentucky. The first family is the William & Lydia M. Amyx Jackson family of Rowan County, and the 2nd is the James and Sarah Jackson family of Knox County. Both families have advantages and disadvantages for their placement as Sarah J.'s parents. Both have daughters named Sarah, but the William & Lydia Jackson family of Rowan county, list their daughter Sarah's given name as Sarah E. at age 7, born 1873, whereas Stewart's wife uses the middle initial J. on both the 1900, 1910 censuses and her cemetery marker. This is not remarkable as many wives in the 19th & early 20th centuries adopted the first letter of their maiden surname as their middle initial. Many modern researchers have commented that this was an early form of "self" identification after marriage.

The James and Sarah Jackson family of Knox county, have their daughter Sarah as Sarah J. at age 2, born 1878. As Stewart's wife gives her birth year as 1875 in 1900 and 1910, neither of the above two children have a preferable match with the 1900 or 1910 census birth year. The fact that Sarah J. does not indicate her birth month in the 1900 census, indicates that either of the above children could match, within normal census deviation for both given names and ages. Her mother's given name appears to be, to this compiler, more closely written as Lydia than Sarah in 1900. The fact that William & Lydia are the ONLY Jackson family in Rowan County in 1870 and 1880, offsets the middle initial name advantage of the James & Sarah Jackson family in Knox county. Neither of the two above proposed parental families appear in either Knox or Rowan counties in 1900. As Sarah J.'s mother is shown widowed in 1900, finding the possible "missing" father by picking from the 80+ James & William Jackson families in 1900 Kentucky, poses an extremely difficult task. Sarah's presumed death record in Fayette county does not give the names of the parents. An enlargement of Sarah's mother's given name, as shown in the 1900 census, is posted in this database in the location normally used for Sarah's individual photo. Correct transcription of this name (Sarah or Lydia) is crucial in determining Sarah's J.'s parents. The fact that the Fayette county death record lists her birth year as "about" 1878, does little in making this determination. Comparing the 1900 given name for Sarah's mother with other names beginning with S on the same census page, show the loops in the handwriting for the first letter do not form the same rotational direction when compared with the other names, including Stewart and his wife Sarah. Review of the 1900 census index for Rowan County, shows that the original index transcribers believed that the individual living with Stewart as a "mother/law," transcribed the name as Lena Jackson. This would fortify the "path of least resistance" approach for determining Sarah's parents as being William & Lydia Jackson, based upon the given name first letter "L." This being the only Jackson family in Rowan county in 1880, shortly after Sarah's birth, provides some degree of comfort for this determination. The lack of an 1890 U.S. census prolongs this conundrum.

Ephraim Stewart Lambert and Sarah J. Jackson had the following children:

1315. John Henry Lambert[3093] (Eli-5, Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on January 4, 1874 in Elliott Co., Kentucky.[700,1459] The parents for John H. are shown as Eli Lambert and Elvina Catron on his birth record.

He appeared in the census on June 20, 1900 in Moccasin Twp., Elliott Co., Kentucky.[690] The 1900 census has John's wife & children living with his in-laws, James & Elizabeth Kins(t)er, as: Becky Jane Kinser a.25 b.May 1875, John Lambert [grandson] a.3 b.Sept 1896 & Mary Lambert [granddaughter] a.2 b.May 1898. John's family, as shown in the 1900 census, shows that he was apart from his family on the day of the census. In the 1900 census record, Rebecca, would have been pregnant with John & Rebecca's 3rd child Willie, who was born in late 1900 or early 1901. Rebecca's mother, Elizabeth Kinser is shown in 1900 as having had 7 children, with 7 alive in 1900. ALL seven children, including Rebecca, are listed on this 1900 census sheet. Rebecca is probably shown as "Becky Jane Kinser," after the census taker was told that Becky (Rebecca) was a "daughter." In 1910, Rebecca's husband, John H. Lambert. is shown at home alone with his parents, and his children, Mary & Willie Lambert, are still living with Rebecca's parents Jacob & Elizabeth Kinser. Rebecca has not been found in 1910, but is at home with her mother in 1920 as Becky Lambert. Mr. Wardson Lambert, the grandson of John's brother Ephraim Stewart Lambert, commented in 2003, that many of the male Lambert family members living in Kentucky, were often away from home during the early part of the 20th century, working in West Virginia. On occasion, the wives would accompany their husbands on these "work" trips, explaining why Wardson was born in West Virginia. This may also explain John's absence in 1900 census record.

Augustus Eli (Alex)(Gus) Lambert and Amanda Avolena (Lena) Baumgardner had the following children:

3242 i. Clara Ruth Lambert[3125] was born on October 12, 1915 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1193,3125] She died on February 21, 1980 in Oxford, Granville Co., North Carolina.[3125] Clara may not be the daughter of Augustus. (7/04)

3243 ii. male Lambert was born on August 31, 1919 in Ceres, Bland Co., Virginia.[3125] He died on August 31, 1919 in Ceres, Bland Co., Virginia.[3125] He was buried after August 31, 1919 in Ceres, Bland Co., Virginia.[3125]

3244 iii. St Clair Lewis Lambert was born on July 24, 1920 in Ceres, Bland Co., Virginia.[1193,3125] He died on November 27, 1983 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[98] He was buried on November 30, 1983 in the Burkes Garden Lutheran Church Cemetery, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3125]

3245 iv. Amos Eugene (Gene) Lambert was born in February 1922 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1193,3125] He died on January 10, 2004 in Lynchburg, Virginia.[3125] He was buried on January 17, 2004 in the Burkes Garden Lutheran Church Cemetery, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3125]

3246 v. Sallie Kate Lambert was born on April 13, 1923 in Ceres, Bland Co., Virginia.[3125] She died on April 27, 1925 in Ceres, Bland Co., Virginia.[3125]

3247 vi. Herbert Eli Lambert was born on November 10, 1930 in Burkes Garden, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3125] He died on October 2, 1996 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3125] He was buried after October 2, 1996 in the Burkes Garden Lutheran Church Cemetery, Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3125]

1326. Eli F. Lambert (John T.-5, Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in May 1878 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104,1131]

He appeared in the census on June 5, 1900 in Clear Fork Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3130] The 1900 census has Eli's family as: Eli Lampert a.22 b.May 1878 & Malinda F. a.19 b.Nov 1881. They are shown being married for 0 years with no children.

He appeared in the census on May 12, 1910 in Mercer Co., West Virginia.[3131] The 1910 census has Eli's family as: Eli F. Lampert [farmer] a.32, Malinda a.28, Marvin a.5, Lena B. a.8, Lane [nephew] a.21 & Hiram [father] a.60. Hiram is assumed to be Malinda's father. Lane is probably the son of Eli's uncle Julane Dulaney & Elizabeth Leedy Lambert. This individual was named Julain and born in 1898. His father used the nickname Laney, making the name Lane shown here reasonable. If this is correct, Eli and Lane (Julain) would be 1st cousins.

