Bailes, Eli b.1850 York, South Carolina*CC Family-Bailes, Eli-Goodspeed Bio-Eli Bailes, farmer and treasurer of Cross County, is prominent among the comparatively young men of Cross County, whose career thus far has been both honorable and successful. Well- informed on the general topics of the day, he can not but impart to those with whom he comes in contact something of the truths with which his mind is stored. He was born in York County, S. C., in 1850, and was the youngest of a family of seven children born to Eli and Mary A. (Alexander) Bailes, natives, respectively, of South Carolina and North Carolina. The father was a tiller of the soil and died in his native State in 1886. The mother died in 1887. Eli Bailes was reared in South Carolina and his time was divided in early life between assisting on the home place and in getting a limited education in the common schools. During the war, his father and two brothers were in the Confederate army and one brother was killed. Eli Bailes came to Arkansas in 1867, located in St. Francis, bought a farm of 110 acres, erected buildings, cleared land and remained there until 1877, when he came to Cross County and located on the Bay Ridge farm. He remained there for four years and then moved to the McCrae farm, where from overflow and several bad speculations he met with temporary financial embarrassment. He remained on this farm until 1885, and then came to Deadrick, now known as Levesque, where he farmed about 450 acres. On this farm, he has a store, mostly intended for his own plantation supplies, but has a fair stock of goods and is doing a good business. On December 1, 1888, he was appointed postmaster at Levesque and on the first of the following year, at a special election, he was made treasurer of Cross County. He has always taken a deep interest in politics and is known as one of the hardest workers for the Democratic party. He has been married twice, first in March 1869, to Miss Dovie Lembler, a native of South Carolina, but who was reared in St. Francis Founty. She died in September, 1875, and left two children, a son and a daughter: Charles Edward and Dovie Ethel. His second marriage took place on January 19, 1877, to Miss Maggie Wood, who was born and reared in St. Francis County. The fruits of this union were four children, two of whom are living: Robert H. and Lucile Bailes. Those deceased were unnamed. Mr. Bailes is a good farmer and a respectable citizen.

Bamson, Robert B.-Goodspeed's Bio.- R. B. Bamson, one of the prominent citizens of Bedford Township, was born in Devonshire, England, in 1838, being a son of William and Sarah (Louis) Bamson, also natives of England, who became the parents of four children: William, Mary, John (who served twelve years in the English army, and was taken with dropsy and died at Canton, China, in 1864) and R. B. (our subject). Mr. and Mrs. Bamson both died in 1874, in their seventy-second year, having never been outside their native country. R. B. Bamson was apprenticed to a gunsmith at the age of fourteen, with whom he worked seven years, after which he followed his trade in England until twenty-seven years of age. Coming thence to America, and landing in New York September 1, 1860, he worked in a machine shop on Fifty-second Street for $5.50 per day, and the following year went to Savannah, Ga., where he was employed in a carriage shop at $6 per day, there remaining until May, 1862, when he joined the Confederate army, in the Fulton Dragoons, commanded by Capt. Waley. He served until May 6, 1865 (when he was paroled), most of the time acting as a sharpshooter and scout, and was one of the "boys" who captured Gen. Crittenden, and was the possessor fo that officer's pistols. After the war, Mr. Bamson returned to Georgia and settled in Decatur, where he was married in 1866 to Mrs. S. T. Puitte, nee Moore. After his marriage he opened a ship and was engaged in the repair and manufacture of guns. In 1870 Mr. Bamson came to Arkansas, and bought a farm in Cross County, where he resided for three years, then removing to Douglas County, Mo., buying a farm there. He sold out two years later and went to Baxter County, where he was engaged in farming and also opened up a shop. Four years afterward he settled at Rome, Ga., resuming farming, and also ran a grist-mill and saw-mill for three years. In 1879 Mr. Bamson returned to this county and purchased a farm, also opening a gunsmith shop, in which business he is still engaged. He owns a farm of eight acres, with thirty acres under cultivation. Mr. Bamson owns a one-third interest in a steam-gin, which turns out annually 375 bales of cotton. Himself and wife are the parents of four children, three of whom are still living: William B. and M. E. (twins) and Neoma. Mr. and Mrs. Bamson are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The former is also a member of the County Wheel, and is an enterprising citizen, lending his aid to all work for the public welfare, and extending a welcome to anyone seeking a home in this community. --*CC Archive Bamson, Robert B. b.Mar 1834 Devonshire, England d.1911 Wynne, Cross, Ark*CC Family-Bamson, Robert B. 41459087 b. 1834 d. 1911- Smith Chapel Cem.

