The home where Grant Yarnell was born in 1867. It is him standing in front of the house. Grant was married to Charlotte Hartman, my great great grandmother's sister; Melinda Hartman Lozer. Grant's brother, William was married to Aurilla Morris and ironically Aurilla was the sister of my great great grandmother Caroline Morris Sallabank. Caroline's daughter, Grace Larue Sallabank and Malinda's son, Leonard Lozer were married and had 2 children; my grandfather Douglas Lozer who is deceased and my great Aunt Donna Lozer Miller Nifong Carroll who used to work at the Wauseon Library until a few years ago. She is still living at age 91 as of February 2001.

Back to the Yarnell home photo. Grant Yarnell's sister Sarah married Henry C. Oldfield and were the parent's of Barney Oldfield. I do not know whether Sarah was also born in this house but from what I have read it sounds like Eli and Susan Yarnell had all 11 of their children on this farm in York Twnsp.

Written on the back of this photo it says, Mrs. Ilo (Yarnell) Lewis, daughter of Grant Yarnell stated that one of the boys leaning against the tree in the background was her father Grant Yarnell. This can not be so as Grant was born in 1867 and Barney in 1878. Grant was the younger brother of Barney's mother, Sarah (Yarnell) Oldfield. These 2 boys are obviously younger than Barney, the driver of the car above. I enlarged the 2 boys to get a better look. They may be part of the family or just a couple of curious onlookers??

Photo above

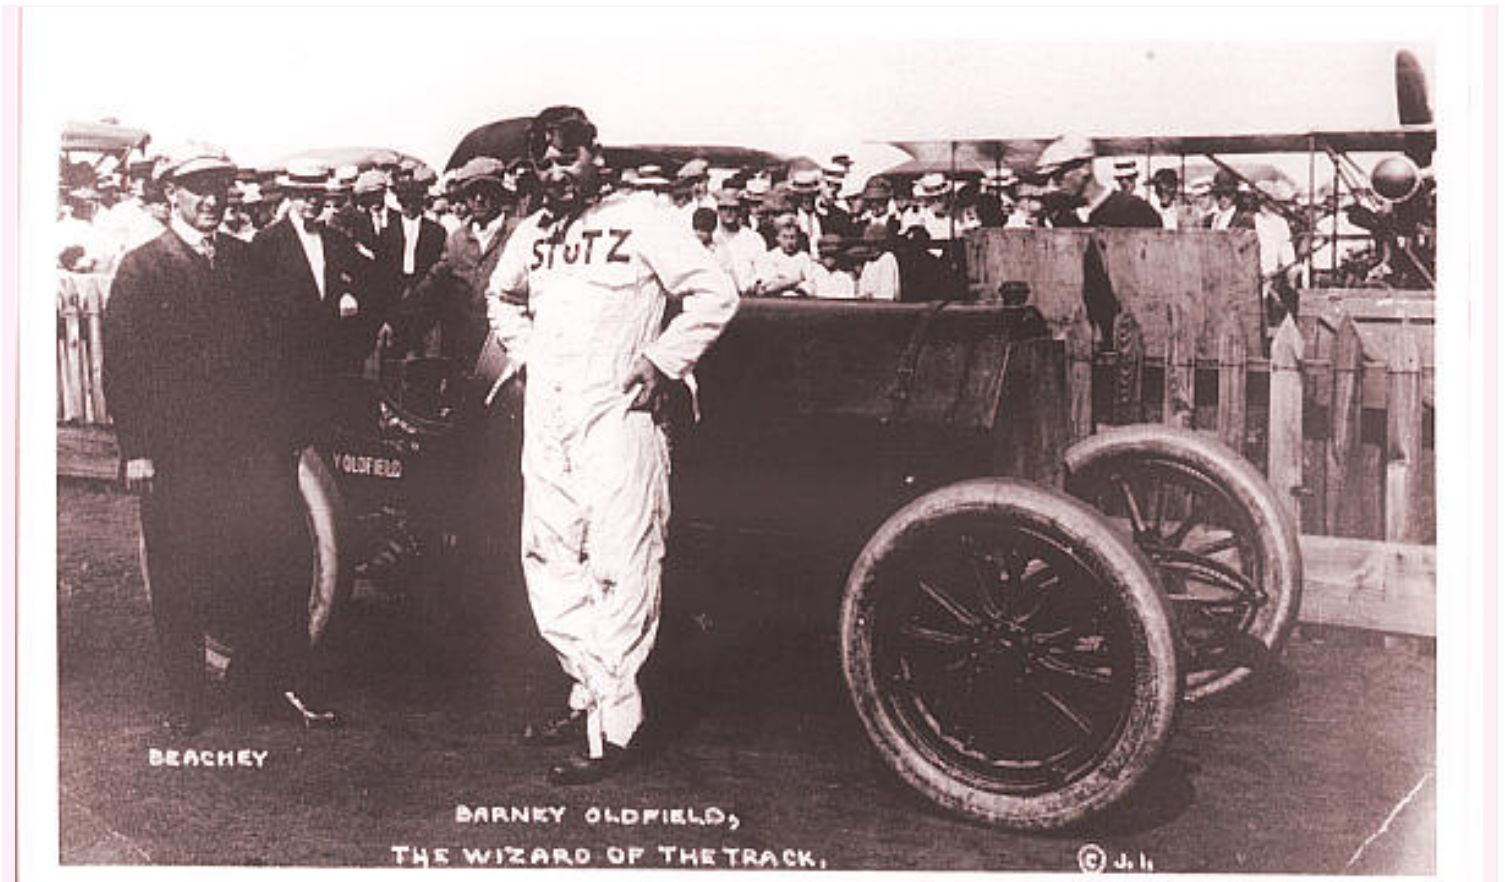

Barney was born in Wauseon, OH in 1878 and was named after Civil War buddy of his father, Berna Shoemaker. He moved to Toledo when he was 11 years old and got his fast start in racing. He was soon was called the "SPEED KING"

This picture was taken when he 18 years old.

This portrait was made when he was still interested in bicycle racing