He appeared in the census on January 17, 1920 in Mercer Co., West Virginia.[3132] The 1920 census has Eli's family as: Eli ?. Lampert [stationary engineer/paper mill] a.40, Malinda L. a.37, Lena a.18 & Marvin a.14.

The family shown here for Eli and Malinda may be incorrect. John F. Lambert is the only Lambert/Lampert family in Va. or W.Va. with a son Eli in 1880. Eli IS shown with the middle initial F in 1880, as is the case for this Eli in 1910. An individual named Hiram Lampert age 60 and shown as "father" living with Eli and Malinda in the 1910 census, raises doubt as to this individual's relationship to Eli or Malinda. In 1880 NO Hiram Lambert with a son named Eli, Elijah, etc. is found in Virginia or W. Va. The 1900 census has Hiram and Harriet Lambert living within walking distance of Eli and Malinda. It will be assumed that Hiram & Harriet Hopkins Lambert are the parents of Malinda until additional evidence shows otherwise.

He was married to Malinda F. Lambert (daughter of Hiram (Herman) Lambert and Harriett Letitia (Lettie) Hopkins) in 1900 in Virginia.[1131] Eli and Malinda are 3rd cousins. Malinda F. Lambert[2794] was born in November 1881 in Virginia.[1131] Eli F. Lambert and Malinda F. Lambert had the following children:

2854 i. Lena B. Lambert (born in 1902).

1328. Henry P. Lambert[436] (Mary A. (Polly) Lambert-5, Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born in 1868 in Virginia.[345,104]

He appeared in the census on June 20, 1900 in Clear Fork Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3133] The 1900 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert [day laborer] a.33 b.May 1867, Sarah A. a.30 b.Dec 1869, Adam B. a.7 b.April 1893, Eva L. a.4 b.Feb 1896, Joseph G. a.3 b.April 1897 & Alma P. a.1 b.June 1898. The census shows Henry & Sarah being married for 10 years with Sarah having had 5 children with 4 alive in 1900. Henry & Sarah are living within 8 stops of her parents in 1900.

He appeared in the census on May 11, 1910 in Clear Fork Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3134] The 1910 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert [farmer] a.43, Sarah A. a.39, Adam B. a.17, Letie a.14, Alma P. a.11, Lessie B. a.8, Simon P. a.6, Hiram T. a.4, John H. a.2 & Rosa E. a.3/12. The census shows Henry & Sarah being married for 20 years with Sarah having had 10 children with 9 alive in 1910.

He appeared in the census on March 2, 1920 in Clear Fork Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3135] The 1920 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert [farmer] a.50, Sallie a.46, Adam B. a.24, Peary [sic] a.20, Lessie a.18, Simond [sic] P. a16, Hiram T. a.14, John H. a.12, Rosa E. a.10, Mary L. a.6 & William C. a.4 5/12.

He appeared in the census on April 15, 1930 in Clear Fork Dist., Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3136] The 1930 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert [laborer on farm] a.58, Sarah Ann a.54, Adam B. a.36, Lessia Bell a.26, Simon P. a.25, Hiram T. a.24, John Herm a.21, Rosa E. a.20, Mary L. a.15 & Wm. ???? a.14. The census shows Henry and Sarah being married for 36 years.

Henry P. Lambert is shown with Mary A. and her parents Henry & Emaline Leedy Lambert in 1860. Placed here as the s/o Mary A. (Polly) Lambert, he would have been born when Emaline Leedy Lambert was about 53 years of age, making him her probable grandson and not a son. A Bland county marriage record for 1890 shows a Henry P. Lampert, age 21 being married to Sara A. Lampert, age 19. Sarah is shown with parents Hiram and Letitia. Henry's parents are listed as Polly A. Lampert. Because of the single parent listing, Henry P. will be placed as the illegitimate son of Henry and Emaline's daughter Mary A. (Polly). The Henry shown with Henry & Emaline and Mary A., is the only Henry Lampert/Lambert of this age period in Bland County in 1860. Henry P. & Mary A. are not found in 1870. This issue is further confused by the fact that Mary's sister Jane, also has a son named Henry, born 1868, living with her in 1880. It is probable that the two Henries are the same individual, with parental line unproven beyond the marriage record.

He was married to Sarah Ann Lambert (daughter of Hiram (Herman) Lambert and Harriett Letitia (Lettie) Hopkins)on September 7, 1890 in Bland Co., Virginia.[436] Henry & Sarah are 3rd cousins. Sarah Ann Lambert[104,1193] was born on November 18, 1870 in Bland Co., Virginia.[1138] Henry P. Lambert and Sarah Ann Lambert had the following children:

2820 i. Adam B. Lambert (born in April 1897).
2821 ii. Eva Letitia (Lettie) Lambert (born in February 1896).
2822 iii. Joseph G. Lambert (born in April 1897).
+2823 iv. Alma Perry Lambert (born in June 1898).
2824 v. Lessie Bell Lambert (born in 1902).
2825 vi. Simon P. Lambert (born in 1904).
2826 vii. Hiram T. Lambert (born in 1906).
2827 viii. John Henry Lambert (born in 1908).
2828 ix. Rosa E. Lambert (born in February 1910).
2829 x. Mary L. Lambert (born in 1914).

1330. Martha Rebecca Lambert[436] (James Augustus (Gus)-5, Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on March 21, 1871 in Bland Co., Virginia.[138,3137]

She was married to Albert Crockett Stowers (son of James Madison Stowers Jr. and Mary U. (Polly) Lambert) on February 8, 1894 in Bland Co., Virginia.[436] Albert and Martha are 2nd cousins. Albert Crockett Stowers was born in 1876 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[104]

He appeared in the census on June 20, 1900 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[3138] The 1900 census has Albert living 2 stops from his father as: Albert Stowers [farm laborer] a.25 b.June 1875, Martha a.29 b. March 1871, Ollie S. a.5 b.March 1895, Bertha M. a.3 b.Aug 1896, Maxey V. a.1 b.June 1899 & S. Lambert [boarder] a.24 b.Aug 1875. The census shows Albert & Martha being married for 6 years with Martha having had 5 children with 3 alive in 1900.

He appeared in the census on April 19, 1910 in Sharon Dist., Bland Co., Virginia.[3139] The 1910 census has Albert's family as: Albert C. Stowers [farmer] a.34, Marthie [sic] R. a.39, O. Estella a.15, Bertha M. a.14, Maxie V. a.10, James L. a.8, Lelia R. a.7, William S. a.5 & Allie C. a.4. The date shown here is from county birth records.

He appeared in the census on June 22, 1900 in Rural Retreat Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[3143] The 1900 census has James & Ossie living with her parents as: Jas H. Her birth year is shown as 1874 in the 1880 census and will be used here. She died on June 8, 1905.[3147] Ossie's given name spelling "Osee" is taken from a Lutheran Catechism Book presented to her by her Mother in 1896. Middle name might also be Elizabeth. Ms Sandra Slagle Vernon has a cousin named Libby that says she was named after Osee.