Banks, George Heartsill b.15 Feb 1893 Raines, Shelby, Tenn.*CC Family-Banks, George Heartsill-Bio. Since 1921 G. Heartsill Banks has been superintendent of the Parkin schools. He was born in Raines. Tennessee, on the 15th of February, 1893, a son of Whitfield L. and Lucy (Heartsill) Banks. For several generations the Banks family has resided in America, progenitors of the family in this country having come from England in 1722, locating in Elbert county. Georgia. The father, W. L. Banks, has for many years engaged in farming and is now residing in retirement in Hickory Ridge, this state, at the age of fifty-two years. He has always been prominent in the public life of the communities in which he resided. He is a staunch advocate of education and is a member of the board of directory of the State Agricultural School. On the 31st of December, 1890, at Marshall, Texas, was celebrated the marriage of Mr. Banks to Miss Lucy Heartsill, whose demise occurred in 1919. at the age of forty-seven years. The maternal ancestors came from Holland in 1795, members of this family having been prominent in American history for some five generations. To the union of Mr. and Mrs. Banks four children were born, three boys and one girl, but one boy and the girl have died. George H., whose name initiates this review, was the eldest of the family. In the acquirement of his early education George H. Banks attended the country schools of Shelby county, Tennessee, and for one year attended the Parham School at Benton, this state. He took a preparatory course in the Fitzgerald & Clark School at Trenton, Tennessee, and was a student at the University of Arkansas from 1910 to 1911. In 1914 he was graduated from the University of Missouri, at Columbia, that state, with the B. S. degree. Subsequently Mr. Banks took postgraduate work in the University of Wisconsin. In 1914 he started his career as an educator, accepting a position as teacher at Bolton College, Brunswick, Tennessee, a position in which he was active one year. At the termination of that time he went to Villisca, Iowa, as principal of the schools at that point, and he remained there until 1917. He was engaged in extension work for the University of Arkansas during 1917 and 1918, and was in the service of the United States navy for eight months during the World war. From 1919 to 1920 he was engaged in farming in Cross county, Arkansas, and on the 1st of January, 1921, he came to Parkin as superintendent of schools, in which position he is now active. He is well fitted to carry out the duties devolving upon him in this capacity, and although being in charge but a short time he has brought the school to a high state of efficiency. The school is now overcrowded, having an enrollment of three hundred and eighty-seven pupils and facilities for caring for but two hundred and fifty. Students come to this school from a radius of ten miles, making the trip in a bus each day, the bus being operated for their convenience at a nominal charge. The high school is accredited and the students may matriculate in any university in the country. Mr. Banks is not only active in educational affairs, but is a director in the Arkansas Cooperative Marketing Association for Cotton. He is likewise commissioner of the Parkin Road Improvement District Association and on the executive committee of the Cross County Farm Bureau. On the 7th of July, 1917, occurred the marriage of Mr. Banks to Miss Gertrude Brodrick, daughter of E. G. Brodrick of Villisca, Iowa. To their union two boys have been born: David F., three years of age; and William Love, one year old. The religious faith of the family is that of the Methodist church, and Mr. Banks has been a teacher in the Sunday school for years. Fraternally he is identified with Parkin Lodge, No. 680, F. & A. M., of Parkin, and along strictly professional lines he holds membership in the Arkansas State Educational Association and the Cross County Educational Association. He is one of Parkin's most public-spirited and progressive citizens, and every man who knows him is his friend. He well merits the position he has attained as an educator and no man stands higher in this community for integrity and sterling worth. Additional Comments:Citation:

Apr. 3, 1922-Lewis Cem.-Tstone/U.S. Army WW I-Note per Brenda Huntley under Jim: Murder Case, 1922 Posted: 15 Feb 2008 9:06PM GMT Classification: Query Surnames:Hope there is a history buff who can help me. I am looking for stories about a murder that took place in Hickory Ridge in 1922. Killed was Obie and Jim Barnett, on trial were Byron McBurnett, W. L. Banks, L. E. Pollett, W. R. Malone and Emmett Phillips. The trial was moved to Paragould, and was begun December 7, 1922, several months after the murder. So the murder could have been around July? Evidently Jim Barnett was being sought by the deputy sherriff McBurnett, his brother Obie was with him, and the posse fired upon them. It would be interesting to read the stories put in the paper regarding this incident. I appreciate any and all help with this story. Thank you. Re: Murder Case, 1922 Posted: 16 Feb 2008 2:48AM GMT Classification: Query Surnames:The killing of Jim and Oby Barnett First and few of the details: The killing [shoot-out] occurred early Saturday evening April 1, 1922. Jim and Oby were brothers. Jim was 30 years old and Oby was 23 years old. Killing the boys was bad enough, but the way it was accomplished made it even harder for the people of the community to accept. Prior to the incident, Jim had been arrested, charged and convicted on illicit whisky-making and selling.

