A Human Creed when placed in opposition to the Bible, is not worthy of examination.
April 4th 1852 A. L. Knowles.

MARRIAGES.

April 11th 1852. We each promise our Father, who apparently stands upon the verge of time, that we will not subscribe to any of the Human Creeds of the day until we shall first have examined them for ourselves, and shall find them to be better than the creed and discipline which the Lord has given us in the New Testament. To which sacred promise we have each affixed our names.