James Henry Lambert and Ossie Eugenia (Osee) Tibbs had the following children:

3257 i. Lillian Lecretia Lambert was born in December 1898 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[452]

1332. William Stuart Lambert (James Augustus (Gus)-5, Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on May 12, 1875 in Bland Co., Virginia.[138,3148,436] William's cemetery marker gives his birth date as 12 Aug 1875. This is incorrect as the date shown here is taken from the Bland County Birth records. William gives his birth date as 12 Aug 1875 on his draft registration card.

He appeared in the census on April 16, 1910 in Black Lick, Wythe Co., Virginia.[3149] The 1910 census has William's family as: William Lambert [general farming] a.33, Ida a.25, Cecil a.10, Mary J. a.6, Beulah M. a.4, Hallie M. a.3 & Carson a.6/12. William's middle initial is taken from his 1896 marriage record. He is shown with middle initial D. in the 1880 census. Other researchers have William & Ida with a daughter Helen born in 1920. Neither the 1920 nor 1930 censuses show a daughter with this given name or birth year. It will be assumed that this is in error or the Helen is Ida H. born about 1914.

He was married to Daisy Lois Lindsey (daughter of George Lindsey and Amita (Lindsey\mar)) on January 16, 1897 in Bland Co., Virginia.[1514,436] Daisy Lois Lindsey[1514,1438] was born in 1878 in Wilson Co., Tennessee.[436] She died in 1900 in Virginia.[1514] Daisy died in childbirth with Cecil.

He was married to Rosa E. (Lambert\mar) about 1914 in Virginia.[1583] Rosa E. (Lambert\mar) was born in 1884 in Virginia.[1583]

Edward Y. Lambert and Rosa E. (Lambert\mar) had the following children:

She was married to John B. Lawson (son of James B. Lawson and Malone J. (Lavie) Gobble) on October 21, 1899 in Lee Co., Virginia.[3434] Almeda is shown single and William widowed at the time of their marriage. They were married by P. H. Larmer. John B. Lawson was born in June 1861 in Lee Co., Virginia.[213,275] John gives his birth year as 1860 in the 1900 census. This does not reconcile with his parents' marriage date, and their separated location (not married) with their own parents in the August 1860 census record. His birth year is more probably 1861, based upon the above information and the age given in June 1880 (8) while living with his maternal grandparents.

He appeared in the census on June 11, 1880 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[3435] The 1880 census has John living with his maternal grandfather Lilbourn Gobble. John is shown as a grandson John Lawson, at age 18.

The marriage shows John & Almeda being married for less than 1 year with Almeda having had no children. The entry for his grandfather is an obvious enumerator entry error, as the his grandfather's surname was Gobble.

He appeared in the census on April 26, 1910 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[3437] The 1910 census has John's family as: John B. Lawson [farmer] a.49, Meda a.39, Golda a.13, Dillard B. a.9, Benton T. a.7 & Ida J. a.3. The census shows John & Almeda being married for 11 years with Almeda having had 4 children with 4 alive in 1910. Because of the age shown for Golda, and the length of their marriage, Golda may not be Almeda's daughter. The census shows John being married twice and Almeda once.

Kitts was born on July 16, 1879 in Bland Co., Virginia.[436,377,104,155] Roxie shows her birth month & year as July 1881 in the 1900 census. Her cemetery marker gives her birth date as 16 July 1879. The marker date concurs closely with the 23 June 1880 census that shows her 10 months old.

She died on October 24, 1966 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[3580]

She was buried after October 24, 1966 in the Marvin Church Cemetery, Rural Retreat, Wythe Co., Virginia.[1548] William Stephen (Will) Stowers and Roxie L. J. Kitts had the following children:

The informant on Sarah's father Erastus's death certificate in 1921, is shown as Sarah May Lewis of Clarksburg Kentucky. The death record is very complete, with Erastus' birth date and parents names, including the maiden surname of his mother. This indicates an intimate knowledge of Erastus by the informant. Clarksburg Kentucky is not present on most modern Atlas maps of Kentucky, but is found historically to be the former county seat of Lewis County. A search of the 1920 censuses for all Lewis families living in Lewis County Kentucky, reveals only one Sarah or May Lewis, married to a Buddie Lewis. In the 1910, 1920 & 1930 Lewis County censuses, Sarah is shown as May Lewis and being born in Virginia along with her parents. Her birth year is shown as 1882 in 1910 (28) & 1920 (38), and 1883 in 1930 (47). The 1900 census for Erastus' family lists her birth date as Sept 1882, coinciding with the post 1900 census record. With the above information, there can be little doubt of Buddie's wife being Sarah (May) Stowers, daughter of Erastus G. and Mary Isabel Lambert Stowers. (3/04)

She was married to Buddie Lewis (son of Stephen Lewis and Sarah Artemis Cole) in 1902 in Kentucky or Ohio.[3581] Buddie Lewis was born in April 1877 in Lewis Co., Kentucky.[3584]

Cassie may be buried next to her husband David Glenn in the Old Bethel Cemetery under the name

Corale Lambert. If this is Cassie, the birth information on the marker (8 Nov 1878) is incorrect. This may be caused by marker condition and incorrect transcription.

She was married to David Glenn Lambert (son of William Wesley Lambert and Rhoda Elizabeth Umbarger) on May 2, 1906 in Bland Co., Virginia.[1143,436] David & Cassie are 3rd cousins once removed. David Glenn Lambert[436] was born on January 13, 1879 in Bland Co., Virginia.[104,3591] The 1900 census shows David Glenn being born in Nov 1880 and his birth date is shown as 29 Nov 1880 on his cemetery marker. These are incorrect, as the Bland County birth records give his birth date as shown here. David gives his birth date as 9 Nov 1882 on his draft registration card.

John & Alice Fleeman are living one stop from William and his parents in 1900 with several daughters who might be Hettie. If the assumption is made that Hettie is a nickname or middle name, then the most probable daughter is Mary M. (born in Aug 1884 in the census), using the birth date shown on her cemetery marker as the closest female in age. The 19th century nickname Hettie was commonly used for the given names Henrietta, Mehetable & Mehitabel, suggesting other given middle names for Mary, if she is Hettie. William and Alice are the only Fleeman family in 1900 Claiborne County, with the family disappearing from the census record by 1910. (11/04)

There is an uncertainty of Lee's father's correct given name, as his mother Martha (Mattie) Lambert is the probable wife of the individual named Joseph Lambert, shown in the 1880 Claiborne County Census. The reader is advised to review the families of the two husbands shown for his mother Martha (Mattie) Lambert. Mary's middle name and parents are speculative. Her parents are based upon Cadle families living in Claiborne County in 1880 & 1900, and location of probable siblings in 1900 through 1930. Her proposed mother's 2nd husband, Robert Owens, is living within 20 stops of her proposed parents in 1880. Mary's mother's maiden surname is taken from Mary Cadle's middle name (initial "L") and 1860 & 1870 Claiborne census records for Moses & Louisa Jane Love, and a review of all Cadle families living in the Claiborne County area in 1900. Mary Cadle is shown as Love Cadle [stepdaughter], born Nov 1885, in the 1900 census record for Robert Owens. The extended family shown here for Robert may be incorrect. It is chosen because of his location, age, middle initial "H" and his closeness to his maternal relatives in the 20th century censuses. Although the given name Hosea is unusual, it was commonplace in Franklin County Ill. The census enumerator's spelling through 3 censuses gives strong evidence of the spelling, and this family will be included here as Robert's. There are no other Bullocks with his age, given or middle name beginning with "H" in any of the counties surrounding Franklin in 1900 (Hosea was married in 1902 in Franklin County). The reader must note that Robert's middle initial is shown as "H" on earlier census records, when he was with his parental family, if the extended Hosea Bullock family is not used as shown here.