Leta was very close to her family and lived down the street from her brother Elmer and her sister Carrie was on the other side of Hamilton Ave just between Leta and Elmer. Mrs Leta was a part of my life for as long as I can remember. I loved walking down to their house from Aunt Jewell's and playing on the old organ that H.K. had in his little study. Mrs Leta died in her home after a long battle with cancer. Her family and faithful housekeeper Mayble McCarol were at her side. Mayble was a faithful friend to the end and also took care of Leta's brother and sister after Leta passed. Beard, Mary Catherine m.Waits, Mrs.- b.1840 d.1915-Cogbill Cem.-Tstone/Bio-Mary Catherine (Waits) Beard was the second wife of Abner Hamilton Beard, Sr. Catherine was the sister of Abner's good friend, Lee B. Waits. Catherine was 18 when she married Abner in 1860 and four years later a daughter was born to them named Ethel Abner. Catherine and Abner owned a large plantation, which included two cotton gins near Gill, Arkansas. During the Civil War, Abner fought for the Confederacy and offered his slaves to the cause to work in the arms factories for the South in Arkadelphia. He had two sons by his first wife who fought in the war (James Nelson & Levi Spinks Beard). Levi was killed at the battle of Sharpsburg, Maryland. Abner rose to the rank of Captain and fought at the battle of Helena. While he was away, northern soldiers raided the plantation. The story goes that Catherine confronted some soldiers trying to make off with hams hanging in the smokehouse. Catherine pulled a revolver from her skirt and told the soldiers "Don't take the hams." Needless to say, the hams were left.Courtesy of Ed Beard. Per Deloss McKnight III-Born:Florence, Ala. Died:Wynne, Ark.-Spouse:Abner Hamilton Beard 1814-1872 Child:Ethel Beard Robinson 1864-1932

Bedford, Thomas A.-Goodspeed's Bio.-b.Sep.1,1842 d.Aug.10,1928-Potts Camp Cemetery, Miss. Thomas A. Bedford, druggist, Wynne, Ark. A very reliable as well as popular drug store is that of Mr. Bedford, who engaged in the drug business in Wynne, in February, 1889, and who has every requisite and convenience in this line. He is a native of Middle Tennessee, where his birth occurred in 1842, and is the second of four children born to John H. Bedford and Lizzie (Allen) Bedford, natives of Tennessee, where the father was for many [p.336] years engaged in farming, manufacturing tobacco and merchandising. In 1849 he and family moved to West Tennessee, nine miles from Memphis, and there he engaged in the cultivation of cotton, continuing at this until his death, in 1851. After this his widow moved with the family to Columbia, Tenn., where she remained for three years for the purpose of educating her children. They were then sent to Lebanon to complete their education. The mother died in 1870. T. A. Bedford attended school until the end of 1860, when he came to Arkansas and purchased a farm in what is now Cross County, about five miles west of Wynne, bought about thirty negroes and embarked in the cotton raising business. After making one crop he went to Tennessee to visit his mother, and while there enlisted in the Confederate army, Company K, Fourth Tennessee Cavalry, commanded by Col. Paul Anderson, and was assigned to duty in Gen. Bragg's army. He was in the battles of Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, Perryville, Dalton and Resaca, and was captured in May, 1864, while bearing a dispatch from Gen. Hood, would not take the oath and was sent as a prisoner to Alton, Ill. There he remained until peace was declared. In 1866 he returned to Arkansas to look after the property he had left there, and found his slaves, mules and horses gone and the plantation overgrown with underbrush. He settled here, however, and returned to agricultural pursuits. In January, 1868, he married Miss Mary Rebecca Cogbill, a native of Tennessee and a daughter of George Cogbill, who came to Arkansas, in 1860, settled in Cross County, and followed farming until his death, in 1867. Mr. Bedford also tilled the soil until the death of his wife, in 1882, and in the following year he went to Wittsburg, and was in the drug business at that place for some time. He was then in the warehouse and shipping business, which occupation he still continues. To his marriage were born three children: Thomas A. J. (is at present postal clerk on the Memphis & Bald Knob Railroad), Mattie R. (is a graduate of Shelbyville, Tenn., in the class of 1889), and Mamie (is attending school at Nashville, with the same teacher under whom the elder sister graduated). In 1886 Mr. Bedford was appointed postmaster of Wittsburg, and opened the office in his drug store. He remained at Wittsburg until 1888, when he resigned the postoffice (having sold the drug store in 1887) and went to Wynne, where he purchased the drug stock of Bunch & Hamilton. He now has as fine a drug store as can be found in Eastern Arkansas, and carries a complete line of pure drugs and chemicals, toilet articles, paints and oils and the usual druggists' sundries. For compounding and putting up prescriptions he has the assistance of S. A. Miller, a graduate of the Pennsylvania School of Pharmacy, at Philadelphia and York (Penn.) School of Sciences. This assistant has a complete chemical outfit and is thus prepared to analyze water, mineral ores and chemical compounds. Mr. Bedford owns a farm one and a half miles east of Wynne. Berry, Alonzo A., Dr.-Goodspeed's Bio.