From the President: Well, actually from the outgoing president. I wanted to take this opportunity to wish all our members a Happy New Year 2007, especially with wishes of fruitful hunting in your research projects. I hope that you have seen something you liked during my two years as your president and know that Arch Phillips will do even better things for the Society. Regards, Doug

Membership dues pay for the Special Publications: Please be sure to get your membership dues paid in a timely manner (form on Page 1). The next Special Publication is nearing completion and will be approximately 70 pages of transcriptions from the business ledgers of the J. C. Taylor Marble Works (headstones and markers). This pub (the first of probably four) will cover the earliest years, 1878-1888. Given the size (and therefore expense), the Society can not afford to send this to members who are not current with their dues. Thank you. The Board

Abbreviated Newsletter: Due to technical difficulties, this month’s newsletter is briefer than recent issues. Ed