He died on September 4, 1968.[422]

He was buried after September 4, 1968 in the Sharon Lutheran Church Cemetery, Ceres, Bland Co., Virginia.[422]

He was married to Bessie M. Boling (daughter of Robert H. W. Boling and Amanda V. (Boling\mar)) in 1912 in Virginia.[1132] Bessie M. Boling[422] was born on July 16, 1891 in Virginia.[1143,422] She died on May 24, 1969 in Virginia.[422] She was buried after May 24, 1969 in the Sharon Lutheran Church Cemetery, Ceres, Bland Co., Virginia.[422] Bessie's surname is sometimes spelled Bolin, Bolling & Bowling.

The Robert Lambert family shown here may not be correct. This Robert, son of William F., may be mistaken with Joseph Lambert's son Robert. This family is not found in the 1920 or 1930 US census records. (4/03)

He was married to Mary A. (Lambert\mar) in 1904 in Kentucky or Wisconsin.[3156,3066] Mary A. (Lambert\mar) was born in 1889 in Kentucky.[3156]

Robert L. Lambert and Mary A. (Lambert\mar) had the following children:

4423 i. Zora R. Lambert was born in 1906 in Wisconsin.[3156]

Lambert [laborer-tool mfg.] a.45, Effie a.40, Alberta a.15, Olive M. a.14, Clem M. [dau] a.10, Bonnie J. a.7, Mary L. a.5 & Jessie a.3. James & Effie are shown being married for about 16 years.

He died in March 1964 in Clearfield, Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1059]

The extended family shown here for James may not be correct. It is used because it is the only family meeting any of the known criteria for James in 1910, 1920 or 1930 Kentucky census information.

He was married to Atti Cornett on April 7, 1905 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3173] Atti Cornett was born in 1889 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3173]

4429 iv. Bonnie J. Lambert was born in 1923 in Indiana.[3898]
4430 v. Mary L. Lambert was born in 1925 in Indiana.[3898]
4431 vi. Jessie Lambert was born in 1927 in Indiana.[3898]

3160. John Floyd Lambert (William Franklin-6, Eli-5, Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on February 22, 1886 in Elliott Co., Kentucky.[1401,1413,690] John's cemetery marker transcription has his birth year as 1896. This is incorrect.

He appeared in the census on January 14, 1920 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[4176] The 1920 census has Floyd's family as: Floyd Lambert [farming] a.35, Vesta a.30, Ollie a.12, Estil [sic] a.10, Edna a.7, Gracy [sic] a.5, Ora a.3 11/12 & Leo a.10/12.

He appeared in the census on April 11, 1930 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[4177] The 1930 census has Floyd's family as: Floyd Lambert [farmer] a.44, Vesta a.40, Estil a.18, Gracie a.15, Ora a.13, Leo a.11, Charles a.9, Glennis a.3 9/12 & Freda a.1 2/12.

He died on July 8, 1947 in Kentucky.[1401]

He was buried after July 8, 1947 in the Crix Cemetery, Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1401]

He was married to Vesta Riddle (daughter of John Riddle and Sophia E. (Saphire) (Riddle\mar)) on September 8, 1906 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3173] John & Vesta were married at John Riddle's home by Rev. Wesley Cox. Witnesses were James Loveless & Preston Pettit. The parents for Vesta are shown as John & Saphire Riddle. Vesta Riddle[1413] was born in 1890 in Kentucky.[1458] In the 1920 census Floyd and Vesta are living next door to an Ora Riddle, age 24. The unusual given name is good evidence that Floyd & Vesta's son Ora is named after a close relative of Vesta's.

John Floyd Lambert and Vesta Riddle had the following children:

4432 i. Ollie Lambert was born in 1908 in Kentucky.[1458]
4433 ii. Cledis A. Lambert was born on June 2, 1909 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[155] He died on November 3, 1911 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[155] He was buried after November 3, 1911 in the Crix Cemetery, Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1401]

3162. Hugh Oliver Lambert (William Franklin-6, Eli-5, Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on September 27, 1890 in Elliott Co., Kentucky.[1455,1401,690]

He appeared in the census on April 8, 1930 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[4178] The 1930 census has Oliver's family as: Oliver Lambert [farmer] a.36, Rachel a.40, Opal a.11, Jewel a.9 & Lela a.4 0/12.

He died on May 30, 1978 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[4179,1059]

He was buried after May 30, 1978 in the Crix Cemetery, Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1401]

The 1930 census gives Oliver's birth year as 1894. Oliver is shown being born in April 1891 in the 1900 census.

He was married to Rachel (Lambert\mar) before 1919 in Kentucky.[1455] Rachel (Lambert\mar) was born in 1888 in Kentucky.[1455,1401] She died in 1955 in Kentucky.[1401] She was buried in 1955 in the Crix Cemetery, Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1401]

Hugh Oliver Lambert and Rachel (Lambert\mar) had the following children:

4443 i. Opal Lambert was born in 1919 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1455]

4444 ii. Iva Jewell Lambert was born in 1921 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1455]
4445 iii. Lila Pearl Lambert was born in April 1926 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1455]

3163. Sarah Elizabeth Lambert[3173] (William Franklin-6, Eli-5, Henry-4, Johannes-3, Johann Heinrich (Henry Sr.)-2, Johann Gerhard Nicholas-1) was born on February 19, 1892 in Elliott Co., Kentucky.[690,1401]

She appeared in the census on April 7, 1930 in Wagoner Twp., Rowan Co., Kentucky.[4180] The 1930 census has Sarah living alone with her children as: Lizzie Riddle [farmer] a.37, Orvil a.17, Alma a.14, Hazel a.12, Leona a.10 & Geneva a.5. This record is unexplainable as Sarah & Allie are living with no children in 1920. The children shown here are within the time frame of their marriage and Allie's death in 1929. Sarah is shown as divorced in this record which only causes more conjecture about the children's location in 1910. In both censuses, Sarah is shown using the name Lizzie.