- Alonzo A. Berry, M. D., numbered among the rising young medical practitioners in this portion of Arkansas, is a worthy son of Bartlett A. Berry and Elmira (Hennasu) Berry, natives of North Carolina. The former, now in his fifty-seventh year, has held a public office since twenty- one years of age. He was first sheriff of his county (Burke), which position he held during the war, and was again elected in 1887, discharging his duties of trust at the present time. He was a representative to the State legislature two terms in the Lower House, and also represented his district in the State senate from 1880 to 1884. Mr. and Mrs. Berry are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the parents of ten children: Lenore, Letitia (wife of Dr. Flow, of North Carolina), Alonzo A. (our subject), Clara E. (wife of Dave Berry, of North Carolina), Robert B., Lillie P., Bartlett A., Jethroe W., Forrest C. and Marvin G. A. A. Berry was born in North Carolina in July 1865, and was educated in the common schools of his county, attending Rutherford College, and Finley High School, at Lenoir, N. C., from which he graduated at the age of eighteen years. Following his literary course, he entered the Louisville Medical College, and the Kentucky School of Medicine, at Louisville, Ky., graduating in 1887. He then returned to North Carolina, where he commenced practicing, but remained only a short time, coming the same year to Arkansas, and locating in Bay Village, Cross County, where he now enjoys a large and lucrative practice. He is rapidly becoming one of the leading physicians of the community. --*CC Archive-1900 Census: Flora M Berry-Wife-F-29-Arkansas Bessie Berry-Daughter-F-9-Arkansas Marea G Berry-Daughter-F-7-Arkansas Ione Berry-Daughter-F-4-Arkansas Elizabeth E Stout-Mother-F-64-Georgia-Child b.1890 d.1891 Millard Fillmore

[See sketch of Maurice Block.] I. Block attended school at Harrisburg, in Poinsett County, until the outbreak of the war, and during those troublesome times he assisted his father in many expeditions, smuggling cotton into Memphis, and goods and provisions to the people back home on his return. During those trips they met with adventures, and endured much hardship, but with cotton at $500 per bale, and all goods that could be brought home yielding an enormous profit, they continued this business until the end of the war. In 1866 I. Block attended school for one year at Wittsburg, and during the next three years he assisted his father on the farm. During 1808 he spent another year in school at Covington, Tenn., and then his father gave him a farm, after which for five years he was engaged in cultivating the soil, "baching it" on the farm. He was quite successful, raising a great deal of cotton, corn and live-stock. In 1875 he went to Wittsburg, and engaged as clerk with his brother, L. N. Block & Co., continuing with this firm for about eight months. At that time his father dying, he entered the firm of D. Block & Co., representing his mother's interest in that business, and continued with the same for about three years, or until 1879, when the firm dissolved partnership. After this he became a member of the firm of L. N. Block & Co., and the title was changed to Block Bros. & Co. This firm immediately began to do a large trade, the first year handling $85,000 worth of cotton, dealing extensively in live-stock and machinery. This firm continued in business until the decline of Wittsburg as a trading point, when they dissolved. For about two years they ran a branch store at Wynne, under the title of Block & Co., and these two stores were connected by a Bell telephone, the only one ever used in Cross County. These stores were closed out together. In 1882 Mr. Block bought 160 acres on the Helena branch of the Iron Mountain Railroad, at Wynne, and continued to add to this tract of land until now he is the owner of 766 acres. In 1884 he built a sawmill and ginnery at Wynne, and the sawmill soon became valuable property, as the railroad creates a large market for lumber, and during this time Mr. Block acquired the reputation of being the shrewdest sawmill man in Cross County. They sold this mill in 1888. After clearing out the commercial interests at both Wittsburg and Wynne, Mr. Block applied himself diligently to clearing his large farm adjoining the town of Wynne. In four years time he had cleared up, and reduced to a state of perfect cultivation, 400 acres, and made improvements on the same, which have at once placed this plantation among the highest improved places in the State. This fine piece of land adjoins the town of Wynne, and extends two miles along the railroad, being enclosed for over two miles by solid plank fence. Along the front every twenty acres has a neatly constructed tenant house each 40 acres has a double four-roomed cottage, and each house is surrounded by a plank fence. This row of cottages, extended for two miles along the road, each one painted white with red trimmings, present the appearance of a street in a town. There is no plantation in Eastern Arkansas that is better improved, or shows better taste, or business judgment in improving or erecting buildings than this. In addition to this place, Mr. Block owns 1,000 acres in all parts of Cross County, and on those tracts there are about 150 acres under cultivation. Mr. Block now spends most of his time in looking after his extensive farms, and occupies as a residence an attractive home in the city of Wynne. This residence was constructed in 1884 and 1885, and is furnished with taste and care. He was married March 5, 1878 in Cross Co., Ark., to Mrs. Fannie Puryear, age 20, a widow and daughter of J. M. Levesque [see sketch], and his wife, with her many social graces, is a true help-mate to her husband, and his home-life is a pattern of domestic peace. Mr. Block has also built in Wynne a large two-story brick house, with a hall for exhibitions, and the store rooms are elegantly fitted up, and are very attractive. He has also built a number of the houses in the town and several small stores. he is a member of the Masonic fraternity and the Odd Fellows Lodge. --*CC Archive