She died on October 4, 1976 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[4181]

She was buried after October 4, 1976 in the Crix Cemetery, Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1401]

She was married to Allie Riddle (son of John Riddle and Sophia E. (Saphire) (Riddle\mar)) on October 23, 1908 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[3173] Allie & Elizabeth were married at John Riddle's home in Crix by Rev. Wesley Cox. Witnesses were Floyd Lambert and Sam Cassity. Sam Cassity was the gentleman who married Allie's sister Zanie Riddle. The parents for Allie are shown as John & S. Riddle. Allie Riddle was born in 1889 in Kentucky.[3173,1458]

He appeared in the census on January 29, 1920 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[4182] The 1920 census has Allie's family as: Allie Riddle [farmer] a.31, Lizzie a.27 & Arlie Wheeler [boarder] a.30.

He died in 1929 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1401] This death date is taken from cemetery marker readings and may not be Allie, husband of Sarah Lambert.

He was buried in 1929 in the Crix Cemetery, Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1401]

Both Allie and Vesta Riddle are shown with parents John & Saphire [sic] (S.) Riddle on their marriage records. Of all of the John Riddle families in 1900 Kentucky, only John and Sophia Riddle of Rowan County have the required given names of John & S., Saphire or Sophia to meet the parental criteria. The 1900 census lists NO Allie or Vesta as children to John & Sophia. Sophia is shown in 1900 as having had 6 children with 6 alive in 1900. ALL six children are shown in the 1900 census, and only a son Edward qualifies as being a close match, age wise, with Allie. No explanation can be found for this discrepancy in the census and marriage records, except that Vesta and/or Allie may have been absent at the time of the 1900 census but this would not explain the number of children born to Sophia by 1900 as six. Both Allie & Vesta were married at the home of John Riddle in Rowan County (Crix). The children shown here for Allie & Sarah Lambert may not be correct. (4/03)

Sarah Elizabeth Lambert and Allie Riddle had the following children:

4446 i. Orvil Riddle was born in 1913 in Rowan Co., Kentucky.[1455]

He appeared in the census on April 12, 1910 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[4307] Emmett is living with his parents without Jennie and is shown married once for 2 years.

He appeared in the census on January 2, 1920 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[4308] The 1920 census has Emmett's family as: Emmett Lambert [farmer] a.36, Mary a.23, Francis [sic] a.4 8/12, Harvey a.1 9/12, Pat H. [brother] a.38 & Farley [brother] a.25.

Emmett & Mary are living next to Mary's parents Lafayette & Alma Lambert Leach. Appendix 1 - Descendants of William Eagle

FIRST GENERATION

1. William Eagle was born in 1767 in Guilford County, North Carolina.[1]

He appeared in the census in 1790 in Guilford County, North Carolina.[2] The 1790 census has William's family as: William Egle(sic) males >16-1, females 2, slaves.
He died before 1820.[3]

He was married to Elizabeth (Betsy) Permen on August 13, 1787 in Guilford County, North Carolina.[4] Elizabeth (Betsy) Permen was born in 1769 in North Carolina.[1]

She emigrated from Guilford County N.C. before 1818 to Wythe Co., Virginia.[5,3]

She appeared in the census in 1820 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[6] The 1820 census has Elizabeth's family as: Betsey Eagle males 16/26-2, 10/16-2, females 16/26-2, >45-1.

She appeared in the census in 1830 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[7] It would appear that Elizabeth is living with her son George in 1830 at age 60-70. This census is difficult to discern and may be incorrectly transcribed.

She appeared in the census in 1840 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[8] It would appear that Elizabeth is living with her son Silas in 1840 at age 60-70.

She died between 1841 and 1849 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[3,8] William Eagle and Elizabeth (Betsy) Permen had the following children:

2	I.	Lydia Eagle (born in 1792).[1]
+3	ii	John Eagle (born in 1794).
+4	iii	James L. Eagle (born in 1795).
5	iv	George Eagle was born in 1796 in Rockingham Co., North Carolina.[1] He appeared in the census in 1830 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[9] The 1830 census has George's family as: males 20/30-1, female 60/70-1. The 2nd male is probably his brother Silas and the female (60-70) is probably his mother Elizabeth (Betsy).
+6	v.	Silas Eagle (born in 1800).
7	vi.	Elizabeth Eagle was born in 1801.[1]
+8	vii.	Polly Eagle (born in 1802).

3. John Eagle (William-1) was born in 1794 in North Carolina.[1]

He appeared in the census in 1830 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[11] The 1830 census has John's family as: John Eagle males <5-2, 5/10-1, 10/15-1, 20/30-1, females <5-1, 20/30-1. John & Abigail were married in 1820, indicating that the 10/15 year old male may not be their child.

He died before 1840.[12]

He was married to Abigail Repass (daughter of Samuel Repass and Mari Mateline (Polly) Tarter) on June 9, 1820 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[5] John & Abigial were married by Samuel Newberry. Abigail Repass[5] was born about 1805 in Wythe or Tazewell Co., Virginia.[13] The Wythe County death records give Abigail's age as 46 years on the date of her death. She would have been only 11 years old at the time of her marriage, making the 1809 birth year unreasonable.

She appeared in the census in 1840 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[12] Abigail is shown living alone with her children in 1840.

She appeared in the census on October 3, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[14] The 1850 census has Abigail living with her son Levi and remainder of her children at age 47. All are shown born in Virginia.

She died on September 10, 1855 in Walker's Creek, Wythe Co., Virginia.[15] Isaac was the informant on Abigail's death record. Her parents are listed as Samuel & Polly Repass.

John Eagle and Abigail Repass had the following children:

10 i. Levi Eagle was born in 1820 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[16]
He appeared in the census on October 3, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[17] The 1850 census has Levi as head of household living with his mother & siblings as: Levi Eagle [farmer] a.30 Abigail a.47, Isaac a.24, George a.21, Samuel a.19, Ephraim a.16 & Ellander Yontz a.15.

+11 ii. Rhoda Eagle (born in 1823).

12 iii. Isaac Eagle[13] was born in 1826 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[18]
He appeared in the census on July 5, 1860 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[19] Isaac is shown as head-of-household in this census and living with Samuel M. Eagle's family. Isaac is listed as: Isaac Eagle (farmer] a.34. Isaac is shown as Abigail's son on her death record.

+13 iv. Samuel Morgan Eagle (born in 1832).

+14 v. Ephraim W. Eagle (born in 1834).

4. James L. Eagle (William-1) was born in 1795 in Rockingham Co., North Carolina.[20] James' birth year is taken from the 1850 census record. Other researchers and the 1870 census have his birth year as 1798. The earlier 1850 census will be used here.

He appeared in the census in 1830 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[21] The 1830 census has James' family as: James Eagle males <5-1, 20/30-1, females <5-1, 20/30-1.

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Lee Co., Virginia.[22]

He appeared in the census on August 27, 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[23] The 1850 census has James' family as: James Eagle [miller] a.55 b.N. c., Lucinda a.50 b.N. C., William a.15 b.Va., Elizabeth a.13 b.Va., James C. a.12 b.Va., Janthy(sic) Jane a.9 b.Va. & Ambrose H. a.7(?) b.Va.