Block, Jefferson Davis- b.Sep.23,1861 d.Jul.2,1929-Linwood Cem.-Goodspeed's Bio.- J. D. Block. To the thoughtful mind a contrast between the work of the bar of the present day, and a lawyer's life journey fifty years ago in Arkansas, is something worthy of more than passing interest. The great task necessarily performed by those faithful practitioners of years gone by, did not combine to form a smooth path of gentle declivity leading to a beautiful temple of justice, elaborately arranged with all the comforts and belongings of the present. Neither is success in the legal profession now, won by lack of energy or persevering effort, in the line of this gifted calling. Mr. Block, one of the younger attorneys of Cross County, and its present prosecutor, has attained to a front rank as a member of the bar of the Second judicial district. Born in Poinsett County, Ark., he is the son of Maurice and Anna W. Block, representative people of this county, to whom mention is made elsewhere in this volume. A thorough Arkansas by bringing up, as well as by birth, he secured a good common school education, which only served to fit him more thoroughly for the study of law, whose practice he had decided to make his life vocation. After a careful course he was admitted to the bar and at once entered upon what was destined to be a remarkable experience, for one so young in years. From his majority the field of politics seemed to offer unusual attractions for him, and at an early age he was found active in local political movements throughout the Cross County. In 1886 he was elected to the State legislature, and had the distinction of being the youngest member in that important body. His term of service was marked by such decided ability and fitness for the position, that he was subsequently honored by being made prosecuting attorney of his district, receiving the largest vote given any man on the ticket. Mr. Block has also help the office of county school examiner. His public life has already been one to which he may refer with credit. Brave, candid, truthful, with decided opinion, his moral and political convictions have been strong and unwavering. His manners stamp him a gentleman, and his career thus far promises to render him one of the most distinguished of Arkansas' lawyers. Mr. Block if for no other reason would be prominently recognized on account of his connection with that well-known family of Cross County, whose name he bears. Block, Joseph-Goodspeed's Bio.- Joseph Block , freight agent for the Missouri Pacific railroad, is a son of Maurice and Anna Block, his birth occurring in Poinsett County, Ark., in 1853. He is unfortunately a deaf mute, but has a bright mind, and is perfectly capable of filling the position of responsibility conferred upon him by the railroad company. He entered the Little Rock Deaf and Dumb Asylum at the age of fourteen years, and continued in this institution until eighteen years of age, when he began to learn the saddler's trade, serving and apprenticeship of three years in Memphis. He then worked at his trade a short time as journeyman, and received very good wages. After this he engaged in business for himself at Wittsburg as a saddler, but soon began and conducted a saloon under the firm title of Joseph Block & Co. for two years at the above mentioned place. In 1884 he secured a situation as express agent for the Southern Express Company, and held this position for one year to the universal satisfaction of the company and all its patrons. Later he became assistant freight agent, and in 1888 he was promoted to general freight agent for the station of Wynne. This railroad company employs over 8,000 men, and Mr. Block is the only mute in their employ. He is exceptionally brilliant, and, but for his infirmity, would long ere this have been included among the prominent businessmen of this section. He is moral, reliable and temperate in all his habits. --*CC Archive

father, who was a merchant, and in attending school. At the above mentioned age his father wished him to learn the baker's trade, but this not proving satisfactory to Maurice, the latter left home and went to Paris, where he worked in a clock factory, doing the fine ornamental brass work and putting on the finishing touches. He worked at this until twenty-two years of age. The year previous, he wedded Miss Bettie Bloon, a native of Paris. In 1842 he came to the United States, landing at New Orleans, where he started out by selling goods through the country, and remained in that city for four or five years. While there Mrs. Block was stricken with the yellow fever and died, leaving two sons: Losso Block (who died in St. Louis in 1849) and Nathan (who is a merchant in Memphis). Soon after the loss of his wife, Mr. Block took his children and removed to Memphis, Tenn., where he continued his business of selling goods through the country for nearly a year. On May 17, 1849, he married Miss Anna Woubilman, also a native of Germany, and in July of the same year, they moved to St. Louis, where they resided for two years. In 1851 they moved to Arkansas, settled in Bolivar, the old county seat of Poinsett County, and here made their home for little more than a year. After this they removed to the Cold Water Spring, and here Mr. Block began clerking for David Block (a man of the same name but no relation), and remained in that capacity for two years, when he became a partner in the business, doing the largest cross roads trade on Crowley's Ridge. In 1859 they shipped 700 bales of cotton and over 10,000 coonskins. During the year 1858 this firm had the contract to furnish the city of Memphis with beef, and during that year they shipped over 2,600 head. This firm was dissolved in 1859 by Mr. David Block retiring, and the subject of this sketch moved to Farm Hill in 1860, and there started a store. He soon built up a large trade by his honest upright dealings, and bought a farm which promised to give good returns, but the war breaking out he was compelled to close the store in August, 1861. In the fall of that year the Confederate soldiers burned 139 bales of cotton for him and a large quantity still in the seed, amounting in all to nearly 300 bales. Mrs. Block, with the assistance of two negro women, succeeded in saving a quantity of cotton by throwing the straw out of the bed ticks and filling them with cotton. Five months later this was taken from the ticks and made into two bales which Mr. Block, with the assistance of his son Isaac, took to Island No. 87, where they sold it for $1.20 per pound. During the years of the war, Mr. Block bought cotton and cattle, which he succeeded in smuggling into Memphis, and which resulted in immense profits, as he often sold calico at $1 per yard, coffee at $1 per pound and salt at $100 per barrel. These goods and others he would buy in exchange for cattle and cotton. In 1865 Mr. Block formed a partnership with his old partner, David Block, J. J. Hamilton and A. A. Luckey, and started a large store in Wittsburg, at the head of navigation of the St. Francis River. Mr. Luckey retired after six months. This firm, known as D. Block & Co., soon became one of the largest