He appeared in the census on August 9, 1860 in Lee Co., Virginia.[29] The 1860 census has James' family as: James Ealgle (sic) [miller] a.63 b.Rockingham N. C., Lucinda a.39 (sic) b.Tazewell Va. & Ambrose a.16 b.Lee Co., Va.

He appeared in the census on July 23, 1870 in Jonesville Twp., Lee Co., Virginia.[24] The 1870 census has James' family as: James Eagle [miller] a.72 b.Rockingham Co. N. C. & Louisa a.30 b.Claiborn (sic) Co. Va. James is living 6 stops from Harvey Lambert, the son of Jacob, who was the uncle of Henry Lambert, who married James' sister Jenny Eagle.

He died between 1871 and 1879 in Lee County, Virginia.[33]

He was married to Lucinda Stump in 1820 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[1] Lucinda Stump was born in 1800 in Virginia.[23]

James L. Eagle and Lucinda Stump had the following children:

15 i. Francis Marion Eagle was born in 1826 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[33]
He appeared in the census on August 27, 1850 in Lee Co., Virginia.[25] Francis is living with Isaac & Mary Abshire (sisiter & brother-in-law) at age 24 and is shown as a laborer. He is living 6 stops from his assumed parents James & Lucinda.

16 ii. Mary Ann Eagle born in 1827.[1]

17 iii. William Silas Eagle was born in 1835 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[26]

18 iv. Elizabeth Eagle was born in 1837 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[26]

+19 v. James C. Eagle (born in 1838)
20 vi. Jantha Jane Eagle was born in 1841 in Lee Co., Virginia.[22]
+21 vii. Ambrose H. Eagle (born in 1843 in Lee Co., Virginia)

6. Silas Eagle (William-1) was born in 1800 in Rockingham Co., North Carolina.[1, 27] Eagle family researchers have Silas' birth year as 1800. The 1850 census shows his birth year as about 1792, but the 1800 year will be used here because of the lack of additional data.

He appeared in the census in 1840 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[8] The 1840 census has Silas' family as: Silas Eagle males <5-1, 20/30-1, females <5-1, 5/10-1, 10/15-1, 20/30-1 & 60/70-1. Silas' brother George is also found with a female aged 60-70 in 1830. The elder female here and with George in 1830 may be their mother Elizabeth.

He appeared in the census on July 6, 1850 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[28] The 1850 census has Silas' family as: Silas Eagle [farmer] a.58 b.Va., Martha a.35, Elizabeth a.20, Rebecca a.18, John C. a.12, Sally a.10, Almira a.8, Martha J. a.7, Polly P. a.4, Nancy a.2, Mary Ann a.4/12 & David Kinser [farmer] a.32. All are shown being born in Virginia, but this may be incorrect for Silas.

He was married to ?? (Eagle\mar) before 1830 in Wythe or Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]
Silas Eagle and ?? (Eagle\mar) had the following children:

22 i. Elizabeth Eagle was born in 1830 in Wythe or Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]
23 ii. Rebecca Eagle was born in 1832 in Wythe or Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]

He was married to Martha Sincentafee on March 28, 1837 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[5] Martha Sincentafee[5] was born in 1815 in Virginia.[27]
Silas Eagle and Martha Sincentafee had the following children:

24 i. John C. Eagle was born in 1838 in Wythe or Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]
25 ii. Sally Eagle was born in 1840 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]
26 iii. Almira Eagle was born in 1842 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]
27 iv. Martha J. Eagle was born in 1843 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]
28 v. Polly P. Eagle was born in 1846 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]
29 vi. Nancy Eagle was born in 1848 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]
30 vii. Mary Ann Eagle was born in March 1850 in Tazewell Co., Virginia.[27]

8. Polly Eagle (William-1) was born in 1802 in North Carolina.[37] Polly shows her birth place as Va. in the 1850 census.

She was married to William Pruner on November 26, 1818 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[5] William & Polly were marrried by Sam Newberry. William Pruner[5] was born in 1800 in Virginia.[37]

He appeared in the census on August 29, 1850 in 68th Dist., Wythe Co., Virginia.[38] William is found living with Elizabeth Flohr and 3 other adult individuals. He is shown at age 50 years and working as a carpenter. As Polly is living next door with James & Maria Umbarger, it is probable that he and the other individuals were in the process of working for Ms. Flohr. Polly is shown at age 50. James & Maria are shown at ages 31 & 30 respectively. Maria may be William & Polly's daughter.

9. Jane (Jenny) Eagle[39] (William-1) was born in 1804 in North Carolina.[40]
She died after December 1850.[40]

She was married to Henry (Henry Jr.) Lambert Jr. (son of Johann Heinrich Lambert II and Barbara Wolf) on August 2, 1821 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[5] Some transcribed marriage indexes spell Jenny's surname as Engle. Henry & Jenny were married by Sam Newberry. Jenny's given name is spelled Jincy Eagle on the original marriage ledger page. Henry Lambert Jr. was born in September 1799 in Wythe Co., Virginia.[42]

He was baptized on October 27, 1799 in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Wythe Co., Virginia.[43]

He purchased a land grant of 50 acres of land on the north side of Powell Mountain on November 20, 1828 in Lee Co., Virginia.[44]

Henry's uncle Jacob purchased 10 1/2 acres of land near the south fork of the Powell River in Lee County in 1846. This land is described in the deed as being adjacent to land purchased by Jacob before 1846.

He appeared in the census in 1830 in Lee Co., Virginia.[45] The 1830 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert males 20/30-1, 5/10-1, females 20/30-1, 5/10-1, <5-2.

He sold 50 acres of land on the north side of Powell Mountain on September 11. 1839 in Lee Co., Virginia.[46] This land was sold to James, Claiborne & Abraham Young, for $61.75. The grantees are shown as Henry & Jane Lambert.
He appeared in the census in 1840 in Lee Co., Virginia.[47] The 1840 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert males 30/40-1, 15/20-1, 5/10-2, <5-1, females 30/40-1, 15/20-2, <5-1.

He sold about 50 acres of land located on the Dry Branch (Creek) on August 15, 1842 in Lee Co., Virginia.[48] This land was sold to John H. Allen for $75. The grantees are shown as Henry & Jane Lambert. This deed cannot be plotted as written, but appears to contain about 50 acres, based upon 3 side lengths given in the deed.

He sold a parcel of land located on the waters of Wallings Creek on August 16, 1842 in Lee Co., Virginia.[49] This land was sold to Abraham Young for $175. The grantees are shown as Henry & Jane Lambert. This deed cannot be plotted as written, but appears to contain about 50 acres, based upon 3 side lengths given in the deed. Because of the selling price, this parcel may have contained Henry & Jane's home.