commercial firms this section has ever known, doing over $100,000 annually, and during the last year, 1875, their sales were over $175,000. Mr. Hamilton withdrew in 1874, and the subject of this sketch died on October 14, 1875. His widow continued his interest in the business until 1878, when David Block died, and the firm was dissolved, the business being sold out to J. Hall & Co. To the union of Maurice Block and his estimable wife were born ten children, seven sons and three daughters: Adam (died in infancy), Isaac (in a retired merchant and farmer residing in Wynne), William M. (is a real-estate agent at Vanndale), Joseph (a mute, has the position of manager at the freight department of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, at Wynne), Samuel (died in 1870 at the age of 13 years), Julia (is the wife of Ben Block, a merchant at Memphis), Jefferson Davis (a lawyer, present prosecuting attorney from the Second judicial district of Eastern Arkansas), Callie (wife of B. T. King, real-estate agent of Springfield), Robert E. Lee (county school examiner of Cross County) and Fannie, who died at the age of ten years in 1880. Maurice Block was long a leading merchant in this section, and was an active energetic citizen. He was the father of a family of children, all of whom are noted for their success in life, and most of whom have been the author of their own fortunes. His widow, hale and hearty, is still living and enjoying the ample means of her husband's estate, makes her home alternately with one or other of her children. --*CC Archive

Block, Raphael-Goodspeed's Bio.-Cogbill Cem.- Raphael Block is a leading merchant of Vanndale, was born in the town of Tremblade, Alsace, France, in May, 1852, and was the fourth in a family of five children, born to Herman and Rebecca Block, the father a successful businessman of the old country. Raphael remained at home attending schools, until thirteen years of age, and in 1871 determined to seek his fortune in America, and came to Wittsburg, Cross County, Ark., and engaged as a clerk for D. Block & Co., but about two years later, became an employee of G. M. Arnold & Co., general merchants of the same place. In 1874 he engaged in general merchandising at Wittsburg, being associated with B. Block, and they immediately began doing an extensive trade, the largest in all probability that has ever been done by any one firm in Cross County. This partnership was dissolved in 1886, and our subject became sole proprietor, and in 1887 he bought the interest of J. W. Killough, of that well-known mercantile firm of Killough & Erwin of Vanndale, and since January 1, 1889, has been sole proprietor of this establishment also. He has a large and well-selected stock of general merchandise, amounting to about $10,000, and he commands a large and consistently improving trade. He is quite extensively engaged in buying and shipping cotton, and is an enterprising and wonderfully successful young businessman, and is courteous, pleasant and cheerful, a leading spirit in the commercial affairs of the county. He is quite an active politician, and is always found at the polls on election day. Socially he belongs to Arcadia Lodge No. 183, of the A. F. & A. M., at Vanndale, and he also

Block, Robert Lee-Goodspeed's Bio-Robert Lee Block, county school examiner, of Cross County, Ark., was born in 1866, about sixteen miles northeast of Vanndale, being the youngest child born to Maurice and Anna Block [see sketch]. At the age of six years he was taken by his parents to Wittsburg, where he received the benefits of the schools of that place for eight years. The three following years he spent in the Christian Brothers' Institute in Memphis, and, being of a studious turn of mind and very industrious, he succeeded in acquiring an excellent education, and graduated from that institution as an A. B. in June, 1884. His first start in life for himself was in the capacity of clerk in a drug store, at Jonesboro, where he continued to remain until September 28, 1884, after which he went to Springfield, Mo., to accept a position as cashier and book-keeper for Priest & King, remaining with them until August, 1885. His next position was as bill clerk with the Springfield Grocery Company, and after continuing in their employ until May, 1886, he went to Memphis and became store clerk for Robson, Block & Co., remaining with them until October 12, 1886, when failing health compelled him to seek change of employment. From that time until January 16, 1887, he was an employee of Buck & Trexler, at Crawfordsville, Ark., and then worked for C. O. Richards & Co., as commissary clerk on the Memphis branch of the Iron Mountain Railroad. On June 10, 1887, the work on the west end of the road was finished, and the day following he became book-keeper and clerk for William M. Block, real-estate agent at Vanndale, and with him still remains. January 12, 1889, he was appointed county school examiner, and since filling this position has striven to raise the grade of teachers and the standard of schools by recommending only those who hold the higher grade certificates, and the excellent education which he has eminently fits him for this responsible place. Being enterprising and ambitious to rise in the world, he, in partnership with E. L. Applewhite, on September 9, 1889, started a stock farm on a tract of 700 acres of land, they being joint owners of the same, which they stocked with 180 head of cattle, one-half Norman horse, seven brood mares, four horses, two Kentucky jacks and eight mules. They have recently put up twenty-five tons of hay, for winter use, besides 1,000 bushels of corn, and, as can readily be seen, are admirably equipped to keep their stock in good condition throughout the winter. They have seventy acres planted in rye, timothy and clover for spring pasture. Mr. Block belongs to an old and influential family of the county, and has five brothers, all prosperous and intelligent men, and, like himself, are progressive and enterprising in their views. --*CC Archive

Block, Sol-Goodspeed's Bio.-Could be Solomon Block, b.Apr.5,1826 d.Oct.22,1886 Jewish Rest Cem., Camden, Ark.- Solomon "Sol" Block, senior member of the firm of Block & Ralph, merchants and planters, at Bay Ridge, Ark., is a native of Baden, Germany, where his birth occurred in 1827. He was educated in the common schools and under a private tutor, until about twenty-one years of age, when he came to the United Stated (1849). Here he engaged in business for himself in the State of Illinois, remained there until about 1860, when he moved to St. Louis and there engaged in the insurance business (life, fire and accident). After residing in that city for about ten years he removed to Memphis, where he followed the same business for about the same length of time. In 1878 he came to Forrest City, Ark., was engaged as bookkeeper for two years, and then, after making a trip to Europe, returned to Chicago, where he made his home for several years and was engaged in the insurance business. Later he returned to St. Louis, where he embarked in the cigar and tobacco business, continuing until 1886, when he came to Cross County, Ark., and in company with J. Ralph, erected a fine store- house on the farm, which had recently been purchased by Mr. Raphaelski, and which Block & Ralph manage. This farm embraces a tract of 1,400 acres of land and at one time was valuable property, but had been allowed to run down and needed everything in the way of improvement. They at once began to make extensive improvements, soon had 500 acres under cultivation, some of which they cleared from the timber. They rebuilt the dwelling, erected a large brick stable and a first-class cotton-gin, saw and grist mill. This gin and mill is the best in the county, costing about $8,000. They have an engine of sixty-five horse power and can gin twenty-five bales of cotton, and saw 20,000 feet of lumber per day. The lumber is shipped to St. Louis. In the store, they keep a full line of general merchandise, but and ship cotton and all country produce. They carry a stock of goods valued at $6,000 and have a rapidly increasing trade. Mr. Block was married, in 1863, to Miss Amelia Raphaelski, of English and German parentage. She was born in Liverpool, England, and came to the United States with her parents in childhood. Mr. Jacob Ralph, Mr. Block's partner, was born in Memphis, is still a young man, and was in business in Chicago for a short time. he was married, in 1886, to Miss May Bronson, and the fruits of this union have been one child, a daughter named Mabel. This large farm is one of the prettiest as well as the most valuable to be found in this part of the country, and by it may be seen what can be accomplished when the right steps are taken and a proper amount of energy is brought to bear. --*CC Archive

He was educated in the common schools of this county, and in 1871-72 attended the Tipton County high school, at Covington, Tenn., subsequently taking a course in 1872-73 at the University of Mississippi at Oxford. Upon his return home in September, 1873, Mr. Block was appointed deputy county clerk, under Thomas O. Mr. Block engaged in his present business as real-estate agent and abstractor of titles, in June, 1876, and has made and owns the only set of abstract books in Cross County. On May 19, 1880, he was appointed clerk of Cross County, to fill an unexpired term, and also has held office as justice of the peace for six years, having been a notary public the same length of time. Mr. Boeckmann was lastly stationed in Australia, serving in the military police, and was discharged with the rank of corporal. Placed in the casket with Mr. Boeckmann are stones from the shores of New Guinea and Australia, presented to the family for this purpose by the United States ambassadors of New Guinea and Australia. These stones commemorate Otto's connection with his friends and comrades who perished in battle. The ambassador for New Guinea also presented a lapel pin for his burial as special thanks for his service in that nation. Otto Boeckmann was a rice and soybean farmer until his retirement. In the 1960s Otto and his brother, Henry Boeckmann Jr., operated a duck hunting club on their farmlands. The members consisted of politicians and businessmen from Memphis. On one occasion a guest named Elvis Presley hunted with Otto, who neither knew of nor recognized him. The next day Elvis sent word how much he enjoyed his day hunting and that no one made any fuss or treated him in any special manner. Otto Boeckmann was a loving son, husband and father, and a loyal brother and friend. Throughout his life Otto never used profanity or swear words. He was always kind and gentle with his family. native of Ohio, and the mother the first female child born in Dunkirk, N. Y. John B. Bruner was reared and attended school in Springfield, Ohio, Jamestown, N. Y. and Meadville, Penn., in all of which places his father was engaged in merchant tailoring. He acquired a good education, and at the age of sixteen years began clerking in a drug store in Dunkirk, and later served in the same capacity in Jamestown, N. Y. and Franklin, Penn. In 1860 he went to the "Hoosier State," and embarked in the lumber business, but after a year or two returned to Jamestown and resumed clerking; after a short time he became dissatisfied with his location and went to Michigan, and served in the same capacity for a grocery firm. In 1871 he went to Memphis, and became a traveling salesman for a liquor house, but discontinued this about four years later and engaged in business for himself. After remaining there about two years he began traveling for a St. Louis firm, remaining with them seven years, purchasing in the meantime, in 1881, a farm of 200 acres, one mile north of Vandale; 160 acres are under cultivation, and is excellently adapted to raising cotton, corn, grass, etc. He has some thoroughbred Durham cattle, a high grade of Jerseys, and his hogs are a cross between the Berkshire and Poland China. On this farm, in 1887, he erected a fine residence, it being a two story frame, 60x42 feet, containing nine rooms, ornamented by a number of handsome double porches, and presenting a handsome view from the road. He made other improvements in the way of buildings, and has a fine new barn and other substantial outbuildings. His farm is nearly all under fence and he has recently set out over a mile of hedge. He is a thoroughgoing and thrifty farmer, who sees the advantage of raising the best of everything for his family's use, including fruit and berries. With his introduction of blooded stock, new seed grains, different and improved methods of farming, the community will at least have an opportunity of seeing what taste and enterprise, combined with skill and industry, can accomplish. In manner he is agreeable and courteous, and his wife, whose maiden name was Bettie Mansford, and whom he married on February 1, 1875, is an educated and accomplished lady. She was born in Madison County, Tenn., and her father has for a long time been a well-known farmer of Gibson County, and is still residing there. --*CC Archive