He appeared in the census on November 11, 1850 in Fulton Co., Arkansas.[50] The 1850 census has Henry's family as: Henry Lambert a.51 b.Va., Jane a.46 b.N. C., Elmira a.22 b.Va., Ephraim a.19 b.Va., Stephen a.17 b.Va., Henry a.15 b.Va., John a.11 b.Va. & Sarah a.9 b.Va. This census is significant because of the ages and birthplace for Henry and Jane (Jenny). In the 1830 & 1840 censuses, Henry is shown as being 30 and 40 years of age (via age groupings) respectively, while being shown 51 in 1850. The 1850 census for Henry was taken in November. With Henry's birth date known to be Sept 1799, and the 1850 census taken so late in the year, this census record indicates that he was certain of his birth date. Data by other Eagle family researchers indicate that Jenny was born in N.C. in 1804, giving strong credence to the Jane shown as Henry's wife in 1850. being Jenny Eagle. With Henry's wife's given name appearing as Jane on deeds and the 1850 census record, it must be noted that a study by the Connecticut State Library in November 1996, of 18th & 19th century nicknames, indicates that Jenny was the nickname for the proper given names Virginia, JANE, Janet & Genevieve. Several other members of the Lambert family interchanged the given names Jenny & Jane. Henry is the only Lambert family in Fulton Co. Ark. in 1850.

He died after December 1850.[40]

Jane (Jenny) Eagle and Henry Lambert Jr. had the following children:

C. & Louisa Philips family at age 25 born Va. and working as a farm laborer. The census shows Henry with real estate valued at $200. It will be assumed that he 160 acres purchased by a Henry Lambert on 1 May 1860 in Fulton County, is him.

My Dear Son & daughter With much pleasure I seat myself to write you a few lindes to inform you that me & my little family are very well at presant And I hope this may find you the same. I recieved your kinde letter & was truly glad to hear that you was well and doing well. I hope that you don't think hard of me for not writing sooner for I couldnt oh son I do want to see you so bad I think if you wanted to se me as bad as I do you you would come & se me you must try and come to see me if you can I have found your brother Andrew at last by writing he lives 100 & 10 or 15 mileses from me he lives on Syoty river friendship county Ohio an I have never seen him yet he wrote that he was comeing to see me but (eop 1) he has never come yet James Woolf s family is well. Andrew Woolf s family is well. Ephraim s family is well Elixandrew tompson family is well or was well the last account I heard heard of them. he lost too of his children last January. little Marshael took sick on the 13th and died the 20th & little Johnny took sick on the 15th and died the 19th they was both laid in one coffin & buryed to gether in one grave tel little Mary isabelie & James Albert that I do want to se them so very bad kiss them both for me I want you to find out by your uncle rubin gulyen weather he has fend a lawyer in Kentucky or not to attend to that restate & if he has pleas write the name of the lawyer and send it to me as quick as you can. I want to know how all of your neighbours are geting along I want to know how old Mrs (eod)

1) This letter, obviously written on Nancy Johnston Lambert's behalf, is incomplete. Military pension files describe her as being "unable to read or write".
2) The Syoty River is the Scioto River in Ohio. This river is formed from the Olentangy river at Columbus Ohio and enters the Ohio River at Portsmouth, Scioto Co., Ohio.
3) There was/is no Friendship County in Ohio. There is a town named Friendship in Niles Township, Scioto County Ohio, very near the Ohio River. Andrew is living in Niles Twp. in the 1870 census.
4) "Elixandrew tompson" is Alexander Thompson, Nancy's son-in-law, Barbara's husband.
5) Marshael is Barbara Thompson's son James Marshall, born 12 Oct 1855.
6) Little Johnny is Barbara Thompson's son John C., born 12 July 1859. The boys are buried in the Campbell Cemetery in Gallia County Ohio.
7) James Wolf is Nancy's son-in-law, Hannah's husband.
8) Ruben Gullion may have been mentioned as "old Mr Gullion" in another letter from Ephraim to Stephen, on January 5, 1866.
9) The word "restate" is assumed to mean estate.
10) Nancy's location at the time of this letter is difficult to discern. The distance from Friendship, Scioto County Ohio to areas where members of this family lived in Point Pleasant W.Va. is 50+ miles, Catlettsburg Kentucky 30, Cabell County W.Va. 30-45 and Gallia County Ohio 40-50. In her next letter, Jan 1876, she is living with Ephraim around Catlettsburg Kentucky. Because she states that her daughter & son-in-law Alexander & Barbara Thompson, who were living in Gallia County Ohio on this date, "is well, or was well the last account I heard from them", it may be assumed she is not in Gallia County Ohio. Because James & Andrew Wolf (Nancy's daughters Hannah's & Elizabeth's families) are living in Mason County W.Va. on this date, and she writes that "James' family is all well" without the "last account I heard" notation, and with her husband Samuel dying in Mason County in Sept 1866, there is reasonable evidence that she was in Mason County W.Va. at the time of this letter.

1) Andrew Wolf is Nancy's son-in-law. Elizabeth's husband.
2) "Lee Kitz" is Leander (aka Lee A., Leanderson, Levi) Kitts of Wythe/Bland County Virginia. He is living close to Stephen in 1850, 1860 & 1870.
3) Nancy's children Jane Wolf & Andy Lambert were living in Mason County West Virginia at the time of this letter. No member of Samuel and Nancy's family, except for Stephen, is known to have remained in or returned to Virginia after the family's move to the "West" in 1859 or 1860. The term "moved West" was used by Andrew in an affidavit in his pension file.
4) "Alex Tompson" is Nancy's son-in-law Alexander Thompson, Barbara's husband.
5) Rile(y) Wolf is the brother to Elizabeth and Hannah's husband's, Andrew & James Wolf. He was born about 1838.
6) As Stephen's grandparents had either a Lambert or Johns(t)on surname, his uncle's would have carried one or the other surname. There are no Henry or Joseph Johns(t)on's in Bland county in 1870 or 1880. In 1870, there are 3 Henry Johnston's in Giles and one in Tazewell. This suggests that "uncle henry and uncle Joseph" are Lambert's

I will try to write something of this country this county is a little hilly but I make choice of it because it is more healthy than the level lands this is a great country for raising corn wheat and potatoes corn will make an average of over 100 one hundred bushels on the river bottoms and 50 bushels on the hills per acre all over this county last year, and potatoes make from 250 to 300 bu per acre. this is a great place to raise stock. There are thousands of acres of woodlands here covered with wild grass and young cane, and there is an abundance of mast here every year. land is cheap but very good I can buy a 40 acre lot for 100 dollars by paying one third down and 2 years time for the ~~best~~ balance. I live about 1 mile from Ohio river I can buy land right on the river bank as cheap (eop 5) as I can on the higher land but I do not wish to live too near the river you have probably read the papers of the terable overflows on the Ohio river. we live where we can look at the great water over 12 miles from land on the other side

I will try to tell you more of the flood time next time we have had a cold winter we had snow 6 inches deep in January how was it with your state.

I expect to buy land and make a home for myself here. to Stephen Lampert (eod)

1) The 3rd number in the year of this letter is difficult to distinguish. Granger states that "the children is all in school". If the letter is dated 1882 Edward would have been 6., William 4 & Sarah 3 mo. His daughter Elvira was born in 1885 and son Jesse 1891. His son Jessie is mentioned later in the letter, confirming the year as 1892.