Bryant, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of Nolton, and a man thoroughly respected by his fellow citizens, is originally from South Carolina, as were also his parents, Joab and Mary (Stewart) Bryant, of Scotch and English descent. Joab Bryant was a leading farmer of his county, and though not educated was a well- informed and a good business man. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant were married in 1831, and were the parents of twelve children, nine of whom are living: Louisa (now Mrs. Reid), F. A. (a Methodist minister of Texas), J. R. (also of Texas), Minerva (now Mrs. Hemphis), Elizabeth (who married F. L. Dullard), W. J., J. W., T. D. (our subject), M. L., B. W. (a manufacturer of Mississippi), G. W. (a resident of South America) and Joseph (a resident of this county). The grandfather (on the father's side), James Bryant, was a soldier in the War of 1812. Joab Bryant and wife were connected with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The senior Bryant died in 1874, and his wife in 1889. He was a Mason. T. D. Bryant was reared to farm life. In his boyhood days the advantages for schooling were very limited, but by close application to study he has educated himself, mostly at home. At the age of fourteen Mr. Bryant enlisted in the Confederate service, joining the First Regiment of Heavy Artillery of South Carolina, which was stationed at Fort Sumpter, and in 1862 joined the regular army; was in a number of hard-fought battles, and witnessed the bombardment of Fort Sumpter on April 7, 1863, and was present at its capitulation. He was captured at Smithfield, but escaping, was recaptured the same night. Mr. Bryant served as orderly and was promoted to sergeant. While in the army he was wounded four times, once in the head by a piece of shell, again on James Island, by a bayonet thrust into his left side, which entered between the fifth and sixth rib; then again in the knee joint and also in the arm by a bayonet. After the war he returned home and the following year moved to Kentucky, where he engaged in farming in the eastern part of the State and also taught school. In 1867 he removed to Dwyer County, Tenn., where he farmed, following this for two years, then taught for two years in McNairy County, Tenn. He returned to South Carolina and busied himself with farming and teaching for twelve years. In 1882 he removed to Arkansas, settling on his present property, which comprises 120 acres of land, with thirty-five under cultivation. Mr. Bryant was born in 1846. He has been twice married, first in 1866 to Miss N. J. Fitzgerald, of South Carolina, who died in 1871, and who was the mother of three children: George (a resident of this county), Edgar (a resident of South Carolina) and Elector (a teacher in South Carolina). Mr. Bryant was married the second time to Miss D. E. Fitzgerald, in 1872. They have been given seven children, all living: Lillie, Joseph, Milas, Lelie, Lulu, Thomas and Talmage. Mr. Bryant began preaching in 1885, three months before joining the presbytery, and he is the founder of the Creek Cumberland Presbyterian Church, as well as the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Woodruff County. Mr. Bryant preaches in Cross, Woodruff, Poinsett and Jackson Counties, and is very active in all religious and educational enterprises. He is a Royal Arch Mason. --*CC Archive

Burnett, Patsy m.Goodwin "Patti", Mrs. b.Mar.29,1929 d.Oct.11,2010-Cogbill Cem.-Obit-Arkansas, West Memphis - Patsy "Patti" Goodwin Burnett, age 81, of Maumelle, AR, formerly of West Memphis, AR, left this world to begin a new journey on October 11, 2010. She was born on March 29, 1929 of Guy and Edna Maxey Goodwin in Marshall, TX. Patsy graduated from Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri in 1948 and the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville in 1950. In November of 1951 Patti married her husband of 55 years, John Donald Burnett of Wynne, AR, and began her life in West Memphis. She leaves two daughters, Dr. Pattie Susan Burnett of Little Rock and Donna Freyaldenhoven and her husband, Chris, of Meridian, MS; four grandchildren, Hallie Freyaldenhoven, Andrew Freyaldenhoven, Margaret Freyaldenhoven, all of Meridian, and Jonathan Burnett Harrell of Little Rock. She was so proud of all their accomplishments. She was preceded in death by her husband and one brother, Guy Bayless Goodwin, Jr. For several years Patti worked with the City of West Memphis on a beautification program. Patti had a true passion for travel and history and obtained a Masters in History from University of Memphis later in life. She traveled extensively taking adults and youth on yearly study tours throughout Europe and the world. Just give her a second and she was off to somewhere new. In the 1980's Patti was a Docent for Ramesses the Great and other historical exhibits in Memphis. Patti was a member of the First United Methodist Church in West Memphis, and avid needle crafter, and used her talents to help needlepoint the kneeling cushions for the communion railing at the church. Recently several "Sewing Club" girls even helped celebrate her 80th birthday in Little Rock. Many thanks from the family go to all the compassionate caregivers at the Baptist Medical System and to the staff at Stonehaven Assisted Living Facility in Maumelle. Your care and concern for Patsy was so appreciated. A graveside service will be held at 11a.m. Friday, October 15, at Cogbill Cem.- in Wynne, Ark.. Roller-Chenal Funeral Home Little Rock, AR (Published in The Commercial Appeal on October 14, 2010). Per Carole McCaig