2) The location in the header lines is indistinguishable. The letters in two of the words suggests Nebraska. As Granger mentions that he is using "coal and cobs" for wood, and prairie is used to describe their location. Nebraska would be a logical choice because of it's lack of wood and prairie terrain.

3) The unidentified word in the lines "... we hat to set in new when we come here. This is a mytsy still", suggests "misery" if the family was homesteading.

4) R.G. Stowers is probably Randall G. He is shown in the 1880 Cass County Nebraska census as being born in Virginia. He is found at home in Wythe County Va. in 1860 with parents William & Christina. He is not found in 1870 but his father & two brothers are found in Sharon Twp. Bland County in 1870. These censuses indicate that William's family was living in that part of Wythe County in 1860 that became Bland County in 1861. Randall is found in Nuckolls Co., Neb. in 1900, 1910 and 1920.

5) E. G. Stowers is Erastus Granger Stowers, the husband of Stephen's daughter Mary Isabel.

1) This letter contains no date or postmark.
2) Mary Stowers is Me(a)linda Lampert's daughter Mary Isabel, who married Erastus Granger Stowers.
3) Elvira is Mary's daughter born in 1885.
4) The 2 sentences that begin with "Edward will" may also be transcribed as "Edw and will". Given names in all of the other letters are not abbreviated, making it difficult to reconcile the second choice.
5) Transcription of this letter is extremely difficult..
6) The opening line "Dear granma" is assumed to be written on Elvira's behalf.
7) The word "Livse" is assumed to mean "lives".
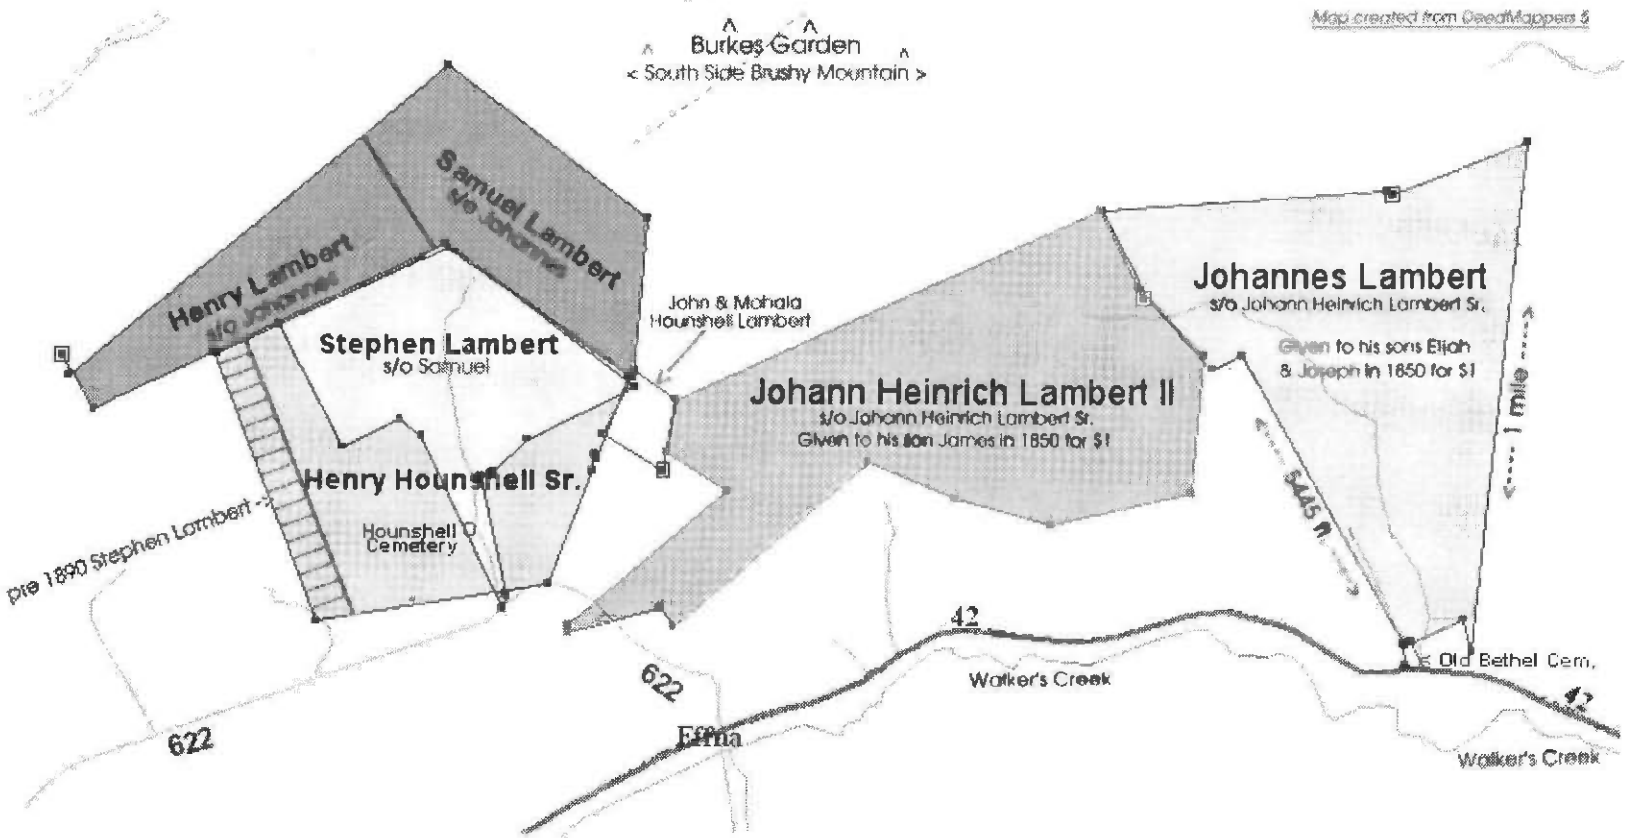
8) As Elvira is attending school, it is assumed that the letter was written after 1891 - 1892..



The Henry Hounshell pentagonal shaped land included the land of Stephen Lambert before Henry's death in 1860. Stephen purchased this land in 1890. Henry Hounshell was the father of John Lambert's wife Mahala & Stephen Lambert's wife Malinda. Both inherited about 17 acres upon his death

The 200 acres of brothers Samuel & Henry Lambert, was purchased on a land grant by their uncle Michael Lambert in 1832. Michael sold the land to Johannes in Sept 1849 for $400. Johannes sold the land in Oct. 1850 to his sons Samuel & Henry in co-ownership for $400.

Much of the western portion of these lands is today owned and farmed by Stephen Lambert's descendants.

Several of Heinrich Lambert II's son James' children and grandchildren are buried in the Old Bethel Cemetery. Because Johannes donated part of the land for this cemetery. It is probable that Johannes, Heinrich II and their wifes are buried there. Parts of the cemetery existed before 1840.
